Represent in Paradise

Think'n of my uncle and how time left us. My Friend my primary teacher and a wise man. A uncle can be a big brother, a father, or a grandfather. When you don't have either. Whenever I didn't have my Uncle showed me how to get it. In the Bible, it says "if you give a man a fish you feed him for one day, but, if you teach him how to fish he'll eat for a lifetime". So, I'm gonna keep eat'n and my cup runeth over. I got it Unc, Rest Well, I'm Unc now. The last thing he told me was "we gonna get this money, we gonna get it"! I got it, we gonna get it (Represent In Paradise) "Cash Money"

In Loving Memory of JoAnn P. Jackson

JoAnn P. Jackson affectionately known as "mommy" left us quickly and quietly on her way to the lighthouse December 31st, 2014. Born December 10th, 1951 to the late Mary Louise and Timothy Glover SR. in Seattle, WA. JoAnn was raised in the central district of Seattle, attending private school most of her education, graduating from Holy Names Academy in 1969. She furthered her education at SVI in the 70's which led to a position at the VA of Foreign Wars

Her later years were spent being a homemaker, mother, grandmother, friend and all around joy to all she encountered. Her smile as bright as a ray of sunshine, was a hands down favorite of everyone she knew. Her wit and charm and sweet disposition were exceptional. And will be dearly missed, but forever in our hearts and minds.

She is survived by her siblings Tina, Tim, and Nicole. Her beloved children Tureia, Jonnetta and Tyron. Grandchildren Chrieona, James, JoAnn, Layth, Destiny, Alexandra, John and Tyron Jr. and Great grandson Kiyoshi, and a long cherished list of nieces, nephews extended family and friends.

MEET ME AT THE LIGHTHOUSE

I paved the way before my children, so they would learn from me, how to navigate this road which twists so easily.

I showed them where to tread carefully, and where to pick up the pace. Although where we're headed is beautiful it needn't be a race.

I go ahead of them now to the lighthouse, we'll reminisce there one day soon, no rush my loves, please take your time. Mommy will be waiting for you.

Memorial Service will be held Saturday, January 10th, 2015 at Southwest Mortuary 12pm. 9021 Rainier Ave S. Seattle, WA 98118.

Family requests no black attire. In lieu of flowers, we politely ask you keep us in your prayers.

In Loving Memory of A Phenomenal Woman Ann L. O'Neal

Sunrise, March 5, 1943 - Sunset, December 27, 2014

Beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, mentor and friend. Everyone's "Gran-O" and #1 cheerleader have transitioned to the highest level of life to be with our Lord Jesus Christ in heaven.

Ann was a teacher in Seattle Public schools for 35 years. Education was very important to her and she spent her life instilling this in everyone she knew. Ann always said "Celebrate every graduation whether it's preschool, 5th grade, high school or college, cause then they'll want another one."
