OBITUARY OF ARTHUR JAMES CRAVENS

Arthur James Cravens was born on the 16th day of February, 1911, to the parents of Jesse Cravens and Annis Heath Cravens. Arthur had one sister — Roberta Cravens Coleman and one brother — Ernest Heath (now deceased). There are also two living brothers — Ulysses and Ray Heath.

At the age of one year his family moved from Sherman County, Texas to Roslyn, Washington, where he grew up. As a young man he moved to Seattle and there met and married Violet A. Cravens.

From this union, a son was born — James Arthur Cravens (now deceased).

Arthur James Cravens was honorably discharged from the United States Army during World War II. When he returned to civilian life, he became the owner/operator of the "Club New Orleans" one of Seattle's most elite clubs during the early nineteen fifties'. Among others, he and his wife were the proprietors of the famous "Raven' Barbeque" in the central area. Illness forced him into retirement.

Arthur James Cravens leaves to mourn his faithful wife, Violet A. Cravens, two brothers, Ulysses and Ray Heath and their families, one grandson, Carl Jenkins of Seattle, one aunt, Estelle Bryant of Wichita Falls, Texas, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends of whom he loved with deep affection.

We shall all miss him very much.
