Group Health Cooperative Of Puget Sound

Committed to the Individual

Group Health Cooperation of Puget Sound is a unique organization dedicated to the health of its consumers. Our Cooperative provides an opportunity for consumers to affect the delivery of their health care. Consumers address many decisions which impact the cost and the types of the services they receive.

People, not profit is our motivation. We are in the good health business. And since we provide both coverage and health care there is no incentive for us to perform unnecessary surgery or tests. With this emphasis on maintaining good health, we elect to cover "well baby" and "well adult" exams to catch disease before it becomes serious.

Committed Employees

An organization such as ours calls for special employees. We're a strong affirmative action employer, as committed to the health and well being of our 5,000 employees as we are to our consumers. Employees are given the opportunity to contribute to the policies and decisions that affect their job.

And we encourage participation in programs designed specifically to promote healthier, happier lifestyles. Our work-site smoking policy, for example, has gained public recognition. And we are embarking on employee work-site health promotion programs, offering our people everything from stress reduction seminars to aerobics classes.

Group Health, dedicated to people and looking for individuals who will bring their best efforts to a very progressive organization. If you are one of those people, please join us. Call one of our regional personnel offices:
