

MUSICAL REVUE AT RSF GARDEN CLUB

0-13

Rea Mowery

"How to cope with life on the Ranch or . . . a funny thing happened on the way to Jonathan's." A lot of title for a lot of talent showcased in a rollicking musical revue to be presented at the Rancho Santa Fe Garden Club March 26-29.

If you've ever wondered what takes place on a typical day in Rancho Santa Fe, you'll not want to miss this show of shows. From sunrise to sunset, Jazzercise to The Charity Ball, no aspect of Ranch life escapes the wild and witty spoofing by its own residents.

The show is produced by Rancho Santa Fe's talented Jeff Brown and directed by Dennis O'Drane, coordinator of music for the Poway School District. Orchestration is by San Diego's own Richard Braun. Dance direction and choreography are by Sue Gilson, staff choreographer for Palomar College's musicals; costumes by Ann Sallet Pine whose credits include Cabaret and Oliver.

Because of school district cut-backs, the Rancho Santa Fe School has been without a music and arts program. Through this community effort, the parent/teacher organization hopes to raise $25,000.00 from ticket sales and donations for the Cultural Arts Fund.

All seats are reserved and tickets at $3.50 and $5.00 may be purchased by calling the Rancho Santa Fe School, 756-1141.

Don't miss it!

3/81

RANCH/COAST MAG