Seattle's Finest Guitar Man Passes
Samuel Lee Drain

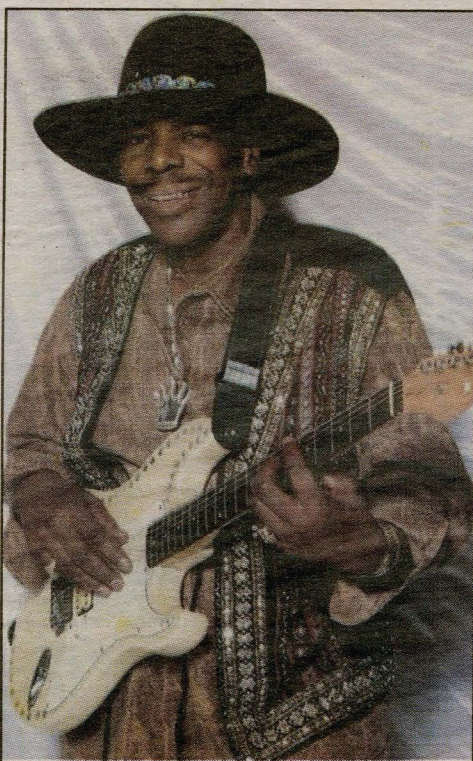

Samuel (Sammy) Lee Drain, born March 13, 1945, passed early Friday morning, July 22, 2016, amongst family & in the arms of his fiancé Dorita Jordan. Samuel fought a difficult and troublesome battle of colon, liver, and lung cancer. And he stood strong, as he refused to let anyone know how much he was suffering, even until his last day here. But, Sammy still made his guitar talk & sing until the very end. He never stopped amazing this world with his ability to help soothe and comfort us by playing his guitar, the keyboard, and the drums. (Thank You Baby, We Needed That!) Sammy had a great, big, comforting smile to go along with his huge heart that he loved to share so much with everybody. He also had a pleasant, deep, and mysterious voice that we all grew to love, and wanted more of while he was living his journey here on this earth. Preceding him home to The LORD was his father & mother, Andrew Drain Sr. & Carrie Drain, his siblings Andrew Jr. & Bertha Drain-Hawkins (& Stanley Hawkins Sr.). Left here on this earth to celebrate his Beautiful Daughter Tamara Drain, his ex-wife Gertie Drain & nephew Stanley Hawkins and son Stanley Hawkins Jr., Nephew K Lowe, Dear Friend James Smith And Dear Friend Rickey Tucker, & his many years, long time Lady Friend & Fiancé Dorita Jordan and his step son Quinton Jordan Sr. And MANY family members from Tennessee, Mississippi, and all over the south! Cousin AC Drain & family, Cousin Arthur Drain & family, Cousin Andrew & Melvina Drain & family, Cousin Rosylyn, & Cousin Kenny. and more dear friends; Dr. Richard Haynes, council member Larry Gossett, Mary Jackson, Frank Brown, Dennis Blackmon, Benorce Blackmon, Willie Fisher, Best friend Preston, Nathan Fleming, Elmer Delagado, Dave Silverton, wife & family, Glen Norris, Glenn Bronson (who wrote and composed "Cool Walkin Smooth Talkin Sammy Drain"), Paunchy, Ronnie Williams, Cousin Ella Mae, Dear Friend Keith Cook, Sister Sally, Tony Stallone, and SO MANY more that are unable to be named right now that are still here to celebrate his life here on Earth, as well as his journey to our LORD in HEAVEN! Sports by Mazvita Facts Sports Writer

The Seattle Seahawks opened their sixth training camp under head coach Pete Carroll at the Virginia Medical Center in Renton Saturday afternoon as 2,500 adoring fans showed up and showed out to welcome the players back home.

The atmosphere was tantalizing, energetic, and down right electrifying as all 90 Seahawks players made their way onto the VMac field and began their quest to return to the Superbowl after last seasons one year absence that broke a streak of two consecutive trips to the big game.

After inking a three year contract extension, Carroll is more than ready to begin training camp and get the season under way. "I have been talking about it, I have been more excited about the approach to this camp than I can ever remember, Carroll said after the teams first practice.

Also attending training camp was Michael Bennett, the some what unhappy defensive end who has asked the team to renegotiate his contract after having a Pro Bowl year in which he had 10 sacks and 19 tackles for losses. Bennett has two years left on his contract.

"I just wanted to show up and be a great teammate," he said. "No distractions for the team. I just want to be a Seahawk for the rest of my life. That's the most important thing."

Bennett wore a Black Lives Matters tee shirt, and talked about the importance of athletes being role models in the way they handle themselves on and off the field and the importance of tackling Social Justice issues to help the disadvantaged.

The Seahawks first Exhibition game will August 13th when they take on the Kansas City Chiefs in Arrowhead Stadium.
