Obituary

Mary Jane Hart Cullins passed away on June 19, 2017 at the age of 90. She was born in Roslyn, WA on October 25, 1926 to Pearl Patterson Hart and the senior Edward Hart. They named her after her maternal Great Grandmother Mary Jane Cravens of White Rock, Texas.

Mary attended the Roslyn and Cle Elum, WA schools. She lived and worked in Spokane and Seattle, WA, and retired from The Boeing Company in 1988 after 25 years.

She was active in the Roslyn Black Pioneers organization and was the featured honoree on the the Roslyn – Northwest Black Pioneers parade float in September 2004, at the Roslyn Miners Memorial Parade. She was also featured in the Upper Kittitas County Tribune newspaper in Cle Elum that month.

Mary did voluntary work at the Southeast Senior Center and the Brighton Apartments, where she lived until she moved to the Cannon House (assisted living) a few years ago.

In the 1960's Mary participated in the civil rights marches, and the sit-ins in the various segregated lunch counters in businesses in downtown Seattle, WA.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents Pearl and Edward Hart, sister Elaine (Ophelia) Dillard and brothers William Edward Hart and Hershel (Hart) Mahmood. Also nieces Pearl Marie Dillard and Dorothy Hart McDade, and nephews Arthur Hart, Theodore Hart and James Van Hart.

She leaves to mourn her passing nieces Beulah Grimm, Maxine James, and nephews Edward Hart (Osceola), Hershel Hart, Ernest Hart and William Hart, also many grand nieces and nephews, and cousins, including ones she called her sister-cousins; Harriet Joyce Craven Hawkins, Kanashibushan and Ethel Craven-Sweet.
