

The Liberty Bank will soon be established in a new and spacious building at 24th & E. Union.

You will enjoy the experience of transacting business in pleasant surroundings.

The employees will offer you friendly courteous service and whether you are opening a large or small account or negotiating a large or small loan, you can be sure that you are important to us.

There will be ample parking for your convenience.

We will have the support of personal and correspondent relations with the Seattle First National Bank. In our formulative early months, their guidance will give us much needed advice and help.
