

MR. AND MRS. AUGUSTUS BROWN

Seattle, Washington

Mr. Augustus Brown, born February 15, 1868, at Kansas City, Kansas, where he received his early education in the public schools of that city. He came to Seattle in 1907, and his entire record is most creditable, for as a man and a citizen his course commends him to the confidence and good will of all whom he has been brought in contact. Mr. Brown is a licensed engineer, a student of the school of electrical engineering. With his family he resides at 1729 24th Ave., in a beautiful home which he recently purchased.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown. Born at Lancaster, Kentucky, 1871. With her family at an early age she moved to Kansas City, Kansas, where she received her education, and became the wife of Mr. Augustus Brown. In 1907 with her husband she removed to Seattle, Washington, and is recognized and beloved for her devotion she has exercised in the many beneficial enterprises of our group. She is a member of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, vice president of the Missionary Society, and a member of deaconess board. President of the Women's Political and Civic Alliance, Past Matron of the Heroine of Jerico, F. & A. M., York Rite Masons. Mrs. Brown has a spirit that arises from the love of justice and right which manifest in all her connections, and meets the approbation of all God fearing humanity.
