

The outcome of a seven-year collaboration, DOC/UNDOC, features a mixed-media production housed in a hi-tech aluminum box, which contains Felicia Rice's letterpress book DOC/UNDOC, including performance texts by artist/writer Guillermo Gómez-Peña and critical commentary by art historian Jennifer González, video by artist Gustavo Vazquez, and sound art by Zachary Watkins. The object itself carries within a crisis of identity: What is it exactly? A stage for an intimate one-on-one performance? An unusual video screening room? A personal multi-media altar?

"How do we create a more intimate, performative and ritualized experience for the viewer/participant in this unique book object? Its interactive dimension may be its main contribution to the field of experimental book art or rather "performative book art." — Guillermo Gómez-Peña
