Door County Democrat (7-2-1904)

J B. N. Lallemond. -One of the prominent residents of Baileys Harbor, was in the city last Friday and made to our office a very pleasant call. Mr. Lallemond came to Baileys Harbor in 1800, 44 years ago and has lived there continually ever since. He is one of the most widely known, as well as the most highly respected men in Door County.

THE ADVOCATE (11-29-1906)

John B. N. Lallemond has had a pretty serious time of it on account of the accident that befell him several weeks ago while leading a calf. It will be recalled that the little finger of the left hand was torn and lacerated by the strap or rope, and while but little attention was paid to the matter at the time, blood poison set in afterward, and it looked at one time as though fatal results would follow. In anticipation of the worst Aug. Lallemond was summoned from Manitowoc, who remained here until the crisis had passed. August is employed in the Hess Boiler Works in the Clipper city, and he reports, having a very desirable berth.

The Advocate 2-17-1910

The wife of J. B. N. Lallemond passed away last Friday afternoon after an illness of several months, death being due to a complication of diseases supplemented by advanced age. She was one of the Harbor's oldest residents and was well known in these parts. The funeral was held from St. Mary's church in this village Monday morning and interment was in the Catholic cemetery here, Fr. Nolin officiating. Among those who, attended the funeral were Capt. and Mrs. And. S. Olson of Sawyer, the latter being a sister of the deceased. Also attending John Lallemond of Sevastopol, a step-son.
