Rancho Santa Fe Covenant

Country Living at its Best

Magical Beauty

Quiet Solitude

The Classic Simplicity of Lilian Rice

Rancho Santa Fe Covenant—One of the original land grants in San Diego—the whole atmosphere is one which brings back the early days of California with its inherent relaxed pace and beautiful surroundings and the jewel of a tiny Spanish adobe village tucked at its center. A fortunate few are able to avail themselves of the opportunity to own property in this serene setting.

The ultimate integrity has been maintained here with the beautiful restoration of this original 1930s vintage country home, the new "honeymoon cottage" which was once the bunk house and now reflects the romance and charm of the main house, and landscaping and exteriors of unsurpassed beauty.

Enter the property through carved wood gates and step back in time to the enchanting setting of 1930s Rancho Santa Fe—be prepared for something very special. This is one of the Ranch's most beautiful settings with views to the distant mountains, exceptional trees, ponds, waterfalls and meditation gardens.

Surrounded by the privacy of 3.27 acres, a swimming pool and corrals complete this wonderful property. Room for a tennis court.
