

*Just a few more weary days and then,
I'll fly away.
To a land where joy shall never end,
I'll fly away*

*I'll fly away, O Glory,
I'll fly away.
When I die, Hallelujah, bye and bye,
I'll fly away.*

Obituary for Eunice Cravens

The oldest of 15 children, Eunice was born October 2, 1934 to Lula May and Eulice Cormier of Galveston, Texas. Eunice came to Washington, as a young girl when her parents decided to move to Seattle to raise their family. Eunice had three beautiful children, James, Angelius & Anthony before marrying into the Craven family. Eunice and Sam extended their family with the birth of Larry, Charles, Sandra, Jeanette and Lorraine. After separating from Sam, Eunice was blessed with one more daughter, Phyllis.

Eunice was a long time resident of the Holy Park community where she lived until shortly after Roy, her partner of nearly 15 years, passed in 1992. Moving several times in the years following, Eunice continued to stay in the greater Seattle area, as well as, Auburn and Redmond. Eunice's most recent home was the Gardens at Issaquah, Nursing Home where she received excellent care by the entire staff. Eunice passed on December 10, 2006 and is now resting in peace.

Eunice will be remembered for her endearing smile that showed the warmth and generosity of her spirit; her ability to overcome life's challenges by moving forward with hope and laughter.

*Some glad morning when this life is over,
I'll fly away.
To a home on God's celestial shore,
I'll fly away.*

*I'll fly away, O Glory,
I'll fly away.
When I die, Hallelujah, bye and bye,
I'll fly away.*

Eunice has been reunited with her sons,
Charles Craven and James Cormier

Her spirit continues to live on through her sons and daughters,

*Anthony Cormier
Larry Craven
Angelius Cormier
Sandra Craven*

*Jeanette Craven
Lorraine Cravens
Phyllis Cravens*

as well as brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, grand-children and the generations to come.

*When the shadows of this life have flown,
I'll fly away.
Like a bird thrown, driven by the storm,
I'll fly away.*

*I'll fly away, O Glory,
I'll fly away.
When I die, Hallelujah, bye and bye,
I'll fly away.*
