In Loving Memory of Lelia Bullock

On February 16, 2015 at 3:45pm, God picked a flower for His Heavenly garden.. Lelia Bullock, born October 17, 1927 in Mer Rouge, LA to the Union of Lloyd Davis and Carrie Davis Green. Lelia, known as "T Mama," was educated in Louisiana. She and her mother moved to Washington State in the 1950s, both working in the Bremerton Naval Ship Yard. Lelia's love for children took over her heart, and she worked as a housekeeper and care giver to three families: the Schallers (Jane, Robert, George and Margaret); the Goins (Jeremy and Jessica); the Chiots (Dan, Cindy, Claire and Laura), whose children she helped raise and nurture, all while helping her own mother raise foster children in their home. In this way, Lelia touched the lives of scores of children with her quiet, soft voice, and easy manner.

Lelia's love for God and her church gave her a conviction to always serve others; indeed, she had a serving spirit. Some of Lelia's servant roles were Church Secretary, Church Treasurer, Usher and Mothers' Board, to name a few.

Lelia had one brother, Alfred Davis, who preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory two sons, Elias Bullock (Gina) and Curtis R. Bullock; grandchildren Bryanna Lewis-Bullock, Brandon and Davonte Thornton, Curtis Bullock II, and Rakeya Wilson; great grandchildren Lyric Me'Anna Lewis-Bullock and Da'Vion Thornton; sisters Monica Walker-Jones and Debra Raub; aunt Dorothy Green; favorite niece Mikalah Jones; nephew Marcel Jones, and a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins, friends and church family.

Homegoing Celebration for: Mother Lelia Bullock will be Wednesday - February 25th, 2015 @ 11:00am. Services will be held @ the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church - 2801 S Jackson St Seattle 98144

Viewing: Tuesday - Feb 24th - from 3-7pm @ Southwest Mortuary - 9021 Rainier Ave S - Seattle 98118
