Loving Mother, Sister, Aunt, Friend and
Most of all Sister in Christ

No one knew the pain she bore,
Beneath the smile she always wore,
A loving memory dearer than gold, of a Mother whose worth can never be told.

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back or you can do what she'd want smile, open your eyes, love, and go on.

Love, Her Children and Family

Better Luck Next Year Seahawks! Great Effort Sports by Mazvita

Agony: Mad, Sad and Angry! One could go on and on regarding the emotions that Seahawk Nation felt at the end of the Super Bowl. For many, dynasty, invincibility and mortality where one play away. It came down to "The Call". The call to pass instead of pass. Just that simple! Truth be told, it was not that easy. A Super Bowl game is like no other, sporting event, maybe a world cup soccer match.

I digress we can debate that topic some other time, back to the complexity of "The Call". In his post game press conference, Peter Carroll, said the Patriots were in there run defense so they countered with a pass offensive set that included three receivers.

With the clock winding down at about 26 second to be exact and a time out in hand, Seattle rational was to pass, come back with two runs. As we all know, Seahawks Offensive Coordinator Darrell Bevell called for a slant pass at the 1-yard line.

A slant pass is where the receiver takes four or five steps and slants (turns inside left shoulder and take another four or five steps), in this case we are talking one yard forward then one yard to the left. "The Call" was not a bad one, it's just that the Patriots where ready for the play, it was one they had been waiting for, listen to Cornerback Malcolm Butler who had the game winning interception,

"They called goal-line three receivers; goal-line usually has two receivers," he said. "You still could pass either way, but three receivers? That's kind of letting you know something. I'm a pass defender first, and I just jumped the route.

"I don't even remember who I was on. 83? I just knew it was stack and I jumped the route and that was the ball game."

And ball game it was. Much will be said about whose fault it was and why they just did not run the ball. Every NFL game is a chess game at 100 miles an hour making moves, according to the game plan that was devised during the week after watching video of the opponent. Now imagine having two weeks of preparation and how intense the chess piece movements where during Sunday's game.

For Seattle fans Sunday's game is a loss of innocence, welcome to the real word of elite franchises Cinderella. Along the way Seattle fans, there will be wins and losses. Heartbreaking losses at that. See Tom Brady, he has won four Superbowls but lost two. There is going to be some peaks and valleys. Big Picture. Look at the Big picture

Community News

Dear Community Members:

I want to take this opportunity to thank each of you for your unwavering support, assistance, and prayers as I worked to provide you with the best care and service possible in my capacity as the "South Seattle Community Coordinator" for Evergreen Washelli Cemeteries and Funeral Homes. With that being said, I must sadly inform you that I have resigned from my position at Evergreen Washelli.

I've shared with many of you about my unfortunate car accident in 2011 along with my diagnosis of Parkinson's disease, which has left me with some health challenges. Needless to say, these life changing events, as well as certain management changes and decisions, factored into my decision to resign from a position I held and enjoyed for eight years. In order to feel comfortable and secure in the continuation of these services promised to the community, I needed assurance that Evergreen Washelli's commitment to me and the community would not change. Unfortunately, I'm sad to say, it did change! For the better, maybe we will see down the road.

I got into this business after the untimely deaths of my two younger brothers, Jeffrey and Ted. I recognized while assisting my mother in their services and burials, that there were gaps in the process and that service being provided to minority communities could drastically improve. I felt with some training, I could possibly fill those gaps! As a result I became one of the leading producers in the company.

I take great pride in my accomplished sales awards for exceeding sales goals and hosting the first Pastoral Breakfast for African-American Pastors at Evergreen Washelli to introduce our educational workshops. Another milestone and one I'm very proud of is being the founder/creator of the "Annual Black History Remembrance Event" at Evergreen Washelli. This event grew from humble beginnings at its inception to overflowing crowds. I would like to thank the events honorary co-chairs, Reverend Dr. Samuel B. McKinney and Bishop A.L. Hardy for their assistance these past six years. In addition, thanks to all our great guest speakers and the wonderful performances provided by Mrs. Gladys Hardy, Pat Wright and the Total Experience Gospel Choir, and all of the other choirs and individuals who participated and made this such a great event.

Additionally, I would like to thank all of the local companies who provided catering and print coverage for the workshops and Black History Remembrance Event, in particular Catfish Corner, Jemil's Big Easy and the publishers of The FACTS newspaper. We could not have done it without you!! I'm honored to leave behind a legacy of service, dedication, and commitment to both Evergreen Washelli and its parent organization, Gibraltar Remembrance Services. As a result of the Seattle Black History Remembrance Event, remembrance services have now been implemented at Gibraltar's Crown Hill Cemetery location in Indianapolis, IA.

Thank you again for your business and support.

Sincerely and with love,
Linda R. Jones

CENTRAL AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

DeCharlene Williams

I am sorry for last week's article, but I am back this week with some great information! James from the community stopped by to say he loves to read my articles in the FACTS. Thanks James! If there are other outlets that we can deliver the papers to let us know this will make papers easier for you to get a hold of and we will definitely see about delivering to that location. "Thank you for the help."

Today my topic is 'RISE UP'! This means to move forward, get up from a sitting position, or lying position! Get out of that "RUT" which is a state of habit or mood. It is the 'DEMON'S CAMP'! Whereas nothing positive will come for you! Switch yourself on: Open new doors to life! Get busy doing something that will help YOU develop resources for you to build a brighter and positive future. Turn yourself on, go to "GOD", HE has an open ear and HE will listen! (Re 16:14, Isa 13:21 found in back of your Bible)

How can you get out of a "RUT"? Change your attitude with people that you allow in your space, stop dealing with those that bring you down, and advance yourself to higher thinking people. Get out of that circular, live down and put yourself on a budget, stop buying all those brand name items, (this is not the way to be "superior"). However, you can become superior in rank if you budget your finances and make a "true assessment" of what you have to work with by taken inventory of the real true picture of what is coming into your household each month. Do not steal from yourself or from your friends! Stop planning with that "third eye" keep standing on what is "PURE" which means that you free yourself from the world's dishonest way of thinking. Read John: 3:16. Make peace with yourself! I love you!"

LISTEN UP... Last night at our Chamber meeting we moved to another location which was the: LAKE CHAD CAFE, located at 1712 South Jackson Street. We had several great speakers including MS. Faye, who was the lady who bank rolled the change for our voting process, whereas we now vote by "district"! Which is a great thing because we can now make our city council Representative accountable to us and the community, which will put us back to how we got all the great and wonderful things done that happen for us in the 70's. Call me if you have a candidate in mind (206) 322-8296 is where I can be reached.

"Black History Month" is now in progress; to celebrate all the great and wonderful achievements that Black People contribute and produced to make America run smooth! Black people in America have built a LOT the things that made America Move! We Celebrate Black History because "We Too" helped to build America!

February 21st is our date set for 'EMERGING ARTISTS', which is our 2nd Annual event. We will host this program at the 2100 building at 3:00 PM. We will feature artist from 'YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND TOMORROW! We are looking for Visual artist that can show and display there art product or creation. If you know interested people who want to share their work have them to call (206) 325-2864 and (206) 322-8296. It will be free for them to display there work. Thanks so much for reading and may GOD continue to bless you!

BE WELL WITH GAIL

I want to share more on inner cleansing for this is an important subject. Colon cleansing is vital to our health more than any other area of our body. Clinical studies show more than 85% of diseases start in the colon and spread in our bodies. Research and read it for yourself. After all the holiday and Super bowl feasting a good cleansing is needed because everything doesn't come out. Water is good but to do a thorough cleanse visit Super Supplements and purchase a "Colon Cleansing system" as well as eat more raw fruits and veggies. This means less sick days and visits to the doctor. This is also preventative wellness care.
