WHISPERING PALMS GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB

As we approach the end of another "long hot summer" charred by molotov cocktails, rocks, bottles, pickets, curses and dope, I would have a word with students on their way back to the classroom, and their parents.

However, before I stand on my self-appointed soap box and preach, let me identify myself. I am neither on the left nor the far right. I consider myself educated, but not intellectual; disciplined, but not intolerant; liberal, but lawful. Kind of a space-age square. I vote, pray, work, dance, surf, mow the lawn, visit my barber and believe in the future of the human race. Oddly enough I love my wife and four children. I also think policemen are good guys. And as old-fashioned as it may sound, I know that God lives. Throughout the spring of my life, I have experimented. I have smoked a few times but found it killed my taste for good food. I have never been drunk, because I am foolish enough when sober. I have flown jets 1000 miles an hour, bailed out, travelled in 18 countries, caught a marlin, bounced a check, read Playboy magazine, and flown kites with my kids. So what!

I'm not some modern-day Batman or frustrated Eagle Scout either. I admit that I still love a parade an enjoy singing the Star Spangled Banner at a ball game. But I'm not a minute man nor a witch hunter. Just a normal 33-year-old man of the times.

Rather than join any of you in protest, I prefer to present my case in the form of a plea:

America, today, is in desperate need of sound advice in the field of human rights and responsibilities. We adults have failed in our duty to the American people, both young and old. Especially do our youth need education in these fundamental principles. We observe small groups of students taking over a large university by simply locking out the school administrators. We hear them cry "Freedom, Freedom," yet they demonstrate little awareness that with freedom goes responsibility. We see more and more students absorbing the principles of political science, and at the same time more and more young people becoming faceless figures in banner groups whose single-minded purpose seems to be rebellion. But rebellion, as a product of permissiveness and a tool of pressure groups which misunderstand freedom, is a trap and a snare. Let's not have any Red, White or Black Guard in this country.

We witness teach-ins, lie-downs, lie-ins, sit-ins, mass demonstrations, strikes, riots and every form of civil disobedience. And to what end? A boneless, communal society where "each according to his allotment" rather than "each according to his own merits" prevails? It doesn't take a dose of LSD to focus sharply and clearly on the values of free enterprise and individual performance.

Let's take the initiative and think. Let's evaluate the quality of our input and get the facts about history as it was made and is being made today. Then, with quiet determination, let's get the message out by setting the example for our neighbors. Let's stand up for a "civil obligation union" dedicated to responsibility, rather than a "civil liberties union" bent upon banning prayers from schools and stars and stripes from flags.

Gear up, Youth! Don't let Uncle Sam do it for you, do it yourself. Would you believe it's later than you think? If your folks won't set the example or take the lead, it's up to you. It's your world, your future. Don't give me that jazz about the sign of the times and nuclear fallout. Forget about the drop-outs and sit-ins. You stay-in and live up to your heritage and your destiny.

"Freedom isn't Free. Remember, Freedom isn't Free. You've got to pay the price. You've got to sacrifice. For your Liberty.

Everything Ready for Library Guild Book Fair, Saturday, October 1st!

Final plans for the Library Guild Book Fair being held Saturday, October 1st in the patio adjoining the Rancho Santa Fe Library will be made by Guild members at the home of Mrs. Karl Weber on Thursday, September 22nd. Mrs. Weber and Mrs. John D. Isaacs are co-chairmen of the fund raising event which offers better books for sale this year than ever before according to Guild president Mrs. William Weddell.

A new feature of special interest to children — and gift-buying adults — will be two hundred autographed copies of the modern childrens classics by Dr. Seuss, which have been made available for the book fair through the cooperation of Mrs. Billie Keenholts at the Ranch Book Store. On sale at the regular price with Dr. Seuss' own signature inside will be such favorites as I Had Trouble Getting to Solla Sallew, The Cat in The Hat, and many others.

New Ranch resident Arthur Meyerhoff will autograph copies of his book The Strategy of Persuasion which urges the use of sophisticated American advertising techniques to combat Communist propaganda. The book has angered the Communists into belittling it in their monthly journal of political analysis International Affairs published by Izvestia. Reviewer Y. Vladimirov calls Meyerhoff "a businessman dabbling in politics."

Doubtless the high quality of the books for sale at the Fair is due in part to the efforts of telephone chairman Mrs. Ann Witwer and her assistants Mesdames Clyde Eberly, Wm. Colhoun, Clarence Collins, John Phipps, Robert Bible, Cyrus Thieme, Lawrence Olsen, Eugene Bashore, W. H. Ford, Wm. O. Heath, Kenneth A. Stixrud, Belle Claggett, and John Devlin, who have been canvassing Guild members for book donations. Books may be left at the library or call Mrs. Louise Badger at 756-1632 or Mrs. O. E. C. Oxley at 756-1048 to arrange for pick-up. Donations are tax deductible at the donors valuation.

Mrs. R. M. Clotfelter, chairman of the sorting committee, reports that donations so far include a good selection of cookbooks, many volumes of religion, poetry, philosophy and plays from the library of the late Bishop and Mrs. Remington, a great many classics which are required college and high school reading as well as current textbooks.

The Guild is still looking for the "Mr. Vickerman" to whom English poet John Masefield addressed a letter found in a volume of Masefield poetry.

Decorations chairman Mrs. Charles Chapin and her assistant Mrs. Carter R. Lewis are making a color wheel to help buyers locate particular books which are packed in color coordinated boxes. Fiction is displayed in solid blue boxes, non-fiction in beige and yellow striped boxes and detective stories in black — of course!

The refreshment committee headed by Mrs. Ray Paulin will sell coffee, lemonade and doughnuts — ten cents each — to hungry book buyers. Hostesses are Mrs. Russell Fawcett and her committee, Mrs. Howard Clinton, Mrs. H. F. Bakewell, Mrs. John Lee, Mrs. David Dewey, Mrs. Winnifred H. Canning, Mrs. John C. Bovee, Mrs. George Ravenscroft and Mrs. Robert Smith.

Mrs. Hugh Tietjen is in charge of placing posters advertising the Fair throughout the county so come early if you want first chance, Book Fair chairmen advise.

AN OPEN LETTER

To my friends, Neighbors and customers:

A very favorite customer of ours came into the office last week and in the course of our chat . . . questioned the job we were doing to publicize our Travel Agency.

"Are you sure," he said, "That everyone in the Ranch knows that you are here—that you represent all kinds of transportation—hotels, etc. That it costs them nothing extra to do business with you? Have you told them that they can actually save money by calling you? Do they know how convenient and attractive your office is? Have you told them about your personnel—how well they are trained—the years of experience they have and how they are so willing to help in any way? Are you very sure that you have told them all of these things?"

Frankly, I was somewhat embarrassed because I thought I had done this in so many ways—by advertising—personal contact—word of mouth from satisfied customers. I really felt I had done a pretty good job.

But, just in case I missed telling you—It is all true and all here . . . and I invite you personally to come in and see for yourself. Come in and try us—I need you as a satisfied customer so that you can tell your friends too.

Sincerely,

Henry F. Hansen

The Annual Fashion Show produced by the Country Friends of San Diego County will be held again this year at the Inn at Rancho Santa Fe on Sept. 20th.

So many women work to make this show a success. Few realize how many husbands are helping. These men are the unsung heroes of the show!

Mr. LaPrelle will be up early on the 20th arranging for the parking of an estimated 1000 cars expected to invade the Ranch.

Mr. Jack W. Edwards will be preparing the luncheon for the models. Mr. Edwards likes to cook so he is preparing and donating the meal. Our models will be the best fed models in the business.

Mr. C. Temple Murphy—don't think he's not working because his wife is the President of County Friends. He and his active committee called the "Bottle Poppers" will serve the wine after the show. His committee consists of Mr. Ray Johnson, Mr. James W. Stockton and Mr. Hugh Tietjen.

The chairman of the Fashion show, Mrs. Thomas Clotfelter also has her husband working. Mr. Clotfelter and Mr. William Black will act as hosts.

Many other husbands are busy answering phones which seem to ring continually for the women who head the committee. We suspect Mr. Cyrus Thieme works as hard as his wife, who is in charge of tickets.

The Fashion Show is an all out effort of the women of the Ranch and its success is important to the various agencies in San Diego County. The agencies to profit from the show are: The Crossroads Foundation, The San Diego County Epilepsy Society and the San Diego County Cerebral Palsy Society.

John Hogan Will Present Many Outstanding Designers at Country Friends "Appearance of Autumn" Fashion Show

The Country Friends annual "Appearance of Autumn" has become one of the most spectacular fashion shows on the west coast. Designers vie for the honor of appearing as featured guests in John Hogan's presentation of the finest of American Couture. In past years there have been such fashion notables as Adele Simpson, Helen Rose and Georgia Bullock. In 1962 and 1963 the honors went to Michael Novarese. This year will be his third appearance at Rancho Santa Fe. In addition to the Novarese collection, the 1500 women who attend the show on Tuesday, September 20th will see John Hogan present a sampling of the collections from more than twenty-five other couture houses.

The guest designer is chosen only after viewing all of the Fall collections and the Novarese presentation was truly one of the most outstanding collections of the season. From daytime wools through three-part suits to exquisite theater costumes and extravagant gala gowns it's an exciting combination of purist design, luxurious fabrics and magnificent tailoring. Shapes are tactfully controlled to look easy and to flow with the body. It is a collection of fashion mobiles . . . for some of the fabric is airborne in a flow away from the body. The colors feature navy for day and evening, a rich range of browns and the blue-reds from cerise to burgundy.

John Hogan will stress the Important Occasion Look for Fall 1966 with great elegance in fur trims and beading. There will be a large group of after five and evening clothes from Larry Aldrich, Harvey Berin, Irene, Maurice Rentner and Adele Simpson.

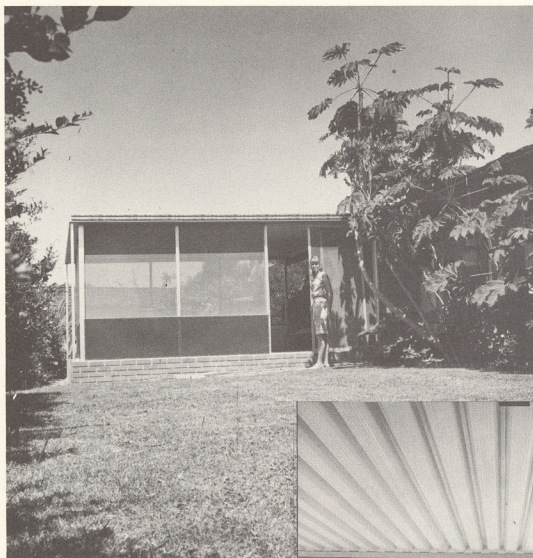

From Stanley Nelson there will be luxuriously fur trimmed capes and coats. Some will have complete fur linings stenciled with exotic patterns. There will be the timeless tweed classic suits by Davidow and the sophisticated simplicity of B. H. Wragge's costumes.

The pants suit will be one of features on the Rancho runway this year. An Adele Simpson style will be shown or a four-piece costume which includes both pants and a skirt. This will all be a part of the great emphasis that will be given to the Total Look of costumes for both daytime and evening. The dress with its own Jacket, the evening gown with its own coat.

After the heady fare of fashions from John Hogan, and magnificent jewels from Jesop's, there will be champagne and wine. A combination that is sure to make this year's "Appearance of Autumn" one of the greatest successes in a long series of smash hits.

"I've long believed in the return of the extravagant little dress." His forecast materializes in a stunner beaded in a way that is a Michael Novarese hallmark. A pave of magenta, emerald and silver picks out the authentic Persian poisley pattern against the jet encrusted background. Approx. $850.

Rancho Santa Fe's Personality Man of the Month . . . Gourmet Cook Jack Edwards!

Rowena Edwards is one of the most fortunate women in Rancho Santa Fe. She has a husband who cooks. He doesn't just cook when the mood strikes him . . . and he doesn't just dabble in the flour and eggs because it's a hobby. Jack Edwards is a serious cook . . . and in the lovely Edwards' home, the kitchen does not belong to Rowena. It most definitely belongs to Jack! Just a week ago he stirred up a batch of delicacies for thirty women comprising the Patroness' luncheon for the Country Friends' Fashion Show. . . . and the menu began with a little something called Chinese Barbecued Ham which required a cooking time of fourteen hours. The models who will adorn the ramp on the day of the Fashion Show will first have been fed by Jack Edwards—who is cooking the entire luncheon at home, and transporting it to the Inn so that the beautiful women who will be doing a tour of duty on the ramp that day will have exceptional gustatorial sustenance before their work begins. Mr. Edwards' kitchen is fabulous! The large interior island work-space is equipped with electric cooking units on one end; a true charcoal barbecue on the other. In between is a deep-fat fryer while several efficient overhead fans carry steam and smoke heavenward. If you look closely, you are able to catch a glimpse of the many exotic spice jars which line the entire rim of the cooking island. A vegetable preparation sink; a dishwashing sink, and excellent refrigeration complete this efficient kitchen—with ingenious storage space everywhere.

Jack Edwards claims he learned to cook as a little boy when his grandmother taught him to make and bake a one-egg cake. In between then and now he spent some time in Naval Aviation (1942-1953) retiring as Commander. He also served as Vice President of the San Francisco Office of the world-famous Grant Advertising Agency for many years—but when he received the nod to launch several new European branches, Jack declined. He retired to Rancho Santa Fe and his second love—his kitchen. His first love, Rowena, acts as bartender when friends come to call. You see, Jack is in the kitchen preparing dinner and much, much too busy with a special sauce to trifle with such nuisance chores as ice cubes. His guests claim they have never had it so lucky!

La Rumarosa Project Deserves Your Support! Local Young People "Adopt" a Mexican Town!

Recently, students in our area have become involved in a series of projects to help the people of La Rumarosa, Mexico. The group, the La Rumarosa Project, has been raising money, collecting clothes, and sponsoring medical clinics in the village.

Projects so far have included a Thanksgiving Dinner, a Christmas party, the procurement of medical supplies and the services of local doctors, an operation to straighten the eyes of a small boy, and the recent stay of ninety-four Mexican children in this area for a weekend. The club has just raised $800 to finance open-heart surgery for an eleven-year-old girl. This last venture brings the total number of projects to twenty-four, the total amount of donations raised to $1400, and the number of teens involved to 107.

The unusual thing about the club's work has been that every detail has been arranged by the teenagers themselves. They do the paperwork, the communication with consulate officials, etc. The group has received much publicity at the same time, including television and newspapers on both sides of the border.

Throughout their work, the teenagers have depended on the cooperation of local people, including stores, service groups, and individuals. They are still in need of donations of clothing, medicine, doctor's services, fruit, and money for hospital expenses etc. Anyone interested in helping please call Kent Newby 756-2626, Debby Johnson 756-1724, Linda Coffman 755-1951, or Carl Sautter 753-5860.

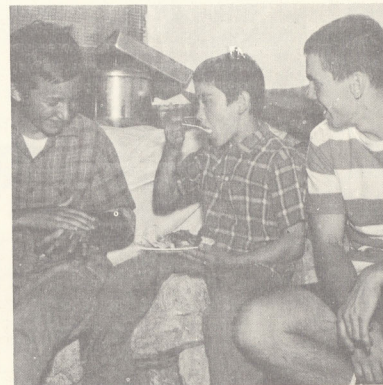

The group's ultimate goal is best summed up by Project secretary, Linda Coffman, "When we are finished, we want to see the people of La Rumarosa take pride in their cleanliness, in their education, and in themselves. We can't stop now. We've fallen in love with the people of Mexico. It's that simple."

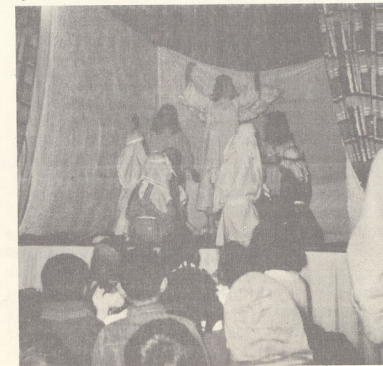

Mary Hunt of Cardiff, Activity Manager of the La Rumarosa Project, helps the man in the middle, who is blind, on his way to the mission in the village.

San Dieguito High School students Orville Dalgner and Rich Houk talk with Andres Gamez, age 12, who recently underwent an operation for the straightening of his eyes, which was financed by the La Rumarosa Project.

The children of La Rumarosa here perform a Christmas play written for them by Linda Coffman of Solana Beach, secretary of the La Rumarosa Project.

PRÊT A PORTER

Have you noticed the handbag revolution? Hardly the thing everyone would be aware of, but lately there's been an absolutely new shape beginning . . . the Minaudiere—a roll of filagree metal, or fabric pavee. Sometimes with a chain, sometimes not. Both Whitsitt's and Sanderson's are starting their minaudiere collection and by Christmas we're sure these will be the favorite gift of the year.

Promotion Announced at Rancho Santa Fe Regional Office, Bank of La Jolla; Mr. Lloyd Johnson Appointed Vice President and Manager

Mr. Lloyd Johnson has had an exceptionally fine career in banking. Although he was born in Fort Bragg, California he moved to Napa at an early age, graduating from Napa High School and Sacramento Junior College. His first banking position was with the First National Bank of Napa; and when it was purchased by the Bank of America he continued with this new affiliation for ten years. From there he went with the Buick and Cadillac Agency of Napa as the assistant manager (six years) and then, back into the banking business again for a total of eleven years with local independent banks. From 1941 to 1946, Mr. Johnson was with the U. S. Naval Reserve as Chief Storekeeping, Disbursing. He lives at 5196 Catoctin Drive in San Diego with his wife, Mary; daughter, Cheryl, senior at Crawford High School; and daughter Diane, a 7th grader. Son Larry is in his second year at Mesa College in San Diego. The Johnsons own a small cattle ranch in Wooden Valley, nine miles from Napa, California . . . and are looking with serious intent at Rancho Santa Fe properties. Rancho Santa Fe welcomes them as future neighbors and friends!

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

... Contributed by A. Randolph Holladay, this interesting article is reprinted from

NOONTIDE FOR THE CRIMINAL MOUTHPIECE

The time has come when it may be said candidly that the American people are regarding that division of the legal profession that devotes itself to criminal law with increasing doubt and disillusion. The people are beginning to wonder whether the profession has lost its concern for elemental justice in favor of slick pettifogging that earns pats on the back from colleagues and fat fees from criminal clients. The people are wondering just who is being protected from whom; whether it's the law-abiding majority that's being protected from the law-flaunting minority or whether it's the other way around.

Not salving that doubt and disillusion one little bit was that recent decision of the Supreme Court — admittedly not a unanimous one but just the same altogether binding — regarding the rights of the accused that already has begun to hamstring law enforcement agencies in the performance of their difficult and thankless jobs while at the same time opening up dazzling vistas to those lawyers to whom ethics are merely something one practices within the trade.

This is seen a maniacal mass murderer in Chicago being handled with deference, delicacy and loving care lest his "Constitutional rights" be violated to the advantage of a smart mouthpiece. Ignored is the fact that the evidence is overwhelming that eight innocent young women had inflicted upon them at this beast's hands the ultimate violation of all law.

Then there are outnumbered cops facing up to mobs of howling savages being accused of "police brutality" for doing their duty. Conspicuously lacking in legal redress, on the other hand, are the families of the cops who've been killed in the line of that same duty.

And of course there's the frequent spectacle of notorious and wealthy hoodlums skilfully defended by lawyers learned in all the stratagems and evasions that the higher courts have opened to them.

Here in Nevada the people see a crew of murderers long ago sentenced to the death penalty, two for especially brutal and revolting crimes, languish year after year in the state penitentiary while their lawyers burden the already clogged courts with appeal after appeal based on the merest legalistic quibbles, the murderers' victims long since forgotten save by their grieving loved ones.

In Virginia City the people are treated to the prospect of the imminent release from the pen after serving no more than a token sentence of a man who murdered a respected local resident, a man who had the money to retain a clever lawyer to spring him.

Each year this nation sees more crime and it sees more violence. Each year it sees new interpretations of the Constitution and precedents set in those interpretations that afford even greater security to the enemies of society.

It is certain those fathers of this nation who drafted the Constitution and the Bill of Rights intended those documents to serve as the foundation of a new nation, as the framework of a peaceful, enlightened and progressive society. It is equally certain they never dreamed, never conceived, that the essential meaning of those documents would be perverted, "interpreted," and otherwise flaunted to a point of blasphemy. Nor that the streets of any large American city would be less safe to tread after dark in 1966 than they were in 1787.

It might be well to reflect, gentlemen of the law, that just as the individual has rights so does society. When the former begins to erode at the latter there has to be something wrong.

Lake San Marcos Invitational Art Exhibit Termed Outstanding Success!

An outstanding collection of work by prominent Southern California artists, aided by balmy summer weather, resulted in a record turnout of 10,000 to 12,000 visitors at the two-day San Marcos Invitational Art Exhibit last weekend.

Hanging excluded avant garde or abstract works.

Recorded in the two-day exhibit was upward of $6,000 in sales, reports Harry Deuel Jr., who with his son Austin, an exhibiting artist, was in charge of the invitational show. Sponsors of the second annual art exhibit was Frazer Brothers, Inc., Lake San Marcos Developers.

Ninety artists were invited and 50 accepted the invitation to show five paintings each in competition for purchase prize of $1,000 for the public's favorite oil painting and purchase prize of $400 for the favorite watercolor.

"The Late Journey," a colorful oil painting by M. A. Gomez, captured the attention of visitors as did "City Fragment," a watercolor by Bob Landry.

Western Scenes

Gomez, a native of Mexico, came to California when he was eight years of age. He paints western scenes from places he's visited. His scenes depict the west during his life time, rather than the "old west."

He has a strong palette and uses vivid colors. He exhibits at the French Pavillion, Grand Central Gallery in New York, Saks Gallery in Denver, Colo., O'Brien's Gallery in Scottsdale, Ariz., and The Saddleback Inn at Santa Ana.

This is his first year as an exhibiting artist at Lake San Marcos.

Landry, who exhibited at the first show in 1965 and has paintings in Lake San Marcos Art Gallery, has been in the San Diego area since 1962.

Artists Dinner

Deuel served as master of ceremonies at an artists' dinner Saturday evening in the Trophy Room at Lake San Marcos.

Among the exhibiting artists were a newcomer, Frances Crowder, portraits in oil; Frank Adams, whose cartoons have been syndicated in more than 100 newspapers; Robert Krantz, painter of yachts and the sea; Al Dempster, who has also illustrated Golden Books for Simon and Schuster Publications; Frank Hamilton, winner of last year's watercolor competition; and Clarence McGrath who took 1965 honors in oil painting; and Bill Hampton, who does outstanding portraits of Indians.

Other Artists

Among others were Rose Leonard, George Gibbs, Marie McClure, Mogens Abel, Warner Baird, Catharine Balingier, Chet Berg, Vivian Burtchby, Sebastian Capella, Joyce Clark, Marjorie Cummins, Earl Daniels, Kay Dempster, Fred Fields, Henri Francois, Joe Frye, Larry Garrison and Lynn Gertenbach.

Southwest Arts Foundation Formed in San Marcos

Formation of The Southwest Arts Foundation, 1145-339 San Marino Drive, San Marcos, has been announced by Harry Deuel, Jr., chairman of the Board of Trustees.

The foundation was created around funds donated by H. A. Deuel, Sr., the 94 year old patriarch of three generations represented on the board of trustees. The third generation is H. Austin Deuel, 3rd, owner of the Lake San Marcos Art Gallery, and his sister, Vivian Deuel. Milo Shadle, a Vista attorney, is also a trustee.

"We have a very ambitious format to fulfill," reports Chairman Deuel. "As funds become available, we hope to foster literary and educational projects in all fields of the arts except the theatre and acting. We hope the foundation can function as co-ordinator for certain types of projects by writers, fine artists, photographers and musicians to reach their proper audience. The nature of the projects which interest us must be inspiring personal examples or objectives, constructive commentaries on modern life, and above all be culturally appealing to people below the intelligencia level and above the avante-garde type of mind."

"The real challenge facing the foundation lies in trying to see that worthy Southwest professionals get their due in public recognition. A tantalizing secondary challenge is trying to tap the latent but superbly qualified backgrounds of retirees who made their living using their artistic talent on other people's projects but never had the right help or opportunity to achieve their pet projects. We hope the foundation can co-ordinate the marketing, publishing, or recording and the many other elements of commerce in a way that sees their ideas reach fruition."

Report from the Rancho-Coastal Humane Society

As usual summer months bring us a heavier load of work than the other nine months of the year.

Animal owners often fail to provide properly for their pets during vacation absences; some either just leave their pets somewhere or bring them to the Animal Shelters; others place them in kennels without first investigating the conditions. Many will ask a neighbor boy or girl to come every day and feed the pets, but, with family gone, the pets take off at the first opportunity, and frequently the boy or the girl forgets about feeding and watering.

Many visitors lose their pets and often do not know where and whom to call.

All this results in many more injured and lost pets, in more grief for the animals, the owners and the Humane workers.

August brought us something we still barely believe. 200 starving goats; six Great Danes, 20 cats and undetermined number of frightened homeless dogs living in the brush and trusting no one.

The goats and other animals were left behind by a woman who moved her 400 or 500 dogs (no one knows for sure) to Arizona a month ago. San Diego County authorities ordered her license, vaccinate her dogs and to reduce the number she was keeping, but she preferred to move.

On August the 17th Deputy Sheriff Gene Crowley reported to the Rancho-Coastal Human Society that about 200 goats near Oak Grove, just off highway 79, were starving to death. We reported this to the County Veterinarian Dr. E. R. Quortrup who went to the goat "farm" the following morning. Upon his return Dr. Quortrup informed us that he found the situation there demanding immediate help. He found several bodies of goats that had perished already and the rest of the herd was in a very poor condition. The caretaker informed Dr. Quortrup that since August 1st approximately 75 animals have died from starvation. Dr. Quortrup ordered the bodies buried, and with his own money, bought a ton of hay.

Our humane officer, Mike Maynard, a photographer and myself drove to the goat farm, some 80 miles from Encinitas. The sight that greeted us was most depressing. Only very poor, make-shift fences, made of pieces of wood and wire, held the animals in. They looked thin; many large ones had difficulty in walking due to the long, curved, split hooves.

Only six bales of hay remained from the ton bought by Dr. Quortrup the day before; the animals had not stopped eating, according to the caretaker's wife, since the hay was delivered. The bodies ordered buried by Dr. Quortrup had been dug up by the coyotes and partially devoured.

We ordered two more tons of hay. The caretaker has not been sent any funds by the owner for several weeks, so it was up to us to feed them — there was no one else.

On the following day humane officer Maynard drove to the goat farm, taking some materials to build a separating fence, and also grain for the nursing mothers. Since then we have ordered four more tons of hay and 400 pounds of grain, but nothing has been sent by the owner, Mrs. Fannie Fox who is in Arizona and in trouble with the Humane Society there.

August 23, after learning that Mrs. Fox had left some dogs at her notorious kennels in San Marcos, we visited the kennels. There were six Great Danes, crouching in very small enclosures, in unbelievable filth, no shelter from the sun, covered by myriads of flies. Twenty cats were housed in small cages, also showing that they had not been cleaned for many weeks.

One Great Dane with a very badly ulcerated leg, was immediately sent to a veterinary hospital. The remaining five have been transferred to the Animal Shelter; they all suffer from infestation by thousands of ticks, and each of them has at least half a dozen sores. They have been robbed of their innate pride and nobility and they seem ashamed of the filth in which they had to exist.

Also a small, shaggy dog, with badly injured leg, was found crouching in the bathroom of the house at the kennels. She is beginning to trust us, so we hope to treat her leg, bathe and groom her. Another small white dog was picked up outside of the kennels; she is not injured, but very frightened, just like the Great Danes and all the rest. There are, some 12 or 20 more dogs living in the brush outside of the kennels. They do not trust anyone, most of them probably never felt the touch of a kind hand.

We are trying to pick them all up with the use of the harmless box trap. It is a tremendous job, but we cannot leave them there as we could not leave the Great Danes or the Goats. Help is badly needed from everyone as this rescue is expensive. We have had a number of kind letters, some with contributions and we are most grateful.

Sincerely,
Maria K. Lloyd, president and executive director

Mr. Teagle, Chairman of the Planning Commission, reported on the July 22 meeting of the San Diego County Planning Commission concerning the Lomas Santa Fe development adjoining Rancho Santa Fe on the west. He commented that the traffic pattern which would be created by this development would possibly preclude any widening of El Camino Real in the foreseeable future.

Mr. Teagle outlined the status of the proposal to fill the ravine between the Association offices and the Rancho Santa Fe Elementary School. After considerable discussion of the various aspects of the matter, it was moved, seconded, and carried to authorize the obtaining of bids for the grading and filling of this ravine area, to be presented to the Board for final decision. It was suggested that alternate bids be obtained which would include the grading of an access road between the southwestern edge of the post office parking area and El Fuego.

Mr. Teagle presented names of those who will serve on the Planning Commission for the 1966-67 fiscal year. He stated that he had contacted Dr. Stork and ascertained that he would be willing to act as consultant from time to time as matters would arise which might be assisted by his experience.

Mr. Thieme, Legal Committee Chairman, stated that he had been contacted by Attorney Shamsky who had been retained by an Association member concerning the erection of a radio tower on covenanted property. He stated that he had advised Mr. Shamsky that the Board had the matter under consideration.

SECRETARY'S REPORT:

Resolution concerning transfer of real property. The Secretary referred to the notice mailed to all Association members on July 20, 1966 concerning the resolution passed by the Board on July 15, 1966 transferring title to approximately .03 of an acre of Lot 41 to E. J. Walz, subject to the provisions of Section 11 of the By-Laws, in exchange for a like size parcel of Lot 27, to effect a realignment of common property lines. He stated that the required fifteen day period had expired with receipt of one letter of opposition representing a single property owner. The Secretary was directed to follow through with the transfer of the property involved.

Relief Deputy Sheriff. The Secretary reported that a Mr. Ron Mottino had been on probation as Relief Deputy Sheriff and recommended that he be employed on a permanent basis for this position. It was moved, seconded, and carried that Mr. Ron Mottino be retained as Relief Deputy Sheriff, to be employed on the same basis as the former employee in that position.

Subdivision request of D. Baldry and N. Bard. The Board reviewed subject subdivision request pertaining to Portion of Lot 7, Block 36, Rambla de las Flores, consisting of 8.39 gross acres into two sites of 2.1 and 5.9 net acres, which request was deferred at the Board meeting of July 1, 1966. I would like to take this means to express my deep appreciation to all my many friends in Rancho Santa Fe, for the beautiful flowers, cards, and gifts I have received while here in the hospital. "Devil Pups" Program At Camp Pendleton is a Rugged And Rewarding Experience!

By DAVID HERBERT

This summer as every summer since 1954 Camp Pendleton has been the meeting point of a program which has been made possible by private donations. It is a program for boys 15 to 17 which is aimed at the promotion of physical and moral responsibility.

Upon arrival the "Pups" are issued pants, a jacket, a short haircut and are assigned barracks where they will sleep with other members of their platoon.

They are also given a physical fitness test the day they arrive and the same test the day they leave to see how much they have improved. The "Pup" spends 10 days at this camp with many enjoyable activities such as swimming, (both in a pool and at the beach) hiking, an overnight bivouac and evening movies. He will also enjoy the same training lessons that Marines do such as camouflage, booby traps and different weapons. The day of a Devil Pup begins at 5:30 and lasts until 10:00 p.m.

The first day we took a physical endurance test which was hard on our muscles. The third day we hiked to the top of a mountain (with 40 pound packs) came half way down to pitch our tents and had to run up to the top again. Finally we got to bed at 12:30 at night. The next day we hiked 3 or 4 miles to a gas chamber. We were taught how to use gas masks and then we entered the chamber and took off our gas masks. We found ourselves breathing tear gas. Some people were choking and couldn't stop coughing. We did this for 3 minutes. Another thing which was hard were push ups. At an average, most people did about 1000 push ups a day.

But all these things were for our benefit, so we took it as it came.

At the end of the 10 day period, the Devil Pups graduate. When he does he receives a Devil Pup T-shirt, a certificate of good conduct and a physical fitness certificate.

I recommend that anyone go for it is a lot of fun and one learns at the same time.

Co-Chairmen Named for United Community Services' 1966 United Crusade

Mrs. Hubert Brooke of Paseo Arbolado (left), and Mrs. Charles S. Ames, Jr., of La Gracia will serve as co-chairmen for the Rancho Santa Fe United Community Services' 1966 United Crusade in October. These well-known co-chairmen are pictured reviewing proofs of a letter that will be mailed to all Rancho homes and business firms during the last week of September.

Again this year, the letter will ask for contributions to the United Crusade in support of its 73-member agencies. During the 1965 campaign, Rancho Santa Fe residents raised over $20,500.00 for a record high in local giving.

This is the second crusade year for Mrs. Ames as co-chairman of the Rancho Santa Fe United Crusade. Her background of community service includes: charter president of the San Dieguito branch American Field Service, past president of Del Mar P.T.A., former board member of the Rancho Santa Fe Book Club, member of the District Council Auxiliary of Children's Home Society for San Diego and Imperial counties, and a member of the Country Friends.

Mrs. Brooke also has an impressive list of accomplishments for her community which include: past president and present trustee of Rancho Santa Fe Garden Club, past board member Las Duenas, and a past board member of San Dieguito branch American Field Service.

HERBERT DOUGLAS

will resume his teaching schedule in early September. This will be his second year in Rancho Santa Fe. He will be available two and perhaps three days a week. Mr. Douglas is that rare combination: a pianist of concert caliber and a highly trained instructor who has specialized in the teaching of children. He is extremely patient and understanding. Mr. Douglas studied in New York (1915-1919) with two world famed pianists, Rafael Joseffy, one of the great Liszt pupils and the editor of the works of Chopin and Liszt in the standard Schirmer Edition, and Leopold Godowsky, whom the American critic Honeker called the Brahms (Absolute) of the Keyboard. In 1925-26 Mr. Douglas taught at Whittier College, also was a contributor to the Progressive Series of Piano lessons, conceded to be the best of any existent educational text method and which is widely used throughout the country.

Mr. Douglas has resided in Rancho Bernardo for the past three years. The parents of his students will be most pleased to recommend him.

La Jolla Country Day School Expands

The 460 plus students taking up their fall term studies at La Jolla Country Day School September 14th will witness another giant step in the school's expansion of academic and physical facilities.

Headmaster Donald Leavenworth announces the completion of a Middle School building housing eight new classrooms and adjacent lockers and recreation area for grades five through eight. The Primary School building has been enlarged to include an additional first grade classroom. Further, the school's physical education program will be bolstered by four new tennis courts, to be used under the supervision of tennis professional Miss Billie York.

Curriculum innovations for the 1966-67 year include advanced placement biology, offered to seniors, and a course in literary criticism at the Upper School level. A new science course is also scheduled for grades five through eight.

A career study program in depth will be launched this year with the development of a Country Day chapter of the international Interact Club. Offering juniors and seniors career guidance and exploratory contact with business and professional leaders, the local Interact group will be sponsored by the Torrey Pines Rotary Club. Dr. Robert Meyer, General Atomics physicist, will serve as advisor.

An independent college preparatory school encompassing nursery through the twelfth grade, La Jolla Country Day now maintains a faculty of 38 instructors and 4 administrator-teachers. New staff appointments announced by Mr. Leavenworth are: Mr. Noel Collette, French; Mrs. Mary Smith, second grade; Miss Margaret Tuttle and Mrs. Arne Lunding, girls' physical education; Mr. Reed Glover, fourth grade; Mrs. Kathryn Daughaday, first grade; Mr. John McKenna Truog, English; Miss Billie York, tennis; Col. Neil MacIntyre, business manager; and Miss Barbara Hackett, secretary.

Prior to opening day, an orientation meeting for new students will be held Tuesday, September 13th, at 10 a.m. Country Day parents are invited to meet the faculty and learn of the projected curriculum for the coming year at a school open house, scheduled for Monday evening, September 19th, at seven o'clock.

Founded in 1955 as an outgrowth of the long-established Balmer School in La Jolla, Country Day commences its sixth year on its 24-acre campus off Miramar Road. Recent construction brings the total number of major classroom buildings to six, in addition to the gymnasium and central administration building.

Enrollment figures include many students from Rancho Santa Fe and the North County area, as well as La Jolla and San Diego.

tennis tidbits

By Fran Johnson

Some new faces dominated play in the men's and women's singles divisions of the annual Rancho Santa Fe Tennis Club Championships, as Dave Freeman and Fran Smith carried away singles' cups at the conclusion of finals matches played Labor Day on the club courts.

Dave Freeman defeated John Truog Jr., a former titleholder, and Fran Smith won over Virginia Dewey, last year's singles winner, in the finals. In the men's doubles Dave teamed with his brother Rees to defeat the John Truogs, Jr. and Sr., in a closely-fought three-set match which spectators acclaimed as some of the best tennis ever played on Rancho courts.

Women's doubles were won by Pat Todd and Candy Perry, with Jo Worthington and Kathleen Sweeney as runners-up. Pat Todd and Russ Fellows defeated Jo Worthington and Lou Perry for the mixed doubles championship.

Bill Pharr won both boys' 14 and 18 singles, with Chris Kane and Kent Truog runners-up in the two divisions. Sheryl Fellows won the girls' 18 cup for the third time, retiring, it and Valerie Tague won the girls' 14 division. Runners-up were Susan Anderson and Sarah Kintner. Ty Cobb, Tennis Committee chairman, was tournament director.

Another September event will be the Wilson Jones invitational tournament for North County boys and girls, 14 and under. In addition to trophies, winners will receive tennis rackets and balls. Play will be on Sept. 9 and 10.

In late October the club will travel to Lido Island for a return match with the tennis club there. An earlier match was held on the Ranch courts.

Tournaments planned for women's B and C teams were postponed from August until September.

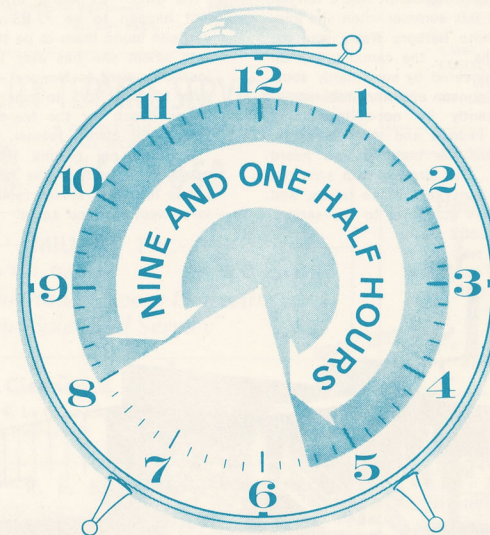

RECENT RANCH TOURNAMENT brought together old friends! Patsy McClure of Lido Isle enjoys a chat with the Mesdames Loomis & Reeves!

LOUELLA LIVERWURST

It's off to Bay Meadows for Mr. and Mrs. James Rose, who are mighty enthused about the progress of their racing filly "Irish Baby." After a good showing at Del Mar, they expect even better results up San Francisco way. After a few days up north, the Rose's will pack their camper for a few weeks in Idaho just living the lazy life with fishing high on the priority list . . . nice to see Perry Lieber, Jr. in Rancho Santa Fe for a weekend with his parents. He is being transferred from Chicago to Los Angeles, so we should be seeing more of him from now on . . . Elaine Ravenscroft had a fun-filled ten days in Hawaii this summer when she joined forces with Ranchoite Barbara Watts, and ex-ranchoite Carolyn Walls . . . the camping trip on the Cardiff Coast, engineered by such hardy souls as Jean Taylor, Fran Johnson and Ann Robinson—and joined intermittently by not-quite-so-hardy souls such as Thyra Fellows and Mimi Borst (to mention just a few of the hundreds we heard joined the party) . . . this brave group sent the kids off to follow the sun, set up the tables, and for the next seven days got down to the serious business of bridge, and a great time was had by all . . . this Thursday evening the Edward Strauss' will host a garden party to introduce their lovely new Rancho home on Lago Lindo to thirty-five of their friends from La Jolla . . . a golfing trip to Ojai this weekend is on the social schedule of the A. Morgan Jones', Ronald McDonalds, and the John Hermans. They have reservations at a charming country inn . . . Marge Freck is back from her New England trip, and regaled us with hilarious tales of her stay in Greenwich, Connecticut with her Aunt, Mrs. Walter Newton and her two sisters. "The Girls," as Marge affectionately calls them, just happen to be 77-83-and-85 respectively—and she found them to be the liveliest companions with whom she has ever traveled. Together, the foursome went to Newport, Watch Hill, Cape Cod, over to New York to catch a show—down to Jones Beach for the Mardi Gras . . . and into Boston for clams, lobster, and all the et-ceteras . . . and my parting thought, isn't it simply magnificent to hear the noisy quiet all over the house now that school (you wonderful institution) is in session once again!

Letter to the Editor

Editor: Rancho "Living". If many are confused about the Viet Nam war, perhaps the Administration is largely responsible. Let it cease peddling hog-wash about our desire to give the Vietnamese a living standard and democracy like our own, our do-good intention to force the bully to the north to leave their innocent neighbors in peace.

Let the Administration instead repeatedly remind us of the successful march of militant communism for 50 years through deceit, untruth, subversion and force. Let us hear again and again the story of Latvia, Esthonia, East Germany, Romania, Tibet, Korea, China itself, and all the others that, divided, have fallen one by one under the Red yoke until it embraces more than half the world's population because no strong power stood firm against it.

Let us hear that we have but two choices — abandon our way of life for atheistic communism or take our stand with raised bayonets. Let it question whether we shall stand now in Viet Nam, later in India, or Africa, or wait until the Red Tide laps at our own shores with all the rest of the world arrayed against us!

Let the Administration shout that it is already late, perhaps too late; let it whip up zeal and dedication for our country, freedom, and way of life. Let it arouse enthusiasm such as spurs communism's wretched, Godless world.

Perhaps knowing the larger truth of the desperate need of our presence in Viet Nam will help keep men free. The Viet Nam War must be fought if we are to preserve our way of life.

Sept. 18 "FACING UP TO A NEW SCHOOL YEAR" Part II

Will the coming school year be less frantic? Will it be a richer experience . . . more rewarding?
For any student, it's basically a question of motives and attitudes, and where you turn for ability to meet the challenges. A deeper spiritual approach can make all the difference in school and college work. Listen Sunday for the concluding part of a unique discussion on this subject.

Sept. 25 "WHAT IS DEVELOPING WITHIN YOU?"

What are the forces shaping your life — your health, your overall developments as an individual.
Where does Christianity come in? For a lively, illuminating discussion of this subject, listen Sunday to a Christian Science program on how spiritual regeneration develops health and harmony in man.
