FILE COPY

There is an unmarked grave between Katherine Roff and Claire Shellshear, so leave space for it.

As we discussed yesterday, complete the three cradles you are working on and then begin the work in the Oakdale Section below where the new brick wall has been constructed.

Turning around the double footstone on the Shepherd lot can wait until the Oakdale work is finished.

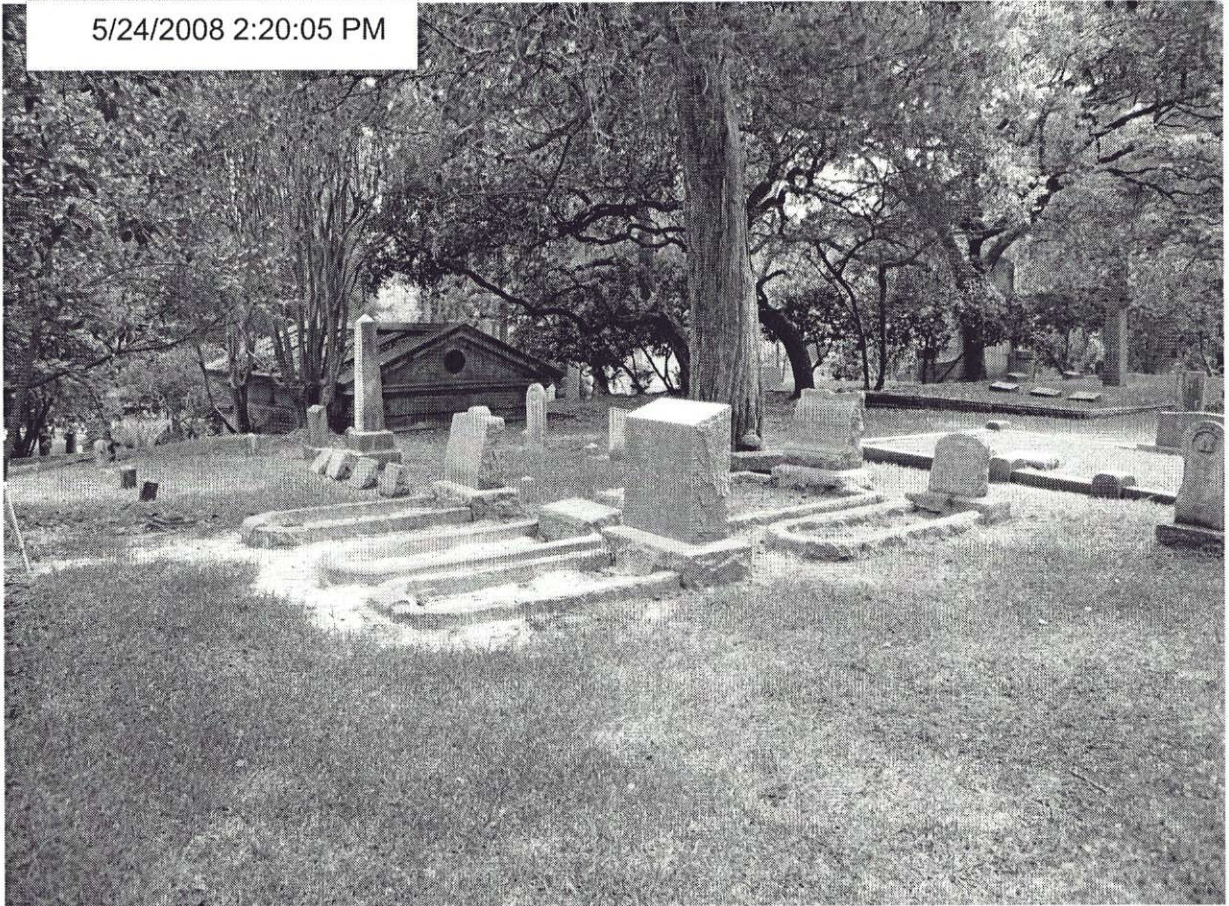

I will not be in the office this afternoon, but you can try calling me (713-498-5972) if you have any questions. If you can't reach me, talk to Mr. Ambrus. I'll be back in the office on Wednesday.
