The Magic Of Amended Returns

By: Lorna M. Walker, Financial Tax Accountant Former IRS Tax Examiner, INTERCONNECTIONS "Reshaping Your Financial Future"

There are hidden treasures in old tax returns. I am surprised how many returns that have come across my desk that needed to be amended for one reason of another. Many times when I amend a-tax return I find hundreds of dollars that have not been properly accounted for. The reason I feel this occurs is because of lack of knowledge on the taxpayers side and lack of inquiry into the actual life style for the client by the preparer.

For example one clients' return I amended showed a tax liability of $5,000. after careful review for their return the actual tax liability should have been $1,400. Not only was the client relieved to know he did not owe as much that had been originally reported, he was extremely grateful for my personal service. Now I am not saying that all returns can be amended, but what I am saying is if you owe back taxes for whatever the reason, have a competent accountant review your return for errors.

Most taxpayers' are afraid that they will trigger an audit if they file an amended return. This fear, which is common and understandable, prevents them from getting refund they're entitled to. The truth about amended returns is that they are not an automatic invitation to an audit. 9Very few, in fact, are ever audited. Many types of amendments are processed routinely and yes some amendments are safer than others The audit rate for amended returns, while higher than for regular returns, is still quite low. You can minimize the risk of an audit by sending back-up documents with form 1040X.

This is Lorna Walker reminding you once again" be money wise and stay money smart and always try to "Keep the man out of your pocket!" I will be a guess speaker at the First Friday. The next meet will be held at the MECCA International, 1150 23rd Avenue in Seattle, on Friday, February 2, 1996 at 6:45PM. SEE YOU THERE!

A Letter Of Appreciation

To: Charko of Charko's School of Fashion & Fitness agency

From: Your children from the Hood

Merry Christmas To You And Yours!

We want to thank you, Charko, for coming into our lives two years ago. You did more for us than our own parents and for that we are grateful.

We are ex gang members and when we first met you, you told us to put down our guns and pick up a book, learn to read and to get back in school, and try to make our lives productive. You told us that if we came to your school you would help us learn to read and help us with our homework. We met your challenge. We put down the guns and got back in school, and to this day, we are proud to say, you have changed the lives of over 100 of us. We are still in school, and it is all good.

You told us we have to help one another, to talk with one another and help to keep each other out of trouble. We want you to know that everything you told us to do we are doing. We are no longer walking the street looking for trouble; we've gained respect and love for our parents.

Remember you said that not many Blacks are into the field of science? Well, we want you to know that some of us are taking science courses and some of us look forward to going on to college.

Your lessons were valuable in teaching us how to listen how not to be judgmental about people, also teaching us about self-esteem and self-confidence. You said that if we combine our street sense with book sense, we could be unstoppable in our quest for success.

We would like to say to our homies, you probably wonder where we are, you don't see us on the streets anymore. That's because we traded the streets for the school corridors. We ain't dead. Check around you, homey, and see that there are so many of us who get killed or end up in wheelchairs of just plain crazy. That's no life to live--not trusting anyone including yourselves. Right now, we want to challenge you to put down the gun an pick up a book and get on with your life and career.

Ms. Charko, we will all miss you very much; you are the best thing that has ever happened to us. We want you to know that we love you and because of that love, if there is anything we can do, let us know. We want to thank you for saving our lives.

Off The Corner

By Leon Conley

A warm November sun almost tempted me to leave home without a jacket---but this was Seattle and I knew better.

Meme parked her car in the three minute lodging zone and left the motor running. Leaning against the rail, I smiled at her. She rolled her eyes and hurried past. Angry over something I said about her in one of my columns she made it a point to keep me on her s--- list.

Two mud-bones seated on a bench neat the sidewalk watched her enter the building. Fearing mud-boneitis I maintained a safe distance but remained within earshot.

"See what I mean," one of them said, "We ain't going to so right."

The other one ignored what was said and continued talking.

White folks know how to live. On the plane back home all they did was eat and drink."

It took a lot of self control not to clown on those Amos and Andy niggers. Common sense told me there was no hope for a handkerchief head.

"Maybe if we do like they tell us things would be better." His companion nodded in agreement

"Yeah, like not parking in a loading zone."

Toward the south a mass of clouds clotted out the warm November sun. And just like that the temperature dropped.

Over near the driveway Katie busied herself sweeping up leaves. she hollered out at me.

Bring me that trash can over yonder."

No. No, " I responded, "I moved in for low rent not to serve."

She shook her head in disapproval and went to get the trash can.

I knew how to retire. That was one thing I prided myself in. If work accidenta!-ly fell on me, I would call somebody to move it.

Nita, with the bill of her cap pulled low over her eyes, swinging her hips, came up the sidewalk toward me.

"Hello, neighbor."

I offered my hand. she pushed it away and walked by me as if I wasn't there. it was such a joy to be loved by so many friends.

By now it was raining hard and I backed into the bus shelter and waited for the seven.

Mann Bits & Pieces By Dave Mann

Can anyone figure out the Seattle Seahawks? One game they put it all together and the next game they play as if they couldn't whip the church league team. Consider the ugly showing a week ago when both offensively and defensively they stunk-up the Kingdome against the New York Jets. Then in a reversable move they showed up last Sunday in the same arena and put a hurting on a good Philadelphia team.

In last week-end win over the Eagles Rick Mirer and Chris Warren each ran for a touchdown and Todd Peterson kicked a career-high four filed goal to pace the offense, while the defense held down an Eagle rushing attack that came in ranked second in the NFL.... Is it or is it ain't - the on again off again trade of Mariners Tino Martinez to the New York Yankees, it is seemingly off again.

The hold up seems to be Yankees third base man Wade Boggs reluctant to sign his 1996 contract.

The principles involved in the trade were the availability of Yankees third baseman Russ Davis to the Mariners for Martinez an this huge salary.....can't wait to watch the next four years as Slick Watts son over at Husky-ville go against Fred Brown son (Terik) down at Oregon State. Both Eastside boyhood friends are expected to contribute loudly to their respective collage agendas.....Fir-state buddy Jabbo Ward gave me and others a little scare last weekend when he went down an eradite heart-beat, but Jabbo told me a few days ago that every thing is O.K. and that he will be back on the putting green very shortly..Don't forget the Annual Fir-State Banquet being held at the Beautiful Esquire Club in Lake City...The few golfers you see at the driving range at Jefferson Park are fellows getting ready to make the journey to Phoenix, Arizona for the Annual East-West Classic. since you asked - who's making all the money in the sports field. Michael Jordon, with 4.3 million - Mike Tyson 4 million - Shaquille O'Neal 3.7 million and Deon Sanders 3.4 million.

Holiday GiftsFor Homeless

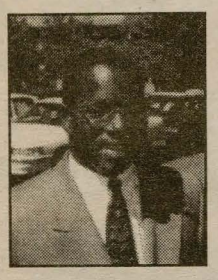

Every year, homeless women and children face the Christmas holidays with sadness. There may be no gifts and no special meal to look forward to. But, there is a way for the community to give a special holiday to some of these families. To make giving easy for holiday shoppers, Southcenter, Union Gospel Mission, YWCA and Kickin' Country K106 are combining efforts to help homeless men, women and children have happier holidays through the 8th Annual "Gifts for the Homeless" event.

Look for the large tenet in Southcenter Mall's south parking lot on December 15, 1995 from 6:00am to 10:00pm. Kickin' Country K106 will be broadcasting live during the event, and shoppers can drop off gifts to benefit homeless men, women and children. "Christmas is the time of sharing and giving. This year the need has never been greater," said Herb Pfiffner, executive director, Union Gospel Mission, based in Holly Park. "Each year we see more and more homeless families who have nothing to look forward to but an empty holiday, no toys, no gifts and very little to cheer about," said Leslie Leber, YWCA of Seattle-King County community resources coordinator. Both agencies will share in the gifts donated. Union Gospel will receive gifts from 6:00am to 2:00pm, the YWCA from 2:00pm to 10:00pm. The gifts should be new and suitable for a homeless man, woman or child. Donors are asked to drop them off, unwrapped, at the tent in south parking lot at Southcenter Mall.

The Washington State Citizens Advisory Council on Alcoholism and Drug Addiction is recruiting members. Persons in recovery from alcoholism and /or drug addiction are encouraged to apply. Meetings are generally held every other month. This is an opportunity to give input on policy decisions related to public funded alcohol/drug prevention and treatment services. Positions are voluntary. Members shall not be employed in an occupation relating to alcoholism or drug addiction. Interested individuals should submit a resume and cover letter to : Division of alcohol and substance abuse, Attn: Doug Allen, Post Office Box 45330, Olympia, Washington 98504-5330.

In Loving Memory Of Earline Rogers

This is a tribute in the memory of our loving daughter Earline Rogers 1956 - 1983 she went to be with our Lord.

We loved her dearly, but God loved her best. That's why he took her home to rest.

She always kept a beautiful smile on her face that beautiful smile will be with us forever although you are gone your memory still linger on. One day we'll be able to meet you in the sky then we won't ever have to say goodbye.

Bible V. 1. Thess. 4:17

Then we which are alive and remain shell be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Love, All The Family.

Gloria Martin, 1916-1995: Feminist pioneer and Unabashed lifelong socialist

Seattle author Gloria marin, a galvanizing force in U.S. feminism and a political bridge between the Old and New Left, died Wednesday, November 22, of cancer. She was 79.

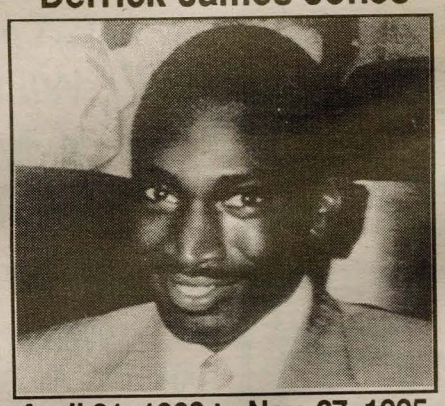

Martin, a working mother of eight children, was raised in the south in the days of Jim Crow. Her early experiences spurred her evolution into a bracing critic of american capitalism and its racism and sexism. She eventually became a leader of the Trotskyist and feminist Freedom Socialist Party (FSP), which she joined shortly after it formed in 1966, and a co-founder of Radical Women.

"Gloria was pioneer in fusing women's right with socialism, and she had a seminal impact on American feminism," said Clara Fraser, Martin's friends and colleague for 45 years. This was no pallid liberal. She was a radical. She wanted fundamental change and never wavered from principle. And she was indomitably stout-hearted in never losing her hope and optimism and belief in individuals and humanity."

Martin's last week was spent at The Care Center at Kelsey Creek in Bellevue, where she was surrounded by relatives, friends, and comrades. Martin was predeceased by Son Kevin and survived by her sister Mary Lee, and brother-in-law Mac; seven children Adrian, David, Michael, Denise, Terrance, Thomas, and Johnathan; nephews--Daniel and Michael; 14 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

A public memorial will be held on Sunday, December 17, 2:00p.m. followed by a buffet featuring her favorite foods, at Jefferson Community Center, 3801 Beacon Ave. S in Seattle For more information, call (206) 722-2453. Remembrances may be sent to Red Letter Press for the Gloria Martin Memorial Publications Fund at Bush Asia Building, 409 Maynard Avenue So., Suite 201, Seattle, WA 98104. (206) 682-0990.

In Loving Memory Of Derrick James Jones

April 21, 1963 to Nov. 27, 1995

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb.
He gently closed his precious eyes,
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed.
The ever patient worn out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last

Acknowledgements

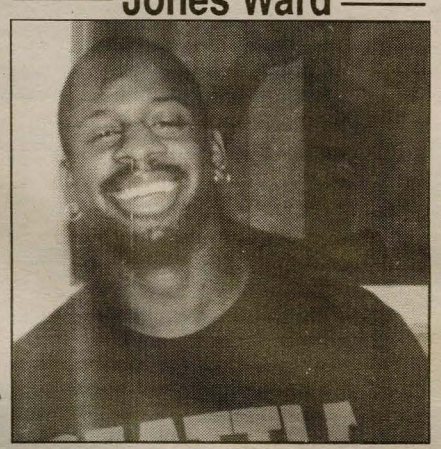

The family of Derrick James Jones wishes to express our deep appreciation for all the kindness that was shown toward us during his illness and passing. Special thanks to the Greater Mt. Baker Church Family and the Church of God Evangelistic Center for all the calls, visits and prayers.

On Behalf of Our Fallen Soldiers!

Worldwide many lives are lost each day to genocide, self-destruction, black-on-black crime and gunplay. But it strikes a raw nerve when it hits so close to home. Thursday, November 30th we lost another soldier. Another brilliant mind that we needed in this war against a system that feeds and grows off of our destruction. I am speaking of Renaldo Jones.

Renaldo passed last Thursday morning and although he had his wild side (as we all do), he is loved and will be truly missed by many in the "206" community. Unfortunately Renaldo's name must be added to a long list of fallen soldiers; Andre Dowell, T-Baby, Deronne Jackson, James Credit, Tommy Foster, John Malone, and many others who are gone but not forgotten. Life is too precious. We have to many of our brothers locked away, we don't need to lose the rest to ignorance. Let us learn something form these tragedies. Don't let their lives be in vain. Remember, judge not lest you be judges, none of us are perfect.

To the families go my sympathies on your losses, and may God bless you and guide you. To the Fallen soldiers, may you "Rest in

East Madison YMCA Black Achievers (BA)

Writer: Caroline McNeal

Past and Present: The East Madison "Y" has been in existence since 1936. The administrators that served to keep this community service in existence are worthy to be noted as Black Achievers that had a vision striving to create an honorable service to support our youth then and now. It is their vision that has allowed the progress that is visible with our youth that have become and are becoming Achievers and continue on as adults to "make a difference" in the community as leaders. It first began as a provisional "Y" in 1936 and one year later it was chartered. It was once used as a tennis club by the community. The property was donated to the community by the Coleman family whom were long time supporters and laymen of the YMCA movement. The Coleman's along with civic minded members of the community headed by Dr. Felix Cooper including John T. Gayton, his son John J. and Jim; Mrs. Nella Carter; Leo Fisher; Dr. E. Burton; S.C. Valley; Ernest White; Ernest Alexander; Emmitt Chaney, and others became the advisory group gathered and changed history by deeding the property and club as the new YMCA

Many years, and many events have taken place in history. Roads were paved to what now stands as the Meredith Mathews, East Madison, YMCA. Meredith Mathews was an inspiring leader that journeyed to Seattle in 1957 and became the Executive Director of the "Y". He was a grand contributor to our youth and community until his death in 1992. That was the beginning of this great facility that continues to inspire and open doors for out youth to achieve. To Achieve: means to carryout successfully; accomplish; to attain a desired end.

Purpose of (BA): Companies and Businesses sponsor an individual to represent that company on the Black Achiever's Committee to help youth learn to achieve positive careers and goals in life. Each Saturday, YMCA (BA's) program offers events that contribute to positive growth ; providing a route to "something to do" that is postive, beneficial and rewarding to each participant.

News Alert! Black Achievers Kwanzaa Celebration - Saturday, Dec. 9, 1995, beginning at 5:00pm and ending at 9:00pm. Please come in and join in your celebration that you have earned. Dedicated support and effort has been taken to assure you will have a grand time. Ms. Kelly Lee (Microsoft Black Achiever Sponsor) has donated much of her time and effort to assure this event will be enjoyable and successful , and to make a difference for 200 youth and parent's 1995 Kwanzaa. Sweet Treat

Something New For The Holidays

(NAPS)—This holiday, serve your guests something they can really sink their teeth into—soft, fruity jelly beans!

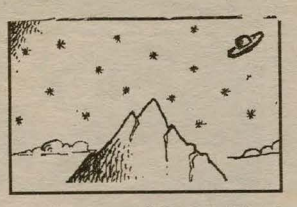

Jelly beans are not just for Easter, anymore. Include a bowl on your holiday table and watch them disappear.

Joining the traditional holiday favorites this year is something new—jelly beans. These sweet, satisfying treats were traditionally only available at Easter time when they were the candy of choice for Easter baskets left for children around the world.

Today, however, as you laden your holiday table with traditional items—including fruitcake, candy canes, holiday breads, chocolates and cookies—add a colorful basket of jelly beans to please your family and friends.

The newest jelly beans on the market offer consumers something different—real fruit flavor. New STARBURST® Jellybeans were created for consumers looking for "a lot of great-tasting fruit flavor in a fun bite-size form."

Available in six fruit flavors—lemon, orange, cherry, strawberry, grape and lime—Starburst Jellybeans deliver fruit flavor in every bite.

The world's tallest mountain measured from the sea bed is Mauna Kea on the island of Hawaii.

No one pities the beautiful. From the moment they are born, they're more loved and privileged than the rest of us. People are drawn to them as if they have some special power. And in some ways they do. But when the pretty are exceptionally gorgeous, they may be tempted to build their lived around the way they look. That's where its tricky.

I had dinner last week with one of the exceptional beautiful. She's 60 years old with smooth skin, mocka colored skin, almond shaped eyes; and a nimbus of gently curly hair. She still stops traffic, literally, as I discovered when we tried to cross the street against the light. How convenient, I thought, to be so pretty that you can jay walk with out fear.

Most of us learn fairly early not to bank on our looks. At 13 or 14 years old, we find out that we aren't especially beautiful. This fact when we discover it might make us cry from time to time. But, then we move on find something we're good at, and do what we can to cultivate that skill.

The truly beautiful who hang on to the idea that their looks are enough to carry them through life aren't so lucky. There is an old saying. "Beauty is as beauty does" is true today. Maintaining your beauty can be achieved easily. The secret is: keep your body and mind clean. Treat them as if they are spiritual temple. Don't let any one abuse or misuse them. Don't over indulge in anything.

The rules for success--hard work, integrity, honesty. There is a talent applied to maintaining your good looks. Your're either pretty enough or you're not. Most important is to be very happy, it shows all around you.

An adolescent sooty tern can remain aloft for up to ten years before landing to breed.

Boyce Johnson, a well-known and respected hair stylist has opened his first signature salon called "Hair by Boyce". Born and raised in Portland, OR., he is a 1980 graduate of Seattle's former Broadway Beauty School, and he trained under John Parrish of Mr. John's Hair Plus Bodycare. Following a two-year stint with Mr. John's, Boyce went on to serve at The Bon Marche's Glemby International, and later with Art Dyson's Positive Force Hair Team. after providing 8 years of personalized hair care for a loyal following in a small shop in the Madison Park area, Boyce most recently worked with the Dianne Ashley Salon.

Now, finally realizing his dream to venture forward with his own intimate salon, "Hair by Boyce" located in the trendy Madison Valley, specializes in cosmetic relaxers, sophisticated coloring and designer cuts.

Boyce Johnson wishes to thank all of the wonderful shop owners for sharing with him the tricks of the trade, and he also thanks his faithful customers who've kept the dream alive. With wishes to everyone for a prosperous new year, Boyce invites you to stop in and visit the new salon during its open house reception, January 21, noon until 3p.m. Also, during the month of December, "Hair by Boyce" is offering 10% off all relaxer touch-ups. Music Inner City On The Road From Los Angeles

Hope you watch the next edition of Gordon Curvey's Music Inner City. The program takes place from Los Angeles and Venice Beach in Santa Monica. Gordon was there for the 1995 Billboard Music video Conference and Awards.

Gordon was presented a award for Music Inner City from Rap-A-Lot/Virgin Records and his support of the Luniz and Scarface LP's in the Seattle area.

Future shows on Music Inner City will include a interview with Rapper Little Ch.', The D.O.C. and Warren G. and much more!! Music Inner City is seeking sponsorship form local businesses to return broadcast TV. If you are interested call 722-9160.
