CLASS of 1936

DEDICATION

TO the future of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, in confident expectation that by continued co-operation of administrative officers, faculty, and students our College may go on through ever broadening fields of service to a Greater Teachers College, we of the Class of 1936 dedicate this first volume of The Stroud.

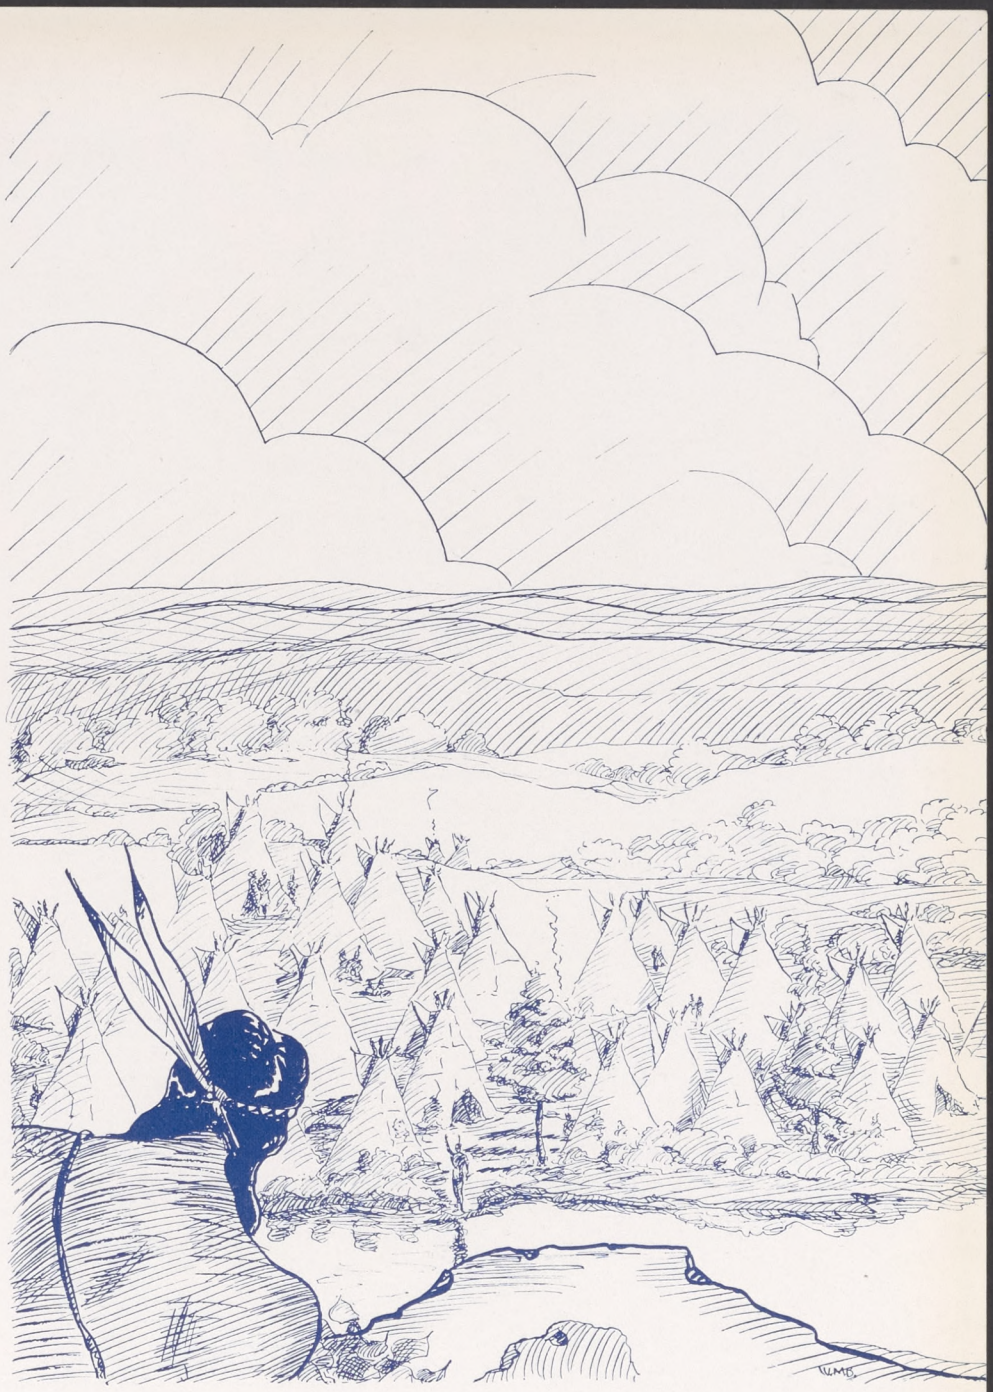

FOREWORD

WE, the staff of this first volume of the yearbook of the State Teachers College at East Stroudsburg, have had as our purpose the making of a book not representative of the Seniors alone, but rather one which reflects the interests and activities of all the students on our campus today. The title and art theme of the book link it to the past for the first white settler of the land now in the Stroudsburgs was Jacob Stroud, who came here to live on land inhabited by the Delaware Indians, some of whose activities are depicted in this first volume of The Stroud.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS

As I review the four years I have been intimately associated with the class of 1936, I cannot help but appreciate the fine, wholesome growth of all its members, both in cultural power and in professional attitude, vital factors as they effect the future welfare of our State and Nation.

You, members of the class of 1936, have accomplished more in these four years than perhaps you will accomplish in any similar period of time. You have acquired social poise, self confidence, an appreciation of the value of the good, the true, and the beautiful, and have fitted yourself to teach the youth of our land, upon whom depends the future of our democratic society, all admirable qualities which you should cherish and incorporate fully into your own personalities.

When you return to your various communities and take your places in community life, my hope is that you will continue to exemplify all the noble and worthwhile ideas and ideals which you have acquired from your Alma Mater.

Even though absent in person after your graduation, your accomplishments and contributions will live on, I am sure, in the life of the East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

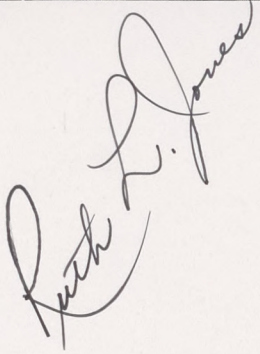

My hope for each member of the class of 1936 is that his life may lead to the very summit of usefulness and honor, and that that summit may lead to a still higher summit where life is all grandeur and happiness.

T. T. ALLEN

This first volume of The Stroud brings to fruition your desire, Class of 1936, for a yearbook. It is published because some of you have constantly planned and worked for the book for four years. I am pleased to have had the opportunity of working with you in your undertaking, and I wish for you and for The Stroud long life and good fortune.

CLASSES

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

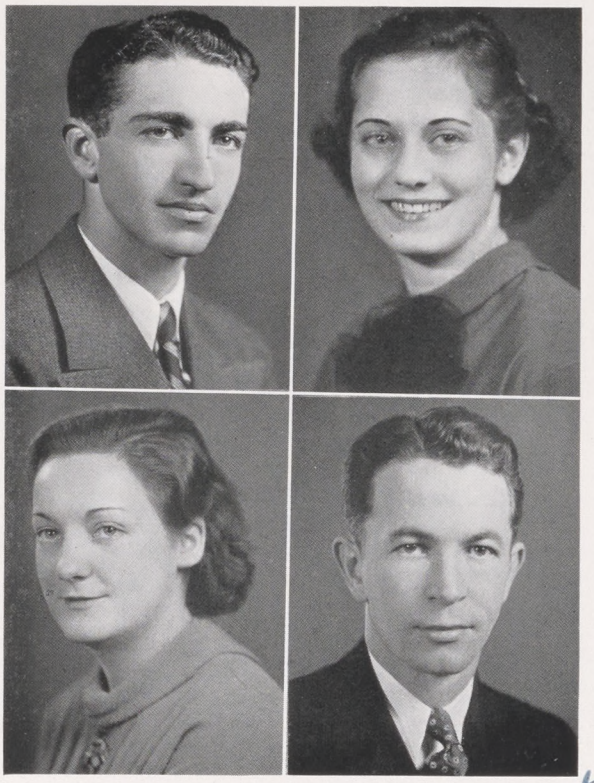

THE class of 1936 entered East Stroudsburg State Teachers College in September 1932. We numbered 167 and were hailed by the upperclassmen as "the selected frosh." Miss Opal Horr was elected our class adviser. At the second class meeting of the year a motion was made to start a year book. Before the motion could be seconded it was made clear that a year book was considered too great an expense for any class to undertake. Our freshman dance, semi-formal, held at the State Armory May 6, 1933, was splendidly attended. Class officers were: President, John Archer; Vice-President, Ruth Gollman; Secretary, Gladys Wadsworth; and Treasurer, George Davis.

In our Sophomore year it was necessary to elect another class adviser to take the place vacated by Miss Horr. Miss Martha Coryell was elected. Officers were: President, Robert Barton; Vice-President, Ruth Gollman; Secretary, Helen Rudzien; and Treasurer, John Erikson. During our Sophomore year we voted to have our class colors blue and gold. Our Sophomore Prom was our first formal dance. It was held April 21, 1934, at the Penn Stroud Hotel.

In our Junior year, John Archer was elected President; Anne Johnson, Vice-President; Dorothy Schofield, Secretary; Robert Barton, Treasurer. Burdette Shafer was elected president when, during the year, John Archer withdrew from college. At the first class meeting the question of a year book was discussed. This time a committee was appointed to further "investigate the possibility of having a year book." Most of our class meetings from this time on were taken up with problems concerning the year book. Our class dance was a formal dance held at the Penn Stroud May 4, 1935. This year our ranks were greatly depleted due to graduation of persons enrolled in two year courses and withdrawals from school by our class mates for various other reasons.

Now we are Seniors. Our year book is realized. At the first class meeting it was decided that the year book be called "The Stroud." Our class officers are: President, James Pruyne; Vice-President, Arlene Mumbower; Secretary, Marjorie Hall; Treasurer, Robert Barton. In order to obtain money for the year book, an "Old Clothes Dance" was held in Wayne Gymnasium November 23, 1935. This dance was a huge success and was enjoyed by everyone. A committee was apopinted to select designs for class rings and pins and display them for approval of the class. Our formal dance was held February 22, 1936, again at the Penn Stroud.

Besides constituting a large part of Kappa Delta Pi's membership we, as a class, are very well represented in sports and all other college activities.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

ON September 11, 1933, we, the Class of 1937 entered S.T.C. as a heterogeneous conglomeration of 137 human vicissitudes, with many adjustments to make.

At the beginning of our second semester, class officers were elected: Norwood Wetherhold, President; Connie Sterner, Vice-President; Marjorie Mingle, Secretary; and John Childs, Treasurer. We then chose Dean Ruth L. Jones to be our class adviser. Our first Senators were Helen Booth, Kitty Fox, Richard Eustice, and Raymond Groff; our first representatives on Activity Councils were: Lewis Phillips, Social Council; Donald Kern, Publications; Leo McHale, Entertainment; and Sylvan Battista, Athletic Council.

On May 5, 1934, we held our Freshman Dance in the college gymnasium. This year was our first private social event. The garden setting achieved by means of evergreen decorations gave a pleasant atmosphere to the occasion, and the management of the affair in general was highly complimented by guests and upper classmen.

In our Sophomore year the following were our officers and representatives: Roy Heydt, President; Connie Sterner, Vice-President; Kitty Fox, Secretary; Paul Cullather, Treasurer; Margaret Kelly, Jennie Nearing, Richard Eustice, Joe

JUNIOR CLASS

Marchese, Senators; Claire Boyle, Social Council; Donald Kern, Publications; Leo McHale, Entertainment; Steve Rock, Athletic; and Connie Sterner, Cooperative Store Committee.

Our Sophomore Dance was held at the Penn Stroud Hotel, May 11, 1935, and was carried through in cabaret style. It was a novel and colorful affair which was thoroughly enjoyed by all of those present.

In September, 1935, we returned to enter the second half of our college life. This year our officers are: Lloyd Hontz, President; Joseph Balla, Vice-President; Kitty Fox, Secretary; Silvio Tolotti, Treasurer. Our Senators are: Frances Capraro, Mary Rochfort, Joe Marchese, and Norwood Wetherhold. Other representatives are: Edward Christman, Social Council; Leo McHale, Entertainment; Donald Kern, Publications; Steve Rock, Athletic; and Robert Hirsch, Cooperative Store Committee.

Many members of our class have made notable achievements of which we are very proud. Richard Eustice, twice elected to the Senate, is now President of the Student Congress; and our three times represntative on the Publications Council, Donald Kern, is Editor-in-Chief of the Stroud Courier. We are well represented in Kappa Delta Pi, and on the Dean of Women's and Men's Executive Councils. Many are officers of various extra-curricular clubs, others are active in Mask and Zany, while our representation in Varsity Athletics is very large.

State Standard Limited Certificate Group

In 1934 the last of the two year graduates received their certificates. Since that time the student body of E. S. S. T. C. has been made up of persons enrolled in one of the four year curricula offered at the College. However by including in the first two years of College work in elementary curriculum at least six hours of practice teaching, and meeting certain other requirements of the State Council of Education, a candidate may receive a State Standard Limited Certificate.

These certificates are valid for three years and may only be renewed if the individual has satisfactorily completed twelve additional hours of further approved preparation.

The Students pictured on the following five pages are not graduates of this College but each of them will receive a State Standard Limited Certificate in June 1936.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

THE Class of 1938 was officially organized on October 12, 1934, in the College auditorium. Abram Morgan, president of the Senate introduced the following people to the class: the class adviser, Dr. Heiss; the senators, James Loughney, Michael Oriel, Lillian Metzler, and Margaret Nicholson; the social councilman, John Custer; the entertainment councilman, Julia Wasko; the athletic councilman, Betty Brown; the publications councilman, Thomas Brown; and co-operative book store member, David Heffner.

Mr. Oriel was appointed temporary chairman, and Miss Nicholson, temporary secretary of the class until regular elections were held.

The initiation and introductions into college life during the first semester will be long remembered by every freshman of the class of 1938.

The second semester the class settled right down to business and our permanent officers were elected. At our first class meeting our adviser, Dr. Heiss,

Edward Williams

It's a great little school
Esther Reeves

SOPHOMORES OFFICERS

May you live all the days of your life.
Edna M. Miller

May you be as active and successful in the future as you have been in your college career.
Emma Koehler

Keep your chin up and everything will come out alright presented our new president, Theodore Balcomb. The other officers were: vice-president, David Heffner; secretary, Alice McHugh; and treasurer, Herbert Luff.
Edna Keller

The class dance, one of the events most looked forward to, was held at the Penn-Stroud Hotel, May 18, 1935.

This September, with a little more ease, we began our Sophomore year. At our first class meeting, the freshman president, Theodore Balcomb introduced our new class officers as follows: president, Edward Williams; vice-president, Willard Gilham; secretary, Edna Reeves; treasurer, Walter Nicholas.

The senators for this year are: Dorothea Kern, Lillian Metzler, Thomas Capraro, and Theodore Balcomb. The members of the different councils are as follows: entertainment, Roger Dunning; social, John Custer; publications, Thomas Brown; athletic, Dominick Salerno.

FRESHMAN HISTORY

ON September 9-10-11, 1935, one hundred and eighty students from eighty-one high and prep schools located in twenty-one Pennsylvania Counties and three other states, enrolled here as freshmen.

They are an interesting and interested group of young men and women who during the first semester attempted to get as orientated as possible into the life of E.S.S.T.C.

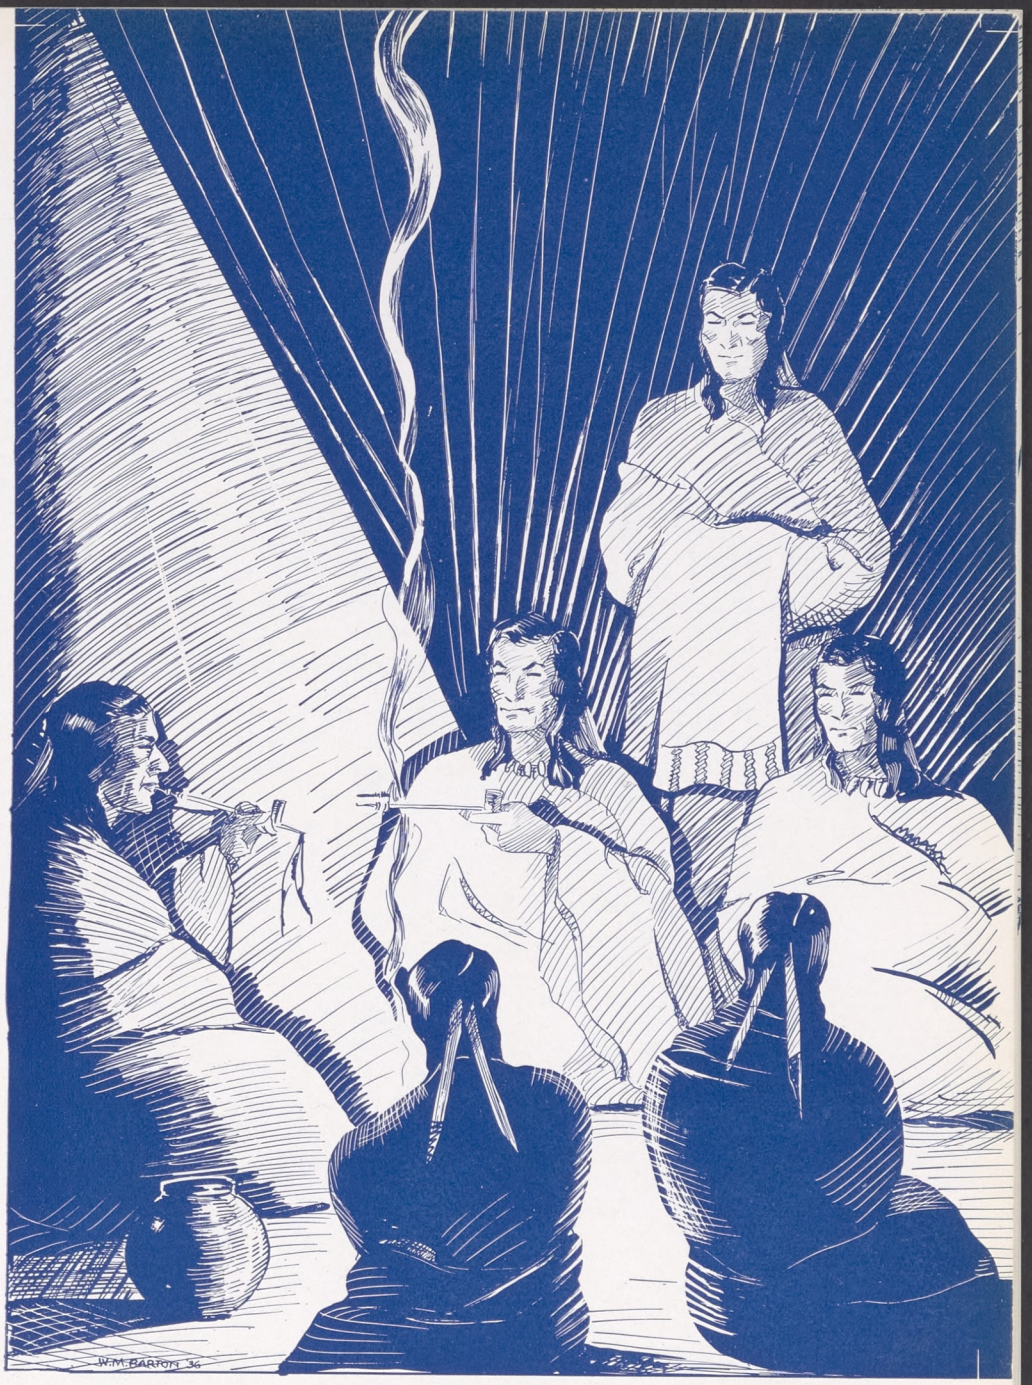

Early they elected Dr. F. P. Maguire as their faculty adviser and the following class representatives to Senate and Activity Councils:

Senate ..... Betty Hontz, Edna MacGregor, John Fern, Fiore DeCosmo
Athletic Council ..... Patrick Connors
Social Council ..... Estelle Steinrich
Publications Council ..... Avis Gourley
Entertainment Council ..... William Lord

In January they elected the following officers:

President ..... Paul Kennedy
Vice-President ..... Thomas Blewitt
Secretary ..... Loretta Roscoe
Treasurer ..... Arthur Fritzinger

COUNCILS

THE SENATE

THE Senate is an executive body representing the entire selfgovernment association of the college. This cooperative faculty-student group was organized in the fall of 1920 as provided by The Constitution of the Council of the East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. A revision of this constitution in 1930 reapportioned the representation and established a more perfect harmony between the voice of the women and the voice of the men in student affairs. The Senate is made up of three members of the faculty, appointed by the President of the College, a President of the Congress chosen by the Assembly from the senior, or from the junior class, provided the candidate has been in residence for at least two years; and four members, two women and two men, from each class. Candidates declare to the election committee their desire to serve as senators, and the judge then confirms their qualifications, scholastic and social, by references from the deans. The term of office is one year.

The Senate is authorized to govern, regulate and control all student organizations; to enact by-laws, rules and regulations for the guidance and betterment of the student body; to enforce the acts of The Congress; to audit the books of all student organizations and to examine the lists of members meeting the requirement for credit in extra curricular activities; and to elect a Budget Committee consisting of five members of the Senate, two of whom are faculty representatives, whose duty it is to allocate monies for the college activity program.

To be elected to the Senate is one of the greatest honors a student may attain. It signifies that he is the possessor of qualities which cause his classmates to place the utmost faith in his ability and judgment. Every matter of importance to the student body is considered by this group of selected representatives.

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

THE Athletic Council is one of the four activity councils which are under the jurisdiction of the Student Senate. This council is composed of five students, two of which are Senior representatives, one Junior, one Sophomore, one Freshman, and two faculty advisers. All of the student representatives are elected by their respective classes, and the faculty advisers are appointed by the President of the College.

The duties of the Athletic Council are as follows:

a. To make all arrangements in relation to the activities of the various college athletic teams: football, soccer, basketball, wrestling, gymnasium, track, tennis, and baseball.
b. To make equitable allotments, specifically stated, to each college team in order to carry out the program arranged.
c. To set up standards of achievement for letters, and attend to all details relating to awards.
d. To arrange for the purchase, by competitive bids, of all necessary equipment for the various college teams.
e. To approve the type of institution to be played or met and to arrange desirable schedule for each college team, within budgetary limitations.
f. To pay and secure guarantees for scheduled games in accordance with previous agreements.
g. To approve and secure suitable officials such as referees, umpires, judges, etc., for all contests at home and to determine their compensations.
h. To appoint sub-committees who shall manage the sale and collection of tickets for all athletic contests and attend to all necessary details.

The Budget committee of the Senate allocates a certain sum of money to the athletic council from the funds derived from the student activity fee, with which the athletic council arranges its budget, subject to the approval of the President of the College. It is the difficult task of this council to provide, from this allocation, the monies for the sports program of eight varsity and as many Junior Varsity and freshman teams as well as a full program of Intra-mural sports on the campus.

The members of the Athletic Council are:

Senior class ..... { Evelyn Davies / Elton Hunsinger
Junior class ..... Stephen Rock
Freshman class ..... Patrick Connors
Advisers ..... { Miss Genevieve Zimbar / Dr. A. Lester Crapser, Chairman

ENTERTAINMENT COUNCIL

IN September 1932 the Entertainment Council was organized on our campus. Its purpose is to arrange for and carry out debates, holiday celebrations, lectures, and Friday evening sound pictures.

This year the Entertainment Council was given the power, by the college activity program constitution, to organize and finance a college band. They also presented Richard Halliburton, traveler and lecturer, whose colorful talk was very entertaining.

The program offered by the council has been most enjoyable and varied. It is under the faculty advisership of Dr. Elwood Heiss and Florence E. Carpenter; the student members are: Ruth Gollam and William Miller, Senior representatives; Leo McHale, Junior representative; Roger Dunning, Sophomore representative; and William Lord, Freshman representative.

THE PUBLICATION COUNCIL

IN May, 1932, the Publications Council was established as a part of our co-operative government organization. Miss Carrie Ethel Baker, one of the faculty advisers, was chosen Chairman. Mr. Donald Kern, a student member, was elected chairman of the Council in 1934 and was re-elected this year.

The duties of the Publications Council are as follows:

1. To manage all details relating to publication of the Stroud Courier, of the Student Handbook, and of any other publication that may be initiated by the student body.
2. To investigate comparative costs of various types of student newspapers, of student handbooks, and any other publication that may be initiated, including costs of printing and cuts.
3. To dictate the policies of the Stroud Courier.
4. To assure the publication of a yearbook.

The membership of the council consists of one member from each of the under classes, and two from the senior class. There are also two faculty advisers on the Council. The present membership is as follows:

Seniors ..... Margaret Blaney and William Banks
Junior ..... Donald Kern
Freshman ..... Avis Gourley
Faculty Advisers ..... Dr. Edna L. Rosenkrans, Miss Martha G. Coryell

THE SOCIAL COUNCIL

THE function of the Social Council is to provide social activities for the entire student body and faculty. Its purposes are to plan for those social affairs which will be most enjoyable and beneficial to the students of the school; and to set up standards and ideals of social conduct, as well as to provide for the greatest possible pleasure and amusement of the group.

The members of the Council are Horace Luff, Chairman, and Arlene Mumbower, as Senior representatives; Edward Christman, John Custer, and Estelle Steinrich, as Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman representatives, respectively. Dean Ruth Jones, and Dean Howard DeNike are the faculty advisers.

The principle events on the Social Calendar this year were:

Annual Reception and Dance	Sept. 18
Home Coming Day	Oct. 12
Christmas Party	Dec. 19
Valentine Party	Feb. 14
Guest Dance	Mar. 28
Parents Day	May 2
Alumni Dance	May 23

In addition to these major events the Council sponsored through the Dean of Women's Council and the Men's Executive Council such affairs as hall parties, a smoker for men, and a spring outdoor party for women, as well as Class teas. They also furnished newspapers and magazines to the Men's Club and the Women's Quiet Lounge.

Each Wednesday evening from 7:00 to 8:30 the Social Council held a dance in the gymnasium.

THE DEAN OF WOMEN'S COUNCIL

THE Dean of Women's Council is an organization whose purpose is to promote the highest possible relationships for women students. To achieve this it seeks to promote good fellowship, to develop a spirit of cooperation, to encourage wholesome and hygienic habits of living, to establish high standards of ethics, to instill courtesy, to cultivate social consciousness, to make conditions the best for all involved, and to study administrative problems.

Each spring after the assignment of rooms has been made, a list of eligible candidates is posted from which three counsellors are elected for each hall and three for the day student group. To be an eligible candidate, the following qualifications are necessary: (1) Completion of one year of college work, (2) Attainment of at least "C" scholarship standing, (3) Maintenance of a desirable social record. It is the duty of each counsellor to see that halls are at all times wholesome for living and study.

The present membership for 1935-1936 is: Dean Ruth L. Jones, Adviser

First South	Second South	Third South
Hazel Mitchell	Mary Burke	Doris Vogt, Secretary
Emma Elsby, Vice-Pres.	Harriet Lucker	Ann Cox
Dorothea Kern, Treasurer	Sylvia Sheard	Jennie Nearing
Centre	Annex	Day Students
Ruth Mogel	Ruth Gollam	Mary Keiper, President
Gladys Wadsworth	Kitty Fox	Margaret Dunning
Caroline Fox	Verna Penyak	Marion Sayre

Last year the 1934-35 Council, through the cooperative efforts of the administration, achieved for the women students two new social rooms—The Quiet Lounge, for quiet and sociability purposes, and the Gay-m Room, where women may seek desirable indoor recreation. These are located in the Centre wing, second floor of Stroud Hall.

This year the Council has obtained, through and with the help of the administration, a new kitchenette. This is located next to the Gay-m Room.

Among the various activities which the Council sponsors during the year are: hall parties, where everyone becomes acquainted with the other residents of her own hall; class teas, where each class meets at a social gathering of its own, with women faculty guests and with the counsellors as hostesses; an all-women-student party where day and dormitory groups come together for a mutual good time; and an installation service and banquet in the spring after the new Council members are elected.

MEN'S EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

THE Men's Executive Council was organized at East Stroudsburg in 1922. Under the leadership of Mr. Maguire the Normal Club, as it was then called, met once each week and functioned in the same capacity as the present organization. Its purpose has been always to "promote personal and group responsibility and to establish and maintain traditions of high conduct."

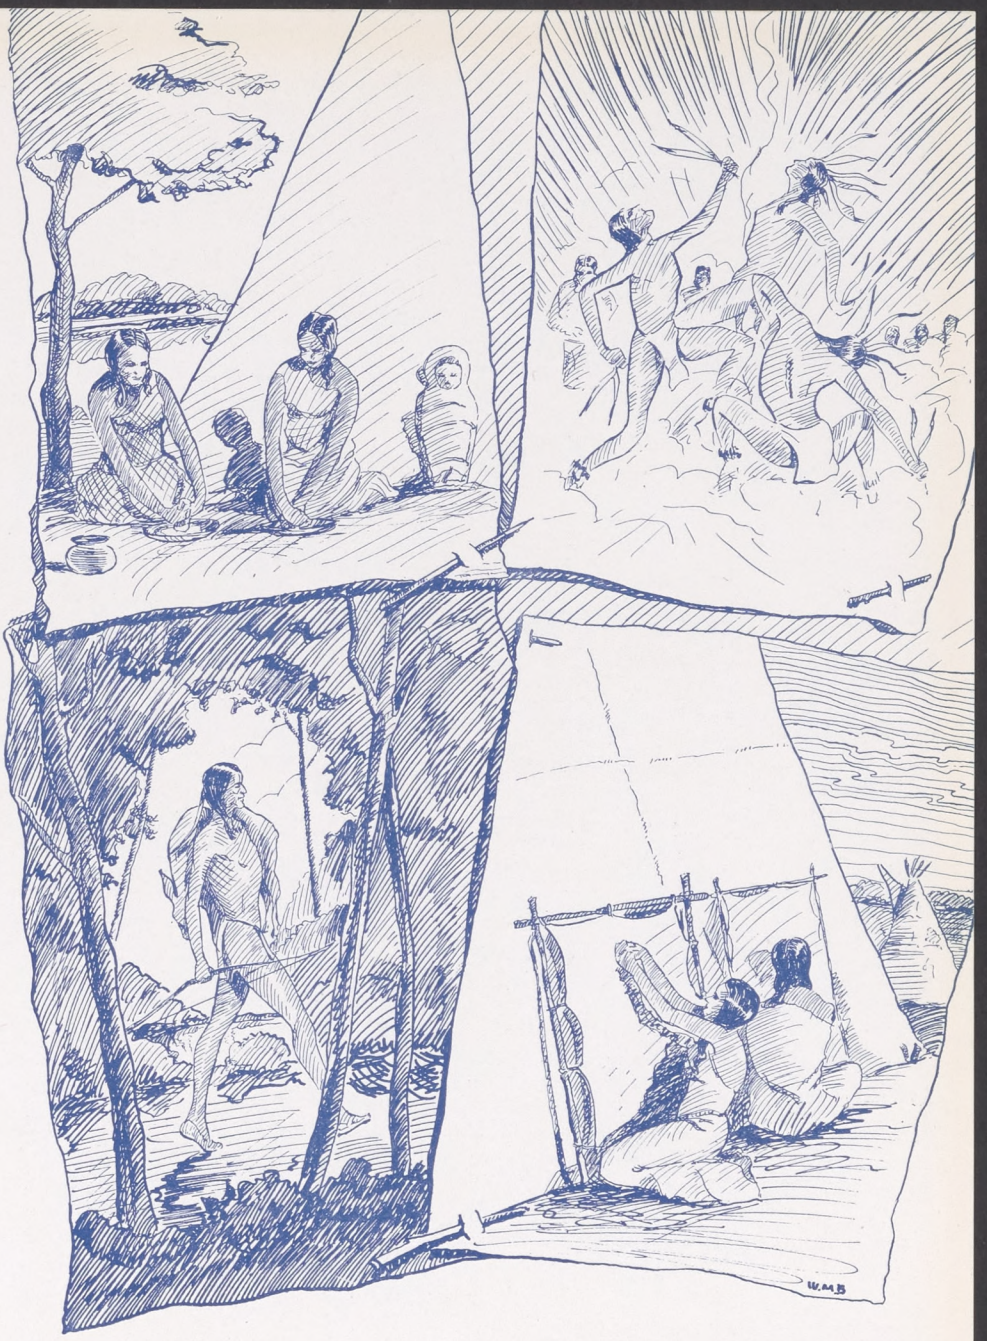

The Council annually entertains at the football smoker, a function which precedes the opening of the football season, and which serves as a "get acquainted night" for the freshmen. During the course of the school term the Council arranges hall parties for the men, events which bring the dormitory and off-campus students together in a most enjoyable social function. The spring smoker, held near the end of the track, tennis, and baseball season, is a fitting climax to the year's work by the Council.

Aside from social functions the Council supplies the Men's Club with papers, magazines, ping-pong tables, checkers, and such conveniences as will enable the students to pass their leisure time as pleasantly as possible. The funds expended by the Council are largely furnished by the Social Council from their allocation from the College Activity Fund.

ACTIVITIES

EXTRA CURRICULAR PROGRAM

BELIEVING that a teacher training institution should fit its students for constructive community leadership as well as classroom teaching, and further believing that leadership is fostered by having an opportunity in College to exercise that ability, the Administrative officers and faculty of the College sponsor an extensive program of extra-curricular organizations, in addition to those concerned with the co-operative government organization.

The program is so varied that each student can and does find one or more groups, the members of which have interests similar to his own. He grows through association, gains experience in organized group life, and also has a good time because of the social life involved. His leisure time is both pleasurably and profitably employed.

KAPPA DELTA PI

GAMMA XI CHAPTER of Kappa Delta Pi, an international honor society in education, was established on our campus October 17, 1931, by Dr. A. L. Hall-Quest, Executive Vice-President of the international organization. Dr. Frank P. Maguire, elected counsellor at that time, has since served the society in that capacity.

The purpose of the society is "To encourage in its members a higher degree of consecration to social services." "To this end it maintains the highest educational ideals and fosters fellowship, scholarship, and achievement in educational work."

To be elected to Kappa Delta Pi is the honor that may come to a student of East Stroudsburg, who, with worthy ideals, attempts to rank high in scholarship, and gives evidence of desirable social characteristics. Honorary members may be elected from departments other than education in the college, and from among other persons who have rendered distinguished service in the cause of education. Honorary members are: Dr. T. T. Allen, Dr. D. W. LaRue, Mr. Arthur A. Maguire, and Mr. Leroy Koehler.

In September 1935, Dr. Naegle, our first speaker, presented an interesting discussion on "The Relationship between College Education and Society." Mr. Koehler spoke at the initiation dinner held in the college dining hall when the seventeen new members were added.

President Barton was elected Gamma Xi Chapter's delegate to the Biennial Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi held in St. Louis, Mo., February 24 to 26, 1936.

The officers of Gamma Xi Chapter for the year 1935-36 are as follows:

THE ART CLUB

THE Art Club, founded many years ago with sketching and painting as its only activities, has expanded its scope and now offers opportunity to those who are interested in any phase of fine or applied art to meet and work with others of similar tastes. Each member has the privilege of creating something in his own field of interest, the only restriction being that one satisfactory project be completed during the semester. As a result the club represents a variety of interests, including groups working in leather, posters, sketching, painting, modeling, and puppetry. Although distinctly a working club, the groups occasionally meet together for lectures or social functions.

The meetings are scheduled for the second and fourth Wednesday afternoons of each month from four to five o'clock. The poster group meets Thursday evenings from seven to eight. Qualifications for membership are an interest in creative art, a desire to work, and some ability in art expression.

THE CHORAL CLUB

THE Choral Club was organied in 1931 under the direction of Miss Helen Morse, who continued in this capacity until 1934, when she was succeeded by Miss Carpenter, present head of the Music department.

The Choral Club annually presents a Christmas program and assists in the spring musical production. Within the Club there are smaller groups such as the A Capella Choir, the Sixteen Singers, and the Male Quartet, who entertain on such occasions as Home-Coming Day, Armistice Day, Parents Day, and Mid-year Commencement, and also makes appearances in the Stroudsburgs.

Since its organization five years ago the Choral Club has presented many outstanding musical successes including the "Chimes of Normandy," the "Mikado," and "Little Nellie Kelly." Last spring an entirely new type of production, entitled a "Musical Extravaganza" was presented with great success. This all-college production, written and directed by Miss Carpenter, and staged by members of the student body, was so well received that it was decided to produce this year a presentation similar to last year's "Extravaganza."

THE COLLEGE BAND

THE East Stroudsburg College Band has long been a popular organization on the campus. It has added zest to many college events except during the years 1933 and 1934 when it failed to organize. Previous to 1935 it was organized by the music department with the head of this department as its adviser and a student acting as director. The band appeared at football and basketball games and occasionally made a trip which was financed by the college. In 1932 with Miss Morse as its adviser and Norman Hangen, a student, as its director, the band journeyed to Scranton where it played at the East Stroudsburg—St. Thomas football game. In the spring of 1933 it disbanded when Mr. Hangen graduated from school.

In May of 1935 an amendment was added to the constitution of the College Activity Program, making it a duty of the Entertainment Council to arrange for the establishment of a college band and to provide for its maintenance. During the summer Dr. Roscoe van der Bie, former director of the military band at the University of Wisconsin, and of Wyckoff's Boys' Band, was appointed faculty adviser and director of the college band.

Shortly after the beginning of the fall term nearly forty students answered Dr. van der Bies call for candidates. At this meeting instruments and music were catalogued and a night for weekly rehearsals chosen.

The band, resplendent in snappy blue and gray uniforms, purchased through the Entertainment Council, made its first outdoor appearance at the Shippensburg game on Home Coming Day. The first off-campus appearance was in the Hallowe'en parade, held annually in the Stroudsburgs. The college musicians headed this procession and received first prize for being the best-dressed musical organization. The scene of the band's next off campus appearance was the annual Bloomsburg—East Stroudsburg football game played this year at Bloomsburg. The East Stroudsburg players proved themselves one of the best Teachers College bands in the state.

The band has become one of the most popular extra-curricular organizations on the campus.

THE CLIO SOCIETY

THE Clio Society, the current events club of the college, founded in 1920 by Dr. Helen Bell Trimble, is under the auspices of the Social Studies Department of the College. It has always been open to all the students of the college and has drawn its membership from those enrolled in elementary, secondary, and health education curricula. The aims of the Clio are to keep the members informed about events of the day; to encourage the reading and studying of current events; to provide an opportunity for discussion of current problems; to stimulate interest in current history; and to study club management and parliamentary procedure. There are no dues. The society has had several dinner parties during its history. Plans are being made for the members of the Clio to visit local sights of historic interest, and to go to the museum of Doylestown.

The officers of the society are:

President ..... Ted Balcomb
Vice-President ..... Willard Gilham
Secretary ..... Mary Burke
Adviser ..... Miss Mary C. Shafer

THE COLLEGE DANCE ORCHESTRA

THE college dance orchestra is sponsored by the Social Council. The purpose of this organization is to provide entertainment and dance music for the students at their dances on Wednesday evenings.

That the orchestra is a popular and worthwhile organization is shown by the favorable response of the student body, and the many outside invitations they have received to play during the past year.

The group has arranged extensive repertoire of popular dance numbers which they play well together. Their rhythmic notes do much to make the weekly dances in the Gym high spots of the social life on the campus.

The members of this orchestra are:

Joseph Brennan ..... Trombone
Nicholas Dolas ..... Saxophone
Charles Hirch ..... Saxophone
Charles Knudson ..... Saxophone

THE EUCLIDEAN CLUB

THE Euclidean Club was organized in the fall of 1929, with Mr. Jonas T. May as adviser, for the purpose of bringing together all of those students who are interested in mathematics. The aim of the club is to study certain phases of mathematics which cannot be treated formally in the classroom.

During the year the club members enjoy four different types of meetings; some of purely social nature, in order that the members may come to know each other better; others where guest speakers present topics of interest to students of mathematics; meetings in which students themselves talk on phases of the subject that interest them; and at times round table discussions are held. At least once each year the group makes an excursion to some bank or place of business to see practical mathematics at work.

GET A STUDENT CLUB

THE "Get a Student Club" is an organization different from all other clubs on the campus. One must earn his membership in this club by directly influencing a new student to enter this college. His eligibility is then approved or disapproved by Dr. C. J. Naegle, Dean of Instruction. This club has the definite aim in view of increasing the enrollment of the college by securing desirable students. Its activities are governed by a constitution. Each member is presented with a very attractive pin, for his help in increasing the college enrollment. The "Get A Student Club" is not an extra-curricular club as there is no regular time set for meetings or no extra-curricular credit given.

MASK AND ZANY

IN 1930 a group of students under the leadership of Miss Grace Bigler as faculty adviser, sought to develop dramatic interest and ability in the student body by forming a dramatic society modeled on the "Little Theater" plan. Membership in the organization was then limited to those students who were or had been enrolled in a course in dramatics either here or elsewhere. In 1932 the requirements for membership were changed so that anyone interested in any type of dramatic activity might join.

In 1931 Mask & Zany, under the direction of Miss Mary F. Stout, combined with the graduating class in the production of "The Enemy." The Club has given "Little Women," "The Ivory Door," "Twelfth Night," and "Three Cornered Moon," as annual productions, the proceeds from which have been used to buy additional dramatic equipment for the college.

The present officers of the club are:

President ..... J. Russell Evans
Vice-President ..... Louis Pauly
Secretary ..... Doris Imbt
Treasurer ..... Thomas Capraro
Adviser ..... Miss Elizabeth Dawson

THE COLLEGE ORCHESTRA AND THE BATON CLUB

The College Orchestra is one of the most important organizations on the campus. The activities are varied and numerous. The chief function is to provide music for special events and programs.

The orchestra combines with the other musical organizations in presenting in the first semester the annual Christmas musical program, and in the second semester, a variety of programs. Some of these have been the annual Spring Musical Productions, "Peggy and the Pirates," the "Mikado," the "Chimes of Normany," "Little Nellie Kelly," and an original Musical Extravaganza.

The orchestra also furnishes music for miscellaneous programs such as Armistice Day, Home Coming Day, and for various college dramatic productions.

The officers are as follows:

Faculty Adviser ..... Miss Florence Carpenter
President ..... Clarence Sears
Vice-President ..... Joseph Brennan
Secretary ..... Eloise Edinger
Librarian ..... Charles Hirsch
Assistant Librarian ..... Elwood Rehrig
Publicity Manager ..... Florence Mitchell

Members of the Orchestra are:

Esther Cook	Lawrence Nase	Thomas Capraro	Theodore Pawloski
Evelyn Curtis	Marion Rhoads	Pauline Cook	Frank Stortz
Dorothea Kern	Clarence Williams	Ethel Dimmick	Laura Craig
Mina McNerney	Paul Weinzier	Norman Hopp

The Baton Club is closely connected with the College Orchestra. The objective of the club is to teach its members to conduct an orchestra or chorus.

The fundamentals of conducting are taught and applied to various types of compositions. Reports on matters of interest are brought before the club. The members have an opportunity to change the science of conducting into the art, by leading the College Orchestra.

Many trips are taken to afford the members an opportunity to see the conductors of large orchestras. The last trip taken was to New York City. Here the members had the opportunity to see Hans Lange conduct the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

THE SCIENCE CLUB

THE Science Club was first organized at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College in September 1925. The purpose of this club was to give those students interested in the field of science an opportunity to develop that interest, and a chance to express themselves along scientific lines. The first meeting was called by Mr. C. W. Garman who has since that time acted as adviser of the club. It soon became necessary to limit membership in the organization to those students who have at least six semester hours credit in the field of science, and who meet certain requirements set up by the president and council of the club.

The club holds discussions in the field of science and makes excursions to places of scientific interest such as the Bronx Zoological Park in New York City, the Aquarium, the Museum of Natural History, the Hayden Planetarium, Radio City, and similar places. Outings to points of local interest, held each spring, provide a means of securing healthful recreation, and an opportunity to study outdoor life.

The present officers are:

President ..... Trever Williams
Vice-President ..... Joseph Glovack
Secretary ..... Willard Nicholas
Treasurer ..... Stephen Bambas
Adviser ..... C. W. Garman
Council ..... Trever Williams, Stephen Bambas, Hayden Johns, Edmund Burke, William Banks

STROUD COURIER

THE Stroud Courier, our college paper, has just completed its ninth year of existence. Originally issued as a quarterly, the Stroud Courier now appears bi-weekly. It functions, as all newspapers do, in disseminating information; and also serves as a training school for those students who hope to become faculty advisers of school publications. The Stroud Courier staff, at intervals during the year, conducts journalism classes on the more important phases of journalism, especially those phases relating to high school and college publications. These classes were well attended and most profitable to all.

The Stroud Courier is a member of two outstanding college press associations, namely, the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, and the Associated Collegiate Press. Delegates were sent to the convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association held at Columbia University in March.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

THE Women's Athletic Association has been functioning on the campus for several years, and is the most outstanding club for women in the school.

The activities offered are varied and interesting to all the members. They enjoy a Fall Week-end Party, at some local camp, and also a Winter Week-end Party at one of the leading hotels in the Poconos. Seasonal sports including hockey, soccer, and track and field events are open to all members. During the fall and spring the ever popular Breakfast and Supper Hikes are held. Various other activities are sponsored such as Hare and Hound Chase, Scavenger Hunt, Hay Rides, Sleigh Rides, Coasting and Skating Parties.

Last year the W.A.A. was added to the list of extra-curricular clubs. One regular meeting each month is held, at which the entertainment is furnished by the club members.

The faculty adviser is Miss Josephine M. Smith. Ruth Sanders, Marion Bock, Mina McNerney, Helen Brown, Lillian Metzler, Helen Shevlin, Bernadene Jacques, and Esther Seip are members of the board.

The officers of the club are:

President ..... GLADYS WADSWORTH
Vice-President ..... DORIS VOGT
Treasurer ..... MARION WILLIAMSON
Secretary ..... BECKY HASTINGS

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

THE Young Men's Christian Association was organized on our campus many years ago.

It is a credited extra-curricular group, and one of the most popular among the men students.

The purpose of the Y.M.C.A. is to promote growth in faith and Christian character; to foster good fellowship and high ideals; and to bring about a better understanding between its members and the outside world. Good scholarship, and loyalty to our college are also aims of all its members.

The program carried on by the "Y" is worthy of mention. Bi-weekly meetings are held. They consist of general discussion groups which deal with modern social, economic, and religious problems. Outside speakers also attend these meetings and offer talks of interest. Monthly, the Y.M.C.A. members gather in the College dining room and enjoy dinner together, after which, panel discussions are held.

The officers are:

President ..... FRANK KOONS
Vice-President ..... WILLIAM BANKS
Secretary ..... JOSEPH BEEBE
Adviser ..... MR. DUPEE

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

THE Young Women's Christian Association is one of the oldest organizations on the campus. The charter was granted on March 20, 1907, and the club has been active every year since that time.

The organization, affiliated with the national Y.W.C.A., aims to develop the social and religious life of the women students. Semi-monthly devotional meetings are held, addresses by members of the faculty, panel and round table discussions on topics of national and local interest, and programs arranged and presented by the members are enjoyed.

The social events of the "Y" are hikes, parties, and afternoon teas given at various times during the college year. Some events are traditional with the "Y" such as the freshman party at the beginning of the school year, the freshman tea at the first "Y" meeting, and caroling at Christmas time.

During the year representatives went to various seminars held at different colleges, and to the mid-winter Student Christian Movement conference at Buck Hill Falls Inn. Delegates represented S.T.C. at the summer conferences of the S.C.M. held during June at Eagles Mere, Pennsylvania.

Last Spring a large delegation of the "Y" attended the annual Spring Training Conference held at Millersville State Teachers College. This year the organization sent delegates to West Chester State Teachers College on April 3-5 for a similar conference.

Interesting panel discussions were conducted this year on the subject of personal creative living.

The Y.W.C.A., at Christmas time produced a very effective Christmas Vesper service which was concluded by a brief ceremony for lighting the campus Christmas tree.

The Y.W. and the Y.M. united their efforts in several projects during the year hoping ultimately to join forces permanently and become a part of the new Student Christian Movement.

ATHLETICS

THE prospects, at the opening of the football season, for a team which would uphold the reputation of former State Teacher elevens, were not very encouraging. With a total of 40 men reporting for the team, six of whom were former lettermen, Coaches Mitterling and Liljenstein developed a team which, although not the best, ended up the season with a good record.

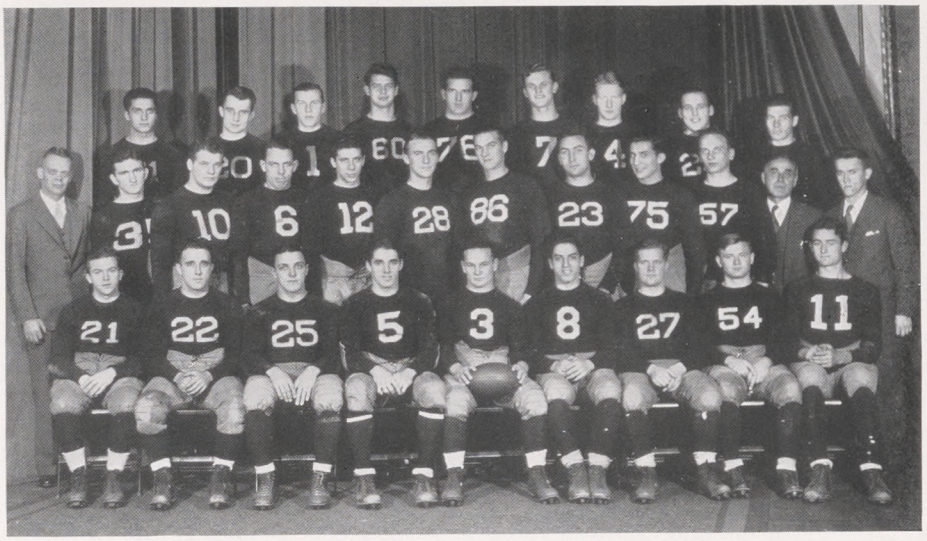

In the first game, played in a downpour of rain, against the much heavier, more experienced Springfield team, the boys were able to hold Springfield to ten points, but could gather no honors themselves. The Warriors were satisfied because the nearest they had ever come to winning was to hold Springfield to a 0—0 tie.

In the next game of the season the "Mittmen" showed what they really could do by defeating Panzer State Teachers College from New Jersey, to the tune of 26—0. The first quarter gave no favors to either team. In the second quarter Gabriel, our right tackle, intercepted a pass and trotted 45 yards for a touchdown. Two more touchdowns were tallied in the third quarter and one more in the fourth. Shafer, playing his best game of the season, converted the first extra point and Koons the second.

The third game, played before the Home-Coming Day crowd on Wayne field, against a heavier Shippensburg squad, proved our second setback. Taking advantage of the breaks, our opponents scored in the first, third, and fourth quarters. The wearers of Red and Black tallied their only score in the third quarter after Shebby ran the ball into position and Whally plunged the oval across. The game ended with Shippensburg on the long end of a 20—6 score.

At Trenton, Gabriel again intercepted a pass and ran for the touchdown which was the only score of the game with Trenton State Teachers College. The 6—0 victory, however, was no indication of the superior playing of the Warriors, as they had the ball in Trenton's territory during most of the game.

Injuries to Whalley and Schreiber at the following practice scrimmage seriously weakened the team for the game at Cortland on their Home-Coming Day. The New Yorker's heavier and more experienced eleven found little difficulty in running up a score of 39—0 over the light and crippled Stroudsburg eleven. John Carr, veteran guard, suffered a broken leg during this game and was lost to the team the remainder of the season.

The annual game with Ithaca proved to be another setback for the crippled Teachers, the Ithacans riding rough shod over the Mittmen to the tune of 33—0. Sweeping end runs were the outstanding feature of the game and were a constant thorn in the side of Captain Shebby's squad.

Mansfield's highly-touted grid team, fresh from a 3—0 victory over Bloom and a 6—6 tie with Cortland, swept onto Wayne field the following Saturday confident of administering Stroudsburg's third consecutive defeat. The Warriors, however, in playing their best football of the year, crossed up the dopesters by defeating the up-staters 7—0. Miller's exceptional punting and Captain Shebby's all-around playing featured for Stroudsburg. Shebby, on a trick play, scored from the 15 yd. mark and Koons place kicked the extra point.

Bloomsburg and East Stroudsburg, traditional but friendly rivals, rang down the curtain on the 1935 season in their annual game played this year on the rain-soaked Bloomsburg gridiron. The heavier Bloom team, coached by Austy Tate, of Lehigh fame, reversed last year's decision by trouncing the Warriors 12—0. The first score resulted from a blocked kick and the second on a series of power plays through the Stroudsburg line.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

WHEN the call came for Football candidates in September, thirty-five Freshmen responded. Coach Bob Elliott assisted by Matthew Curtis worked hard with the group to build them into a team. They inducted the rookies into the system of football played here and did valuable ground work training men for berths on next year's varsity.

The season was a long one for a freshman team. They played a total of eight games, many of them with stronger, more experienced teams and while they won no contests, they were victorious in learning to accept set-back after set-back and still keep trying.

SOCCER

IN the nine years that Soccer has been played in our college it has proved a most popular sport both for the student players and spectators. The team is under the able leadership of Coach Howard DeNike, who has worked hard with his men and several times in the past years has produced squads that have gone through the season undefeated. The squad this year, of twenty-two men, had a very good season even though they did not win all the games.

In the first game of the year the college booters defeated the Alumni eleven before an enthusiastic crowd by the score 2—0. This was a good start for the home team and the men showed that they were worthy of the praise given them.

The second game of the season, played with Springfield College Team at Springfield, was a very close game which our boys lost by the score 2—1. Though the game was played in the rain, both teams were fast and alert throughout all four periods.

One of the most exciting games played at home was with the Temple University Squad. There was plenty of fight and hard playing. A score made by a Temple man in the second period was quickly followed by a goal for E.S.S.T.C. The final score, made in the fourth period, ended the game with the count 2—1 in our favor.

The third contest of the season was with Rider College Team. The frame ended in an upset for Rider, our boys winning by the score 3—1.

The hardest fought game of the season was with Panzer on our field. Panzer had defeated our teams for three consecutive years. It was a thrilling game that was called after four extra overtime periods on account of darkness with the score 2—2.

After the tie game with Panzer, the College booters next traveled to Buchnell University where they lost a close game by the score of 1—0. In the following game the DeNike men were also forced to bow to Cortland State Teachers squad 2—0.

It seems that the boys had fallen into a slump from which they could not recover, or maybe lady luck had forgotten them, for try as hard as they might, they were beaten in the last game of the season by Ithaca College.

The players on the soccer squad receiving varsity letters are: Grady; W. Davis; Hirst; Wagner; Luff, Co-Captain; Griwert, Co-Captain; Gregoria; Schlegel; Socash; Dubin; and Feltham.

MEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

COACH Crapser's basketball squad consisting of Captain Marconi, Schecter, Zook, and Dubin, varsity men of last season, and Roche, Collins, Morgan, Reese, Homer, Williams, Davis, and Gregoria, new men, opened the season by a tilt with the Alumni. In this first game the men showed their basketball ability and came through a well played game with the score 57—41 in their favor.

The Red and Black quintet played the next game at home with the Wilson Teachers College of Washington, D. C. The contest was fast and well played, and the Crapserettes chalked up another victory 50—42.

For the first of the next two games the basketeers journeyed to Wesleyan University at Middletown, and added another game to their credit by defeating their opponents 42—32. It was a tired group that then traveled to Providence, R.I., where the boys met the first real obstacle of the season, and after a hard fight were defeated 39—64.

The Stroudsburg quintet then seemed to get into a rut. The next two games which were played with Springfield and Providence at home were defeats by the scores 37—42 and 31—50 respectively.

The never-say-die spirit pulled the warriors out of the rut and the boys were victorious over their next two opponents, Savage and Trenton. The scores were 43—37 and 41—35.

On January 16, the Crapserettes left on a two day trip to Cortland and Ithaca. Even though they had the spirit and the fight they came back home with two losses. The Cortland team defeating them 39—42 and Ithaca 40—52.

The Mansfield quintet came here to play on February first. The red and black team once again got its stride and defeated Mansfield 26—20.

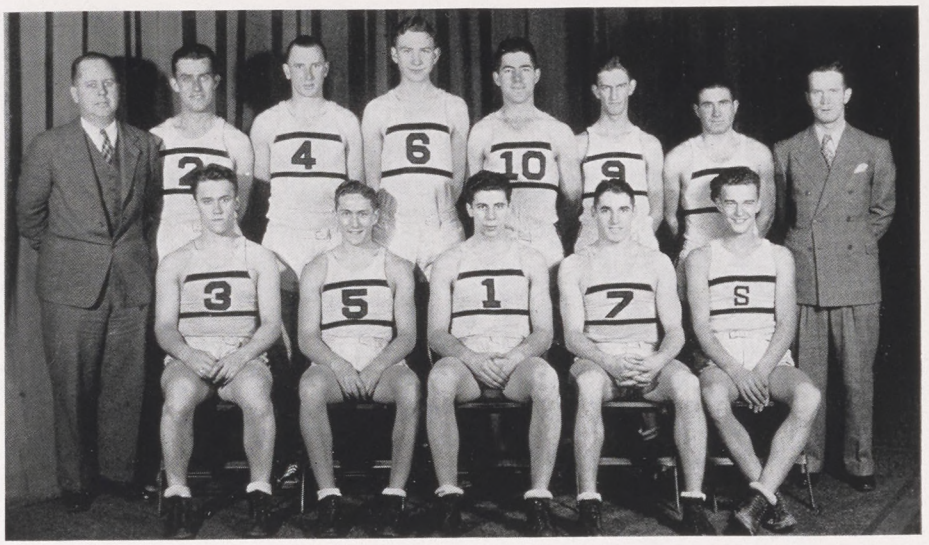

The squad next traveled to Long Island University. This was a new opponent for the team and they were defeated 35—69.

E.S.S.T.C.'s old rival was the next opponent. Down to Bloomsburg the team went all set to bring home the bacon, but even though they tried their best to win they were defeated 36—41.

The following four games were played on the home court with Connecticut State Teachers College, Trenton State Teachers College, Bloomsburg State Teachers College, and Montclair State Teachers College. The warriors won three of the contests losing one to Connecticut.

The final game of the season was with Cortland State Teachers College at home. It was fast and furious. The warriors were out for blood. They were trying to avenge the defeat handed them by Cortland in the previous contest. The game was very well played and Crapser's men came through the victor, defeating Cortland 42—39.

Coach Crapser was very much pleased with the results of this season. Even though the team did lose several games they finished up the season by winning the last six games.

J. V. BASKETBALL

There is a lot of credit due to the J. V. Basketball team which is under the leadership of Student Coach, Elton Hunsinger. The J. V. team is composed of the men that hope some day to be on the Varsity squad. These boys have worked hard this year and it has not all been in vain as the results of their schedule show twenty contests this season, and out of the twenty contests they lost only seven and won thirteen games.

MEN'S FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

THE schedule of his year's Frosh basketball team was by no means a short or an easy one, and considering these facts their record of ten games won of the eighteen played is a very good one.

The members of the team gave all they had in order to obtain places on the squad, and to get what experience they could so that they might qualify for positions on next year's varsity.

Coach Robert Elliott's freshman squad consisted of: Luce, Captain; Gonsky, Jones, Krajsa, Werner, Wood, Murray, Wallace, Hughes, Fellin, and Lord, Manager.

WOMEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

THE Women's Varsity Basketball Team of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College closed a very successful season on March 7, 1936.

Under the splendid coaching of Miss Ann Oberholtzer and the leadership of Marion Afflerbach, who was appointed captain for the season of '35-'36, the team has a record of seven games won, out of ten played. This is one of the best records in several years.

The first game of the season was played against the Alumnae. It was not until the last several minutes of the game that the brilliant playing of Evelyn Davies and Jennie Nearing brought the home team's score ahead of their opponents for the first victory of the year.

Probably the most interesting trip of the season was the three day excursion to Harrisonburg, Virginia. Only seven players could go, but the girls put up a good fight only to lose the game 28—18. After the game the girls were entertained by the school and then they visited the famous Endless Caverns of Virginia.

Both two and three court basketball were played this season. Jennie Nearing has the honor of being high scorer for this year.

After a number of games the team entertained and was entertained at teas.

There is also a Junior Varsity team which helps to prepare players for the Varsity team. This year it was coached by Ann Johnson, a senior, and out of five games they won two.

THE GYM TEAM

THE East Stroudsburg State Teachers College Gym Team was organized by Mr. Oscar J. Liljenstein in 1926. This team, which consists of six girls and six boys, has had a minimum of fifteen exhibitions a season. There is no other college in the United States that has a team of this kind in which both girls and boys participate.

This Varsity Sport has a purpose in demonstrating to High Schools, Y.M.C.A.'s, and Communities, our concept of an all around program of individual physical education suitable for the gymnasium.

The program consists of exercises for men on Parallel Bars, Spring Board, and High Horizontal Bar, and with Lighted Clubs; for women, a Free Hand Drill; a clown act was put on by two boys. The whole group enters in Tumbling, Silver Wands, Waltz and Clog Dances, and Indian Clubs.

Those who make up the team are: Marion Bock (Capt.), Lehighton; Betty Brown, Williamsport; Margaret Dunning (accompanist), East Stroudsburg; Ann Moore, Harrisburg; Ruth Rittenmeyer, Wilkes-Barre; Ruth Wallauer, Ashland; Henryette Yoak, West Pittston; Lester Zimmerman (Capt.), Pottsville; John Custer, Reading; John Erickson, Glouchester, Mass.; Russell Evans, West Pittston; Robert Feltham, East Stroudsburg; Jack James, Frackville; Fred Kaley, Mechanicsburg; Chester Krisiewicz (Mgr.), Moosic; Anthony Matistic, Dickson City; and R. Brown Schwartz, Easton.

WRESTLING

COACH Mitterling found a willing group of men on the mat the first day of practice for the 1936 season. Only Captain Paul Cullather, Rock, Wagner, and Salerno remained as veterans from the undefeated 1935 team. It was evident that some of the regular positions on the team would have to be filled by inexperienced men.

For the opening meet of the season against Springfield College, the team was made up of Captain Cullather, Rock, Williams, Brown, LaBar, Wagner, Tonsi, and Salerno. Half of these men were new to varsity competition. Springfield won the match 24—10 with Captain Cullather and Wagner winning their matches on falls.

The next opponent of the matmen was Brooklyn College. Again the veterans came through and Stroudsburg won 16—11. Captain Cullather won by a fall, as did Salerno, while LaBar and Wagner won on time advantage.

The next three matches were cancelled. Ithaca College cancelled its two bouts with the Warrior Matmen, and Mansfield also cancelled their match, leaving three matches remaining on the schedule.

Brooklyn Polytechnic came to Stroudsburg with a very strong team. Last year the Warriors held them to a tie, and this year our strong men were determined to defeat the Brooklyn grapplers. It was a close match and it was uncertain who was victor until the final score was added and Stroudsburg was on top by a score of 18—16. Pisano, a newcomer to the Warriors won his bout by a forfeit. Captain Cullather won his encounter in time advantage, while LaBar and Tonsi won their matches by falls.

The following two matches, held on consecutive days took the Warriors to Ithaca Y.M.C.A., where they were defeated 25—3. Wagner who wrestled in the 165 pound class won over his man by time advantage. The next evening the Warriors traveled to Alfred University, Alfred, N. Y., and were unexpectedly defeated 10½ to 19½. Captain Cullather, LaBar, and Wagner winning on time advantage, while Nasevich gained a draw with his opponent.

TENNIS

UNDER the efficient coaching of Mr. Robert Elliot the 1935 season was the most successful ever enjoyed by our college tennis team. Seven matches made up our schedule. Stroudsburg won six and lost one match. The season opened on April 26th when our team travelled to Bucknell University. Captain Davis, Blowers, and Dolas won the singles, while Miller and Socash came through with a win in their doubles match. The "Bisons" came from behind to defeat the Warriors 5—4.

Our next opponent, Trenton State Teachers College Team, was defeated at East Stroudsburg on May 3rd, score 5—1.

Three days later the Warriors defeated the racquet wielders from Panzer College on slow, wet courts by the score 6—0.

On May 11th Coach Elliot's net-men met a strong group from St. Thomas College on our courts. Davis and Blowers won their matches in straight sets putting our college out in front. The final score was Stroudsburg 5, St. Thomas 3.

The contest played at home with the Newark State Teachers College team gave our varsity performers one of their best scores of the season—8—1. Captain-elect Blowers was the outstanding man on the court, winning his match without giving a score. Stroudsburg's tennis team duplicated his record when they vanquished the highly-rated Mansfield State Teachers College team at their next match. Miller and Ozenbaugh played stellar games for us, easily defeating the "tops" of Mansfield.

Alumni Day, May 25, marked the end of the tennis season for Stroudsburg. Our team took the courts against the heroes of other days. The Alumni, try as they might, could not stand the pace of their undergraduate brothers and went down to defeat, 5—2. This match did not mark the end of the college tennis careers of any of our men. The varsity was entirely made up of underclassmen.

Bill Blowers, who was elected Captain for 1936, and Captain Davis were not defeated in any match this season.

VARSITY TRACK

WITH a record of winning two, losing one, and taking second place in the State Teachers College meet, the track team for 1935 had a most successful season. Forty-six men responded to Coach Howard DeNike's call on the opening day of the season. There were Captain Rahn, Meichner, Erickson, and Luff, veterans of former years, and some promising new candidates.

At the first meet of the season, the men of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College squad on their home field proved themselves just a shade better than Captain Rahn's aggregation. The strides of Homer, who won the 100 yard dash, and of Luff who broke the tape in both the 220 yard low hurdles and the 100 yard high hurdles, were responsible for three of the five first places taken by Stroudsburg. Altogether this was our most hotly contested meet. The final score 64—62 showed Stroudsburg the loser by only two points.

The next week the Trenton State Teachers College team paid a visit to our squad here on Wayne Field. Coach DeNike's men won all of the first places in the meet except the high jump, winning the meet by a 94—23 score.

At Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, the State Teachers College meet furnished the third trial for our warriors of the Red and Black. They took second place in this meet, West Chester carrying off first honors from a field of seven contesting State Teachers College teams.

The annual Quadrangular meet, Cortland, Ithaca, Trenton, and Stroudsburg competing, was held at Trenton. It proved the banner meet of the year for the braves of the E.S.S.T.C. Koons took first places in the discus throw and the shot put, while Strazdus won first place in the broad jump. The final scores for the meet were: Stroudsburg, 60½; Cortland, 44½; Trenton, 32½; and Ithaca, 24½. Stroudsburg won this meet for the fifth consecutive time.

The track team for the year 1934-35 consisted of the following men:

George Rahn, Captain
John Erickson
John Homer
William Craley
Horace Luff
Trever Williams
Henry Arneberg
Paul Weinzier
John Childs
William Meichner
Earl Yocum
John Timko

BASEBALL

THE 1935 season found the Warriors infield torn to shreds by last year's graduation of three veterans. Coach Mitterling faced the problem of filling the second, third, and shortstop positions with a host of promising but untried material, and the season was nearly over before he hit upon a winning combination. But despite the constant shifting of players, the "Profs" played through a difficult 12-game schedule with the loss of only 4 games.

The curtain-raiser with the fast Providence nine was played on a day better suited to football than baseball, but despite the teams' inexperience and the adverse weather conditions, the "Strouds" held to a low score an outstanding eastern college team and one that had administered to them last year a humiliating 10—0 defeat. Hitting their stride in the first Cortland game the Warriors embarked on a 4-game winning streak which was terminated in a pulsing 12-inning defeat by the Bloomsburg bat-bearers. The remaining games found the "Pedagogs" playing a little better than average baseball, 3 games being won and 2 lost.

Throughout the season Benner's airtight pitching and the heavy hitting of Captain Summerhill, Zook, and Zipay was outstanding, while fielding honors went to Hunsinger and Grady.

THE VARSITY "S" CLUB

THE Varsity "S" Club is composed of men and women students enrolled at the college, who have been awarded the major "S" for participation in one or more of the athletic or gymnastic activities promoted by the activity program.

The objectives of the club are the maintenance of pleasant athletic relationships with other educational institutions and the promotion of a high standard of personal conduct on the part of the members of our Varsity Teams. The monthly meetings of the club are spent in discussing problems arising from and the activities associated with the achievement of these objectives.

Each spring, as a means of making money, the Varsity "S" Club produces a play or sponsors an evening's entertainment for the student body. The money from this production is used to buy Varsity "S" emblems which are presented to the graduating seniors who have been in the club longer than one year.

Any member of the Varsity "S" Club is privileged to wear the white sweater with the red and black block "S."

The faculty adviser is Mr. O. J. Liljenstein.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

WITH the beginning of the 1935 school term there was a new department added to the Athletic program at E.S.S.T.C. This department was the much needed and much demanded Intra-Mural Sport Program.

In early September Dr. A. Lester Crapser, director of athletics, appointed a committee of eight to represent the students in this phase of athletics. The committee members, four men and four women students, are Ruth Rittenmeyer, Marion Bock, and Rebecca Hastings, Seniors; Marion Afflerbach, Sophomore; Elton Hunsinger, Louis Pauly, Stewart Bady, and Paul Cullather, the first three are Seniors and the last a Junior.

It was the aim of this committee to encourage all students to participate in organized athletic sports, and to foster the spirit of fair play and true sportsmanship. The committee provided wholesome competitive activities that were not too strenuous for students possessing an average degree of athletic ability.

The socializing influence of team work is an outcome of the Intra-Mural Sport Program. No other field of educational procedure presents so many situations calling for quick discriminating decisions between the right and wrong thing to do.

In the course of our school year the committee sponsored over twenty-five various events or sports and handled in the neighborhood of 1500 entries. The winners of individual sports were presented with cups or trophies, and the winners of the teams were presented with individual metals. These presentations took place in Assembly.

Intra-Mural Athletics are still in their infancy at our institution, but if the work is continued, and our program carried on, we feel sure that it will be second to none. Next year we are looking forward to an even more extensive program.

A point system has been developed. The purpose of this system is to encourage a student to participate in two or more activities each season.

So we say, "On Intra-Mural Athletics, never turn back."

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1935-36

Monday, September 9, 1935—Timid (?) freshmen approach Oakes and Stroud Hall—"I'm glad I was asked to come early so I may look them over. You never can tell, I might be looking for a new girl."

Wednesday, September 11, 1935—"O-o-oh—Wow—and what have you been doing?" The upperclass men and women are arriving to register! "Yes, it's true that Mr. DeNike is Dean of Men and lives in Stroud Hall."

Wednesday, September 18, 1935—"Where is the end of that line?" "At the gates." "Well, we'll just wait awhile." "Say! wouldn't you think their arms would be tired?" "How many people are there at this annual reception?"

Monday, September 23, 1935—"The Frosh are doing a grand job with that wood pile. We'll have a giant bon-fire."

Tuesday, 8:30 P.M., September 25, 1935—"Everybody out! Who set that wood on fire?"

Wednesday Night—"Gee, it is a long time from dark until one o'clock. Let's get Huns and his group to come finish this job of sitting up with the wood pile."

Thursday, 11:58 A.M.—"It's on fire again—what will we do?"

Thursday, 10:00 P.M.—"Where did they find so much wood? We never had such a big fire at a Freshman Smoker."

Friday, September 27, 1935—"Rah — Rah — Rah — Stroudsburg." "I do hope that the Soccer and Football teams beat Springfield. Boy, oh boy, if they only could!" "Good-luck to you fellows at your first games of the season tomorrow."

Saturday, October 12, 1935—"Welcome Alumni! There certainly are a lot of people coming to this homecoming day." "And do these Shippensburg boys look big—watch out Shebby or they'll step on you and Bill and never see you."

Saturday, November 9, 1935—"Mansfield, oh, Mansfield, where art thou?" "My what a game. We're proud of you boys."

Saturday, November 23, 1935—"Did you see the costumes at the Old Clothes Dance? No, you wouldn't, 'cause the Juniors didn't go. Well, you missed the time of your life."

Monday Noon, December 2, 1935—"Do you know there are just eighteen days until Christmas Vacation, and I haven't digested my Thanksgiving Dinner yet?"

Sunday, December 15, 1935—"Doesn't the Christmas Tree look beautiful out on the campus, and wasn't the program of music nice? My, I feel Christmas coming."

Wednesday, December 18, 1935—"Four one act plays in one evening. Yes, but it didn't take us long to give any one of them as it did to get the stage ready for it after the last one." "The plays were very well done, but it is hard to imagine Duke as Jean Valjean."

Thursday, December 19, 1935—"No. I can't stop now. I'm on my way to decorate our table. You should see what I have for John. Will he be burned up—" Later—"Doesn't everyone look nice. The Christmas Party is our nicest one I believe. Do you know this is the fifth time tonite Donlin has played 'The Music Goes Round and Round'? What a piece!" "What? You have to help put the tables back in place in the dining room?" "No, I'm not going to bed. Four o'clock will come too soon and I'm going Carol singing."

Monday Noon, January 6, 1936—"Happy New Year!! Yes, I know it's a little late. Did you have a nice vacation?" "Yes, I was ready to come back, but don't tell anyone I said so." "Don't the Frosh look queer without their dinks and green ties?"

Sunday, January 19, 1936—"No, don't ask me to go anywhere tonite. I have three exams tomorrow. No, I won't get thru early. My last exam is 10:20 Friday." "Do you think this snow will bury the buildings before morning?"

Tuesday, January 28, 1936—"I don't see why I always have to have a Saturday class. Each semester I've wished that I wouldn't but I always have. They say that we're to be checked for absence from classes right away. Guess I'd better pay my money and go to class to-morrow."

Friday, February 14, 1936—"There aren't as many comic valentines as usual this year." "Yes, the Social Council is having the dance in the dining room. Watch those posts!" "What? Yes, two bands are playing."

Saturday, February 22, 1936—"Of course I'm going to the Senior Dance at the Penn Stroud. Isn't it too bad that when we have a good idea we can't use it."

Saturday, March 28, 1936—"I've invited a good looking girl from home for the Guest Dance tonite. I do hope it doesn't rain as it did last year, remember?" "Who are you bringing?" "Yes, it's at the Armory and Luff says they have a swell band."

Monday, April 13, 1936—"Back again. Easter vacation was too short. I'm sure the time will fly until May 26. Just seven weeks and the work I have to do!"

Saturday, May 2, 1936—"Isn't it lovely to have our parents here? Mine said they'd had the best time ever."

Monday, May 11, 1936—"Did you get your copy of The Stroud? The staff are in hiding waiting to see how everyone likes the book."

Monday, May 18, 1936—"Exams again. Thank goodness these are the last ones for me. Of course, I expect to graduate, who says I'm going to flunk—Oh, yea!! Well, let's see."

Saturday, May 23, 1936—"Alumni! Doesn't it seem funny to think of yourself as that? Everyone has had a good time to-day."

Sunday, May 24, 1936—"How do you put these pesky hoods on?" "My hat won't stay on straight. Isn't it a queer feeling to be marching to the Baccalaureate Service? I feel sorta lost like. How about you?"

Monday, May 25, 1936—"Did you finally decide what kind of a tree to plant and what sort of a Class Day Program to have? I do hope we all have a good time to-day, and that there isn't any rain."

Tuesday, May 26, 1936—"College Ties may ne'er be broken
And while they never die,
May all good fortune be your portion,
Wherever you may hie."

HOME COMING DAY

IT'S always fair weather when good friends get together and so it was on October 12, 1935, for the Annual Home Coming Day.

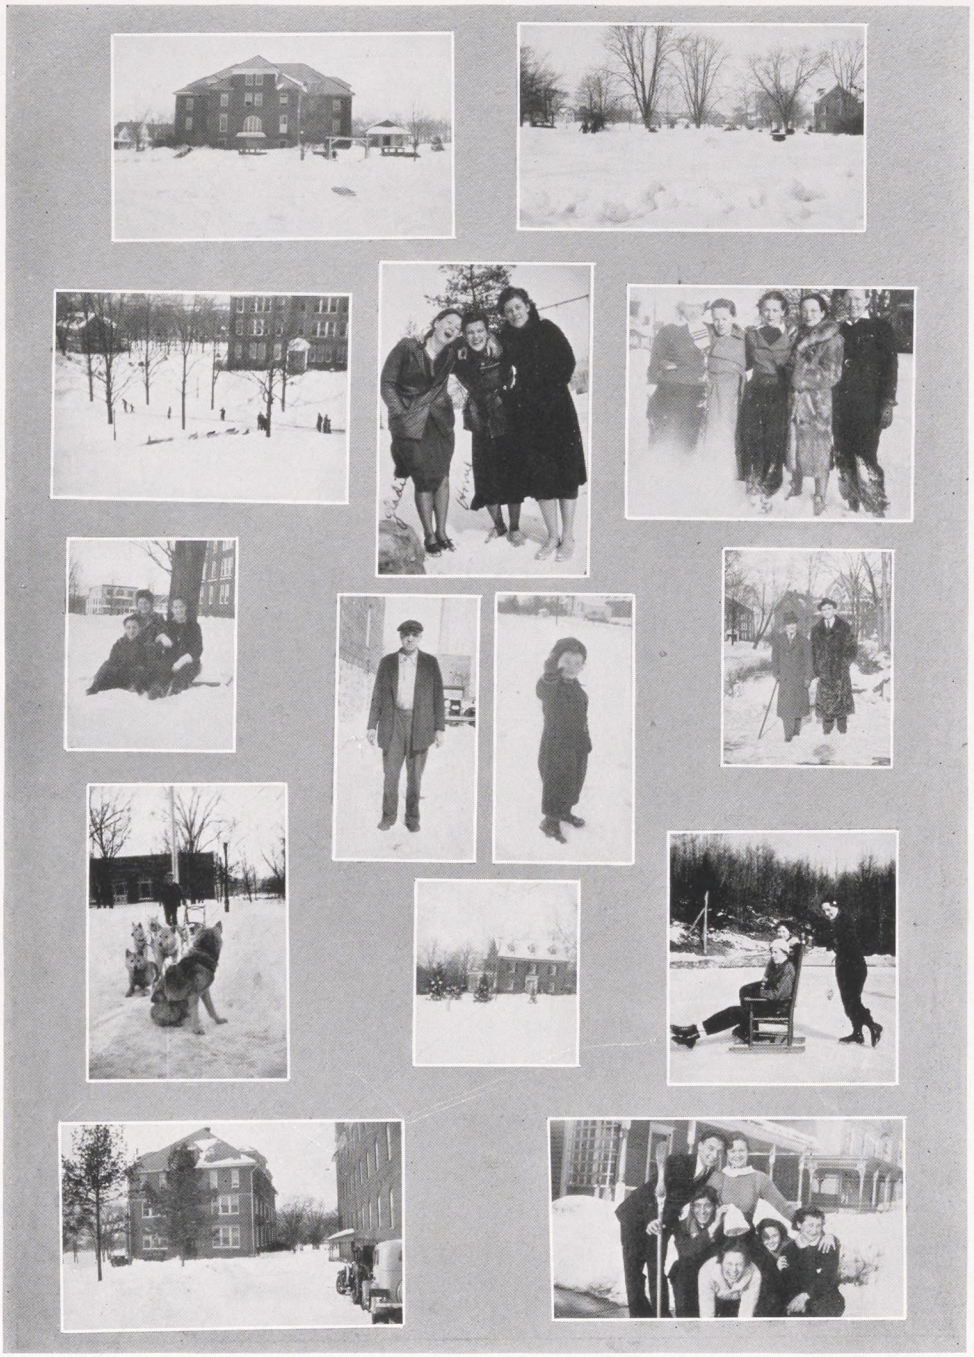

Early in the day former students, graduates, and friends of the College began to roam over the campus. There were gay greetings everywhere as those who had known each other in former years met again. About five hundred returned to E.S.S.T.C. during the day.

The Social, Entertainment, and Athletic Council had planned a most interesting program and the Food Service Department supplied a delightful dinner.

There was an assembly program at 10:20, a football game with Shippensburg at 2:00, and our Soccer team met the Temple University Squad at 2:30. At five o'clock tea was served in the reception rooms of Stroud Hall, after which the dinner was enjoyed at 6:00, followed by dancing in the Gym until midnight.

Both the dining room and gymnasium were decorated in keeping with the spirit of the day. Everyone present had a most delightful time.

THE CHRISTMAS PARTY

THE Christmas spirit was prevalent on the college campus for a week preceding the Christmas vacation. Trees, bedecked in gaily colored light and shiny Christmas balls, were placed in the hall and on the campus. Wreaths of holly, encircling warm red lights, were scattered everywhere. Caroling groups gathered at numerous places and lent a festive air to the occasion with their songs.

A group of Christmas plays were presented by Mask and Zany—"Dust of the Road," "The Bishop's Candlesticks," "Beau of Bath," and "Boy on the Meadow." A musical program was presented on Sunday afternoon, December 15, by the glee club, orchestra, and quartet, which told the story of Christmas in song.

The crowning event of the week was the dinner dance which was held in the dining room, with every girl arrayed in her prettiest evening gown, and every fellow spic and span in his best suit, and all the students, trustees and faculty assembled for the delicious dinner. Every table was decorated in the spirit of the season with original ideas everywhere in evidence. The dining hall hummed with merriment and excitement, and a bit of suspense, for the prizes for the tables were soon to be awarded. With solemnity and deliberation Dr. Allen announced the list of honorable mention tables, then the third best, the second best, and finally, the first and best table. A beaming member of each prize table went to accept their award. Dinner over, and everyone satisfactorily fed, the group assembled in the main hall for an interval of gay caroling. Meanwhile the dining room was being prepared for the dancing that was to follow. At the first downbeat the crowd journeyed back to what was now a nicely decorated ballroom. To the mellow strains of Tommy Donlin's orchestra the dancing began and continued. And, "the music went round and round," and joy was everywhere. And then the last note echoed and died—Merry Christmas to all, and to all a goodnight.

WOMEN'S DORMITORY LIFE

WHEN, on the first dav of the school year, a girl comes to the dorms for the first time, she is lost, bewildered, and lonesome.

However, it soon becomes her "home"; for anything is what you make it. With the aid of pictures, pennants, pillows, and curtains, her room is soon transformed to suit the tastes of herself and of her roommate; reflecting their individual personalities. The dorms become more attractive, and take on a more cheerful aspect.

The new "frosh" finds the upperclasswomen very friendly and pleasant. Everyone speaks to her, whether she knows her or not. Everyone is willing to help when she needs aid. Girls come to visit her and invite her to their rooms; ask her to do things and go places with them. The upperclasswomen do all they can to keep a homesick "frosh" from being blue. Out of this friendly attitude grow friendships which last through college and even on through later years.

In order that we might be "one happy family," our Dean of Women does all she can to make our dormitory life pleasant and worthwhile. Her student assistants. The Dean of Women's Council, are elected by the students to represent the women of their respective halls. These girls do what they can to make life on their own halls satisfactory. Through the council members, complaints and suggestions for a better, fuller life at E.S.S.T.C., are brought to the attention of the Dean, who with the cooperation of the Council, does all she can to fulfill requests, adjust unsatisfactory conditions, and guide the welfare of the students.

For leisure hours, students may read, chat, or listen to the radio in the lovely, homey, Quiet Lounge; cook in the Kitchenette; or play games in the Gay-M room.

Dormitory life is well-rounded and enjoyable for those who make it so. Good times are had by all, and the intangible something that makes us like it, draws alumnae back year after year.

Laughter, fun, games, music, studies, quiet reading, serious discussions, influencial personalities, and friendships are all wonderful memories of women's dormitory life.

PARENTS DAY

IF one were to take a straw vote on the popularity of the various social activities held during the term 1934-35, Parents Day, held last Spring, would be found listed among the three most popular.

Its purpose can best be explained by quoting the dedication printed on the day's program:

"To those who through their loving care of us, and thoughtful efforts in our behalf, have made it possible for us to be here in this College today,

Our Parents,

we of the Social Council of the State Teachers College at East Stroudsburg, in loving appreciation do dedicate this day, the Eleventh Day of May, 1935, as Parents Day."

The activities for the day began in the morning with an assembly program in the College auditorium. This was followed by dinner in the College dining room at which time the entire group was privileged to hear from the Honorable C. B. Eilenberger, Third Assistant Postmaster General, Rev. Squire B. Schofield of Muncy, Penna., Dr. T. T. Allen, president of the College, and representative students.

After dinner "open house" was maintained in the dormitories for both parents and students giving them an opportunity to visit all buildings.

The afternoon program consisted of athletic activities and a gymnastic demonstration staged on the football field. The elementary, secondary, and health education students combined to present a demonstration of the work which is typical of their activities in the College gym classes.

Tea was served in the College Reception Room after the outdoor program. This informal social hour brought to a close a most delightful day, and a day which every student sincerely hopes will become a college tradition.

LAUREL TIME IN THE POCONOS

THE activities connected with Laurel Time in the Poconos center in and about Monroe County where the laurel abounds—the laurel which has been named the official flower of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The governor of the state each year selects the Laurel Blossom Queen. She, accompanied by her court of princesses at all events, rules over the festivities which last for a period of a week or ten days. The princesses are also feted at receptions, balls, and dinners in their honor at the various hotels where they are official guests.

Among the hotels which have annually entertained princesses are: Pocono Manor, Sky Top Lodge, Buck Hill, Buckwood Inn, the Reenleigh, the Ontwood, the Peters House, Meadowside, Croasdale Manor, Hawthorne Inn, Lutherland, Deer Head Inn, the Penn Stroud, and the Indian Queen, all of which are prominent vacation and resort centers.

The unbroken round of pleasure for the royal court and the tours of the county all reach their climax in the brilliant coronation pageant, which is usually honored by the presence of the governor of the state and other state officials. This coronation is replete in costuming, dancing, and elaborate settings, which heighten the effect of the event.

In addition to our own college princess at "Laurel Time in the Poconos" the following neighbor colleges have been represented: Marywood, Moravian, Cedar Crest, Penn State, Temple University, Misericordi, Beaver, Ursinus, New Jersey College for Women, Bloomsburg State Teachers College, West Chester State Teachers College, Kutztown State Teachers College, and Millersville State Teachers College.

Miss Catherine Egan represented East Stroudsburg State Teachers College at the Laurel Blossom Festival for 1935, and Miss Jeanne Pelton was our first princess in 1931. The Misses Ann Long, Hilda Schreiber, and Betty Rhoades were honored in 1932, 1933, and 1934, respectively.

THE MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA

THE most outstanding production the music department has presented to the students in the last four years was the Musical Extravaganza of April 12, 1935. The day following its presentation, one of our favorite faculty members summed up its popularity in the remark, "I have always said this school was incapable of producing music worth listening to. I am going to take back all I have said, for last night I listened to a program, which to my way of thinking, is among the best I have ever heard. I do not know whether it was because music capable of being produced by the school was selected, because the scenes were appropriate, or because of the harmony produced. I do know I enjoyed the program and would listen to it again if I had the chance." In reality its popularity was a combination of all these qualities, produced through the intelligent selection of music, the proper planning, and the untiring efforts of Miss Carpenter, head of the Music Department, along with the cooperation of about one hundred and twenty-five students and a member of the faculty. It was a college production in the true sense of the word. The dialogue was written by John Mills, a former student, and Miss Carpenter. Many of the towns-people helped by furnishing costumes and decorations.

The program, composed of ten scenes, depicted the music typical of various peoples from the eighteenth century down to the modern American Night Club. Murray Nace, the first master of ceremonies, introduced the first five scenes.

The curtain opened on the first scene: a group of gypsies of Italy, grouped around their campfire, singing the "Anvil Chorus" by Verdi, and doing the little things characteristic of Gypsy humor and freedom.

The second scene showed a Rustic Peasant Wedding of France in the eighteenth century. The characters were dressed in the clothes of the time. Four girls sang, "An Old French Dance" by Louis Chalif. Elizabeth McGuffie and Clayton Evans danced a Minuet.

Three scenes: "The Interior of a Church in Germany during the 18th century; Beneath a Balcony in Spain; and An English Hunting Scene, followed before intermission.

During the intermission, Earl Yocum, taking over the duties of the Master of Ceremonies, whiled away the time until the curtain opened on an Indian Rythmic Dance. R. Brown Swartz, executing a war dance to the beat of tom-toms, would have brought any old settler to his door with a gun, so well did he play and look the part.

A scene of the Sunny Southland followed. This scene can boast the best harmony produced on the campus in many a day. Six girls outdid themselves in singing a number of Southern airs and the College Male Quartet, singing "Scandalize My Name," "Steal Away," and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," made the hit which precipitated their appearance at various events throughout the rest of their school career.

An "Evening on the Texas Range," the Victor Herbert scene, and a modern American Night Club, were the scenes shown before the curtain closed on one of the best, most enjoyed entertainments given on the campus.

HAIL ALMA MATER

All Hail, Alma Mater! Of thee we'll be singing,
Thy lights and thy shadows, thy toil and thy fun;
Full many a picture through mem'ry comes winging.
O Teachers College, Hail! from rise to set of sun.

COLLEGE TIES

College ties can ne'er be broken,
They can never die,
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed in friendship's tie.
Stroudsburg! Stroudsburg! Hail to thee!
Deep graven on each heart,
Shall be found unwav'ring true
When we from life shall part.

MEN'S DORMITORY LIFE

THE sound and fury which you heard the other night must have come from Shawnee or North Hall for in those quarters live many of the men students of E.S.S.T.C. Perhaps it was a hall party in progress for at such do all the members of a hall perform, contributing what each can to the general fun of the evening. Or maybe it was just before Christmas and Initiation Week for the Freshmen was on. You know a Frosh learns a lot in his first semester here. He surely finds out how to live successfully with others, to take, and yes to give, in a true sportsmanlike manner, to be considerate of the rights and privileges of others, while he may have to be persuaded a bit by upperclassmen in his first semester, if he is wise at all, he will have learned a most valuable lesson in living.

You know there are more arguments in the dorms than anywhere else in the campus. Bull-sessions may or may not help you to pass an examination, but plenty of them are held in dormitory rooms.

Really though, the dormitories are not noisy places when you consider that 198 men live in them. Living on the campus does contribute so much to school life. Closer friendships are formed. The activities of the College are more thoroughly and completely enjoyed. You may not have as much room as you want for your possessions but you learn to make the best of what you have. You'd be surprised how some of the rooms are fixed up. It seems to me that a college man's room reflects his personality as nothing else does. Would you like to look around?

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We of the staff wish to express our appreciation and thanks for the devoted service, kindly guidance, and many courtesies shown to us by Miss Coryell in the publication of THE STROUD.
