You're In A Better Place

*I know you're in a Better Place
Grandpa and this I know
No more pain, no more
Sleepless nights
And no more Sorrow.*

*Time has passed, things have changed
You've watched me grow from
A little girl to the woman I am today.*

*I know if you were here
You would say "Girl straighten
Up your Face"
It's going to be so hard
But I know you're in a better place.*

*Regardless of our differences we've ever had, I still respected you as a man. My Grandfather
A father figure, The dad I never had
In my life.
All my precious memories
I will cherish and hold so tight.*

*So now grandpa I will
Dry my eyes and straighten
My face.
In God's name I pray
That you are in A Better Place.*

OBITUARY

Mark Anthony (Tony) Cabigas was born in Seattle, Washington on May 6, 1931. He attended Fife High School in Puyallup Washington. He later joined the Marines and was a veteran of the Korean War.

After the war he was employed as a seamen where he was able to practice his favorite pastime "cooking". He was the ship's cook for many years. Tony also worked at Todd's Shipyard in Seattle.

Tony was kind-hearted and a very gentle man who would give you the shirt off his back. He had a smile that would light up a room. He was a loving father and grandfather.

He leaves to mourn 6 children, 7 stepchildren, a host of grandchildren, relatives, friends, a special niece and running buddy Lena Clark and ex-wife and friend Kanashibushan.

Mark Anthony Cabigas was preceded in death by his parent's and only sibling Sam Brown.

He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.
