

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say I gave in. Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win. Please don't say how good I was but that I did my best. Just say I tried to do what's right to give the most I could not do less. Please don't give me wing or halos, that's for God to do. I want no more than I deserve. No extras just my due. Please don't give me flowers, or talk in harsh tones, don't be concerned about me now I'm well with God I've made it home. Don't talk about what could have been it's over and it's done, just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won. When you draw a picture of me don't draw me as a Saint. I've done some good I've done some wrong so use all your paint. Not just the bright and light tones use some gray and dark. In fact, don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart. Don't just remember all the good times but remember all the bad. For life is full of many things some happy some sad. But if you must do something then I have one last request. Forgive me for the wrongs I've done and with the love that's left, Thank God for my soul's resting. Thank God for all who loved me Praise God who loved me best.

My Farewell

From the days of suffering to a better way: I'm not suffering anymore. I have made my way to our Creator's arms. It was my time to go, I could not stay forever. I did my struggling so you could have a better way. I know it's hard and painful, but there's a to overcome the suffering with smiles and memories. Just remember to always live in peace and love. For there will be a day when you can join me in our Creator's arms. So, hold your head towards the sky, for my soul is rejoicing with the angels. So, let me go. My soul has been anchored in the Lord!
