

CHARLES S. BARROW

Spokane, Washington

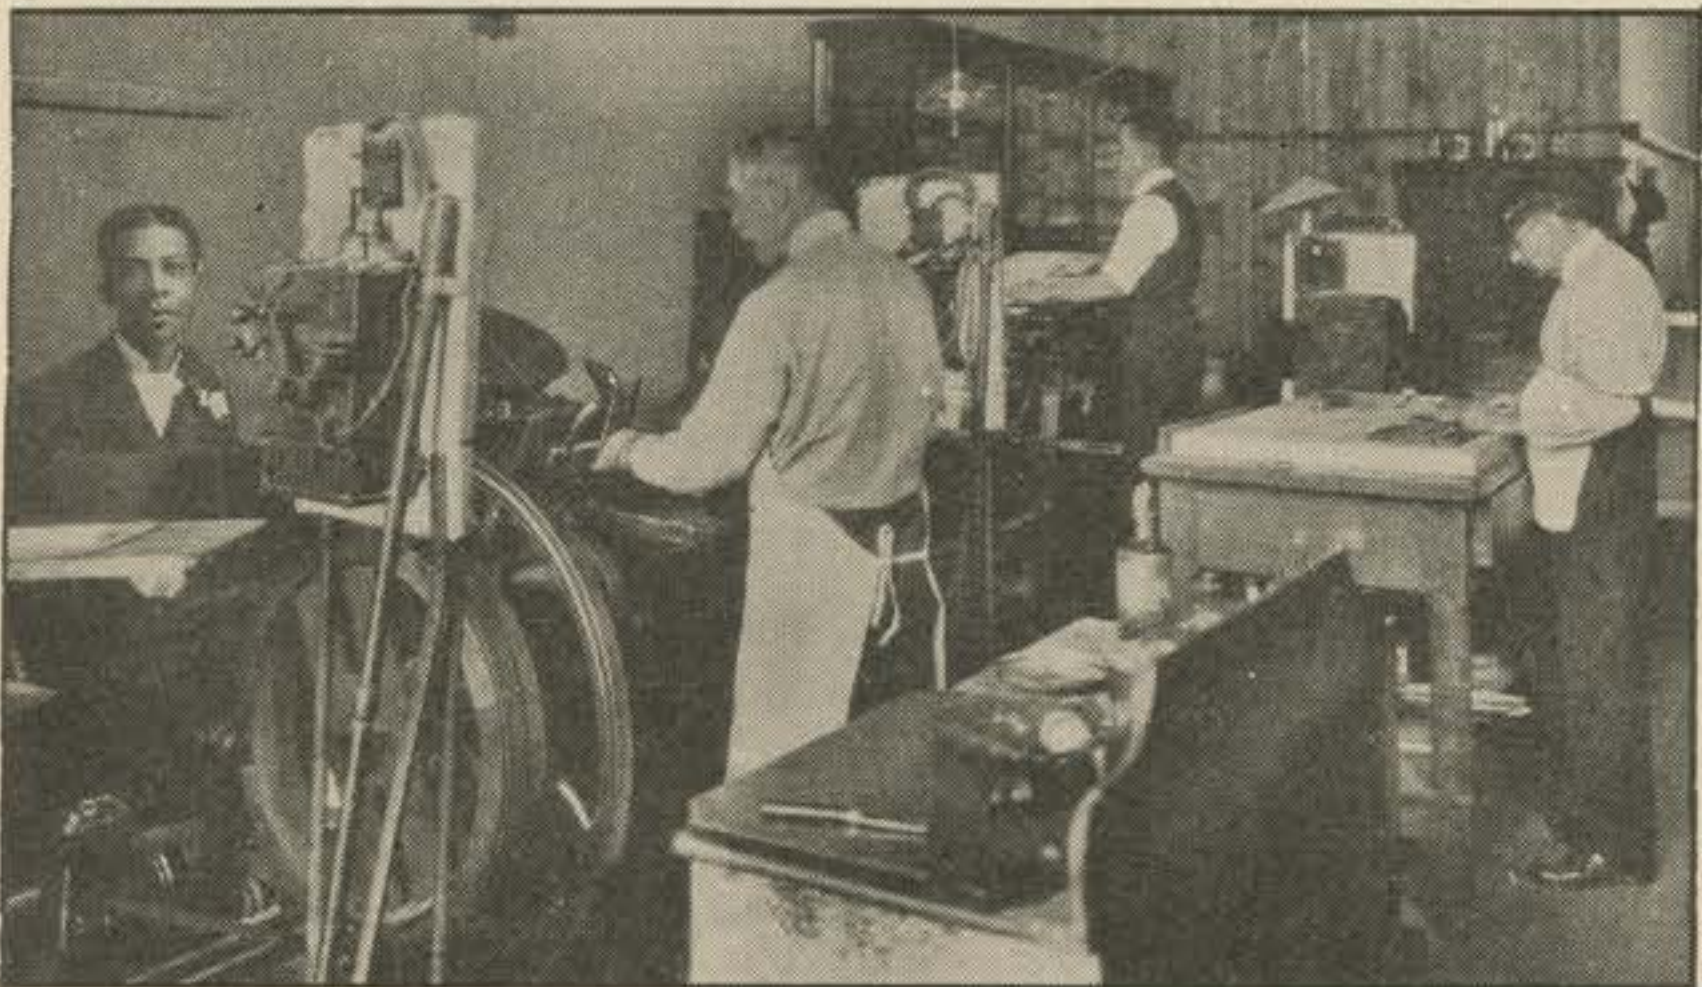

CHAS. S. BARROW

Mr. Charles S. Barrow is the son of Rev. and Mrs. P. Barrow, both of whom occupied a prominence on the stage of life and acted well their part during the pioneer days of our group in this state. The lofty ideals which were cherished by the parents finds embodiment in the practical efforts of their offspring, Mr. Charles Barrow. He was born in Beulah, Mississippi, and received his primary education in Vicksburg. In 1889 his parents moved to the state of Washington, located in Spokane where he attended a business college and in 1901 entered the printing business. For the past twenty-five years he has conducted a job printing establishment in the city of Spokane.

He has an analytical mind that renders him a strong representative of his chosen occupation and with clear and logical reasoning he has maintained his position in the past with success. In 1914 he married Miss Olive Karr, the daughter of one of the pioneer families of Weiser, Idaho. The union has been blessed with two children, Master Kirk Karr and Miss Eleanor. For twenty-five years he has held his membership in the Typographical Union, his printing plant is modern and completely equipped, located at No. 10 West Riverside

(Continued on page 84)

Quality Printing Co., W. 10 Riverside Avenue, Spokane, Washington