

CENTRAL AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

DeCharlene Williams

I am requesting Prayer for "Mrs. Lillie Bowman" she has been ill for two years and her time will come soon! Lillie is a great friend of mine, and has been a good friend to the Central Area Chamber of Commerce Juneteenth event as she has donated to us many times. Lets salute all the great and wonderful things that she has done for all the people who knew her.

What's happening for Martin Luther King Birthday in the Central Area: The MLK Committee will host their annual March and workshops on January 20th at Garfield High School located at 23rd Spring, things will kick off at 9:30 am with workshops, bands, and a great March that will start off right in front of the school. They expect to have 6,000 people in attendance. After the March they will go back to the school for a feeding celebration which is free! Go to the website for details. I will host a class on how to deal with complicity, in which I will have a hand out that you can take with you.

Michael you called to say that "YOU" would like to edit my article, make contact with Ms. Marla at the Facts. I have a very good education and have done a lot for myself as well as I have helped others to succeed and make "bank" for themselves. So thank you for your call and "you" will not receive a call from me for I have lots of work to do, however "thanks" for telling me your concerns.

Did you know that Mr. Steve Harvey became a Multi Millionaire from his unedited book? So keep positive and look for the good things, that you can find in "people." I work on 20 different things each day and manage to keep them in some type of order.

Central Chamber of Commerce was founded by me; DeCharlene Williams in 1983 which has been around for 32 years doing great things: Building a brighter day for the community at large! Our December 20th Phenomenal People Breakfast has enabled us to present a $500.00 check to the Boys and Girls Club of Seattle and King County. I am sending Love and kisses to all those who contributed to us this year. Thanks for being a good friend of The Central Area Chamber of Commerce.

Sports by Mazvita

Done dancing: With the obvious upcoming, we are going to take a quick break from the NFL and take a quick peak at what else is going on in these parts regarding sports. News is a plenty. A big shout out to ESPN trailblazer Sportscaster Stuart Scott. Scott he of, "as cool as the other side of the pillow, BooYah", and many other African American pop culture sayings passed away Sunday night in a hospital near Hartford, Conn, Stuart was 49 and the cause of death was cancer. Scott helped bring Hip, Hop culture to mainstream sports and in doing so brought diverse cultures together in the name of sports. Stuart intertwined music and sports. Stuart did it his way and we are all grateful. Speaking of music, did the University of Washington men's basketball team decide to turn it off? The once highflying Huskies (11-3, 0-2 Pac 12) are now back to earth after a three consecutive losses and crashing out of the National polls. The Huskies reached the 13th spot then lost to Stony Brook (57-62) California (81-75) and Sunday Stanford 68-60 in overtime. The Huskies are 0-2 in conference play and are hoping three consecutive home games, WSU Jan 10th, Oregon State Jan 15 and Oregon Jan 18th can get them back on course. The season is young and much basketball is to be played. Speaking of basketball, the Seattle Storm announced they were parting ways with head coach Brian Agler the all-time winningest coach in American women's professional basketball. Say what? Head scratcher it is. Turns out Agler who won the 2010 WNBA title with the Storm are going to coach the Los Angeles Sparks. Last season, Agler's seventh, the Storm finished sixth in the Western Conference but were without the services of Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson most of the season due to injuries. The Storm also announced that Alisha Valavanis would be the team's president and general manager. Very interesting. You know maybe it is time to get back to the NFL. Seems the not so turbulent any football sports are anything but drama free!

NEW COMMISSIONERS SOUGHT FOR SEATTLE PLANNING COMMISSION

Seattle - The City of Seattle is looking for candidates to serve on the Seattle Planning Commission beginning in April 2015. Planning Commission members are appointed by the Mayor or the City Council and may serve up to two consecutive, three-year terms. This year, four positions will be open in total; one position will be appointed by the Mayor, two will be appointed by the City Council, and one by the Commission itself. The City is committed to promoting diversity in the City's boards and commissions. Persons of color, women, persons with disabilities, and sexual minorities are strongly encouraged to apply. Commissioners must reside in Seattle and serve without compensation.

Who We Are -

We are a 16-member Commission of neighbors that care about the future of our city. We are a group of individuals that have served on neighborhood councils, community design review boards, as well as many other community focused volunteer roles. We have a broad range of skills and perspectives that include architecture and design, land use and transportation planning, low-income housing development, and community engagement specialists.

What We Do -

We advise the Mayor, City Council, and City departments on citywide planning goals, policies, and plans and provide them with independent and objective advice on land-use and zoning, transportation and housing issues. The Commission is the steward of the City's Comprehensive Plan; our citywide vision for how Seattle grows. We debate the benefits and impacts of these important policies and advise on how best to plan for the future.

What We Are Looking For -

We have a broad range of skills and perspectives but we are always looking for new voices that bring to light issues facing all parts of the city. We are looking for people who:

- $ bring a commitment to making Seattle a great place to live and have knowledge and experience in land use and planning,
- $ have a commitment to community-building and community engagement,
- $ have an understanding of transportation investments and how they impact the neighborhoods around them,
- $ can speak to the needs of affordable housing or have an understanding of what role affordability plays in the city, and
- $ have a passion for communicating planning to a diverse set of stakeholders.

Participation in the Planning Commission is a significant volunteer commitment. This includes attendance at monthly meetings (the second and fourth Thursdays of each month) and participation on at least one sub-committee that meets monthly. Commissioners also attend and participate in relevant public meetings and events.

How To Apply -

To be considered for appointment to the Commission, please send a letter of interest and resume by January 31, 2015 addressed to:

Vanessa Murdock, Executive Director

Seattle Planning Commission

City of Seattle

Department of Planning and Development,
