

Saluting Black History

CENTRAL AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

DeCharlene Williams

"Thump" UP FOR ALL BLACK HISTORY EVENTS THAT ARE TAKEN PLACE! We would like to "thank" all the great people who came out to Central Chamber's emerging artist event that was held this pass week-end. Our event was a big success story for the kids, again this year, a large crowd of people came out from a very large cross-section of town, and I say thank you all for helping us make this Black History connection on the behalf of the Black Americans: who made the difference for us, as they left a legacy to be proud of!

The "Black American":: helped to build the "American" economic base which helped the "Untied States" to become the first country that the "world" is proud of! Without the work of the Black American people this country would be lost, as our lineage build American, "we must be proud of what our legacy is about! We are Black American people and we made the difference, because we worked and created things that made work easy so that we could survive. The work was very hard and yet we learned to be skilled at the work that was preformed, and today Our life goes on!

Getting back to my point of topic for today:

Last Saturday CACC (central chamber) hosted a very fruitful event whereas the children entertained us, they were excellent dancer, tap dancers, singers, and you name it they did it out of love for "their art" and the public received them well. In addition to the children the adult talent was awesome as well the say my name theme was awesome! Mr. Chris Daigre who is an excellent teacher pulled things together: Conley, Jerome Jackson, Charles C. Canada Special tribute for the legacy musicians Gray Hammond, Grace Holden, Robert Knott, Obverton Barry, Clarence Acox, Julian Prister, Ruby Bishop.

The guest speakers were R.Y. Woodhouse PHD, The famous Ms. Francis Carr, and Seattle's noble motivational speaker MS. Wynonna Hollin- Hauge.

MS. Jacqueline WEA and Jo Etta Bailey were the great chief of the evening they put be fore us a wonderful treat or should I say; display of food. I would live to thank the volunteer committee for standing with us to made things run smoothly: Jacqueline Wea, Linda Johnson, MS.Edna Daigre, Bernie Hack, Jacquelin Walsh Jones, JoEtta Bailey, Addie M. Jones, Ester Ervin, George Thomas, DeCharlene Williams. We appreciate ever positive thing that a person contribute to make this event happen.

We at the chamber give a very special thanks to MS. Edna Daigre for pulling our entertainment effects together, I reach out to here with my "HAPPY HAND": (smile). for a task well done. I am saying Best Wishes for all the participating artist who made the market place happen, whereas they reached out to the public and it was great and they had neat setups on display. and last I would like to say THANK YOU, THANK YOU for the donations we could not have done this with out you! The finance will continue to make things happen. Next week I will share information about our "Black I Irish event which takes place on: March 14,TH we will have lots more for the children to do.

Please Read 1st Peter and learn how peter's walk with Jesus went. please call me at 206 322 8296 if you have Irish Heritage connection. Thank you! thank you.! for your help.

"keep your thump up!

BE WELL WITH GAIL

I want to discuss a safety and health subject that may be avoided at times. This is about being careful of using sample and tester make-up in stores. Did you know many germs and bacteria collect on these items on a daily basis?? There may be 100's of people using these testers prior to you. They have discovered yeast, staph infections and other microscopic organisms on lipstick, eye make-up, powders and more. Another thing is as you are hurrying to sit down placing your purse or books on a public bathroom floor without thinking. This also is an area of concern no matter how clean the bathroom is. I love to share news of health and wellness on all levels. Feel free to send me note if you are enjoying this column. I'd love to hear from you.
