

OBITUARIES

In Loving Memory of Willie Mae Edmonds

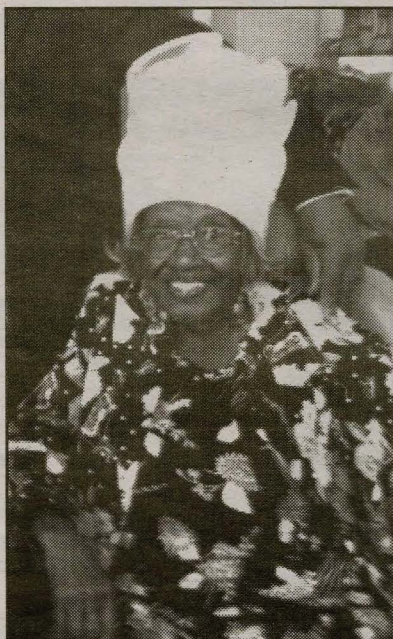

Willie Mae Edmonds was born in northern Louisiana on January 7, 1913 to Olen Frost and Emma (Ford) Frost. She spent a large part of her most recent life in the Seattle/Tacoma area.

Willie Mae passed away January 2, 2015 after a long life. She received a congratulations letter from President Obama when she turned 100 years old in January 2013. It was a joy to her to live to see the United States elect an African-American president, especially after growing up in the south and experiencing racially discriminatory practices.

A Remembrance service will be held at 10:00 AM, Saturday, January 10, 2015, at Evergreen Washelli, 11111 Aurora Avenue N.

Willie Mae was a long time member of the Federated Pentecostal Church (Bishop Leffal), and also Follow the Light Koinonia Church (Pastor Joseph Palmer).

Willie Mae is survived by her husband of over 65 years, Layton Edmonds, and a host of nieces and nephews of several generations, and many other relatives. She was the last of her siblings to pass away.
