KIDS MEET THE STARS AT CAMP CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Christmas holidays were an exciting time for youngsters and adults at the Central Area Motivation Center when they not only received Christmas gifts, but also met a potential baseball star from Seattle, the Mariners Minor League player, Kevin King, who visited the Center before Christmas. King, 18, graduated from Sealth High School in 1979 and played in the minor leagues at Bellingham last season. During the upcoming year, King, who is considered a "bright, young Mariner potential with a very powerful bat" will move into the class A level.

MARINERS DISTRIBUTE CHRISTMAS GOODIE BAGS

A Jackson Park resident, Karla Blake, astonished with her Christmas gift from the Mariners, turned baseball fan in a short time during a special Christmas party with Mariner Mike Parrott at Jackson Park (12/14/79). The Mariners have spent the past few weeks visiting local social and service agencies, hospitals, nursing homes and residential communities distributing Christmas "Goodie Bags" in the continuation of a three-year tradition.

Recycling Can Be Fun

Millie Wright has found a hobby that is original and fascinating: she makes rugs, hats and purses out of trash bags and bread wrappers. Mrs. Wright underwent heart surgery in 1977 and has completely recovered. Told by her physician to get busy during her convalescence, Millie returned to her hobby, making rugs and hats from discards. Shown is some of her work and it is all for sale. For more information, call 322-3122.

THREE DELEGATES FROM CENTRAL SEATTLE KIWANIS CLUB TO REPRESENT PACIFIC NORTHWEST IN WASHINGTON D.C.

Russell Gideon

O. L. Anderson

David Shaw

Ozzie Lee Anderson of O. L. Anderson Realty, David Shaw of David Shaw Management and Russell Gideon of Elizabeth James House are three of 2,100 delegates to the White House Conference on Small Business which will be held in Washington, Jan. 13 - 17, 1980. The delegates will be responsible to produce an agenda for federal policies for the decade of the 1980's. The delegates will spend four days deliberating issues in several areas including: Capital Formation and Retention, Government Regulations and Paperwork, Women in Business, Minority Business Development, International Trade, Inflation, Economic Plicy and Government Programs, Federal Procurement, Veterans in Business, Energy and Technology, Entreprenurial Education and Management Assistance.

In addition to the plenary and work sessions, delegates will hear from a number of distinguished speakers addressing the subject of the climate for small business in America. President Carter is scheduled to deliver the opening address, Sunday evening, Jan. 13. Subsequent speakers will include William Miller, Secretary of Treasury, Alfred Kahn, Assistant to the President on Inflation, and Luther Hodges, Jr., Acting Secretary of Commerce.

The final day of the conference, delegates will vote on resolutions proposed by various theme areas. Their final recommendations will include proposals that may be enacted in three separate ways: Executive Orders issued by the President, legislation passed by Congress, and initiatives taken by the private sector.

Of the 2,100 delegates eligible to attend the 1980 conference, a clear majority were democratically elected at 57 field meetings held in all parts of the country to gather information and ideas from a broad cross-section of the U.S. small business community. More than 25,000 people took part in those meetings. The local sessions were designed to provide maximum participation by small business people at the grass roots level in order to guarantee President Carter's charge that the conference's final recommendations come from the business community, not from the government.

In addition, each State Governor, U.S. Senator and member of the U.S. House of Representatives were allowed to appoint one delegate. A limited number of delegates -- approximately 200 -- were appointed by the Executive Branch.

The Conference has been convened at a time when the small business lobby is looked to as 'a powerful new wave that's hitting official Washington' according to the Wall Street Journal. Of the total number of non-farm business, 10.4 million (96.7%) are considered "small" by the Small Business Administration's small business size standards. Small business accounts for 43% of the Gross National Product (GNP), and provides 58% of the total U.S. business employment (excluding farms). Small business directly or indirectly provides the livelihood of over 100 million Americans, creates more jobs than any other sector of the economy and is responsible for more than 50% of all innovation.

1979-80 WORLD CHAMPION SEATTLE SUPERSONICS

First of all, let me wish all of my readers a very prosperous New Year and my sincere hope that the coming year will brim with a stocking full of blessings for your needs and desires.

+ + + + +

The sporting scene continues in the 80's almost as it ended in the year '79, the most notable being the excellent play of the Super Sonics. With a contributing cast of eleven ball players and two coaches, the Sonics have amazed their fans and the rest of the league with their excellence in team basketball.

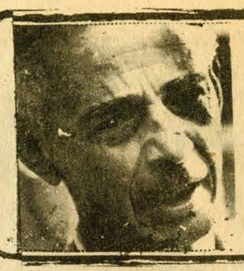

+ + + + +

Former Sonic guard Al Hairston now coaching at Garfield High School is off and running with a 5 - 0 record after winning the Holiday Festival in Tacoma.

+ + + + +

How about those Huskies from the University of Washington starting their 1980 season off by winning the Holiday Classic way back East!

Soul Street

by Sylvester Ford

THE 1979 STORY IS OVER...and the 80s have just begun. Hey, this is Sylvester Ford and welcome to SOULSTREET 1980. We hope you had a good 1979 and know your 1980 will be great.

Well, we can start by telling you all of the places SoulStreet visited New Year's Eve. Baby, we were everywhere, from HELEN'S DINER to downtown at MAX's II, SLIM'S PLACE was live with his disco show as always. The PLACE out south was so full of folks, they were in line to get in. We like the PLACE. You can always have fun in this club. The FAMILY AFFAIR was full of life and they were all happy. And how about the new DRUM ROOM, what a party the folks had there! RUBY CHOW was just out of sight with the CAROL DUDLEY Show. The lady is too much. PARNELL's was a bright spot to visit and the PLACEwas all jazz. The COTTAGE was jamming, bringing the new Year in. The EMPIRE PLAZA Show featuring NEW BIRTH was a big hit. People were hoping for Mr. LEROY HUDSON, but you know how that is.

+++++ SOME SHOWS IN 1980 +++++

Coming to the PLACE sometimes in January is Mr. B. B. KING. What a show this is doing to be. We here at this corner will M.C. the show. Also coming to our city in the 1980s: Mr. ROY AYERS. HERB ALPERT with his big hits "Rotation" and "Behind the Rain". The man Mr. TEDDY PENDERGRASS is coming to town this year. What a star this cat is. Teddy has his own stage, can you dig it? MAZE is coming and so are a lot of others. So stay tuned for time and place.

+++++ SOULSTREET SPOTLIGHT +++++

Soulstreet in the last week of the year would like to spotlight SoulStreet. We have been spotlighting people, places and things for the past year and baby it has been fun/ We want to thank you for being with us. We will try to make SoulStreet Spotlight even more mellow in the 1980s. Thank you.

+++++ NEW YEAR...NEW PEOPLE +++++

PEPSI QUALIFYING TOURNEY

The Pepsi Qualifying Tournament will be held once again in conjunction with the $150,000 AVON Tennis Championships of Seattle. The qualifying tournament will provide top women tennis players in the state the opportunity to participate in the AVON Championships to be held Jan. 28 thru Feb. 3, 1980 at the Seattle Center.

In the Pepsi Qualifying Tournament, any woman tennis player in the state in two age categories - 18 and under and over 18 - may enter without a fee. The Women's Open Challenge, for those over 18, will be held Jan. 9 - 13. The Junior Open Challenge will be held Jan. 16 - 20. All matches will be played at the Seattle Tennis Center, located on Empire Way at South Walker in Seattle.

The Seattle Tennis Center is owned by the Seattle Parks Department. As the only covered public tennis facility in the Seattle area, it will serve once again as the perfect home pfor the 1980 tournament, following previous success there in 1979. The winners of these two tournaments will meet for the Pepsi Challenge Cup and the right to compete in the AVON tournament, on Friday, Jan. 25 at 8 PM at the Tennis Center. The public is invited to attend this and all marches throughout the two weeks of competition to decide the eventual AVON entrant.

This is the second year for the Pepsi Qualifying Tournament. Last year, the tournament was a great success. There was a total of 125 entries from across the state, making it the largest women's tennis tournament in Washington State history. The winner of the 18-and-under division was Julie Harrington from Spokane. Julie defeated Trish 7-5, 6-4 to win the Pepsi Challenge Cup. Julie went on to win two more matches in the AVON Championships, and has continued to improve so that now she is ranked 65th in the world in the current Women's Tennis Association rankings. It all began with the Pepsi Challenge Cup. To enter the Pepsi Qualifying Tournament, pick up an official entry form from a high school or junior high school tenni coach in your area, from your local tennis club, or put your name, address, age, phone number, tennis experience and Pacific Northwest Tennis Association ranking (if any) on a piece of paper and mail it to: Janet Hopps Adkisson, Pepsi Qualifying Tournament Director, 3320 - 122nd Pl. N.E., Bellevue, WA, 98005. Entries for the Women's Open (over 18) are due Jan. 2; for the Jr. Open (18 and under) Jan. 9. Everyone at all skill levels, is encouraged to participate.

Hair Relaxing History - Part I

An incredible concoction composed of red devil lye, boiled eggs, hog lard and water was one of the first attempts made to chemically relax hair. Known as "gassing," this crude and unsophisticated chemical brew actually straightened overcurly and kinky hair. While reversion was not a problem, severe scalp burns. hair damage and breakage could not be avoided. "Gassing" was primarily used by men, for the simple reason that if their hair broke off, they could wear a shorter style. A woman's vanity, however, would seldom permit her to risk losing her hair.

Earlier, during the days of slavery, Blacks tried to "control" their hair, at their masters' request, by applying hog lard, butter, resin from trees and even axle grease from the wheels of the plantation wagons. A thick layer of axle grease was laid on top of the hair, and the weight of the sticky grease stretched and smoothed the hair. Often stretched beyond its endurance, the hair would break off in bunches. A lye shampoo was the only means of removing the axle grease.

During the late 1800's, it was found that heat could temporarily relax hair. First, hog lard was massaged through the hair. Then a metal comb, heated in a tin can over a fire, was used to straighten the hair.

Next Week: "Hair Relaxing History - Part II."

Better Health Today by Dr. Andrew H. Isaacs

Backache

Part I

This is a subject of much discussion and being a Chiropractor, I suppose it represents the highest percentage of conditions coming to my office. I intend to present this discussion comprehensively so as to include the entire general makeup of the common backache...anatomy, posture, pain and complications.

B-A-C-K-A-C-H-E spells trouble because backache, no matter how infrequent or fleeting is cause for serious consideration. If backache is frequent or of long duration, it is cause for deep concern and immediate action. In every instance backache means trouble. It means that you are suffering from one or more of these conditions: muscle pain, pinched spinal nerves, disease in another part of the body, or disease of the spine. And regardless of these conditions, generally the backache is associated with some misalignment of the vertebrae of the spine.

Next week, we'll continue with the general pain of the common backache. See you then.

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

HOLIDAY GREETINGS FROM A DISILLUSIONED BLACK MAN

Normally, a person celebrates the years end by counting their blessings, analyzing the progress made for that year and by making resolutions for the coming year. This year is special whereas we are not only ushering in a new year but a new decade as well.

It is my opinion that by analyzing the progress of Blacks in America, over the past decade, we have made little progress as a race. In fact, research indicates that we are, perhaps worse off than in 1960. This lack of progress, I contend, is due to two very important variables, which I submit are:

First -- as a race we have failed to address the problem of not only racism in this society, but institutionalized racism as well. This has resulted in the lack of progress in employment, housing, education and the business world. In 1960, we know for a fact that Blacks were the last to be hired and the first to be fired; our children were, in 1960, being expelled and suspended from schools across the nation in disappointing numbers; Black businesses were denied access to the mainstream of the business world; and we as a Black Race lived in ghettos. These noted conditions still exist, thusly, in reality we have made no progress. And, if we were to add that the Bakke decision and the lynching of a Black man in North Carolina in 1979, we have in fact, regressed.

Here in Seattle, Blacks are still the victims of institutionalized racism. We still get the short end of the stick as illustrated in an article appearing in the Seattle Times, Dec. 4, 1979, stating that the State of Washington, out of a procurement budget of $410, 736,365, purchased less than 1% of that budget for goods and services from minority owned firms. This is also true of the City of Seattle which awared only .98% of its $25, 000,000 purchasing budget to minorities. The Seattle Arts Commission, out of their budget of $335,000 awarded less than 1% to promote Blacks in the Arts. Notable, this is a consistent established pattern and is reflected throughout the City agencies. Thusly, if we were measuring progress of Blacks over the past decade, we must accept the fact that we have failed.

Second -- The other variable which has an impact on our progress as a race is how we, as a group, respond to the concept of racism. Historically, we were taught to watch out for number one; during slavery we were awarded for loyalty, and, the concept of individuality, which was impressed on our ancestors, is still with us today.

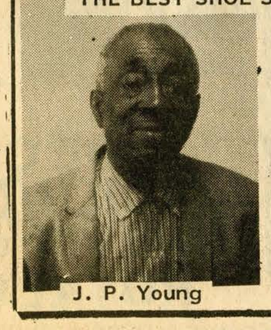

As a race, we fail to move collectively, on the concept of institutionalized racism, whereas we generally respond only if we ourselves are personally affected. We as a Black Race do not collectively move on issues that affects us which greatly reduces our chance for progress. This obvious lack of cohesiveness is what has stood, and, still stands as an obstacle in our fight to combat racism.

As we stand on the threshold of a new decade, hopefully, we can and will find the leadership, the substance and the courage to come together as a group, thusly, bringing about relevant change of a magnitude that we have thus far been able only to dream and write about. perhaps, during the next decade, we can and will move collectively on the issues that confront us. The answer, of course, to our problems are hung in the balance of time -- in the future. At this point in time, we can, at best, only hope. To be sure, the challange of the 80's stands before us, and, it is up to us to make these dreams a reality. Hopefully, our dreams will not be deferred for another decade for if we are able to sink or swim with America as it stands today in such a troubled world, let us demand parity....

TESTIMONIALS

1) Miss Joyce J.W., Portland, OR., was in a fix where she could not find or keep a good man. I, Rev. Hoskins removed the fix and the jinx from her. NOW she can draw the man of her desire to her like a magnet.

2) Mr. & Mrs. C.P. of Seattle, Wa. could not win the BIG one. They called Rev. Hoskins and Rev. sent them a for-sure win blessing money hand. They went to Las Vegas and their luck kept on coming, winning more than $16,000.

3) Ms. Barbara T., Inglewood, CA., had a man who left home for another woman. She called Rev. Hoskins with tears in her voice. She wanted him back!! Now he is back and eating out of her hand.

4) Mr. Paul, Los Angeles, CA., was in a fix and rooted by this woman. As a result he lost his nature for other women, but through Rev. Hoskins' work, Paul regained his nature and became luckier than ever with women, money and his business.

5) Mrs. O.I., Long Beach, CA., had demons in her body, and in her home, causing all kinds of bad luck, and unnatural sickness. She called Rev. Hoskins and in 72 hours her home and body were free of unclean spirits.

(The names in the above testimonies have been changed for the protection of the individual.) I guarantee to do what I say I can do. I have a big reputation to protect.

I know the power of the SPIRIT. Don't put it off. Don't let distance keep you from calling. Call now!!! You will be glad you did. Tell a friend where to get HELP today.

An Entertaining New Years Resolution

So you're going to start jogging and you're going to quit smoking and you're going to start dieting and you're going to quit complaining. You check your list of resolutions with grim determination and not much excitement.

I have a suggestion! A New Year's resolution that's pleasant and lots of fun. See a play! Attend a live concert! Discover the multitude of talented Black Artists right here in your own community.

When "Ain't Misbehavin'" came to town, the show was sold out before it opened. "The Wiz" played to packed houses every night, while the beautiful and touching "First Breeze of Summer" had many empty seats at the Langston Hughes Theatre. We watch "Paris," "The White Shadow," Mohammed Ali in a television movie. That's great! But don't miss out on all the marvelous talent that's here in your own back yard. Many of these artists have worked and trained in New York and L.A. Some are "home grown" but all of them love Seattle and are dedicated to using their skills right here for Seattle audiences.

You can help to keep them working and have an eye-opening experience yourself. Simply resolve to attend a performance of any of these groups of Black Seattle artists:

Ewajo Dance Company, Mardens Theatre, The Black Theatre Project of the University of Washington, Black Arts/West Unlimited, B W Productions, The Group, The Langston Hughes Repertory Company, The FAME Young Adult Community Choir, The True Destiny Concert Choir, The Total Experience Choir, Brazil Academy of Music, Contents Under Pressure. And watch for other groups in your local paper.

Have a Happy and Entertaining New Year!

SPOTLIGHT ON A STAR: Bonnie Pointer

What do you do next after you've made your mark on music as a Grammy-winning songwriter, garnered a shower of applause from the masses, and been inundated with the most glowing adjectives possible by the critics? If you're a vivacious 25-year old named Bonnie Pointer, the answer is simple. You just start all over again. Bonnie reached that zenith several years ago as one quarter of a family group she formed called the Point er Sisters. Now she's on her own again, celebrating the release of her second solo album on Motown entitled simply, "Bonnie Pointer".

The LP is a spry and lively collection of modernized Motown Oldies with a touching ballad "Deep Inside My Soul" penned by Bonnie as the icing on the cake. This delicious serving comes hot on the heels of Bonnie's first solo LP (also entitled Bonnie Pointer) which was somewhat of a sensation, winning a ton of enthusiastic acclaim and producing "Heaven Must Have Sent You" to the Top 40 single that stayed locked on the charts for better than half a year. Oakland-born Bonnie started performing as a solo artist right after her graduation from high school, over the objections of strict and religious parents (her father is a minister) who wanted to see their child appl y her vocal chords to gospel. It wasn't long after that Bonnie persuaded three of her sisters to join her and Pointer Sisters was born. The foursome paid its dues in obscurity and poverty for several years before breaking big with a quirky track called "Yes We Can, Can." From there, it was no looking back for the quartet of scat-singing specialist dressed so neatly in their 1940's thrift shop throwaways. A number of other chart hits followed and even as the group was enjoying unparalleled success, Bonnie stretching out as a songwriter, winning the 1974 Grammy for Best Country Song of the Year with "Fairytale" and first prize at the Japanese Songwriter's Festival with "Sweet Staff" (written with Stevie Wonder).

Which is not to say that her creativity is limited to musical pursuits. Bonnie is also an accomplished dancer, like to paint and "in the distant future, I'd like to get into movies. I'll be writing my own screenplays." But that, as she says, is the "distant future". For now, she's content with the challenge of regaining as a solo artist all the things she won as a Pointer Sister.
