Subject: Key to Letters in Washing Cemetery

Loy,

The Key (D, R, T, X) applies only to letters in the R/D column, indicating removals and reinterments.

R meaning Strangers Rest is a Section designation, just as C and D are Section designations. R in this usage applies only to the 25'x25' squares in the Strangers Rest part of Section H. The family lots in Section H are still called Section H.

We changed the SR designation from H to R to make it clear that "lot" numbers such as R-105 are not "real" (historic) lot numbers (like H-062) but rather a modern "imposed" (I need to find a better word for this) numbering system to create a geographical designation for the SR graves that previously had only a chronological number, such as SR-X133 (which is shown in the database as S-1133 so it will sort correctly).

Does that help?

Bernice

R-105 - you said means strangers rest. Your Key says R means Moved into Washington?!
Straighten me out? Have a good weekend.l
