

POEM

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy:
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much good friends,
Good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace be unto thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express sincere thanks and appreciation to the many friends whose love, prayers and support have helped to comfort us in our difficult time of bereavement.

OBITUARY

Pearl Marie Dillard, 70, passed April 16th 2014, at Emmanuel Hospital in Portland, OR.

Pearl was born on November 1, 1943 to Elaine Hart and Joe Johns in Roslyn, WA where she attended elementary school. Elaine married Nat Dillard in 1947 and Nat helped raise Pearl. She moved to Spokane, WA where she was married June 13, 1959, to Hiram Clark. They had three children; daughters Kim Clark, Teena Clark, and son Hiram Clark. Pearl then moved to Portland, OR. Later, she married Stan Cobbs and had a son, Joe Cobbs.

Pearl had a very special friend, Robert Suel, and they were together 21 years. Another special friend was Sharon who was like a sister to her.

Pearl was a very outgoing person, and she had a big heart and loved to cook. She also loved being close to her family and friends.

Pearl's mother, father, and stepfather have gone to be with the Lord. Survivors include her 4 children, ten grandchildren, two great grandchildren, Aunt Mary Cullins, son-in-law Daniel Carter (Teena) and a host of cousins, family, and friends. She truly will be missed.
