FROM
SAN DIEGO HEADQUARTERS,
ROYAL INNS OF AMERICA IS FAST BECOMING THE NEW GIANT
IN THE
MOTOR HOTEL BUSINESS.

ROYAL INN HOTEL OF SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA. OPEN DECEMBER, 1968. Includes a Jolly King Restaurant.

San Diego has many success stories to tell about its growth companies, but the most recent and most amazing achievement is three-year-old Royal Inns of America which has set fantastic growth records in the industry.

Forty-three-year-old Earl Gagosian, founder, President and Chairman of the Board, has brought Royal Inns from modest beginnings in 1965 to a recognized national leader.

Proof of the pudding lies in two important categories: construction and financial. Total locations by 1967 year end were 12 with a room count of 693 compared with 8 locations and 416 rooms at the end of 1966. There will be at least 22 Royal Inns in operation by the end of this year with rooms totaling 1628. Management's projection (which it believes to be conservative) estimates 35 Royal Inns by the end of 1969, with room count expanding by at least 1,000 rooms per year. Gagosian looks forward to the not-too-distant day when the company will have 30 to 35 Royal Inns in some state of planning or construction at all times. This was his routine work load before he resigned as Vice President and Director of the Travelodge Corporation to form Royal Inns.

Royal Inns stock has been spectacular. During 1967 the stock was split twice. A four-for-one split occurred in ROYAL INN HOTEL AT THE WHARF, SAN DIEGO (EMBARCADERO), CALIFORNIA. OPEN DECEMBER, 1968. Jolly King Restaurant is located on the main floor, including eight shops, a 300 seat conference room and cocktail lounge.

April with a 10% stock dividend declared on the split shares. At that time, the company also sold 100,000 shares at $5 a share, oversubscribed in 48 hours. In December, the stock was split again, this time two-for-one. The stock is currently listed in the over-the-counter market in California and there are now more than 3,000 shareholders. A 5% stock dividend was paid May 31, 1968 to shareholders of record May 15.

Adding to the financial growth of Royal Inns of America is a recently formed subsidiary, Jolly King Restaurants, Inc. Most new Royal Inn locations will include an adjoining Jolly King Restaurant featuring a family menu with pancakes, steaks, chicken, seafood, sandwiches and salads. Since formation in late February of this year, six Jolly Kings are under construction and a total of eight locations will be operating by year end with food sales expected to exceed $450,000. Conservative estimates call for 13 Jolly King locations with food sales of $3,000,000 by the end of 1969 and 21 Jolly King Restaurants with sales of $5,100,000 by year end 1970.

With locations either open or under construction in six western states, Royal Inns is headed toward national expansion and before long this growing, new giant will serve the traveling public everywhere!

"MEET THE SAINTS"

If you're of the opinion that Church, Sunday School and the Bible are the domain of the sobersides, you may be about to change your opinion.

Lloyd Baker, of neighboring Cardiff-by-the-sea, has authored a delightful cartoon book (released by Simon and Schuster this Spring) titled "Meet The Saints." It's a collection of some 60 cartoons featuring "The Saints," a Sunday School Set of rollicking kids who are so familiar with the Word that they play Bible stories the way our generation played cops and robbers. They accept their training literally, which results in unintentional hilarity. Imagine being a Sunday School teacher and having an unruly wee one ask: "If we're ALL sinners, how come I'm the only one who gets to stand in the corner?"

The Saints build sand churches at the beach instead of sand castles because the big kids are nervous about kicking them down. They march around a ball fence 7 times blowing a toy trumpet. If the fence doesn't fall down, THEN they drill knotholes.

Mr. Baker is probably best known locally for his editorial cartoons in the Coast Dispatch. He holds a B.A. from the Univ. of Rochester, New York, and studied at the Hollywood Art Center for several years. His wife, Ethel attended Stephens in Missouri. They have two teen-age sons, Jeff and Darcy. He first became interested in cartooning in the service. Those were the days of courting by V-Mail, and when the daily grind overseas became monotonous he would fill his letters to Ethel with doodles. The surplus doodles he sent to YANK magazine, and it was there he had the surprised pleasure of seeing his first work in print.

While in college one of his first sales was to The New Yorker, which then and there smashed any ambitions he may have had of becoming an English professor. By the time art school was finished, his cartoons, light verse and short humor had appeared in many major magazines; the Saturday Evening Post, Redbook, True, etc., and hundreds of studio card designs had appeared under the imprint of major card companies. Currently he is doing light-hearted ad campaigns for a Beverly Hills agency, and writing and illustrating children's books.

How did "The Saints" come into being?

After working for a newspaper for several years, Lloyd decided it was time to resign and reenter the precarious but exciting world of freelancing again. He built a studio of his garage, then cast about for a suitable first project. Because of his background it would automatically be on the humor side. And because of his fundamental church affiliation if at all possible, it should be to the glory of God. It seemed like a difficult task. The first step was combing Christian Art Book Stores to see if there was anything on the market along those lines. The incomparable "Screw-tape Letters" by C. H. Lewis was the closest thing in the fiction field. The cartoon field seemed to be a void, with the possible exception of some of the "Peanuts" books. If a non-Christian wandered into such a bookstore, the 'New England Puritan' image might be taken seriously.

So, Lloyd set out to show that the Christian Life can be full of fun . . . and within the space of a month he had compiled "Meet The Saints" . . . within the space of another month, Simon and Schuster had contracted to publish it.

Reports are that it is selling well (The most satisfying thing regarding sales is that a great many people who purchase a copy read it, then come back and purchase another four or five copies to send to friends in hospitals, away at school, or in the services.)

"Meet The Saints" retails for a dollar and is available in the Ranch at Casual Corner Gift Shop, in Encinitas at The Book Rack and Montgomery's Stationers, in Del Mar at Casa De Las Flores, and at Bookstores throughout La Jolla and San Diego.

Will there be more adventures of The Saints? According to the publisher, a large newspaper syndicate is interested in developing it as a daily cartoon panel. If that should come about, as Lloyd says, "all Heaven will break loose" and there will be a series of Saints books.

Twenty-Ninth Annual Season • July 24 thru Sept. 11

The conclusion of a thrilling race!

Another brilliant summer season of thrilling thoroughbred racing with the piquant turf-surf flavor is in prospect come July 24 and the opening of Del Mar Turf Club's 29th session. Equine royalty will see action daily, except Sundays and Tues., Sept. 3, through the 42-day whirl ending September 11. Post time for every program is 2 p.m.

The social life of the south coast area will center around the races, too, with four specific big days on the agenda, starting with the annual Country Friends "Day at the Races" on Monday, July 29. Del Mar's three charity programs will be presented for the Junior League of San Diego on August 12, Social Service Auxiliary on August 27 and Las Patronas de La Jolla on September 5.

Another big event will be the first "Thoroughbred Ball," to be held at La Costa Country Club on Saturday evening, August 10. This will be preceded by a premiere fashion show, with special thoroughbred styles created by Charles Cooper of New York. The show will be staged in the private turf club at the track on Friday evening, August 9. Both the ball and the style event are for the benefit of the Women's Auxiliary to the San Diego Childrens Hospital.

With more than 4000 race horses in training in California, it will be a case of selecting those with the utmost quality to fill Del Mar's 1350 stalls, a task that will befall Racing Secretary Barry Whitehead. The thoroughbreds will compete for more than $1,500,000 in purses, including 18 feature stakes carrying $332,500 in added money.

The fast-growing San Diego coastal area, which anticipates a record-smashing tourist season this summer, plus better highway access from the north with the completion of the last section of the Interstate 5 eight-lane freeway from Oceanside to San Clemente, are factors that augur increased patronage for Del Mar this summer.

All of the seaside track's traditional stakes are again on the agenda. Leading the parade is the expected gross $100,000 Del Mar Futurity, down for its 21st running on closing day, Sept. 11. Some 185 promising 2-year-olds are eligible for the six furlong special which is nationally recognized for its importance in the juvenile division. The Futurity's counterpart, the $60,000 gross Del Mar Debutante for fillies, will be presented for the 18th time on August 31. A total of 161 youngsters are on the eligible list for this one. Four other 2-year-old stakes are on the program—the Junior Miss, Graduation, California Thoroughbred Breeders Association Sales Stakes and the Futurity Trial.

The $30,000 Del Mar Handicap on Labor Day, Sept. 2, leads a line-up of eight events for older stakes stars and the $25,000 Del Mar Derby, on August 24 will bring out the West's best 3-year-olds.

Four of the stakes are to be decided on Del Mar's ever-popular infield grass course—the Del Mar Oaks, Cabrillo Handicap, Osunitas Stakes and Escondido Handicap.

Many of the nation's outstanding stables are planning a Del Mar foray. Expected to see action are the outfits of William Haggin Perry, Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, Robert Kleberg's King Ranch, Fred W. Hooper, Neil S. McCarthy, Elmendorf Farm, Llan-gollen Farm, Mr. and Mrs. Bert W. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Johnston, Kerr Stables, Charles H. Wacker II, Mrs. Vanderbilt Adams, Louis Rowan, George Pope, Jr. and several others.

Heading the jockey colony will be Lafitt Pincay, Jr., the hard riding Panamanian star who will be making his Del Mar debut. He will be joined by such saddle ace as Jerry Lambert, Don Pierce, Bill Mahorney, Bill Hartack, Alvaro Pineda, Wayne Harris, Dean Hall, Miguel Yanez, Mario Valenzuela, Bill Harnatz, Ray York and Apprentice Juan Gonzales.

Trainer M. E. Millerick, who led all conditioners at the 1967 meeting, will be back with another formidable outfit for a variety of owners in his public stable. Also expected are such frontline trainers as Farrell

Jones, Lou Glauburg, Charlie Whittingham, Noble Threewitt, Buddy Hirsch, Cotton Tinsley, Bill Wnydle, Jimmy Jordan, Lou Carno, Charlie Comiskey and a host of others.

Among the handicap stars expected for a summer campaign are Rising Market, Proud Land, Kissin' George, Most Host, Rivet, Dr. Roy E., Title Game, Tumble Wind, Atonito, Balsamo II, Acknowledge, French Fox, Rich Desire, Switchback, Bahroona, Sand Devil, Het's Cadet, Nasharco, Lucky P. J., Chiclero and 3-year-olds like Don B., Proper Proof, Poleax, Right of Wrong, Baffle and Prince Hemph.

And sure to be one of the summer highlights is the annual Del Mar yearling sales, set for the nights of Sunday and Monday, August 18-19, and sponsored by the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association. Some 150 topflight yearlings will be offered buyers at this famed venue, which is open to the public, and is to be presented in Bing Crosby Hall at the track.

Dr. Kintner Honored at Ceremony With Dr. Eisenhower and Dr. Siple

Dr. Donald J. Kintner and Mrs. Kintner of Rancho Santa Fe, just returned from Kent State University, Kent, Ohio, where Dr. Kintner was honored as the Outstanding Alumni.

The speaker at the Commencement where over 2000 were graduating, was Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, Chairman of the newly-appointed Presidential Commission on Violence. Dr. Eisenhower told the graduates that, "Apathy is being replaced by mass protest which too often by accident or design becomes the unruly mob which senselessly defies laws and rules, and contemptuously destroys values essential to a civilized orderly society and stimulates the individual of disordered mind or passion to murder. As never before in our history, we now need citizens who can reason objectively, critically and creatively within a moral framework. We need Americans who will devote as much time and energy to being wise, democratic citizens as they do to being good physicians, engineers, or businessmen."

Kent State University President Robert I. White, conferred Honorary Doctor of Law's Degrees on Dr. Eisenhower and Dr. Paul A. Siple, the distinguished geographer, climatologist, and explorer who launched his outstanding career when he was chosen at the age of fourteen, while still an Eagle Scout, to accompany Admiral Byrd on the first expedition to the South Pole. Dr. Siple has received no less than thirty-three honorary doctoral degrees and eleven special honorary awards and medals from leaders of countries around the world.

The recognition to Dr. Kintner read as follows: This Alumni Award is the highest honor the Alumni Association can bestow. To Donald J. Kintner, Bachelor of Science in Biological Science, and Doctor of Science in Administration and Management; in recognition... Of his outstanding achievements in professional life, contributions to higher education; and influential leadership in civic and social affairs in every community with which he has been associated... Of his accomplishments as both author and public speaker; his distinguished record as a leader in the church and as an active citizen in local and state governmental affairs. For these and other works which exemplify the "Development of Human Resources;" and reflect credit upon him and his University, The Kent State University Alumni Association presents this award.

Seated: Mrs. L. Louis Stoakes—Chairman. Standing behind sofa: Mrs. Philip Benton—Republican League President.

PAW PRINTS

I'm "Boomer" the Boxer boy-dog. Just a few weeks ago I had a birthday party. My favorite present was a yummy piece of fresh hamburger with two red candles on it. The meat smelled so good and I was so excited that I almost forgot to blow out the candles! I like birthday parties, don't you?

As you can see, I'm extremely handsome and in top notch physical condition. Of course, the kind people here at the Shelter help me to take good care of myself.

As much as I love them, people do mystify me. Perhaps you can answer a few questions. What happened to my people family? I had one, and then suddenly I didn't. I have a feeling that I'm being sheltered here from something sad. Do people families

ARE PET CEMETERIES FOOLISH???

Only to those who have chosen to misinterpret their true meaning and value, and the basic reasons for their existence.

The presence of God's creatures was part of the Master's plan — a wonderful gift to man — to be loved and cared for, and certainly not abused. No law compels people to use the services of a pet cemetery . . . they do so because they feel that their pet's lifetime and final care are their equal responsibility, and a burial or cremation service is provided with more honesty than that which is extended to most people.

Therefore, pet cemeteries are not foolish. They offer a service which is necessary, dignified and humane — something to be respected, not criticized.

Won't you visit the Park and "see for yourself?" — the experience will be rewarding. We are open daily and visitors are always welcome.

always disappear? Many dogs here have stories to tell that make me think people families just don't last.

The sleek little Dachshund, "Fritz," told me that his family is leaving the country — whatever that means — and can't take him along. He doesn't understand why.

A young Corgi Mother, named "Bootsie," who surprised everyone here one morning with her litter of five wee puppies, can't imagine any reason why her family couldn't keep her.

Poor "Sally," a young girl Basset, said that her family stopped at the gate of the Shelter early one morning and told her, "Stay — we'll be right back." She can't understand what is taking them so long. Everytime a car stops outside Sally cocks her long droopy ears, and listens for the sound of a certain, special engine. She hasn't heard it yet.

"Congo," the Basenji, came from a family that had five dogs — evidently one too many. He wonders if people give away children when a family gets too large.

"Rex," an eight month old German Shepherd pup, was dumped out of a car right onto the Freeway! He was so frightened . . . he has lots of questions about families. So does "Alfie," the Cockerpool, who overheard his family talking about things like "not-enough-room," just before he was brought here.

Oh my, it would help so much if we dogs could talk People-talk!

My best pal is "Tinkerbell," a beautiful brindle Boxer girl. Like all Boxer dogs we are great people lovers and prefer to be the Number One member of a people family. We like people of every age and size. We simply adore all children (they are nearly as energetic as we are!) and even love the tiny tots who pull our ears or think we're miniature ponies. Big people with generous stomachs who sit in large comfy lounge chairs make the best napping places, but small people are okay too — we don't mind if a few Boxer pants hang over the edges.

Outings in the car are high on a Boxer's list of favorite things to do (Being Left Alone at Home is at the bottom of the list). We like to sit proudly in the back of a car resting our chins against the seatback or on a half opened window. For some reason that I don't quite understand, our masters always look like chauffeurs when they are driving with us.

We Boxer dogs manage our people families quite easily, although sometimes we do find it necessary to employ a few Boxer techniques to achieve the desired results. The Pleading Eye, the Paw on the Knee, and the Gradual Increase of Pressure of Dog Chin on People Thigh are some of our most irresistible methods.

We're the best of people trainers because we're the best of people lovers. I've discovered that both dogs and people love to be loved . . . have you?

I'd love to play it with You — soon!!!

This Insured Investment pays you back $100.00 or more every month

here's how

Here is how our MONTHLY SECURITY ACCOUNT plan works: You deposit, say, $10,000 with us. We then send you a check for $100.00 each month. This income is derived from earnings, currently at 5.00% per annum, compounded daily and paid quarterly, and from principal. At the end of ten years we will have given you back $12,000. You will still have a nest egg of $875.00* in your account. See chart at right for amounts based on investments of from $10,000 to $100,000.

*Payments under this plan subject to the provisions of Section 8104 of the California Financial Code under which a savings and loan association may not waive its right to require up to six months notice of intent to withdraw. Newport Balboa Savings has met every withdrawal request promptly without delay or question in our entire 32 years.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THIS NEW PLAN ARE MANY

In addition, this plan might be of special interest (from a federal tax standpoint) to anyone wishing to make a sizeable gift to another, and to those occupied in estate planning. Consultation with your attorney or tax adviser is advisable.

THIS PLAN SERVES MANY USEFUL PURPOSES

It is an ideal way to augment Social Security, pension, or retirement income.

SAN DIEGO OPERA GUILD "THE OPERA BALL"

Milady's silhouette again graced the San Diego Opera Guild invitations to "THE OPERA BALL" which will be held Thursday, July 25 in the Bahia Mission Bay Room. The "Flash Back To Success" summer soiree will start with a 7:30 p.m. "Sun-downer" hour featuring beverages of the guests' choice and champagne. The 8:30 connoisseur cuisine, served with vintage wine—with choice of after dinner liquors—will be followed by again dancing to the music of Freddy Martin and his orchestra. Nostalgic tunes of the '50's, when the guild was organized by Mrs. Edgar A. Luce, will be featured.

Mrs. Stephen G. Fletcher graciously opened her Rancho Santa Fe home June 24th for the addressing session. The lime green and white invitations were penned by Rancho Associates of the guild and included Mmes: Roy C. Anderson, Lenore C. Bates, Harry W. Booth, Jr., Eugene B. Fletcher, Alfred A. Gregory, Edward D. Havens, Roy W. Hill, Harry Kleist, Royal B. Lord, D. N. Maconel, Frank O. Maxwell, L. B. Mc-Laughlin, Lloyd Nix, Dorothy B. Patton, Jack Lewis Powell, Herbert B. Pratt, Kenneth A. Strimand, Edward C. Stearns, Harrie S. Taylor, Cyrus C. Thiemer, R. Victor Venberg and Karl Weber.

Mrs. Eric Bass of La Jolla, reservation chairman, has appointed Mrs. Edward H. Lyon of Escondido (745-2010) as chairman of reservation information for the North County area.

The week of July 8th Guild members will be modeling ball gowns in stores throughout the county. Arrangements for this courier event were made by Mrs. Donald G. Burger of La Jolla. Following is the schedule:

July 8, John Hogan, La Jolla, 2 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Jack Lewis Powell, Mrs. William A. Nierenberg — Mrs. Sedgwick W. Fraser.

July 9, Walker Scott, La Jolla, 2 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Robert B. Bottomley — Mrs. Robert S. Fadem — Mrs. Byron B. Webb, Jr.

July 10, I. Maggini, La Jolla, 2 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Clayton H. Brace — Mrs. Ernesto Ellis — Mrs. Hunter M. Muir.

July 11, Broadway, Grossmont, 12 to 2 p.m. Mrs. Richard C. Adams — Mrs. D. Duallie Math — Mrs. Elizabeth Van Horn.

July 12, Sal's Fifth Avenue, La Jolla, 2 to 4 p.m. Mrs. William C. Fleming — Mrs. David L. Blair — Mrs. David H. R. Pain.

July 13, Walker Scott, Escondido, 2 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Dorothy B. Patton — Mrs. Daniel F. Achariz — Mrs. Donald Thurston.

July 13, May Co., Mission Valley, 12 to 2 p.m. Mrs. Rembrandt Lane — Mrs. John J. Einhorn — Mrs. Leon W. Johnson — Mrs. Wilder A. Estey — Mrs. D. Dudley Mauh.

The "Flash Back To Success" soiree, chaired by Mrs. William C. Fleming, will recognize distinguished citizens who were instrumental in providing San Diego with its own opera company. It was on January 9, 1950 that 35 men and women met in the home of Judge and Mrs. Edgar A. Luce to organize an opera guild. October 27, 1952 found San Diegans attending its first opera performance of "La Boheme" presented by the San Francisco Co. at the Russ Auditorium.

Down through the years, the Guild's membership (now 1800) worked diligently to not only present operas yearly, but to develop a youth opera program for city and county students that has become nationally famed. Opera auditions for the Metropolitan and San Francisco opera companies provided musical opportunities for many of San Diego's gifted citizens.

Such was the operatic interest stimulated by the Guild that the dream of San Diego owning its own opera company began to unfold. Due to fearless civic leadership, the dream actualized May 1965, approximately, with the presentation of "La Boheme" in the newly built Civic Theatre.

Thus, "THE OPERA BALL" will be both a flash back to previous successes and a flash forward in the continuance of San Diego's opera company's world recognition for successful presentations and seasons.

RANCHO SANTA FE
SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

JANE BRETT REAL ESTATE OFFICE

JANE BRETT REALTOR

JOAN LYNN DeBAKCSY OF RANCHO SANTA FE IS BRIDE OF DANIEL CARLING BROWN OF SAN FRANCISCO

St. Peter's Church in Del Mar was the scene of an impressive and beautiful wedding ceremony on Saturday, July 6th at two-thirty in the afternoon when Miss Joan Lynn DeBakcsy of Rancho Santa Fe was joined in marriage with Mr. Daniel Carling Brown of San Francisco. Rev. Robert Cornelison of Altadena, pastor of the Brown family, officiated.

The bride was exquisite in her bridal gown of snow white linen and lace and she carried a prayer book her mother carried at her wedding twenty-seven years previous, covered with cascading stephanotis and white glamelias. Miss DeBakcsy's veil was the one worn by her sister at her wedding four years ago, and was made from a sari she brought from Pakistan.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Marshall W. Bronson, sister of the bride while the bridesmaids included Nancy Brown, sister of the groom; Deana Cleland of San Diego; Diane Heddon of Rancho Santa Fe, Maris Maier of San Francisco, a Madrid schoolmate of the bride; Deborah Wick of San Diego; and Karen Winner of La Jolla. The attendants all wore paper dresses in rainbow colors with shocking pink belts, shoes and bows. Each young lady carried one large single flower made from gladioli in bright bold color.

The groom chose his father as best man, while ushering duties were shared by David and John Brown, brothers of the groom; Alan DeBakcsy, brother of the bride; Felipe Muquiz of Tijuana, son of the family Miss DeBakcsy lived with for one year; Scott Goodrich of Rancho Santa Fe, and Thomas Henry of Lafayette, California.

The new Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Bishops High School, University of the Pacific, and San Diego State College. She received her master's degree from Middlebury in Vermont and Madrid. Mr. Brown is an engineering graduate of the University of Michigan; has been three years in the Navy; and has had three tours of duty in Viet Nam as a lieutenant. He attended San Diego State for pre-med. At present, Mr. Brown is working at Gulf General Atomic, while Mrs. Brown will teach at Carlsbad High School beginning with the fall term. The young couple will reside in Del Mar.

KATHY DORENE SCHWEIKERT
WEDS ROBERT EYERMAN

The Oceanside Presbyterian Church was the setting for one of the season's loveliest weddings on June 16th at 4:30 in the afternoon when Kathy Schweikert exchanged vows with co Robert Eyerman. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful organza gown with rose appliqued lace and seed pearls, and she carried a crescent styled bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis with baby's breath and fern. Dr. Edward Caldwell of Laguna Hills, and w Rev. T. I. Nalbach of Fallbrook officiated.

The bride's attendants all wore soft apricot sheer over taffeta and carried baskets of summer flowers. After a reception in Fellowship Hall, the young couple left on a trip to Northern California, and they are now "at home" in Monterey, California where the groom is employed with the Elementary School District.

WEDDING VOWS EXCHANGED BETWEEN CANDACE McCASLIN AND
JAMES STEWART MUNROE, JR.

At five o'clock in the afternoon in the chapel of all Saints Episcopal Church, Miss Candace McCaslin of Pasadena became the bride of James Stewart Munroe of Arcadia. A reception was held following the ceremony in the garden of the bride's home in Flintridge. The new Mrs. Munroe chose her sister, Mrs. Peter Bercut Smith as her matron of honor; while bridesmaid honors were held by Camilla McCaslin, Catherine McCaslin and Megan McCaslin — other sisters of the bride.

The bride was exquisite in a long white embroidered organza gown, empire style with long, full sleeves. She wore a bonnet of the same material trimmed in lace and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor's gown was a short yellow organza dress; while the bridesmaid's gowns were of white organza and linen. All attendants carried daisies.

Mrs. William Colburn of Rancho Santa Fe, aunt of the groom, was one of the honored guests at her nephew's wedding. After a wedding trip to Mexico, the new Mrs. Munroe and her husband will make a temporary home at Ft. Eustis, Virginia before a tour of Germany for two years as a 2nd Lt. in the Army.

CLAIMS PEGGY WYMOND VERITY AS HIS BRIDE

At seven-thirty o'clock in the evening on July 6th, Miss Peggy Wyman Verity of Middleton, Ohio became the bride of 2nd Lt. John Frazier Power, U.S. Marine Corps at the Church of the Ascension in Middleton, Ohio with the Reverend Joseph C. Harvey officiating. The reception following the ceremony was held at the Manchester Hotel Ballroom in the same city. Miss Verity's bridal gown was a formal silk organza with empire bodice of imported peau d'ange lace. The slim skirt swept into a full chapel train. Her mantilla of heirloom lace which was worn by her mother and grandmother on their wedding days, combined with silk illusion to fall softly over her train. She carried a bouquet of gardenia and stephanotis. Her maid of honor and nine bridesmaids were identically attired in deep pink peau de soie with empire bodice. Pink and white illusion, attached to their hair with a spray of stephanotis fell to the floor in back. The bride attended Hillsdale School in Cincinnati and was graduated from the Madeira School in Greenwood, Virginia. She attended Pitzer College, Claremont, California for two years. The groom, well-known in Rancho Santa Fe, was graduated from Claremont Men's College in June of this year, receiving his commission as a 2nd Lt. in the Marine Corps and will report for active duty at Quantico, Virginia in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Power are now in South America on their honeymoon, with several days of skiing planned at Portillo, Chile where Mr. Power formerly spent a summer with the Experiment in International Living.

JUDSON SCHOOL IN SCOTTSDALE A MECCA FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

by Lee Russell

Members of the International Colony at the Judson School in Scottsdale, Miss Byrd Bromstedt of Paris, France (grandniece of Adm. Richard E. Byrd), and Malcolm Magri of Colombia, S.A., Fahad Zabid son of a Saudi Arabian Sheikh of Tokyo, Japan.

"The Orient was never like this," says Matthew Tung of Bangkok, Thailand, Judson School's Homecoming Queen, Miss Nancy Baker of Littleton, Colo. Hiro-o Nagasawa of Tokyo, Japan.

Judson School in Scottsdale, Arizona is fast becoming a miniature United Nations. Students from 44 states and 15 foreign countries attended the exclusive college prep school.

There were boys and girls from Japan, Thailand, Saudi Arabia, India, North Africa, France, the Netherlands-Antilles, Canada, Mexico, Chile, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Venezuela, Colombia and Brazil.

Fahad Zabid, who was graduated from Judson in May and will attend Menlo College in the fall, is the son of a Saudi Arabian Sheikh from Jeddah. His father is president of the General Motors Agency there.

"All the laws are dictated by our Moslem religion in Saudi Arabia," Fahad said. "A man may have plural marriages, but never more than four wives. Monogamy is increasingly popular there," he added.

College bound are recent Judson graduates, Miss Jo Ann Albright of Fort Worth, who will attend Texas Christian, and Don Nelson of Hollywood, student body president, who will be a freshman this fall at the University of Oklahoma.

little surfing. That's because of the sharks and the horrible undertow.

Malcolm Magri, who has just completed his junior year at Judson, is from Colombia, South America. His father, William Magri, is president of Shellmar in Medellin, the largest American company in Colombia and also owns a paper mill in Bogota.

Malcolm lives with his family in a country home in El Poblado, surrounded by fountains, spacious pools and formal gardens.

"In Colombia there is no middle class. You are the best or you are nothing," Malcolm stated. "This class distinction is based on family name, position and money.

"I am a different person here. I am more casual. I speak my mind. When I return to Medellin I will change back," he continued. "At home you have to dress to please everyone else, to give a good impression.

Complimented on his excellent English, Malcolm replied, "All my friends are studying in the United States. The schools in Colombia cannot compare with what we find here. There is nothing like coming to the U.S. for an education," he concluded.

Two Orientals, who had never been out of the Far East until this year, were Matthew Tung of Bangkok, Thailand and Hiro-o Nagasawa of Tokyo, Japan.

When Judson had its Gay Nineties party and the coeds dressed the part of bar-room waitresses to serve refreshments in the student activity center, Matthew was elated.

Hiro-o added, "In Japan we have many celebrations, but never like this. "At home the girls dress in traditional Japanese costumes for parties. I like Gay Nineties," he confided. Hiro-o is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Shigeru Nagasawa of Ota-ku. His father is vice president of Tokyo University.

The Thai student, Matthew Tung, wears a tiny Buddha over 200 years old on a pure gold chain around his neck. "It is worn always as a kind of protection. We believe that a knife stab or bullet will not penetrate the body as long as we are protected by it.

Most boys in Thailand at some time in their lives go to the Temple to live with the monks for a week, Matthew said. "We do this in gratitude to our parents. You shave your hair, wear an orange robe and become a monk.

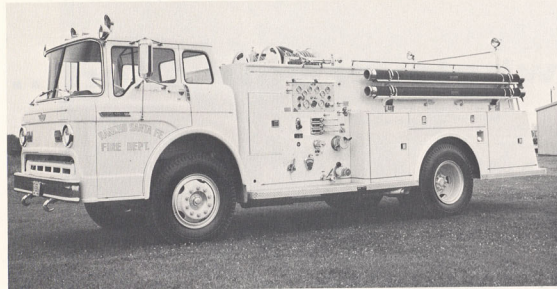

"Some of the girls in Thailand go to the nuns," he continued. "They shave their heads and go barefoot begging through the streets. They wear nothing over their heads and it is hard to tell a girl from a boy sometimes except for the color of their robes, orange for monks and white for nuns."

RANCHO SANTA FE FIRE DEPARTMENT ADDS NEW PUMPER

The Rancho Santa Fe Fire Department has added a new pumper to its modern brigade of fire fighting equipment taking another progressive step to more efficiently serve the Community.

The Class "A" Triple Combination Pumper was purchased to meet the requirements of the American Insurance Association with a view to obtaining a re-classification of the fire defenses hopefully reducing once again the insurance rates.

The pumper was officially handed over to the Directors of the Fire District Ray Grisct, Chet Root, and David Dewey on Monday, July 8. It is capable of delivering 1000 gallons of water per minute, is powered by a 534 cubic inch Ford truck engine developing 300 horsepower and can pump at a pressure of 800 pounds per square inch.

According to Chief Fox it will take at least two to three weeks before the truck is completely fitted out for full operational use.

The Department staff studied the many different types of pumping engines available and finally commissioned the American Fire Apparatus Company to build the pumper.

One feature developed by the Department was to make the pumper sufficiently versatile to take advantage of the countless swimming pools on the "Ranch." This has been done by equipping the pumper with a detachable pump capable of pumping over 300 gallons of water per minute.

A cordial invitation is extended to any of the residents to visit the Department and inspect the new pumper.

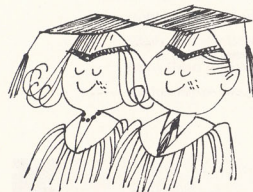

The American Legion Award is annually given to one boy and one girl (9th grade) with the following qualities: Honor, Courage, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship. Honored were Hal Hoadley and Gloria Reynaga.

In the area of athletics, awards were given in the fields of baseball, football, track, basketball and tennis. Honored in track was Gary Guckworth. Larry Hernandez (brother of Lou Hernandez, first draft pick of the new San Diego expansion National League baseball team) and Ben Ramirez shared MVP honors in baseball; while Chris McCann and Rudy Gutierrez received awards in football. Receiving the basketball award was Hal Hoadley. David Cocks, a seventh grade Ranchoite, was the school tennis champion.

Many students received awards in the Boat Regatta Contest. Fine miniature yachts were constructed by these students.

Mrs. Hope Menos, who teaches math, and inspired the work of her students deservingly received the dedication of the Annual.

To cap off a fine day, the new 1968-69 Associated Student Body officers officially took office. Filling these positions are Bob Hart, President; Terry Sprague, Vice-president; Janet Melvin, Secretary; Susan Snyder, Treasurer; and David Bone, Commissioner of Assemblies. They were elected by popular vote, and will guide Earl Warren smoothly throughout the coming year.

EARL WARREN JUNIOR HIGH AWARDS ASSEMBLY

by Hal Hoadley

Golfing Resort Community Via de la Valle & Cancha de Golf, Rancho Santa Fe, California, Ph. (714) 756-2475

The Clifford Grahams, soon to be Ranchoites, capture two Rancho Santa Fe "prizes" . . . Tom Vogel's Steer . . . and the Juan Osuna Ranch!

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Graham who will be full time Ranch residents as of August 1st, are fun people to know. Fired with enthusiasm they recently sat through all the tears and excitement of the Junior Livestock Auction at Expo '68 at Del Mar, and when Rancho Santa Fe 4-H member, Tom Vogel brought his champion steer into the ring, the Grahams went into action! The bids climbed higher and higher — soaring past the record $2.87 per pound paid in 1967 to an all-time high of $5.50 per pound! Considering the fact that Tommy's steer weighed 860 pounds, this all adds up to a wonderful start towards his college education! Secondly, and almost as important as the Champion Steer was the news released that same week that the Clifford Grahams had purchased the beautiful Osuana Ranch home and would take up permanent residence there with their young son and daughter sometime in early August so that the children could enroll in the Rancho Santa Fe elementary school for the Fall term. The Grahams plan to live in what we refer to as the "Bing Crosby" home, although they will add another 2000 square feet in bedroom space and maid's quarters, retaining the original adobe Spanish exactly as it is. The stables need attention. The swimming pool must be rebuilt. The tennis courts need refinishing and rewiring. But it is the four guest houses which have the most exciting future — a marvelous challenge to Mrs. Graham who has a flair for interior decorating and searching out just the right "antique" in dusty little shops. The old original Osuna cottage will be restored to authentic Mexican flavor, with imported Mexican tiles used with great abandon to create the right effect. The second guest house will be pure French in personality, decor and furniture. The third will be authentic Chinese. The last, Old English. Mr. Graham, whose business affiliation is Fotomat with headquarters in La Jolla, plans to use these "little Osuna houses" for his business guests who fly in from all over the country to conference. Mrs. Graham, fully as pretty as she looks in the picture, will divide her time between housewife duties in Rancho Santa Fe and managing "The Plum," a delightful Antique and Boutique shop in La Jolla which is full of "treasures." Rancho Santa Fe is happy to welcome the Grahams into the Rancho Santa Fe "fold" . . . which in our town means chauffeuring kids, umpiring Little League games, playing "Chop Suey" tennis, attending PTA meetings, Library Guild, chauffeuring the kids again, Opera Guild, Bridge Club, Garden club, chauffeuring the kids again, and working for the Republican party! Editor's note: Mr. Graham is a "find" in this department! He recently chairmanned the Rafferty Drive in La Jolla, and he's the newly installed President of the La Jolla Republican Assembly!

THIS IS A DRIVE-THRU FOTOMAT, part of the Fotomat Corporation, a La Jolla Company headed by Clifford C. Graham. Fotomats offer 24-hour film developing or printing service along with discount pricing. The tiny stores are set up on shopping center parking lots and other key sites across the nation. Fotomat, a relative newcomer to the franchising field, has already made spectacular strides and plans are undoubtedly have better than three hundred locations in California alone.

SECOND SYMBO SUMMER
CREATIVE SESSION * KAIROS

August 5, 1968 to September 14, 1968
The Sessions are devoted to each individual's self-awareness through creative experiences and their meaningful use of leisure time.

Fritz Faiss—Artist in Residence
Through Sept. 15, 1968
An exhibit of this work will be available and he will present public lectures. Fritz will give instruction and conduct workshops.

Mr. Faiss studied under Klee and Kandinsky at the Bauhaus and with Rudolf Steiner and A. Hoelzel. He had an established reputation in Europe in the mid-thirties when the Nazis prohibited any more exhibitions of his work. He was allowed to teach the art of encaustic which he had revived from ancient times, but later was subjected to the worst aspects of their imprisonment system. One sees in him, as a teacher, mastery technical competence and a wisdom and tenderness which testify to the integrity that endured these trials.

We feel that Fritz is one of the most impressive people we have met. His approach to drawing as meditation is so potent that everyone in his class can feel its quality within the first foundational approach to line. He offers to his students flexibility according to their needs and development, an versatile technical knowledge of color theory, formal elements, water color, etc. Sessions will include:

Psycho-creative Expansion
Specific techniques which open its participants to a deeper experience and awareness of self. The principle of psycho-creative action is based on relaxation. The emphasis is put upon non-action, from which action derives. The pupils become aware that they carry archetypal forms and figurations in their subconscious and unconscious. The release of psychic energy represents an extreme psycho-therapeutic value and opens the gates for original art works. Each workshop will focus on the awakening of the creative power, on psycho-creative expansion, through meditation and the application of techniques from the famous Bauhaus and Dr. Rudolf Steiner's Concepts.

Lecture series on color theory, nature and art, trends in modern art, psychoanalysis and art, Zen and art, and the interrelation-ship of the arts.

FUNCTIONAL SCULPTURE PROJECTS

JAMES HUBBELL
The student will be introduced to various aspects of building and working on a large project, and will become familiar with a way of using brick and file. The student will learn by actually building a structure to be used as an outdoor stage. (James Hubbell, famous to us for his lectures and work at Kairos, and for his home in Julian published in the San Diego Magazine, is a sculptor. He studied at Whitney School of Art, Cranbrook Academy.)

He works in masonry, cement, bronze, plastic, metals, clay, stained glass, etc.
THEATRE WORKSHOP * Robert Claudini
This class will emphasize movement, vocal sound and explorations into the source of theatre. (Robert Claudini was director of actors Quarter and is currently director of Theatre Five.)

BODY AWARENESS * Yvona Carroll
The formation of the body is a direct result of how we feel and move. Through working the body in a healthy positive way we will "feel" better and as an added result look better. In this class you will open up your feelings through exercise, dance and posture. (Yvona Carroll has been associated with the Golden Door Beauty Spa in Escondido, Everywoman's Village in Los Angeles, Rancho La Puerta in Tecate, Mexico, and owned Arlene's School of Charm and Modeling in Fairbanks, Alaska.)

HATHA YOGA * Dyana Lu
Yoga offers a practical and effective means for integrated living by developing a harmoniously functioning body and inducing mental equilibrium. Hatha Yoga, the Yoga of Physical body, will be explored as a path to self discovery through the practice of its three phases: posture, correct breathing and meditation. (Dyana Lu has studied Yoga for twenty years, including a teacher's course at Indra Devi Yoga Foundation.)

CREATIVE CINEMA * Richard Chase
Following an orientation session, participants will divide into five-person task forces which will make 16 mm black and white sound motion pictures.

All necessary film-making equipment and professional guidance will be available so that participants need have no prior experience with cinematic techniques.

Baby sitting available at $5.00 an hour.
For information, brochure, schedules and prices call Yvona Carroll—756-1123.

Luella Liverwurst, after a 14-day "no-carb" diet prepares to wov the horses and assorted patrons at the opening of Del Mar!

Many visitors on the Ranch these balmy summer days. Most ardent was Mrs. Richard Stoughton's mother, Mrs. Whelan from the state of Florida. Mrs. Whelan is an artist, and is painting with our own Jane Merrill... Joe and Lauraine Skibinski need a ranch rental from September 1st until December 1st while their new home is being built. They have no kids (except one big handsome hunk of grown-up son) and will treat your home with tender, loving care. Call 2137 if interested, sorry to hear that Frank Dropla, assessor-collector, resigned from the Irrigation District. We wish him every good luck in his new endeavor—hope his successor is as nice as he is!

The Junior Livestock Auction at Expo '68 attracted many local youngsters. Tom Vogel and Doug Vogel brought honors to Rancho Santa Fe, while Steve and Cheryl Zeigler (children of John Zeigler (Rancho Richfield) had excellent sales in the lamb department.

Of local interest is the recent wedding of Miss Janice Colleen Dowdy, daughter of Lewis H. Dowdy of La Jolla, and Mrs. George Gere of Rancho Santa Fe, who became the bride of Colin Lee Campbell of Torrance Saturday, June 29th, in La Jolla Presbyterian Church. Dr. Lewis Evans Jr. officiated.

CWO Colin Campbell, USN, ret., and Mrs. Campbell of El Cajon are the parents of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of Grossmont School of Nursing. Mr. Campbell received his degree at San Jose State College.

Ranchites were sorry to bid farewell to the Arthur Mohrs of Paseo Delicias who moved back East where Arthur was promoted into the top ranking echelons of Osborne, Kemper, Thomas.

Diane Mohr was recently named a student selection representative for the World Campus Aloft-Chapman College following participation in the Spring 1968 semester at sea on the unique international education program. She is pictured above in the garden of the monastery of St. Geronimo in Lisbon.

Recently Ranchoite Mrs. Colley Ferneling had the pleasure of visiting two of them, her son-in-law and daughter, Pat and Bob Pitt. Through them she met many of the others. She says: "In this day and age, it is reassuring to see so many unselfish and dedicated young people living without what we call necessities, i.e., electricity and running water, in order to work with the Panamanians and help them raise their standard of living by teaching them such things as child care, hygiene, family planning and so on."

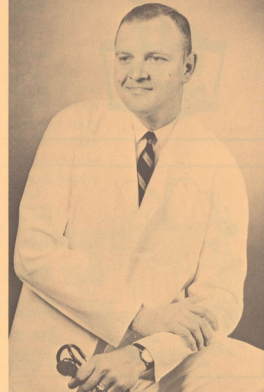

New Rotary slate for 1968-69 includes the following distinguished gentlemen: Back row: Don Frick, Director; Dave Van Evert, Director; Bob Loomis, Director; Ray Griset, Past Pres.; and Earl Schwewert, Treasurer. Seated: Reg Buller, Secretary; Deke Kopps, President, and Jack Lewis Powell, Vice President.

Interesting highlight of the recent Power-Verity wedding was the fact that Cliff and Lydia Powers own best man and matron of honor were at the rehearsal dinner and wedding; Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Campbell of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. John Sellings of Napoleon, Ohio. Mr. Campbell was Cliff's roommate at Dartmouth College, and Mrs. Sellings was Lydia's classmate at Gardner School for Girls, New York.

The Ray Ptaks took off for Hawaii recently, combining business (JBM Convention) with pleasure. Daughters Patty, Peggy and Pam went along, too. Patty (Sister Mary Patricia) is a Sister in the Convent of the Servants of Mary in Omaha, Nebraska, and the family had a wonderful time vacationing in Maui before Daddy had to go to work and attend the convention.

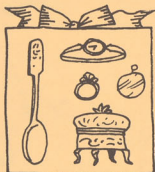

The Monastery of St. Geronimo in Lisbon was also visited by Samantha Dalzell of Rancho Santa Fe who participated in the Chapman College's shipboard campus.

Ranchoites will be pleased to learn that Dr. and Mrs. Russell F. Holcomb, Jr., M.D. and family (daughter and son-in-law of the Arthur Hills) have moved into permanent residence on the Ranch (they are leasing the Hanks home on Las Planiferas). Dr. Holcomb was recently honored by the University of Kansas Medical School by being awarded the 1968 Resident Teaching Award. Dr. Holcomb will specialize in obstetrics and gynecology.

Congratulations to Ann Clevenger (on the staff of our worthy competition) who walked off with one hundred dollars worth of prize money, recently for a "best news photo" in a contest sponsored by the North San Diego County Press Club. Awards were held at La Costa . . .

Pictured above at the groundbreaking ceremonies for the start of their new deluxe condominium development at La Costa are H. D. "Mike" O'Hara and Robert E. Cantwell III of Rancho Santa Fe who are the developers of the project under H. D. Development Co. and Bios, Inc. In the cart with Bob Cantwell is Bob Cozens, San Diego County Supervisor, and standing is Mr. Ben Vitale, Executive Vice President of La Costa Sales Corporation, who will handle the sales. These 28 handsome condominium units will be located on the fairway, directly across from the main clubhouse and spa. Each lot is a view lot, and the buyer will have the opportunity to "color coordinate" every room with kitchen tile, floor tile, paint, paneling, bathroom tile, floor tile, and carpet—making every home truly individual. Construction is now well underway.

fun parties on the social agenda recently; one on June 30th at the lovely Ranch home of the Byron Culvers where beef (from their own cattle) and watermelons (from their own patch) were served to several hundred guests on the front lawn. The party began at 3 p.m. and ended in a dancing fest on the upper patio. The whole affair was splendid, and credit for all the food preparation, planning and serving goes to Helen Thomson Catering Service of La Jolla. Helen herself was at the party, and supervised every detail to perfection — marvelous cocktail and buffet "pool christening" party on the night before the 4th at Margaret Muench's home on Via de Fortuna. The new Anthony pool caused much attention, and the good company and delightful food (Country Squire Tearoom catered) made the evening one long to be remembered. We hear through the grapevine, that Margaret was celebrating her birthday, but she wasn't talking!

Lomas Santa Fe Appoints
Real Estate Sales Manager

With homesites now available for selection, Lomas Santa Fe, Inc., announced this week the appointment of James A. Mitchell as real estate sales manager.

Grading for the first unit of 60 half-acre or one-acre sites will begin before the end of June, Mitchell stated. They will be on Isla Verde, a commanding hill mass completely surrounded by fairways of the 18-hole championship Lomas Santa Fe golf course.

Mitchell is a New Englander from Quincy, Massachusetts, now living in La Jolla.

Before joining Lomas Santa Fe, he was industrial development manager of American Pipe and Construction International in Bogota, Colombia. Previous posts in the same field include vice president/sales of United Pacific Concrete in Honolulu, and sales manager of United Concrete Pipe in Los Angeles. He served in World War II as a naval officer.

Lomas Santa Fe is masterplanned as a 1,000-acre subdivision of more than 1,000 homes. They will range in size from 1 1/2-acre estates upon which owners will build custom homes, to completed homes in the $30,000 to $40,000 bracket on 1/4 to 1/3-acre sites.

Eight out of every ten homesites in Lomas Santa Fe will command unobstructable views of the ocean, of San Elijo Lagoon to the north, of the mountains or of the Lomas Santa Fe golf course itself, Mitchell stated.

First increment of Lomas Santa Fe Country Club is in, and operating. Construction will begin this summer on the club pool, a cabana building with a restaurant, and the first of eight tennis courts.

Lomas Santa Fe is to be run as a private family country club for area residents and San Diego county golfers. More than 60 have joined so far. A drive is underway to expand the membership further.

The appointment of Douglas M. Carruthers as construction manager of Lomas Santa Fe Development Co. was announced this week by Theodore Edmonds Gildred, president of Lomas Santa Fe, Inc., its parent firm.

Carruthers will superintend the construction of additional recreation facilities for Lomas Santa Fe Country Club, and site preparation for the first unit of 60 half-acre and one-acre golf course homesites called Isla Verde, Gildred stated.

Homesites in Isla Verde are available for selection now, and rough grading of the area begins this week.

A village shopping center, plans for which will be announced soon, is another construction project with which Carruthers will be concerned.

Carruthers comes to Lomas Santa Fe from Olin and Lewis, a major development and construction firm in the Pomona-Clermont area. Here he served variously as general superintendent, construction manager, limited and general partner, and as vice president, sometimes directing construction operations in two or three subdivisions at a time.

A graduate of Pasadena Junior College, Carruthers majored in architecture and worked for a number of years as an architectural draftsman. He served during World War II with the Navy Seabees, mostly in engineering offices in the South Pacific.

Lomas Santa Fe is a new golf course community just west of Rancho Santa Fe. More than 1,000 homes will be built around the fairways of its 18-hole championship golf course. Some will be custom homes on estate sites of 1½ acres or more; others will be $30,000 to $40,000 tract homes on ¼ to ¾-acre sites.

Eight out of every ten homes in Lomas Santa Fe will have an unobstructed view of ocean or mountains, of San Elijo Lagoon or the Lomas Santa Fe golf course.

First increment of Lomas Santa Fe Country Club, and the golf course itself, are completed and operating. Work is expected to begin during the next few weeks on a club pool and cabana building with restaurant, and on the first of eight tennis courts.

Lomas Santa Fe Country Club, with an initial membership of 60 families, will be operated as a private recreational center for area families and San Diego county golfers.

The golf course community will also feature ranch living for families who like to stable their own horses.

Board of Directors June 6, 1968
Rancho Santa Fe Association
Dear Fellow Board Members:

I wish to file an objection to the private cart fees as stated in the report of the Golf Transportation Committee. The reasons for my objections involve several matters. First, a brief history of private cart rates may be of value in arriving at a conclusion.

Although there was some discussion regarding fees for privately owned electric carts in November and December of 1958, there was no set charge that I have been able to find until February 1, 1959, at which time the rate was established at $3.00 per round, or $50 per calendar quarter which, in substance, means $200 per year. Those rates remained effective for 2 1/2 years, until October, 1961 at which time the charges were reduced to $144 per year, including Federal tax. The only statement in the Minutes regarding this reduction is, "This action is taken in view of the apparent successful operation of the golf course on a private basis." Just what was meant by this statement is difficult to determine, but perhaps those of you who were living here at that time may be able to interpret it. The $144 rate remained effective until July 1, 1966, at which time it was raised to $175 per year.

Insect trap: This one (above) attracts mosquitos, other night-flying insects by invisible "black" light, draws them with a powerful fan onto a tray where they're quickly drowned by water plus a few drops of detergent. Cleaning is simple: just pull out tray and empty water and insects. Patio model shown: $34.95. Smaller indoor model (no fan): $12.95.

Rancho Santa Fe Association
Dear Fellow Board Members:

I wish to file an objection to the private cart fees as stated in the report of the Golf Transportation Committee. The reasons for my objections involve several matters. First, a brief history of private cart rates may be of value in arriving at a conclusion.

Although there was some discussion regarding fees for privately owned electric carts in November and December of 1958, there was no set charge that I have been able to find until February 1, 1959, at which time the rate was established at $3.00 per round, or $50 per calendar quarter which, in substance, means $200 per year. Those rates remained effective for 2½ years, until October, 1961 at which time the charges were reduced to $144 per year, including Federal tax. The only statement in the Minutes regarding this reduction is, "This action is taken in view of the apparent successful operation of the golf course on a private basis." Just what was meant by this statement is difficult to determine, but perhaps those of you who were living here at that time may be able to interpret it. The $144 rate remained effective until July 1, 1966, at which time it was raised to $175 per year.

On July 1, 1967, by a majority vote of the Board, although Mr. Horace Blackman and myself voted against the reduction, the rate was reduced to $150 per annum where it stands at this point. In other words, since the original charge of $200 per year was placed in effect on February 1, 1959, the rates have actually been reduced by 25% to $150 per year. The increase to $160 per year, as stated in the report of the Golf Transportation Committee, would still mean a reduction of 20% from the original $200 per year.

On the other hand, playing privilege fees have gone steadily upward. On February 1, 1959, at which time there was only one class of membership, the family annual playing privilege rate was $192 per year. On April 1, 1960, this was raised to $216 per year. On October 1, 1961, when class A and class B memberships had been established, the rate for an A member family was raised to $300 per year. On July 1, 1963 it was raised again to $360. In other words, the playing privilege for A family members from February 1, 1959 to the present time has been raised from $192 to $360, or an increase of 87% during the entire period. An additional increase to $378 is suggested by the Committee.

Furthermore, the expenses of the golf course and related activities (this includes the golf course, the clubhouse, the restaurant, and the pro shop) from the fiscal year ended June 30, 1959 to the fiscal year ended June 30, 1967 as taken from the audited reports, have increased from $178,124 to $268,097, an increase of almost exactly 50%. For this year, they are budgeted at $281,000 but inasmuch as the final figures are not yet known, I have only used the increase from 1959 to 1967.

With these large increases in the playing privilege rates and the operating costs of the golf course and related activities, it seems to me only fair that the price of private carts should have gone up proportionately. The Board represents not only the private cart owners, but the entire voting population of the Ranch. It seems to me that, with this in mind, we should very seriously consider whether we can in good conscience vote favorably on this portion of the report. As an alternative, I believe that the isolated reduction in private cart fees made as of July 1, 1967 should be reversed and the rate restored to the former amount of $175 per year. Then, on top of that amount, an increase of 10% would probably be appropriate.

I hope that the Board members do not think for a moment that I have any special axe to grind. My prime objective is to have some meaningful relationship between private cart fees and other charges. I believe if my suggestions are adopted that this will be the case.

Sincerely,
L. B. McLaughlin, President

DIRECTOR'S REPORTS:
Comments on Golf Transportation Committee Report. President McLaughlin stated that inasmuch as the Golf Transportation Committee was a creation of his administration, the report should be decided upon before he leaves office.

Mr. McLaughlin pointed out certain inconsistencies in the report and minor changes were made therein. He stated that he thought serious consideration should be given to the section of the report dealing with rider fees in private and leased carts, inasmuch as they are a source of irritation to the people who lease golf carts or own private carts and certain of them have stated to him that they were ignoring this section of the report.

Since January first, these fees have been Market to another location providing more than $400 per month; about $300 is attributable to private carts and the remainder to leased carts. However, after discussion, it was the consensus that this provision should remain in the report.

Mr. McLaughlin also presented to other members of the Board a letter objecting to the amount suggested in the report for annual private cart charges. A copy of his letter is attached. He stated that this letter does not take into consideration the charges for riders.

Public Hearing for Renewal of Liquor Licenses. President McLaughlin reminded the members of the Board that the renewal in Rancho Santa Fe for the sale of bottled liquor or the on-premises consumption of liquor would be due at the beginning of the month of renewal and that the applications for liquor license renewal be made a matter to be heard at a Public Hearing called for that purpose. It was the decision of the Board that the public hearing for renewal of liquor licenses be set for the first meeting of the Board of Directors in July, 1968, that the present holding of these licenses be so informed, and that the purpose of the Public Hearing be posted publicly.

Vice President Millard, Planning Commission Chairman, reported that the preliminary research on the matter of relocating Ashley's Market to another location providing more merchandise space and convenient off-street parking had been completed and that the operators of the present market had been encouraged to initiate plans for relocation of the market to the earliest practical date.

Mr. Evans, Golf Transportation Committee Chairman, formally presented to the Board of Directors the report of his Committee with a recommendation for approval of Committee recommendations made in Part II of the Report, with minor corrections pertaining to private cart operation. Discussion followed. It was moved, seconded and passed to accept the report of the Golf Transportation Committee as corrected, Director Price abstaining. President McLaughlin dissenting.

Mr. Lewis, Golf Activities Committee Chairman, stated that the Committee had reviewed the Report of the Golf Transportation Committee at its last meeting and had concurred in the recommendations for the market.

Mr. Lewis reported that the proposed budget for the Golf Activities Committee for fiscal 1968-69 was approved by the Committee and had been submitted to the Finance Committee.

The following recommendations of the Golf Activities Committee were unanimously approved by the Board: (1) Recommend approval of application of Mr. & Mrs. Wendell Wheelock to hold a golf tournament Thursday afternoon, June 27, 1968, subject to approval of request of San Diego Golf Course Superintendents Association to hold its meeting at Rancho Santa Fe on Thursday, June 20, with breakfast to be served at the restaurant at 8:30 a.m.

Mr. Lewis announced the following: (1) A class for Rancho Santa Fe Junior Golfers will be held on Thursdays at 2:00 p.m., beginning June 25. Mr. Frank Potpan, Assistant Golf Professional, Mrs. David Van Evera, Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn and Mrs. Charles Gibbs will be the instructors. (2) The Ladies Teams of Southern California Women's Golf Association will play Rancho Santa Fe on September 26, October 3 and October 10, 1968. (3) Non-Association playing privileges—223; Total—335.

Mr. Price, Parks and Recreation Board Chairman, reported a meeting with Phil Franklin, newly elected chairman of the Tennis Committee, at which President McLaughlin, Secretary Evans and Recreation Board members present, to discuss preliminary budget for fiscal 1968-69. Rancho Santa Fe Living Rancho Santa Fe, Calif.
Dear Sir:

In your June issue of "Living" you reprinted a newspaper column submitted by Mr. Holladay, dealing with the negro situation and the plight of the underprivileged. The author suggested that all the negro has to do is lift himself up and all will be well. He also indicated that the claim of white racism is a hoax.

We strongly disagree. Our views are contained in the attached clippings from The Christian Science Monitor of June 25, 1968. We hope, in the interest of hearing both sides, you will print it.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. & Mrs. John H. Williams

DIALOGUE WITH YOUTH

By Erwin D. Canham

Editor in chief of

The Christian Science Monitor

Reader: As a young person I have been extremely disturbed by the older adults I know who seem to feel that all the black people need to do is wake up to the capacities within them. This is needed for sure; we all need to utilize all of our capabilities. But it doesn't seem right to say, "The black people are shiftless, and it won't do any good to help them." These older adults seem totally unwilling to have society reach out a Samaritan hand to help people in poverty to help themselves. Why don't these adults understand that while people in poverty situations may have personal problems to work out, that they are also the victims of widespread general problems? We kept the black people in slavery for decades; they have been discriminated against and denied their civil rights. One could extend the list to include inadequate education, etc., etc.

I find it difficult to understand the conservative position of non-involvement of many who are churchgoing Christians. It seems to me to evidence a lack of love and Christian concern for our brother. Should I be more tolerant of this point of view?

V. E. A.

San Francisco

E. D. C.: I share V.E.A.'s view that simply to tell black people they must bestir themselves is offensive, inaccurate, unhistorical. There are plenty of restrictions still in the way. Barriers maintained by labor unions and by employers are illustrations. Poor educational systems, especially in ghettos, are still widespread and are not the black people's fault. All of us have to rectify them. Slum landlords need to be curbed. So it goes. We must all be involved in the attainment of practical social justice. This applies, of course, not only in the United States but in all parts of the world where similar problems of man's inhumanity to man persist.

This is an original illustration of a GRIFFON or GRYPHON, a mythical monster from ancient Greece. This fanciful creature had the body of a lion to symbolize strength and the head and wings of an eagle to symbolize vigilance and was thought to guard underground or hidden treasure. It was often used as a monument on the tombs of royal persons to protect their mortal remains. Later it was used as a model for many of the Gargoyles found on many buildings throughout the western world.

This is the work of Bonnie Brooks Dalzell, who is working toward her Ph.D. at the University of California at Berkeley. She was graduated from Berkeley where she majored in Paleontology. She has also studied at the U. of C. at Davis and Columbia University in New York City.

PRINCESS ITALIA

by Edith Havens

It was my pleasure to board the M/V ITALIA at Wilmington, California for a delightful two week's cruise down the West Coast of Mexico. Our first glimpse of the gleaming white motor ship was thrilling, and it later confirmed all our expectations for a very pleasant cruise. The ship is so well stabilized that we felt as if we were sailing on a pink cloud. The service is very good with the ship under Italian registry and an Italian crew. Captain S. L. C. Giuseppe de Luyk assisted by the members of his staff conducts a very tight ship. I was particularly impressed with the thoroughness with which the life-boat drill was conducted. The dining room under the direction of the Chef, Mr. G. Verda served an excellent cuisine composed of not only American food, but also with a choice of Italian, French and Mexican. The cruise is under the direction of the Princess Cruises of Los Angeles and their representative, Mr. Pietro Corsi, who accompanied the cruise, was most helpful. The Cruise Staff under the direction of Mr. Steve Potter, ably assisted by the Assistant Cruise Director, Miss Kathy Buck, kept the atmosphere gay and happy and offered many forms of sports and entertainment, so that the passengers could be occupied or relaxed as they chose. Deck tennis, ping pong, skeet shooting, shuffleboard, deck hiking, exercises, bridge, Spanish lessons, special evening parties, excellent music and entertainment, movies, etc., etc. were available. Two orchestras were on board.

Balboa Club, Mazatlan

Shore excursions are available at the ports of call; namely La Paz, Puerto Vallarta, Acapulco and Mazatlan. These included city tours, night club tours, beach safaris, fishing, as well as free time for sight-seeing and shopping as one's fancy dictates. Also day tours to Oaxaca and Taxaco were available. This is a very popular cruise with the ship completely air conditioned, the cabins are roomy and comfortable, the ship new and beautifully appointed, the weather delightful and a happy cruise for either first-timers or seasoned travelers. The Princess Italia will leave Los Angeles on September 20 for Genoa via the Caribbean.

news from LA COSTA

At La Costa Winter and Spring built a storehouse of such delightful memories of meaningful people; I now find myself reluctantly wrapping it up and labeling it "nostalgia."

But it's UP-UP-AND AWAY into the Summer season: The onrush of the summer crowd and long summer days filled with the Turf, Surf, Golf, Tennis and Poolside parties. The party of the summer season will be the THOROUGHbred BALL to be held at La Costa Saturday, August 10. Under the auspices of the San Diego Hospital Auxiliary, La Costa and the Del Mar Turf Club are throwing a two-day spectacular: Friday, the Turf Club will be the scene for a cocktail-buffet and will feature a fashion showing of Charles Cooper's "Thoroughbred" collection. Saturday night the Ball will be held poolside at La Costa. The area will be transformed into a sea of racing colors. Dancing to the fantastic "Society for the Preservation of Big Name Bands" will be many of the "beautiful people" that make up the racing world.

Speaking of "beautiful people." Perhaps you have noticed that in the North County area, all the lovely ladies are looking even lovelier these days. The reason? JEAN-CLAUDE MARENGO. Every woman owes it to herself to pamper herself with a coiffure by Jean-Claude. The La Costa Beauty Salon is now under the Directorship of Mr. Marengo, who formerly was Director of Beauty at Elizabeth Arden's, New York and Beverly Hills. Later, he had his own establishments in Beverly Hills and San Francisco called "Marengo." This talented Frenchman has only been in this country a few years. During this time he has numbered amongst his clients, Princess Irene of Greece, Mrs. Howard Hughes, Mrs. Milton Berle, Jean Seberg, Ann Baxter, and many other famous luminaries. The long and short of a coiffure fascinates Jean-Claude. He applies his theories individually to women, because every facial contour is different. He believes with a good cut any woman should be able to keep her hair in shape. He states, "There are no ugly women, only the ones who choose to ignore themselves."

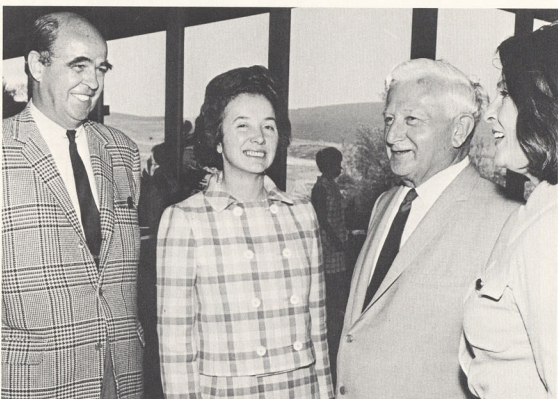

La Costa Hotel and Country Club celebrated its THIRD anniversary with an elegant black-tie dinner dance. Every table featured an individual birthday cake with three candles and the dining room held masses of golf and green balloons. THE SOCIETY FOR THE PRESERVATION OF BIG BANDS played for dancing. This unique 17-piece orchestra consists of great musicians formerly associated with Tommy Dorsey, Glen Miller, Artie Shaw and Benny Goodman. Among the 200 guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zable, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Epstein, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Irving of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Pohl of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gargan, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Krasny, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Gillman, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Griffith of Beverly Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gossett.

The Ventana Room at La Costa was the scene for the installation of new officers of the La Costa Country Club's Women's Auxiliary. The centerpiece on the head table consisted of carnations entwined around two crossed golf clubs; an assortment of golf hats and posters with tips on how to improve your game, decorated the walls. A golf bag and golf shoes served as vases for carnations.

Outgoing President, Toni Dowling, presented the new President, Jimmy Emmons; Vice-President, Mrs. Evelyn Roen; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Mary Janopol; Mrs. Kay Adams, Secretary; and Mrs. Jean Frank, Treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike O'Hara join the Arthur Crowley's for cocktails. Mr. Crowley is President of the Cellar Club.

MICHAEL O'HARA AND ROBERT CANTWELL recently officiated at an early morning ground-breaking ceremony at La Costa. The two gentlemen are in the process of building 28 lavish garden-type Condominiums above the waterfall, overlooking the golf course and Country Club.

The ARTHUR CROWLEY'S, JACK DUNBAR'S, ED WEINER'S, STEVE CRANE, BOB CALHOUN, MARK C. BLOOME, RAY FINE'S were but a few of the Cellar Club crowd that came to spend a weekend at La Costa. The Cellar Club is a social club from the Beverly Hills-Los Angeles area. And do they have fun! The weekend consisted of a tennis tournament, parties, and more parties... plus a wedding and a celebration of a 35th anniversary. TOM LANE AND DORIE KREWS were married on the terrace. Over 200 guests toasted the happy couple after the ceremony. The previous night, the same 200 toasted the wonderful BARBARA AND RAY FINE on their 35th anniversary.

EDWARD W. RANSON, SR. 1888-1968

GENTLY HE LEFT US... He was the sort of man you found yourself wishing you had known, longer and very much better — because he had so much to offer in the way of friendship and understanding. The years had taken much of his health and his ability to concentrate — but that twinkle in his eye meant that for you he still had a heart full of warmth and genuine liking. His attendance at Rotary was as faithful as his love of the family he has left behind; when he came in the door of the Meeting House his face lit up as though to say: "It has been for this that I have waited all week; to mix with my friends, to enjoy the grace of their greeting, to find in the grasp of their hands the assurance that life is still good, peopled with those who care." Ed Ranson, Sr., has moved on ahead a little way, softly and confidently and quietly. We shall miss him here, for the way he walked with us was the more pleasant and rewarding for his presence. May God richly bless his going, and sweetly comfort the dear ones he has left behind.

A letter from Billie and Dave Comey

149 Alderley Road
Aldgate, South Australia

Dear Ranch Friends:

It's true Australia is rapidly becoming Americanized. England's influence is decidedly on the wane and most Australians believe it won't be long before Australia throws off the last yoke of the British Empire and becomes an independent republic. Living in an Australian society as we do, it is easy for me as an American to note the differences—subtle and not so subtle—between the Aussie and the Yank. Sometime I'll write you a little whimsy on this—but right now I want to share with you a pertinent article from our local newspaper. I've even read recently, in a not-so-jesting article, that possibly Australia will become a candidate for America's 53rd state!

As ever your Austerica friend . . .

Billie Comey

Article in the Adelaide "ADVERTISER", 29 April 1968.
MORE AMERICANISED THAN WE REALISE?

By Alan Trengrove

Distance is irrelevant when you have 12m. people who are mostly materialists, who subscribe to the system of free enterprise, and who are adaptive rather than inventive, then Americanisation is inevitable.

Australians in their domestic way of life are already more Americanised than probably they realise.

They may like to think they have a distinctive personality, compounded of a love of the bush, egalitarianism, and an irreverent, Ned Kelly-ish disregard for authority.

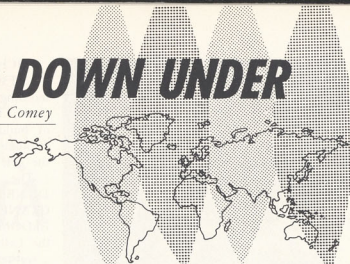

The fact is that many, except in accent, are superficially more American than the Americans.

They are more suburban and more conformist.

When shopping, they are likely to spend their dollars and cents at an American-style supermarket. They collect their liquor at a drive-in bottle bar and take their kids to a drive-in movie. The kids themselves can sing the tune to "the filter, the flavor and the flip-top box" before they learn "Waltzing Matilda," and they know more about Batman and Daniel Boone than they do about old hard-done-by Kelly.

VULNERABLE

This, at any rate, certainly applies to the suburbs. I should think that, in view of the pace with which changes are achieved in our modern, affluent society it will apply soon to the country.

As Dr. A. G. Serle, reader in history at Monash University, pointed out in a "Meanjin" article last year, Australia is more vulnerable to Americanisation than any country in the world.

He wrote that we were determined to be a satellite for strategic reasons, and that, even if we wanted to, we couldn't resist American command of key sectors of our economy.

But also, he added, "we lack an existing strong sense of nationality and any language barrier. Britain, France, Mexico, Canada, are all to some extent insulated from Americanisation in ways we are not," wrote Dr. Serle.

"What is there which might stop us going all the way?"

Americanisation, of course, isn't necessarily a dirty word. Take the American influence completely out of the average Australian home, and on the whole it would be much poorer.

The refrigerator, the TV set, the washing machine, and the shower recess are not exclusively American inspirations but their development owes more to America than to any other country.

KITCHEN AIDS

In the kitchen, women—and not a few men—should be indebted to Uncle Sam for the deepfreeze unit, the vitamiser, the electric can opener and assorted gadgets.

Evie Hayes, the American-born entertainer, said that in most respects the modern Australian and American kitchens were identical, and that Australia didn't really need electric dish-washers and garbage disposal units.

Most Australians would probably disagree with her. And sooner or later most homes will get them.

The trouble is that in other ways Australians too often have slavishly copied the worst and most superficial aspects of American civilisation.

Two years ago Robin Boyd told a Fabian Society symposium that we suffered from "Surfers Paradise syndrome."

He continued: "We take the good things from Britain and Europe but we take the worst things from America. I'm talking of television programmes, the magazines, the motor car and those billboards which are American down to the last letter."

"What we don't take from the American people is their personal ambition to succeed, no matter what."

UGLY SIGNS

City and suburban shopping districts here follow the American pattern of displaying ugly unco-ordinated signs and garish neon lights proclaiming their wares. In service, however, they fall far short of the American standard.

Where is there a drug store open at 6 a.m. to serve breakfast? Where can you buy a book on a Sunday?

The skylines of our biggest cities increasingly resemble those of America. Glass skyscrapers seem to be replicas of the American model, down to the iced-water dispenser on every floor. Eren Melbourne's Collins street, renowned for its gracefulness, is in danger of becoming another undistinguished canyon.

Yet there is no need for Australia, with its amplitude of space and its meagreness of population, to inflict congestion upon itself.

The introduction of the V-8 engine into the new Ford and Australia's "own car," the Holden, accelerates us further towards the sleek, massive, high-powered American prototype.

It doesn't seem to occur to us that larger, more ostentatious vehicles are scarcely valid unless we have American-style freeways, too.

SYMBOL

Now, a new trend to appear is the copying of American house design. More so-called ranch-style houses and American colonial houses are being built in the suburbs, but, according to architect Jack Clark, they are a very poor imitation indeed.

Mr. Clarke said that the practice of developers offering house hunters a package deal was an American concept. However, we still hadn't caught up with the sensible method of having whole towns planned and created by the developers.

CANNED

Nor is it possible to finance the purchase of land and a house, as it is in America, for about 5 p.c. deposit.

Inside the house it's odds-on that if you turn on the television set at random you will see an American canned programme; and if you resort to a commercial radio station the announcer will almost sound as though he came from New York.

Go to the refrigerator and you may find a bottle of Coca-Cola standing alongside a can of beer. Possibly no longer are you conscious that both the "coke" and the can were originally American phenomena.

On the coffee table perhaps is a copy of "Time," "Life," "Newsweek" or the "Ladies' Home Journal." Australians are becoming more oriented to the American-style treatment and presentation of news and magazine articles. Commentators like James Reston and Walter Lippman are as well known here as in the States.

But few people in public life are willing to accept the thorough scrutiny and probing of men and affairs practised by the news media in America.

NEWPORT BALBOA SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION ANNIVERSARY

"And they all came without trombones," said Newport Balboa Savings Chairman of the Board P. A. Palmer at a recent fortieth anniversary dinner with 76 long time friends.

Held at the Balboa Bay Club, the dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Agnes Blomquist, association president, to celebrate the starting of Palmer's and Miss Blomquist's joint business careers in 1928.

Present were Association officers and staff members and many friends who assisted and encouraged the two in their early efforts toward community development, and savings and loan activities.

Reminiscences included stories of the shared problems in the 1929 crash, sale of Lido Isle lots, area development, and the beginning and growth of Newport Balboa Savings and Loan Association.

The Association's assets have grown from $13,500 in 1936 to more than $100 million.

"The Bible Speaks to You" is a Christian Science radio series which is broadcast every Sunday at 7:15 A.M. over KOGO, at 7:45 A.M. over KFI and at 8:45 A.M. over KMPC.

JULY 21 PART I OF "WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE INVOLVED?"

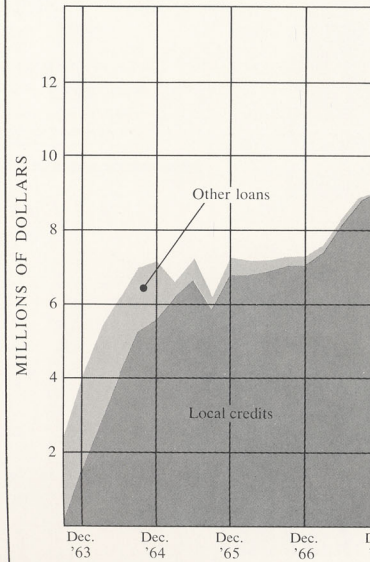

Involvement is a busy word these days. News broadcasts tell of it, politicians talk about it. And college students, especially, testify of it. Young people say they want to be where the action is. How can we help them — and ourselves — into effective understanding of what real involvement means? The Bible, you know, is filled with many pertinent and timely statements on this thought-provoking subject. Some of these ideas are going to be discussed in the program "The Bible Speaks to You."

JULY 28 PART II OF "WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE INVOLVED?"

Why does involvement mean so much to today's youth? Why are they so deeply concerned about the ills of the world? Involvement isn't all group action. It has to be individual as well. Yet how does one grasp that inner strength that leads to authentic action? How do we develop our own special capacities for effective, individual involvement? By searching the Scriptures, for the Bible tells us that our relationship to others depends upon our relationship to God. Listen to the second half of this program in the Christian Science series, "The Bible Speaks to you."
