

NEW STRANGERS REST WORKSHEET

Bonnie's list is transcribed under "Bonnie." All columns to the right of Bonnie's are Martha's lists. Martha's lists are completed only to the extent they don't agree with Bonnie's, and the differences are underlined. A "✓" in one of Martha's three columns indicates complete agreement with that portion of Bonnie's list.

Abbreviations: CD - City Directory; DC - Death Certificate; TDI - Bureau of Vital Records Death Index (Texas), accessed on microfiche at Clayton Library. Unsuccessful searches in TDI are presumed to include all name variations in all counties in Texas that could possibly match date, unless other indicated. All deaths from TDI records occurred in Harris County unless otherwise indicated.

⁶³ CD 1910-11: Five O'Rourke, one John, no E. J.; no O'Rouke.

CD 1911-12: One O'Rourke (not E. J.); no O'Rouke.

⁶⁴ Houston Daily Post, August 8, 1911 (copy in file): Headline is "Drowned in the Channel / Body of Ed J. O'Rourke Was Recovered Yesterday Morning in Vicinity of Harrisburg." Deceased is identified throughout the story as "O'Rourke." He was a 35-year-old "tile setter and decorator" residing at 1402 Franklin. He drowned in the Ship Channel about 3:00 a.m., but the body was not recovered until 8:00 a.m. He and two other men took a boat called No-Tsu-Oh for a ride on the Ship Channel late Saturday night, and the boat was gone until early Sunday morning. "It was stated that between 2 and 3 o'clock [sic] Sunday morning parties who were in the neighborhood of the Launch club heard one or two men calling "Ed! Oh Ed! Where are you, Ed?" and while nothing was thought of the affair until yesterday morning, it is now believed that he was one of the party in the boat. Who the other two men are was not learned." Deceased was an unmarried man, but was said to have a brother in Fort Worth.

⁶⁵ Houston Daily Post, August 9, 1911 (copy in file): "The funeral of Ed. J. O'Rourke, age 35 years, who drowned in the ship channel Sunday morning, was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with interment in Glenwood cemetery. Rev. T.J. Windham officiated."

⁶⁶ No possible match for O'Rourke; no O'Rouke.
