Miniatures by Virginia Hendrickson Irvin to be exhibited at GOP Progressive Luncheon

AN exhibit of miniature paintings by Virginia Hendrickson Irvin will be shown at the Rancho Santa Fe Republican Women Federated's Progressive Luncheon on Monday, October 16th. Mrs. Irvin, the widow of Prof. Charles Irvin, formerly of the University of Michigan School of Business Administration and the sister of Mrs. Grace Hendrickson Ayres, is "ONE OF THE LEADING MINIATURE PAINTERS IN THE WORLD"—Elsie Dodge Pattee, faculty, Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris, and past president of the American Society of Miniature Painters.

Mrs. Irvin studied at the Chicago Art Institute and with Elsie Dodge Pattee of the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris.

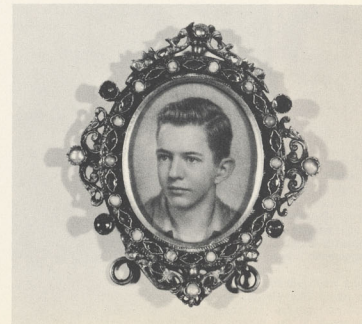

Mrs. Pattee and several leading critics and artists here and abroad have given high praise to the work of Mrs. Irvin, rating her—quote—"one of the 10 best miniature painters in the world." This is a rare type of painting, done on ivory in the finest detail, often requiring the use of a magnifying glass.

She is a member of the American Society of Miniature Painters, and the Pennsylvania Society of Miniature Painters.

She has to her credit a list of awards as large as her paintings are small among which are two awards each from The American Society of Miniature Painters and the California Society of Miniature Painters.

Mrs. Irvin's work has been exhibited in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, The American Societies exhibit in the Grand Central Galleries in New York, winning the Boardman Memorial Medal in 1944: the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts winning the D. J. McCarthy Prize: the Rackham Galleries, Ann Arbor, Michigan: the Corcoran Galleries in Washington, D.C. and The National Collection of Fine Arts of the Smithsonian Institution's permanent exhibit, Washington, D.C. and in many of the capitals of Europe.

CARDINALI

An Overwhelming Success! Country Friends 14th Fashion Show Held September 19th on Lawn of Rancho Santa Fe Inn

Fragments of fashion, festivity and fund-raising were formed into a resplendent "Collage" composition for the 1500 guests attending the Country Friends annual alfresco fashion show, the largest in the state, September 19 at the Rancho Santa Fe Inn.

Guest designer Cardinali's haute couture collection, stressing "whispering elegance"—a soft, feminine look with a bit of pow—inspired the "Collage" theme of the 13th "Appearance of Autumn," according to Mrs. Thomas Clotfelter serving as general chairman for the second year.

In addition to Cardinali's kaleidoscope of exotic colors featured in subtle and bold combinations in fabrics from wools to delicate chiffons, "Collage" included the largest collection by American designers to be seen on the West Coast stated John Hogan, who again commented the fashioning show.

Guest mannequins selected by models' chairman Mrs. Guy S. Earl, III, Fallbrook, included Mmes. Lee Roy Miller, San Diego; Donald Mayne, Christine Stone, and Miss Diana Justice, La Jolla; Victor Mature and James Russell, La Jolla Santa Fe; Peter Schroeder, Solana Beach; Arthur D. Allard, Del Mar; Clement Hirsch, Poway; Robert Grant, Escondido; J. W. Miller, Kenneth Ebricht and Walter Zable, Carlsbad; Misses Alida Guajardo and Griselda Guajardo, Mexico; and Mrs. Roger W. Puyans, Los Angeles, daughter of Country Friends president, Mrs. C. Temple Murphy and "champagne bottle popper" Mr. Murphy.

Jewels combed from museums and exhibits throughout the country and flown especially to San Diego by Jessop & Sons were modeled by another set of guest socialites.

MINUTES OF THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE RANCHO SANTA FE ASSOCIATION HELD ON THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1967, 9:00 A.M. IN THE BOARD ROOM.

PRESENT: President McLaughlin, Vice President Millard, Directors Evans, Lasswell, Lewis, Price and Witherow.

ALSO PRESENT: Association members Mr. and Mrs. John A. Klaus, Mr. Roger S. Woolley, Mr. M. R. Ransford, Mr. R. Tebbetts, Secretary Van Evera and Assistant Secretary Allen.

PUBLIC HEARING: 9:00 A.M.

Mr. McLaughlin declared the Public Hearing open to consider the petition by Mr. John A. Klaus to modify the restrictions on number of building sites in Lot 60, including portions of Lots 57 and 61, Map 2089, from a maximum of not to exceed one (1), to a maximum of not more than two (2) building sites.

The Secretary stated that the requirement for written approval of the owner or owners of record of not less than two-thirds in area of all of said property held in private ownership within five hundred (500) feet in any direction from the property concerning which a change or modification is sought to be made, had been satisfied by the applicant.

The President asked if there was anybody present who wished to speak in favor of the petition. Mr. Roger Woolley, representing the petitioner, addressed the Board and stated that a revision of the access to the proposed golf course lot, as suggested by the Art Jury, had been approved by Mr. Klaus, and that an agreement had been reached between Mr. Klaus and Mr. M. R. Ransford for the required easement. Mr. Ransford was in the audience and confirmed his willingness to grant such an easement, and a letter to this effect from Mr. Klaus was presented to the Board. There was no one present to express opposition to the proposed modification.

After full discussion, the decision of the Board was deferred for Art Jury recommendation on the subdivision application for this property.

traffic into the Post Office and Association office parking areas by way of the present exit lane, with the present entrance being changed to an exit; also that an exit driveway be cut between the Association office and the library building currently under construction, to connect with the parking area behind the Association office and library. After discussion Mr. Millard was authorized to have Rancho Santa Fe Engineering prepare a layout of the proposal and obtain competitive bids for the work.

There was a discussion of the undergrounding of the utility lines and poles in the vicinity of the Association office. Mr. Millard reported that the Planning Commission had voted unanimously to recommend to the Board that an expenditure be authorized of an amount not to exceed $4500 for this purpose. After discussion, the matter was referred to the Finance Committee for study and recommendation.

The need for a city planner was discussed. Mr. Millard read a letter he had written to Mr. Desmond Muirhead requesting an outline of his previous experience as a city planner. Further discussion deferred pending reply to request for Mr. Muirhead's qualifications.

There was a discussion of the resurfacing of the tennis courts without first having obtained Board approval for such an expenditure. It was moved, seconded, and carried that upon receipt of releases of labor and material liens the contractor be paid in full and that the Chairman of the Tennis Committee be reminded of the impropriety of having authorized this project without the proper authority to do so.

SECRETARY'S REPORT:

Office Partition. The Secretary advised that the original plans for remodeling the Association offices had contained some removable partitions. In the interest of economy these were not included in the work done in 1965. It is now deemed necessary to have such a partition for the bookkeeper. The Secretary recommended the authorization for an expenditure of $251.22 for this purpose. It was moved, seconded, and carried to approve an expenditure of $251.22 for a partition to be charged to expense.

Book marking is already under way for the October 6th and 7th Book Fair, and will continue at an accelerated pace all summer. Volunteers are busy making posters, soliciting books, which will be placed around north county. We are placing book drops in La Jolla to facilitate donations from our friends there. Since the Fair will run for two days this year we need at least twice as many books as last year, and everyone's help to obtain them. Clear out your own closet, and if you visit anyone this summer, put a box of books in the trunk of your car to bring back to us. Remember, old books buy your new books! The Book Fair and Guild memberships are our only sources of income to buy books, and all donations, whether in books or cash, are tax deductible.

Dear Friend,

Year after year, this little note to all our friends at the Ranch has come to mean one thing to you: The American Cancer Society is calling again.

In past years we have told you of the Society's policy of giving help to patients who request the services provided by the Society and of their attempt to awaken all to the first warning signals of cancer, along with their tremendous investment in wise and fruitful research projects.

Will you kindly answer our call in 1967 so the Cancer Society may continue giving help to those who may need it in the year to come?

Our sincere thanks to you,

The Innkeeper's Jottings

by Wes Hadden

Calorie counting has become as American a pastime as baseball and apple pie (whoopi! there's 500 calories itself). Most diners count calories on the menu with much more concern than the prices on the right hand column. Because of this, numerous self-elected food experts have been quick to conclude that traditional, classic type cookery is on the way out.

For a number of years, we've been keeping an informal poll on the food tastes of our guests—cosmopolites with educated palates plus the willingness and wherewithal to pay for it. We have concluded that "haute cuisine" is here to stay.

To be sure, many do count calories but the vast majority refuse to slam the door on appetite appeal. Some will even indulge their appetites while keeping within the iron curtain of their diets by the simple expedient of eating smaller portions of the calorie-rich foods they like. Chef J. B. Ross has kept this in mind when preparing his luncheon and dinner menus.

The summer season at the INN was a huge success and full of memories complete with a "most unusual" quickie reinstorm one late-August morn. This was an all-time first for the month according to many long time observers.

Ordinarily, we'd now be concentrating strictly on the many officers' and directors' meetings slated this fall. However, this year we're also looking forward to greeting horsemen from throughout the state who'll return here for the new Del Mar October season.

There'll be a two week hiatus while the Pomona Fair is in session before racing resumes "Where the Turf Meets the Surf." That fabulous October climate should make the horses run faster than ever.

Meanwhile, the Country Friends got a jump on the season by presenting the 13th Annual "Appearance of Autumn" fashion show on September 19th. The event, titled "Collage," was a big hit as always with John Hogan presenting the styles and Cardinali, as guest designer.

Taking some well deserved bows are chairman Mrs. Thomas C. Clotfelter, her co-chairman Mrs. William F. Black and about 25 of our community's loveliest citizens. It just seems to get better every year and remains as the largest alfresco fashion show in the state.

Many of San Diego County's worthwhile charities annually benefit by some $10,000, thanks to the Country Friends.

We'll be looking forward to greeting you on many fall occasions at THE INN and hope you'll call ahead for reservations.

"Well—Hello—Dolly," says Linda and Susan Bowles as they meet the author at the Rancho Coastal Humane Society.

PAW PRINTS

(translated by Jan Cantwell)

My name is Dolly Basset—Dolly for short, or long, depending upon how you look at my situation. I'm two years old and I need a new home. My first family had to travel so much that they thought I would be happier with a staying home kind of family. Long kennel-weeks aren't much fun for an affectionate little dog like myself. So they brought me to the Rancho Coastal Humane Society where they knew I'd be well cared for and every effort made to find me a good home. I am 100% loving and loveable from the intelligent wrinkles high up on my brow way far down to my waggly tail. I will make any family happy. I love everything—people, children, other dogs, cats, birds, horses, sheep, mice, hamsters—and spiders fascinate me. Oh! excuse me, there is one thing I do not like—leash! But fortunately my hair is short and easy to keep clean so I'm not bothered as much as my shaggy haired relatives.

There are lots of things I like to do. When someone is reading I like to rest my head on his or her foot. When the family is eating I like to lie quietly under the table. I know that it is not good manners to beg, I am smart; I understand things like "let's go to bed," and best of all, "let's take a walk!" I feel best when I am close to the family I love. It is so much fun to "be-with."

When I rest I often lie on my back with my four paws in the air. This soothes my long Basset back (you tall people understand lower back fatigue) and it also lets me see the world from a different angle. We Bassets have ground hugging type bodies and often miss the lovely world of "up."

Yes, of course I like my tummy rubbed. Don't you? That our Basset noses are second only to the Bloodhounds'. Personally, I'd be happy to put it to the test—I'd even wager my last bone. I have a superb sniffer, and being so close to the ground, I never lose a scent. Seeing things, and hearing things, and tasting things is lovely, but smelling?—ah-h-h, that is the best! People miss so much.

My Basset Hound's fine ancestry goes way back to France and England. However, I think we must have just a touch of Oriental blood because I love Bamboo. I'm the only dog I know without tonsils! Some Bamboo splinters got stuck in them when I was enjoying a few tasty mouthfuls so I had to have a tonsillectomy. Bamboo shoots are yummy, but, if you try some, be careful—I wasn't. Life at the Shelter is most exciting. The other day our Humane Officer, Mike, had to rescue two skunks from a clothes dryer. When he returned, I was afraid he had brought them back with him, but he hadn't—it was only their odor. Poor Mike, I wonder if he had to take a tomato juice bath when he got home.

Here are a few several different animals: "Ophelia" is a pet sheep who likes to eat avocados; "Coo" is a pigeon who has adopted all of us (except maybe the cats and you can't exactly blame him for being a little careless in that direction); three ducks, two Mallards and one Muscovy who exercises by constantly wagging his tail.

All the girl dogs here love "Toby," the Irish Setter. He is so-o-o-o handsome. His coat gleams like highly polished "mahogany-red" metal and he looks intelligent and noble. He says he would prefer a home with grown-ups. Some children must have hurt or badly frightened him when he was a puppy. People should be careful to teach their children how to meet and pet dogs properly. Children should learn to move slowly around animals and not pick them up the wrong way. How would you like to be grabbed around your tender tummy, then waved about expecting to fall or to be dropped at any moment?

Another handsome boy dog is a purebred Norwegian Elkhound named "Loki." His breed is one of the two oldest in the world. And like all of his dog-type he is brave and strong, smart and gentle. He would like a good place to romp and exercise and children to protect.

The cleanliest dog here is "Fannie," a Labrador Retriever. Every day she carefully dips and washes each paw in her water dish (to the dismay of her roommate) and is delighted whenever she can get enough water to bathe all over. I like water too, but this every day bath business isn't for me. I'd rather stick to tongue grooming for my daily beauty care. If you know someone who has a pond, please tell them about "Fannie." She would be so happy with them, and, like all Labradors, she adores children.

We Bassets are dogs of infinite good cheer (I know this may surprise you, but remember that my looks are only skin deep). No one can feel sad after they have looked at me. Everybody laughs or grins and I don't mind because I like to make people feel happy—isn't that the Idea?

I do so want to find my second family, please come soon and visit me. I know you will like me—and I will LOVE you.

Lawn Bowling for Rancho Santa Fe

by Joe Hedrick

History of the Game of "Bowls" or

"Bowling on the Green" The American Scene

Lawn Bowling appears to have been introduced into the American Colonies in the sixteenth century, although archeologists have uncovered biased stone bowls which indicate that the game was played by the North American Indians centuries before this (in some form).

Bowling greens were recorded in Boston in 1615, New Amsterdam, as New York was then called, in 1623, and soon after in Washington. George Washington was an avid bowler and often used the bowling green on his estate at Mount Vernon.

The game abruptly lost its popularity during the American Revolution and was not revived in the United States for over one hundred years. In 1885 the Middlesex Bowling Green Club was organized in New Jersey, a new club was formed in Boston, and soon bowling greens were once again flourishing along the East Coast.

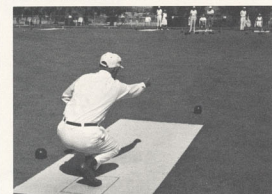

Fourteen years passed before the first West Coast Club was formed. In 1899 the St. Andrews Society of San Francisco and Oakland combined to construct the first bowling green in the West in Golden Gate Park.

The first Southern California lawn bowling club was formed in Los Angeles about 1908, and today there are more than twenty active clubs and many private greens in this area.

During the past decade the game flourished as more and more people, having planned early retirement have time to play.

This game has a tremendous fascination for the initiated, and there is much in the old Scotch adage, "once a bowler, always a bowler."

National recreation surveys have at last recognized the demand for and the potential-ties of lawn bowling facilities. Bowling greens are now being installed nation wide in housing tract and retirement community developments, such as "Sun City," "Leisure World" and "Rancho Bernardo" enterprises. A retirement community without a bowling green is rapidly becoming obsolete in the U.S.A. (It is reported that Leisure World has 500 people desiring to play—now a long waiting list).

THE AMERICAN LAWN BOWLS ASSOCIATION

The American Lawn Bowls Association, commonly referred to as the "ALBA," was formed in Buffalo, N.Y., in 1915, for the purpose of promoting the game in the United States, assisting local organizations, encouraging national recognition, and promoting international cooperation and harmony. Much of the progress of lawn bowling in the U.S.A. is due to the dedicated efforts of the officials of this national organization.

The A.L.B.A. is made up of five divisions, or geographical areas, each one of which has its own officers and conducts its own affairs. These are called the Eastern Division, Southeast Division, Central Division, Northwest Division, and Southwest Division. The top teams from each division compete annually for the National Championship.

The American Lawn Bowls Association controls the laws of the game for the U.S.A., arranges all official international tournaments and international open events, assists new clubs to organize, furnishes information on green construction, and acts generally to foster, promote and encourage the game of bowls in the U.S.A.

An American Lawn Bowls Association Membership Card gives an open door privilege to some 9,600 lawn bowling clubs in existence all over the world. It assures a red carpet reception in 4,000 European clubs (most of which are in the British Isles), in 3,408 bowling clubs in Australia, and some 1,600 clubs scattered over the globe.

These include clubs in New Zealand, Hong Kong, Japan, Fiji, Samoa, Singapore, New Guinea, Burma, India, Malaya, Ceylon, Pakistan, Egypt, Kenya, South Africa, Rhodesia, Israel, China and the Argentine. (Note: Some might not now be available. J.H.H.)

to some 300 organized clubs. There are now about three hundred lawn bowling clubs in the U.S.A., most of which are affiliated with the ALBA.

A conservative estimate of the number of lawn bowlers in the world today is close to two million, and the number is increasing daily. (Another note: Rancho Santa Fe could easily add 100. J.J.H.)

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN BOWLING GAMES

Ten Pin Bowling
History is not clear as to the exact dates the various games of bowling separated and developed. It is known that all bowling was originally outdoors and various modifications of the game gradually appeared such as "crown bowls," "nine-pins," and "half bowls." "La boules" in France, "boches" in Spain, "boeces" in Italy, "bolas" in Venezuela and "ulala" and "puala" in the Polynesian Islands.

Outdoor bowling at "nine-pins," introduced by the Dutch, was popular in the early colonial days in the U.S.A., and that is the game the little men were playing that so intrigued Rip Van Winkle in Washington Irving's tale.

When the game moved indoors it appears to have been taken over by gamblers, and it was finally outlawed in New York State. The players evaded the law by adding another pin, thus changing the game to "ten-pins," and this game has persisted to the present day as the most popular form of indoor bowling in the U.S.A.

LAWN BOWLING

The game of "bowls," bowling with a small biased bowl (not ball) at a single target on an outdoor grassy rink, differs from this bowling at ten pins in an indoor wooden lane or alley.

The small bowl is biased and takes a natural curve. It must be delivered to allow for this curve, and with just sufficient force so that it will stop at the target. This demands a delicate touch and a smooth, accurate, controlled delivery. On the contrary, the large, round ten pin bowling ball may be delivered at any speed or force just so it crashes into the group pins (at the proper angle and pace).

The running three or four step delivery and wrist applied required to propel a fifteen pound ball properly down a bowling alley is unnecessary and detrimental to the smooth delivery of a bowl. The indoor, or alley bowler, must break himself of the wrist-spin habit and must control his wrist speed and weight in order to master the game of lawn bowls.

However, as previous athletic experience is a great asset in acquiring muscular coordination, the indoor bowler who wants to exercise in the open air and sunshine will not find it too difficult to adapt to the best game of them all, the ancient and honorable game of bowls.

(To be continued next month)

Dr. Richard Stoughton of Rancho Santa Fe Appointed Member and Head of Division of Dermatology

The Timken-Sturgis Foundation has made a gift of $75,000.00 to Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation to create a new Division of Dermatology. The new Division will be housed in Copley Center, the former Scripps Memorial Hospital building, according to Dr. Edmund L. Keeney, SCRF Director.

Areas that had been used as operating room theaters by the former occupants have been converted into laboratories and offices with the funds from the Timken-Sturgis Foundation. Like most clinical divisions at SCRF, the new one in Dermatology will combine medical research, medical education and clinical care.

Research into disorders of the skin, the largest of human organs, will get under way immediately. These efforts of this new division will be based on and closely related to SCRF's basic research departments of Biochemistry, Experimental Pathology and Microbiology.

Some of the work in these departments and in SCRF's division of Allergy, Immunology and Rheumatology, and elsewhere, has already indicated that further studies could produce new information for the use of all Dermatologists.

Principal founder and supporter of the Timken-Sturgis Foundation is Mrs. Valerie Timken Whitney. Other principals and directors are Mr. William Timken Sturgis, Mrs. Whitney's son, Mr. George Sturgis, his father, and Mr. Frank Kockritz, San Diego attorney. Mrs. Whitney is the daughter of the late W. R. Timken of the nationally known roller bearing company. As a student of the Bishop's School, Mrs. Whitney's dormitory was located on the present site of SCRF. She has had a great interest in the institution for many years and the Timken-Sturgis Foundation has been one of its major benefactors.

Conversion of the old operating theaters into facilities for the new Dermatology Division will bring remodeling and use of the old Scripps Memorial Hospital building to almost 60% of the square footage. This will rise to over 80% when current work is completed on the Margaret Helme Marston-Intensive Care Unit and on the Kiewit Pavilion.

When Scripps Memorial Hospital built and occupied its new facilities on Miramar Road in 1964, the old property was purchased by SCRF. It was renamed Copley Center in honor of the Copley family. Mr. James S. Copley, of the Copley Press, was instrumental in assisting SCRF to acquire the property.

Dr. Richard B. Stoughton, 44, has been appointed Member and Head of the new Division of Dermatology. He comes to SCRF from Western Reserve University where he was Associate Professor, Department of Medicine and Director, Section of Dermatology. He was recently appointed Editor of the Journal of Investigative Dermatology. This function will be carried on from SCRF with the assistance of his wife, Gwendolyn, who holds a Ph.D. in Physiological Psychology.

Dr. Stoughton serves as a member of the Commission on Cutaneous Medicine of the Armed Forces Epidemiology Board and is a past member of the National Research Council. He is on the Board of Directors of the American Academy of Dermatology and is an active member of numerous other professional societies and organizations.

Dr. and Mrs. Stoughton live, with their 12 year old son, in Rancho Santa Fe.

KAIRO'S

STILLNESS AND MOTION—EAST AND WEST Judy Aston and Tom Munson, M.D. September 22-24

In working together this past year, Judy and Dr. Munson have been struck by the greater sense of inner peace experiences as he moves from stillness to motion and motion to stillness. By exploring the contrast between these extremes, it seems we experience ourselves more fully within both. Using the small group, Judy and Tom will emphasize approaches leading from the stillness of a Zen session to the motion of the body fully expressing: this in the hope that participants will experience, more fully, that which they are.

Resident: $77, Nonresident: $59

Judy Aston, a staff member of Kairo's, received her MA in Dance from UCLA and is currently the instructor of dance and director of the Dance Theater Group at Long Beach City College. She is an Associate Member of the South Coast Repertory Acting Company and has been instrumental in developing movement workshops as part of the actor's training. As a co-leader of many Kairo seminars, Miss Aston has effectively enhanced the creative dimension of the basic encounter process. Her concern has become the awareness of movement integrity.

Tom Munson is an M.D. currently engaged in the private practice of psychotherapy working with both individuals and groups. His style emphasizes the here and now rather than the traditional psychoanalytic approach of interpreting the past. This idea has grown from his association with the late Zen Master, Ishiguro, and particularly the approach of dealing with the present psychological defenses as shown by Hellmuth Kaiser in his book, Effective Psychotherapy.

TRANSACTIONAL ANALYSIS—A New Concept of the Structure of Human Personality Dr. J. Edward Oliver and Chaplain K. Hodges Capers September 29-November 1

Who are you? What is your potential? How do you communicate with others? Eric Berne, M.D., has popularized a method of finding answers at these and other life questions through "Transactional Analysis." The name Transactional Analysis derives from the idea that a person's mental and emotional climate is arrived at largely from contacts or "transactions" with other persons. Through understanding these, the individual comes to have a deeper insight into his language. This seminar will include a detailed description of how people interact and the "games" in which most people spend most of their time. The forces at work within and without the group structure. "Intimacy" experiments, the implications of transactional analysis in man's search for God, and life scripts.

Resident: $67, Nonresident: $49

J. Edward Oliver, psychiatrist, and K. Hodges Capers, deacon, have recently opened the San Diego Chapter of the International Transactional Analysis Association. Dr. Oliver is presently Chief of the Out-Patient Clinic and Day Hospital at County Medical Hospital. K. Hodges Capers, a consultant to Dr. Eric Berne on clergy matters, is currently senior Chaplain at Naval Hospital in San Diego.

NEW LEARNINGS FROM SELF IN OTHERS Dr. Alan Kaplan October 4-8

A four-day workshop designed to contribute to the achievement of identity and the cultivation of skills in human relations, by heightening sensitivity to the communication of latent as well as manifest meanings; and by increasing the awareness of characteristic patterns of feeling in both self and others. The use of parables and analogies as a unique teaching device will give this seminar an unusual dimension within the direct basic encounter group experience. This seminar will start Wednesday evening, October 4th and go through Sunday noon, October 8th.

Resident only—$150
Alan Kaplan, Ph.D., pictured on the cover of Time magazine in 1963 as one of the 50 great educators of our day, is Professor of Philosophy at the University of Michigan and was formerly Chairman, Department of Philosophy, UCLA. He has also taught at Harvard, Columbia, and New York University. He has been a recipient of Guggenheim and Rockefeller fellowships, and a fellow at the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences (Palo Alto) and at the Center for Advanced Studies at Western University (Connecticut). He is author of Power and Society, The New Work Philosophy, Nonverbal Ethics and Public Policy, The Conduct of Inquiry, and numerous articles in professional and other journals. Professor Kaplan is especially interested in logic and scientific methodology and in Oriental philosophy. In the past few years, he has become interested in the encounter or T-group both from the standpoint of practice and theory.

COUPLES COMMITMENT AND COMMUNICATION—Sensitivity Training for Married Couples Bill and Audrey McGaw October 8-8

This workshop will provide an opportunity for married or engaged couples to explore marriage, not as an institution, but as an extremely vital and personal way of life. The workshop will concentrate on the positive aspects of partnership, increased understanding of self and mate, and deeper, more meaningful communication. Participating couples should expect to spend from twenty to twenty-five hours in encounter group sessions over the weekend.

Resident only—$125 per couple

Bill McGaw, Director of Communication at Western Behavioral Sciences Institute, and his wife Audrey employ role-playing components as well as verbal and nonverbal exercises in their encounter groups. Natural groupings, such as teams, families, and couples are of special interest to the McGaws, as the possibility of using the workshop experience in the everyday environment is enhanced. They have recently finished a year-long project with teenage California Youth Authority parables. They are involved with WBS's couples group work for the Conciliation Court in San Diego and are conducting numerous couples and family groups in the Southern California area.

HUMAN CREATING—FACT OR FICTION? Shaner October 8-11

Treating the basic nature of the universe through absolute commitment to reason, Shaner philosophies describe why all human beings succeed or fail due to the direct degree to which they know and understand why and how they can create. He states that success by accident involves deep inner insecurity, while success with knowledge and understanding of why brings an equating inner security to the individual. Shaner suggests that most people confuse creativity with creating and states they are not even vaguely related. During this workshop he will teach the why and how of creating and will explore its relationship to reality, personal relationships, management, responsibility, decision making, etc. The seminar will begin with dinner 6:30 Sunday evening and continue through lunch Wednesday.

Resident—$105 per person double, $110 single; Nonresident $74

E. L. Shaner, Ph.D., the philosopher who has made his reputation teaching studies and sciences, why and how of creating, is the chief lecturer and consultant for an inter-annual string of corporations and companies throughout the country. He completed his Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees with honors, the University of Nebraska, and his Doctor of Philosophy work at Louisiana State University. Major studies were in general science, economic patterns of feeling in both self and others, and management. He was recognized by Stanford Research Institute as a leader in the field of human creativity. Resonant, Sept. 1966, Dr. H. O. Edwards: Considered by a growing number of scientific, military and business leaders to be foremost in understanding the use of the human brain for creativity, motivation, and decision making.

NEWS FROM YOUR NEIGHBORS AT LA COSTA

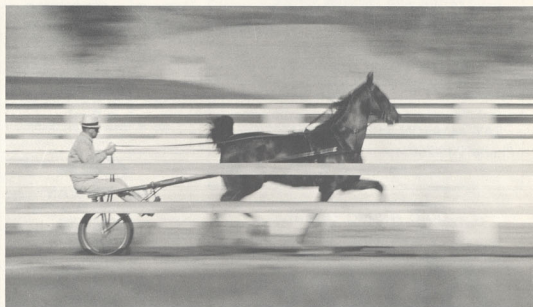

by Joan Winchell

They say that good things come in three's. And no sooner had "TOWN & COUNTRY" and "HARPER'S BAZAAR" come out with wonderful spreads on the wonders of La Costa (Harper's even called us "The Ninth Wonder of the World!"), than "Vogue" got in the act and featured La Costa in its current issue. THEY DEVOTED SIX pages to the various Saks sport clothes to wear to this very sporty resort. "VOGUE" says in big, bold headings: "La Costa is where the whole family plays . . . La Costa at night lights up with all kinds of excitement . . . La Costa is where the games people play involve golf, shuffleboard, billiards, riding, sailing, fishing, surfing, and, of course, tennis . . . La Costa is the name of the place with the most marvelous rejuvenation and vacations programming for all the family . . . La Costa is the super spa in California we think just might turn into the most legendary vacation spot of them all."

Ann Miller is seen receiving the finishing touches on a beauty session given by Aida Grey, world-famous cosmetologist of the La Costa Health and Beauty Spa.

La Costa has stables, too. Have they ever! The guest seen above is enjoying a tone-up, pep-up session in the ring.

Two lovely ladies from the La Costa Beauty Shop, Donna Spradlin and Pepe Barnett modeled at a recent fashion show staged here by Scandinavian Airlines.

Above is a view of the La Costa Clubhouse from photographer's perch outside the starter's office. Upper left is terrace where outdoor cocktail parties are held.

Mrs. Wade Ambrose and poodle say goodbye to Wade before he tees off for a session on the golf course. The Ambroses were the very first family to move bag and baggage to La Costa from La Jolla.

AND SPEAKING OF QUOTES, here are a few more we've collected for your funny bone: Milton Berle ran into Hoagy Carmichael on the dance floor at La Costa one night and quipped, "Hey, Hoagy, why don't you go over to the piano and play a medley of your hit!" SAME COMIC, SAME NIGHT—"I keep telling the President the best way to stop the war in Vietnam is to put it on ABC, and it'll be cancelled in 13 weeks!" NEW YORK STOCK BROKER, Herb Zimmerman: "There hasn't been anything as fabulous as the La Costa Spa for a thousand years—and that one is under lava!" ONE WINCHELL ABOUT ANOTHER in his syndicated column. "La Costa PR Chief Joan Winchell sent a note to me at the Del Mar Turf Club that said, 'If you don't hurry up and come visit La Costa, I'm going to change my name to Considine!'" DANCER ANN MILLER on the qualities she looks for in husbands (she's been married to three millionaires) "Kindness, a sense of humor and money." SPEAKING OF ANNIE: She has spent the past two weeks at La Costa to shed a few pounds and tone up for all of her TV appearances this fall. One of her ex's, Bill Moss, of Dallas was here at the same time. (Coincidence?) Ann returned over the Labor Day week-end with Valerie and Nat Dumont, all three of whom attended the gala dancing party of Ann Peppers at her summer home in nearby La Jolla. ANN PEPPERS, the only woman on the Turf Club Board of Directors, has been in town for the Del Mar races. So have countless other race fans. Frank "Mr. Mojo" Muller, for example, who spends all his daily double winnings wining and dining friends at La Costa after the ninth race. Also Mr. and Mrs. Milton Berle, Debbie and Harry Karl, and Hoagy Carmichael who has been headquartering here for the race season.

Riding Club

Saturday night, August 19th, RRC held the first of a series of moonlight rides scheduled for late summer and fall. Beneath a silvery full moon, made beautiful by a slight haze, the familiar ranch trails appeared to be high-ways in fairyland to the thirty-five members and guests. The trail boss, Mrs. Miller, led the riders on a two-hour trip by the lake, around the golf course and back to the club by one of the canyon trails. The hungry horsemen enjoyed refreshments, music and fun in the clubhouse. Many riders had a second thrilling ride as they trekked home-ward by the bright midnight moon.

Sunday morning, in spite of the late bed-time the previous night, members and guests assembled at the show ring for the Annual All Junior Show. The Co-Chairmen, Lucy Murphy and Leslie Champ, ably assisted by Mrs. "Jack" Manion, had planned a day of fun and food for all. There were 19 classes and more than 200 entries to make the show a smashing success. Lunch, prepared by Mr. Walter Buechting, was served underneath the trees in the picnic area.

The officials were as follows: Miss Diana Freeman, Saddle Seat Judge; Miss Pam Frazer, Western Judge; Miss Jamie Clinton, Hunt Seat Judge; Miss Christi Prather, Ring Steward; Mr. Howard Wellman and Mr. Larry Frandel, Announcers. Mr. and Mrs. "Lew" Miller, our capable managers, seemed to be everywhere doing a bit of everything.

After long and faithful service our barn man, Dan Bashaar, has left our employ due to physical requirements beyond his ability. Dan is being hired locally on a part time basis by several club members in order to augment his Navy retired pay. In his place, we have been most fortunate in gaining the services of Mr. William K. Baer, originally from upper state New York, but more recently from South Dakota. Bill is a school trained, well qualified farrier, a quarter horse trainer, a capable carpenter, in addition to his general function as just "all around man."

In line with the foregoing, construction of new paddocks and fine points yet to be accomplished in the barns are moving ahead rapidly. This has been made possible due to the generosity of many of the club members who have provided equipment and material with which to accomplish the necessary renovations. The Coberly tractor, disc and truck have played no small part in this effort, and without Howard and Wellman's earth auger the paddock fence would be a long time coming. And, as a matter of publicity support, Mr. Arthur Meyerhoff's color Polaroid Camera has been indispensable. To name all donors of club house furniture and fixtures would require far too much space, but the membership as a whole is well aware of the general support being provided to the new effort.

The "charge sheet" previously provided to all RRC members via newsletter mailing has been cancelled and new charges will be published by that same means in the near future. In the meantime, those members who desire groom service, horseshoeing and other horse-related assistance, may gain these services through direct discussion with Bill Baer, the new groom, farrier, barn man, etc., etc.

Work is Happiness is the Riding Club is Walter

WALTER BUECHTING

Years ago we remember how our founder, John Robertson, spent so many thankless hours around the riding club trying to make things happen. First of all, he was always supervising the children and he did his best to make them happy. Then he would walk around the grounds looking for projects, directing that a bridge be built, requesting that the barranca be cleared of weeds, etc. John has left us, but his memory lingers on. In a way, we have another John Robertson in our own Walter Buechting. Walter is the epitome of happiness and work. Many long hours are spent around the club house and the grounds and especially when there is a gathering that demands some cooking. He knows what it takes to make things click! The other day we were in Westwood and stopped for dinner at Walter's famous Chatham Restaurant on Westwood Blvd. Where did we find him but back in the hot kitchen serving up orders of barbecued lamb, etc. because two of his chefs had gone on vacation.

Walter was born in Germany and educated in Switzerland. He can tell many an amusing story about working with the Duke of Brunswick or when he set up the kitchens at William Randolph Hearst's San Simeon. He arrived in New York in 1922 and after working with various people in the culinary field in 1939 he started the famous Chatham, named after his grandmother who came from Chatham, England. A couple of years later he met Irene, who was out here on a trip from Milwaukee. Walter says she stopped for a cup of coffee and he not only picked up the check but also signed a marriage contract. He indicates that this was the only way he could get her to work at the Chatham as help was very scarce in those days.

Walter's hobbies are swimming, hand ball and history of the South Sea Islands. He has quite a famous library of South Sea Island folk lore and because of this became a friend of the explorers Martin and Osa Johnson.

The Buechtings have three children—Michael, 17 and Amelita, 14 and Vicki, 9. At one time, Walter's operation in Los Angeles incorporated twelve bakeries, a wholesale bakery and two coffee shops and restaurants. He has turned a lot of this over to the business management of Mrs. Michael and is now spending his time in Rancho Santa Fe to the advantage of all of the riding club members.

Thank you, Walter, for the wonderful job you are doing for all of us.

Tennis Club News

The Rancho "A's" beat the San Dieguito Tennis Club "A's" 15 to 9, and the Rancho "B's" went down to an 11 to 9 defeat last weekend in their first interclub match at the new club, followed by swimming, cocktails, and a barbecue followed by some fun tennis under the lights! Mr. and Mrs. Don Klatt chairmanned the San Dieguito group, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Hara and Mrs. Robert Mason did the honors for Rancho. There were 60 members involved in playoffs for the Rancho Club Championship. Finals were played Labor Day followed by a Trophy Award Dinner at the Club.

Dr. David Freeman, former tennis champion and now a resident of the Ranch, presented the trophies. His two sons walked away with most of them in last year's event.

Next on the agenda will be an interclub match with Kona Kai club on the Rancho courts followed by a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eileen Dobson on La Crescenta.

Ranchoite William E. Quirk named President of Merit Employment

"There is much latent talent and skill to be found among the disadvantaged but those potentially valuable workers do not have "connections" or do not know how to find work. This results in the waste of a vital resource to industry and in terrible frustration to earnest citizens who need only a place to start. Recognizing that it is a condition that need not exist, the San Diego Council of Merit Employment was formed among the leaders of industry in our area. The organization, privately financed, will try to see to it that all facilities for putting people to work and training them for employable skills and advancement are used to the maximum.

"The new organization is not an employment agency and will not attempt to do the things being done by any existing private or government agency. It is hoped that a strong liaison can be developed with all sources for training and employment and that Merit Employment can be a most effective catalyst in bringing all interested parties together."

Young Americans for Freedom Auction

The Rancho Santa Fe supporters of the YAF, a non politically affiliated group dedicated to the education of college students in conservatism and American Heritage as future leaders of our country and anti-communism, will hold an auction at the Rancho Garden Club on Sept. 23rd. Auctioneer David Burger will have many lovely things from the homes in Rancho on hand to go to the highest bidder. Mrs. B. A. Gillies, Chairman of the event has named her committee Mrs. M. N. Egoroff, Finance, Mrs. William H. Freck and Mrs. Frank Driggs, "hawkers," Mmes. Walter Grimm and Esther Fox, refreshments, Mmes. Driggs and Michael O'Hara, publicity. Mr. Burger's son, Chip, has been making all the posters seen in the area. The unusual items will go on sale at 1 p.m.

SOME THINGS NEVER CHANGE

Like loyalties. Sometimes they get stronger. That's the way it's been between Southern Californians and Coberly since 1916. But such a long-time relationship has to be based on solid qualities — value, dependability, honesty, service.

Our customers have made us pretty proud of the Coberly name. When you buy or lease cars and trucks from us, you'll know why we've been in business for over 50 years in Los Angeles.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL OF THE VILLAGE CHURCH

by Maxine Van Evera

After vacationing for the month of July, the Board members of the Women's Council of the Village Church resumed activities on August 14th by planning for the next few busy months. Luncheons are planned for September 26 and November 9 and Mrs. R.
Victor Venberg, program chairman, has planned ahead for two very interesting speakers.

The Reverend Robert B. Watts will be guest speaker at the September 26 luncheon in Fellowship Hall at the Church at 12:30.
Dr. Watts is the recipient in 1966 and 1967 of the George Washington Medal and cash award from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. He is Chairman of the Overseers of Bates College, a trustee of the Bishop's

THE REV. ROBERT B. WATTS

School in La Jolla, Past President of the Directors of Scripps Memorial Hospital and Past President of the La Jolla Town Council.
Don't miss this opportunity to hear one of the finest speakers in our locale by calling the office of the Village Church now for a reservation. Friends are invited and everyone is welcome.

The format of the Christmas Tree Festival has been changed somewhat this year. The Festival, a one day fund-raising activity, held each year in December, supports the benevolent fund of the Women's Council for the following year. For the first time, this year all committees will be headed by members of the Board of the Women's Council with Mrs.

D. N. Macconel, Council Chairman, and Vice-Chairmen Mrs. R. Victor Venberg and Mrs.
Royal B. Lord assuming the general chairmanship of both the Festival and the Wednesday Workshop.

The Workshop, which meets each Wednesday from 10 until 2, opened its doors at Fellowship Hall in the Village Church on July 5th and between now and Festival Day hundreds of Christmas or Christmas-related items will pour forth which have been either knit, built, glued, sewed, crocheted, creweled, modeled, fashioned, pasted, painted, created or something, to be offered for sale on Festival Day. Mrs. Howard A. Will, last year's Workshop chairman, will be assisting this year, once again lending her talent to the overall program. Mrs. Hardy H. Kent, General Chairman of the Festival last year, will again be instructing classes in all sorts of needlework at the Workshop. All ladies of the Ranch are most welcome to come—in fact, your help and ideas are encouraged because many hands are needed to create the projects. The only requirement is a sack lunch and a desire for a friendly, social day in the Village with neighbors and good friends.

Our benevolence chairman, Mrs. Thomas W. Osborne, has asked for donations of clothing for two different and distinct purposes:
First, children in the southeast area of San Diego are badly in need of clothing and the Greater Parish Ministry, which is supported by our own church, has asked for help in collecting children's clothing for them; secondly,
a rehabilitation home for alcoholic women, Serenity House in Poway, has asked for women's clothing for those in need. Any of these items may be left at Mrs. Osborne's home on Los Naranjos and any donations will most assuredly be appreciated by the recipients as well as by the Women's Council.

See you at the luncheon—and don't forget to join our Wednesday Funshop.

Area Resident Becomes Peace Corps Volunteer in Iran

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Wheelock have been named Peace Corps Volunteers assigned to Iran after completing 12 weeks of training at the Experiment in International Living in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Richard and Penny Wheelock of Rancho Santa Fe, California, are two of 31 Volunteers who arrived in Iran August 9.

The new Volunteers will teach English in secondary schools. They will also work with Iranian teachers to instruct students in such subjects as cooking and home economics, and will encourage the foundation of school libraries, language clubs and adult education classes.

During their training, the Volunteers received intensive instruction in the Farsi language, Iranian culture and history and practice teaching. Their arrival brings to over 250 the number of Peace Corps Volunteers serving in Iran.

"THINGS TO DO IN OCTOBER"

by Dan the Gardening Man

- CLEAN UP are the key words for this season. We do a certain amount of clean up all year round, but Fall is the time to do the most of your cleaning. For the health and welfare of your garden, do a good clean up this Fall.
- BULB PLANTING TIME. You can have a rainbow of color next Spring by filling in those empty spaces of your garden now with Spring flowering bulbs. Bulbs can give flowers in all shapes, sizes, colors and heights. Prepare the soil well and apply bone meal for Spring beauty.
- PERENNIALS that have finished blooming may need to be divided now. As a general rule we divide Spring and Summer blooming perennials in the Fall.
- WEEDS are now a problem, or soon will be. There are several good products on the market to help us get rid of weeds. There are contact killers that kill the growing plants. Probably more important to us at this time are the materials we can apply to the soil that will keep seeds from germinating. This means we can control weed growth in large or small open areas with a very minimum of labor. Caution must be exercised as some products will kill seeds for more than one season, so be careful.
- BERMUDA GRASS LAWNS will soon be going to sleep for a short while. What will you do with that big brown spot? Do you wish to keep it beautiful and green all Winter? People that do not wish to mow may have it dyed green. It will stay that way until mowed off in the Spring. Others that want a more natural looking lawn will plant Winter rye grass and have a beautiful green lawn the year-round. Why settle for a brown lawn when others are dark green.
- LAZY GARDENERS don't fight Mother Nature, they join her. Mother Nature has an easy way of cultivating, fertilizing, putting humus in the soil, breaking up hard-pan and sub-soil, and of making of the topsoil. She does it all with her earthworms. Increase the earthworms in your soil and they will change your garden. Don't fight Mother Nature, join her.
