Dear Mrs. Carson:

I am writing to you because you are listed in the Glenwood records as the representative for the above-referenced cemetery lot.

Robert L. Dabney

I have enclosed two photographs of the lot. In the close-up of the vase to the left of the entrance, you can see that the vase has broken completely through the stem. It is in danger of falling and injuring someone or becoming lost. Because of that, it has been scheduled to be repaired by the Glenwood Cemetery Historic Preservation Foundation at an estimated cost of $200. As you are aware, the Foundation is a 501(c)(3) organization formed in 1999 to raise funds for the preservation of Glenwood Cemetery through projects beyond the scope of day-to-day cemetery operations. If you wish to contribute to the cost of this repair, your voluntary donation will be most welcome.

If you would prefer to make this repair using your own contractor and at your own expense, please notify me no later than July 31, 2005.

Very truly yours,

Woman, 84, wanders from University-area home

By S.K. BARDWELL

Copyright 2005 Houston Chronicle

Houston police are searching for an 84-year-old Alzheimer's patient who wandered from her West University-area home Thursday afternoon.

Lucy Carson is described as 5 feet 5 inches tall with gray hair, blue eyes and a light complexion.

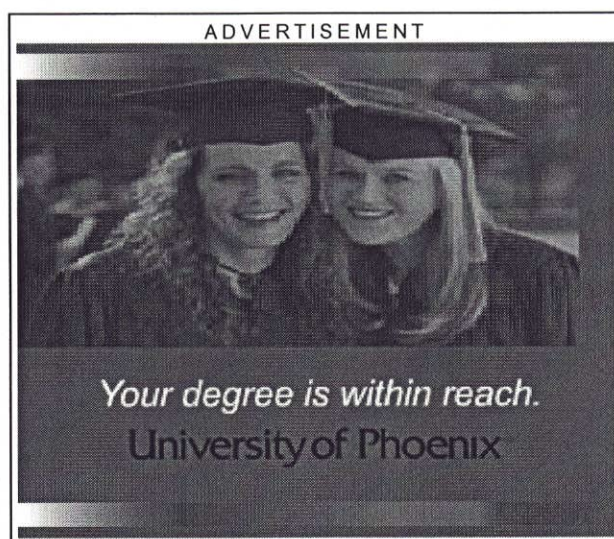

Carson evidently left her home in the 2100 block of University Boulevard about 2:30 p.m. Thursday, in a brief period when one caretaker had left her and a second had not yet arrived.

Anyone with information about the woman is asked to call HPD's missing persons unit at 713-731-5223.
