bilation will host a good old down home

Saturday night musical starting at 7:30 PM.
Among the invited guests will be Kenny Wyatt and the Ministers of Music, the Total Experience Choir, the Amazing Manning Brothers, the Progressive Gospel Choir, the Lawrence V. Gray Singers of Victory Temple, James Alonzo, Gwen Davis, Darren Gere, Felecia Leffall, Northwest Connection and other renowned gospel artists of our area.

The grand finale takes place on Sunday, July 25, 1982 at 3 p.m. at the Garfield High School Auditorium, 400 - 23rd Avenue.
This one, you'll not want to miss. Jubilation will be presented in a concert of exciting, uplifting new music, complete with a special choir of dynamic singers organized expressly for this event. The entire concert will be a live recording session, and with God's blessing and all your prayers, an album may be the result, so be on hand for this extra special soul-stirring treat.

Tickets for the recording session concert are $5 at all BASS ticket outlets and $6 at the door.

Since their inception in the spring of last year, Jubilation has been blessed with considerable success in their musical ministry. As a cohesive, energetic and talented group of vocalists and musicians, performing fresh, original music, Jubilation has managed to reach multiple thousands of people of all walks of life, from every denomination, and of all ethnic backgrounds both young and old. They have taken their universal messages of love, understanding and peace throughout the West Coast, from Canada, Seattle, Tacoma and Portland, to Northern and Southern California.

Fused into their upbeat gospel sound are elements of rock, funk and jazz, which they perform with vitality and professionalism. If you have not yet heard Jubilation, make a special effort to bring a friend and be part of the recording session. For those who know their music, you know it will be satisfaction guaranteed.

So come listen, clap, sing, dance and jump for joy with Jubilation and hosts of friends and well-wishers this week-end at the Jubilation Celebration. And don't forget those shouting shoes!

Clockwise from lower right: Darryl Briggs, vocals, Latin percussion; Darrell Menefee, vocals, drums; Barbara Bryon, vocals, keyboards; Gerald Turner, bass; Alfred Taylor, vocals, keyboards; Jerry Smithson, vocals, keyboards; Sam Smith, vocals, not pitted Jim Le Brasseur, guitar.

Polish up your shouting shoes because you're going to need them this weekend at the Jubilation Celebration. In commemoration of their First Year Anniversary, Seattle's premiere contemporary gospel group, Jubilation, presents two very special musical praise services and the entire community is cordially invited to come participate in this anointed sharing.

On Saturday, July 24, 1982 at the Good-
