Dedication

To you, Alma Mater, we dedicate this 1946 Stroud. We are simply giving back a record of what you have given us.

With our graduation we claim you as our own, entrusting to those who follow the task of keeping you as we remember you—proud, friendly, sympathetic. To us you are not simply a group of buildings, nor a schedule of classes, nor four years of hard work. Rather you are a host of real friends, a pleasant journey to maturity, a challenge to success, a hope for the future.

We came to you as anxious "frosh"—wide-eyed and curious. With those unforgetable "regs" we caught our first glimpses of your true self. These were our introductions to the upperclassmen—the first stages of our acceptance into your brotherhood. We learned to respect the achievements and abilities of the upperclassmen and to add proudly our own talents to theirs.

As Sophomores we gave "regs" instead of taking them, and watched for evidences of good sportsmanship and friendliness among the new "frosh". Our responsibility was to make them proud to belong and eager to serve.

In so very many ways were we able to serve you, perhaps without even realizing it: by giving unlimited support to athletic teams, by recognizing individual and group achievements both scholastic and athletic, by accepting responsibilities in clubs, councils, and other organizations.

Yours is a pliable form affected by all we think and do. That's why we are just as important to you as you are to us. That's why we must give to you before you can give to us. With every friendly "Hello"—we serve you; with every unselfish deed—we serve you; with every task, no matter how small, completed—we serve you.

In return you have given us many pleasant and never-to-be-forgotten memories.

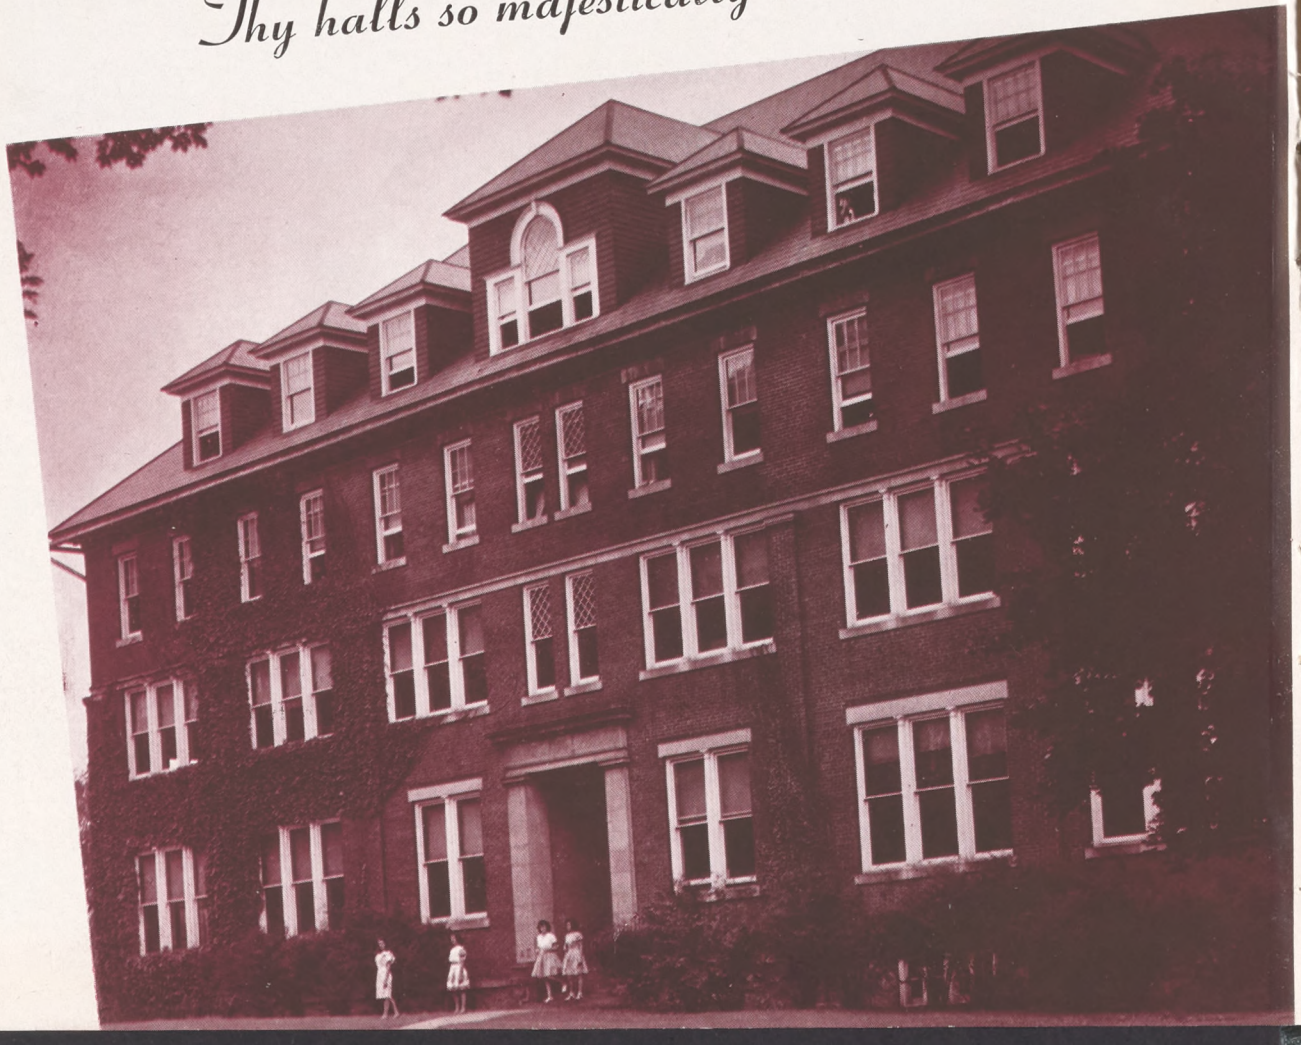

As seniors we notice more and more how clearly now your form comes into view. It gives us a feeling of strong unity. We really belong now, for we have earned our way. We look hopefully to the classes who follow—that they may see what goes into your make-up and in doing so make their stay here as enjoyable as ours.

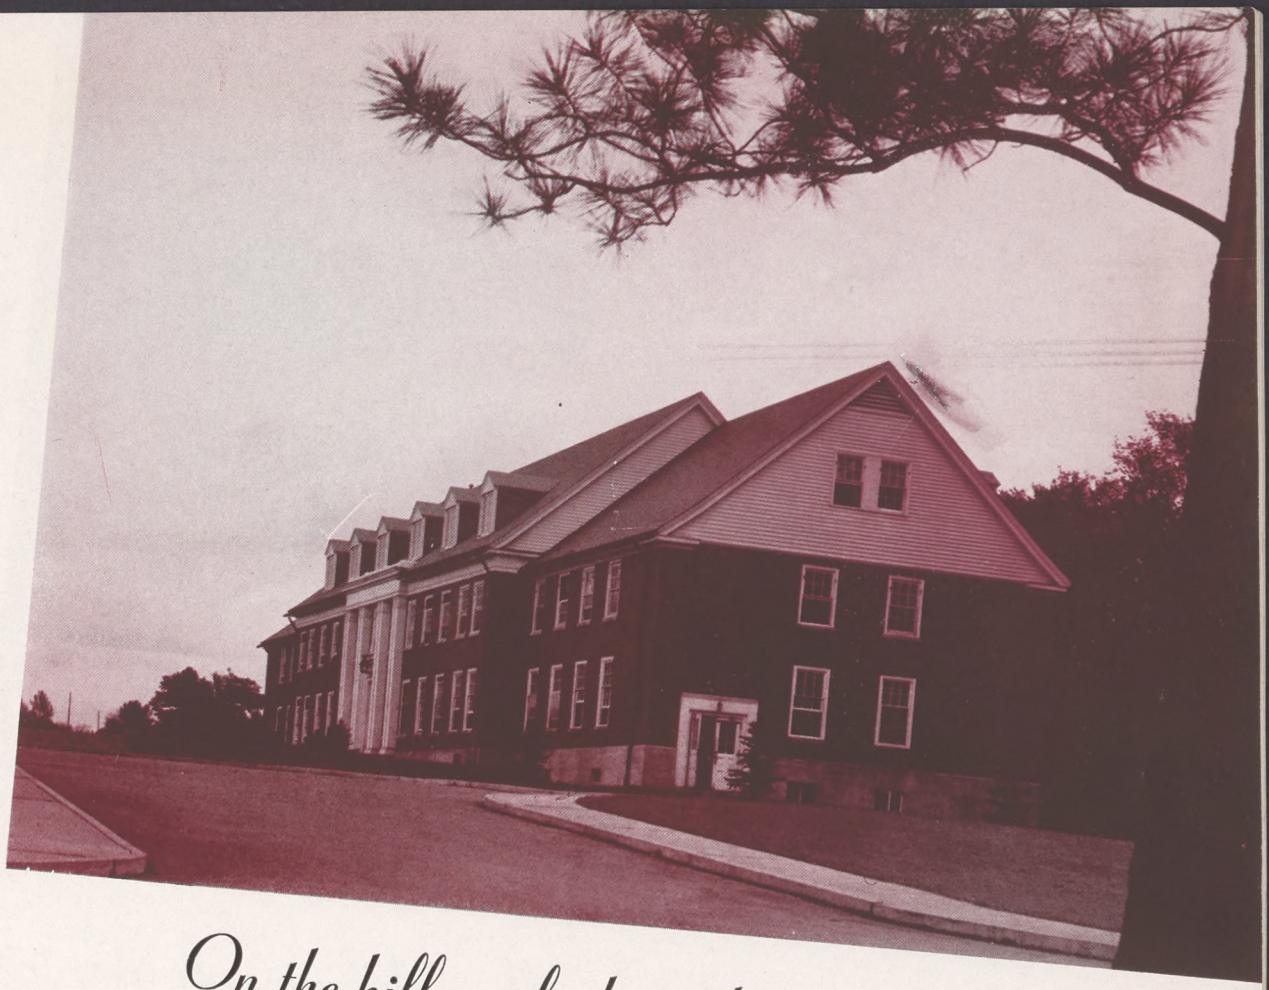

What are you anyway? School spirit? Cooperation? Friendliness? Whatever we call you, you will remain—the heritage of "each incoming class", the responsibility of "thy students and athletes," the pride of "those who leave thee regretful."

Thy halls so majestically stand

On the hill overlooking the town;

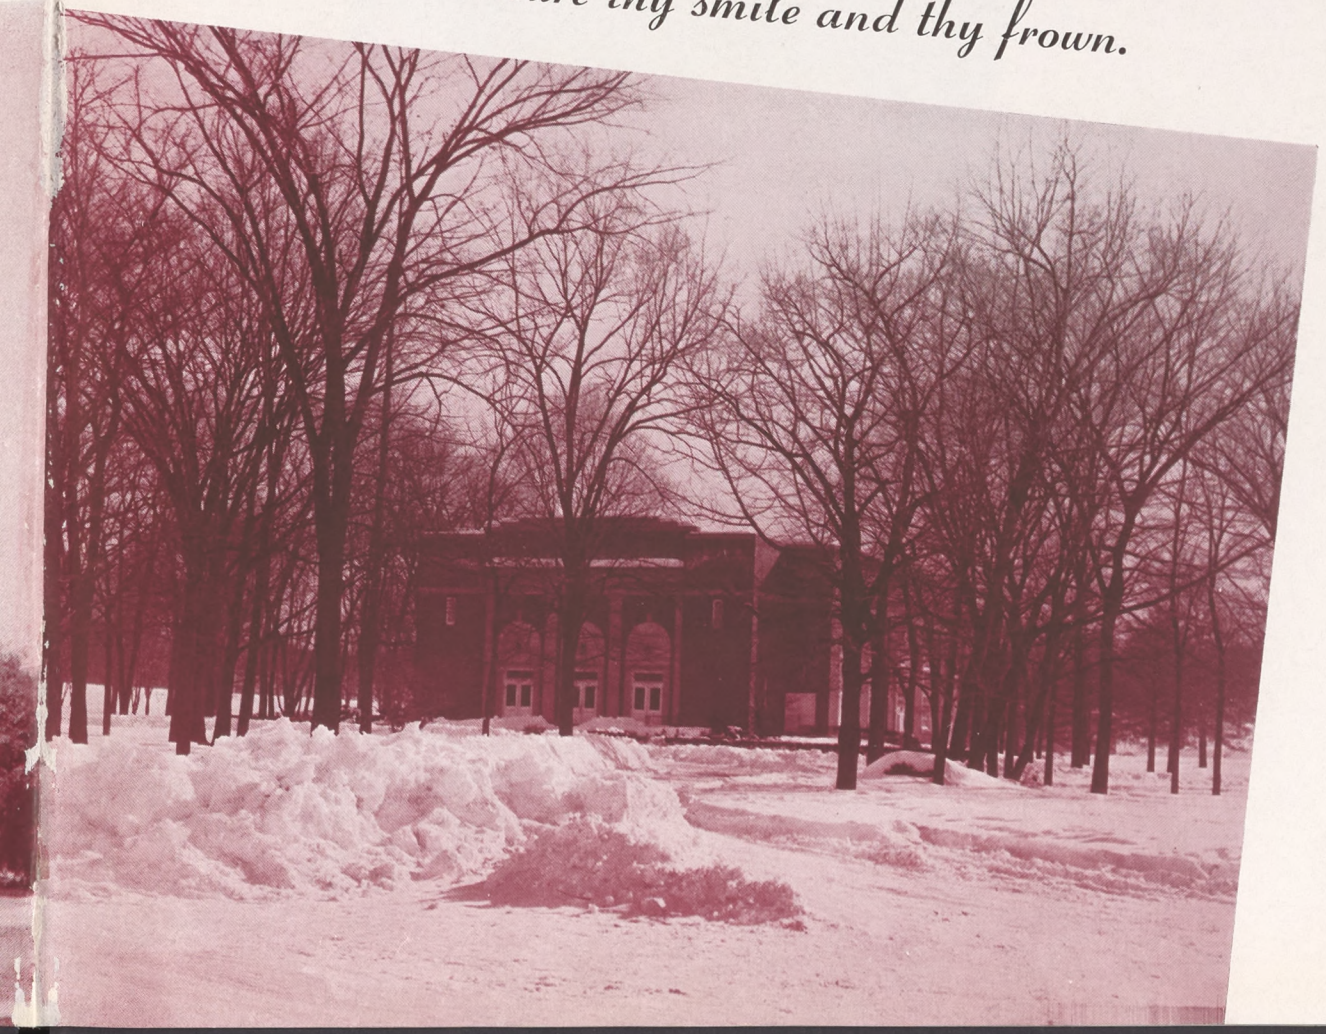

With thy vine-covered walls and thy maple trees trim,

We treasure thy smile and thy frown.

A mystical charm

The Class of

We knew them when they were merely "frosh" —and still a little green. But look at them now— full-fledged Freshmen—holding their own with the rest of us!

They managed to survive those little inconveniences afforded to "Frosh"—namely "regs", green bands, pig-tails, umbrellas, heels and socks, handbooks, stunts, air raids and anything else we could think of. In this way we got to know them— finding it was well worth while.

The Freshman Class boasted the largest male enrollment on campus even in September—but the biggest surprise of all came in January when the avalanche of G.I.'s hit E.S.S.T.C. The freshmen girls who had been residing most comfortably in Shawnee Lodge, moved into Stroud to make room for them. Athletes of the Freshman Class gave quite a boost to our sports' program especially in regard to men's teams.

The first big affair attempted by the class proved to be quite a success. It was in the form of a Valentine Dance held in the new gymnasium. This dance seemed quite unique in that dates no longer had to be "imported", but were right here on hand. This dance started the freshman social ball rolling and we found them planning ice and roller skating parties, picnics, and social functions in Wayne Gym.

Another big event of the year was the reopening of "Hens"—which served as a haven of relaxation for the coke gang.

With the coming of the class of '49 came the promise of better times! Full speed ahead!

The Class of Nineteen Forty-Seven

Way back in September the Junior Class returned to campus for their third year, bubbling over with the idea of now being "upperclassmen." Though their male population was severely affected by the war, the juniors never allowed their enthusiasm to slacken. Here was a group that, though small, was just loaded with ambition, intelligence, originality and old fashioned "get-up-and-go." For three years they have been known for giving their best, no matter what the occasion.

Army releases added new blood to the group and the juniors have come through by holding within their class such offices as President of the Senate, Editors of the Stroud Courier and presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries and treasurers of almost every club on campus. "A finger in every pie" is fast becoming a class motto.

Aside from scholastic activities there were class activities galore. The juniors just wouldn't sit still. They spent their free time thinking up things they could do as a group. Every month there was at least one outstanding activity. In the fall they started with doggie roasts and moonlight hikes; these were to counteract each other—on the one they almost burned alive, on the other they nearly froze to death. But being healthy individuals, they were only urged on by these little discomforts to trying other activities purely for fun. Activities that followed included swimming and bowling parties.

The enthusiasm and success of these minor affairs carried over to the unique junior prom. For a month ahead of time we curiously watched harried juniors gather in corners for quick whispered conferences. As always, they came through with a real "bang-up" affair.

Finally with May comes the great day. The seniors are happy to have reached their goal, and the juniors step forth into their shoes, finally attaining a place in the sun—top class on campus!

Which deep in their memories dwell.

And with May the class of '46—"First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of our mothers" (quoted from our unchallenged president)—joins the ever-growing ranks of E.S.S.T.C. alumni. As a class we are unique in E.S.S.T.C.

First in war! The very first wartime class to come on campus, eighty-eight strong, we were prepared to meet the challenges of college life. As brave, true "frosh" we faced "regs", dancing class, first aid, then the sudden departure of most of our men. Never losing our united front, we turned out to every function and even produced a freshman prom (little dreaming it would be our last dance until our junior year).

Following quickly came the sophomore year, finding the class smaller but still keeping a steady pace and now captained by Lucy Evans. The acute man-shortage eliminated our plans for a dance. However, we rallied with a well-received carnival, including the inimitable "Trip to Mars."

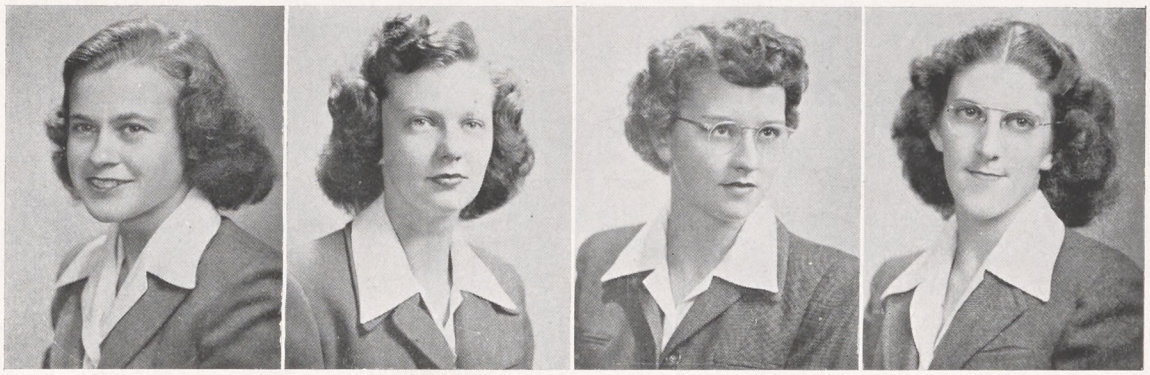

Moving to the junior year we find but two men in the class, a new library in Stroud Hall, speech class (and mute juniors), the health "eds" learning a mazurka, a smoker in Stroud Hall, and bridge added to the curriculum. To top the year, our creative juniors bring forth the Star Dust Ball.

First in peace! And now we are seniors! The war is over and school becomes a new experience; more men appear on campus and everything takes on a peacetime attitude.

As seniors we have little time to notice anything. The pace becomes maddening. "I wish I were a frosh" is now the theme of the class. Senior pictures, student teaching, applications, varsity sports, teas, dances, worry over grades—all hastening us toward that fast approaching goal of graduation.

First in the hearts of our mothers! Graduation day and every graduate's mother proudly arriving on campus. Now with Lucy, our president of three years' standing, we all recite with a sigh, "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of our mothers!"

There was no finer Freshman Class than that which entered E.S.S.T.C. in 1942. There were no finer fellows than those who left us to serve Uncle Sam during that same term. None of us can ever forget that day in February when we stood solemnly at the station seeing them off. With their going so went basketball, football, dances, sessions at Rosies, and all kinds of things fellows help to make fun. From there on, letter writing and reminiscing kept them very much a part of us. We listened with pride to reports of their honors and success; we watched for them to return on occasional visits. They were still part of us.

Now, the war over, they are beginning to come back — becoming members of other classes. But we will always think of them as our fellows — class of 1946.

Dear College, thy honor is safe in their hands,

President

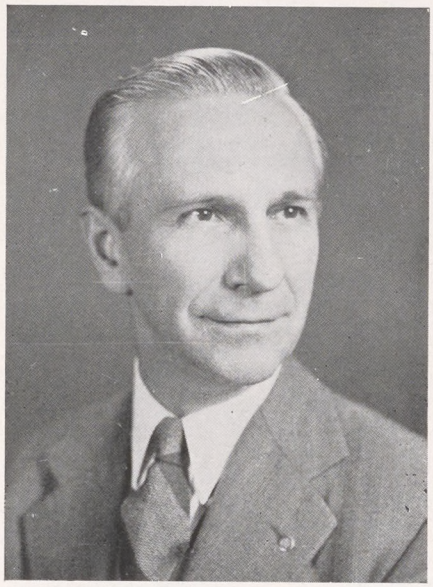

Dr. Joseph F. Noonan

No one can imagine the technicalities, troubles, and toil involved in running such an institution as East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. The seemingly increasing problems which arise each year must be handled with great precision and extreme promptness. A leader of this type of organization must have infinite patience, remarkable administrative ability, and deep understanding of student problems. He must also have a keen interest in individuals and their problems, no matter how trivial they may seem. A genuine cooperative spirit among faculty, employees and students must be shown at all times. A desire to better every individual, to uphold high ideals, and to develop attitudes which will reflect through each student's life is most essential.

With all these qualities in mind, we are proud to claim as our president, Dr. Joseph F. Noonan.

Their deeds by thy precepts are led;

VARSITY "S"

In sports the sign of highest achievement is the prized Varsity "S". With it goes the opportunity of membership in the Varsity "S" club. The purpose of this club is to encourage a high standard of personal conduct among varsity team members. Initiation includes the wearing of a red "S" painted on the forehead.

Its activities have included swimming meets and variety shows, the proceeds of which aid in the purchase of gold keys for senior members of the club. These are awarded at the Athletic Banquet.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB

The Health and Physical Education club is composed of those students specializing in the Health and Physical Education field.

The organization aims to keep its members informed on matters that pertain to their field and to develop a professional attitude among the members. It achieves these aims by sponsoring various activities related to health and physical education such as gymnastic demonstrations, dancing exhibitions, and aquatic meets.

The executive board of this club is composed of two representatives from each class, headed by Miss Genevieve Zimbar and Mr. Oscar Liljenstein, the advisers, and the club officers. This year the officers are Lucille Evans, president; Edward Mink, vice-president; Arlene Burkhart, secretary-treasurer.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

This very popular organization is planned to provide social and physical activity for all women students.

Many indoor and outdoor activities are enjoyed by the group such as supperhikes, games, bowling, skating parties, swimming parties, style shows, taffy "pulls", and scavenger hunts. This organization also sponsors teas for the visiting women's teams who come to play basketball and hockey.

Each year the members enjoy a trip to New York where they see plays and operas. This year the organization is planning a hobby show and a Spring Play Day.

Miss Blanche Burrow is the adviser of this association. The officers are Inez Roberts, president; Virginia Loop, vice-president; Ruth Mooney, secretary; Arlene Burkhart, treasurer.

SPANISH CLUB

"Salutacion, mes amigos," is the greeting you'd probably receive if you visited the Spanish Club some Wednesday afternoon. El Circulo Espanol, as the club is called, aims to develop greater fluency in Spanish conversation and an alert interest in inter-American affairs. During the year, programs vary with book reviews, short plays, guest speakers, fiestas and other social activities as well as an educational trip to New York.

These Spanish speaking students have chosen Leni Eiseman, president; Marjorie Lanterman, vice-president, and Alice Monaghan, secretary-treasurer. Dr. L. Donald Warren, Spanish professor, is adviser to the club.

These math-minded students meet every other Wednesday to increase their knowledge and interests in mathematics. In most cases the members are mathematics majors or minors but membership is not limited to these alone.

A most interesting program is followed including discussions and lectures. Recreation is derived from mathematics through the solving of riddles, puzzles, and number games.

The recreational and practical treatment of mathematics provides these students with fine background for their field. Euclidean Club has for its adviser Mr. Jonas May, and officers Georgene Stoudt, president; Mary Evert, vice-president; Olga Romanovich, secretary, and Regina Strzalka, treasurer.

NATURE CLUB

Before you are the E.S.S.T.C. nature club members with their most capable adviser Dr. William Moore. Their regular Wednesday afternoon club meetings are filled with interesting activities concerning nature and the great out-of-doors. The study of plant and animal life, hikes, lectures and visits to the near-by rhododendron nursery are but a few of the clubs activities. A trip to New York is the biggest event in the year's program. Visits to museums and science buildings provide experiences never to be forgotten.

The nature club which always has been one of the most popular clubs on the campus, has for its 1945-46 officers Mary Lou Kline, president; Margaret McDonald, vice-president; Regina Wasta, secretary, and Rita O'Reilly, treasurer.

ART CLUB

"Putter 'n Paint" is the nickname attached to this creative organization. Every other Wednesday afternoon at 3:10 the art room in Shawnee Lodge buzzes with activity. Under the guidance of Miss Madelon Powers, beginners and experienced artists develop their talents and skills. Glass etching, crepe paper craft, woodwork, metal work, painting, and paper mache craft are among the many interesting activities enjoyed. Teas, exhibits, and guest speakers provide for fun and excitement.

The members of "Putter 'n Paint" are generous with their talents. Several outstanding posters have been made and designed by the art club members in cooperation with other campus organizations.

The officers of this progressive and active club are Margaret Strunk, president; Marcia Moore, vice-president; Theresa Moreken, secretary; Lois Smith, treasurer.

MASK AND ZANY

Quite the active club is this popular dramatic organization. Mask and Zany produces each year two three-act plays and several one-act plays which give experience to its members not only in acting, but also in directing and managing.

Membership in the club requires that students take an active part in all the club activities. Before the formal initiation ceremony, prospective members can be seen sporting their masks all about campus.

Reward enough for the endless hours of rehearsal and work is the final performance. "Snafu," one of this year's major productions, is ample proof of the success of this progressive organization.

Advised by Dr. Grace E. Ingledue, the club members have chosen Mary Jane Exner, president; Mary McCormack, vice-president; Geraldine Kettell, secretary, and Constance Ervey, treasurer.

WOMEN'S CHORUS

Every Monday evening at 7:00 P. M. one can hear the well-blended voices of the Girls' Chorus ringing bright and clear from the music room of the Training School.

The members of this organization are selected by the director and adviser, Mr. Bernard Mandelkern.

The Girls' Chorus not only lends its talents to college activities but also makes numerous public appearances before various local clubs and organizations. The girls sing at several assembly programs, the most popular being the special Christmas cantata.

Preparations for the Spring Musical begin soon after Christmas, Mr. Mandelkern selecting the music for this program. The girls also sing at Baccalaureate Services and Commencement Services.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The merging of two very active religious organizations, the YWCA and YMCA, resulted in the newly organized Student Christian Association with Dr. and Mrs. L. Donald Warren as its religious counsellors. The officers are co-presidents Mary Jane Exner, Charles Schoneman; co-vice-presidents Dorothy Zieger, Paul Maguire; co-secretaries Rachel Fritz, Charles Musto; treasurer Catherine Yocum.

The aims of this club are (1) to speak out against and correct any unethical situation which may arise on campus; (2) to bring the united impact of religion upon the intellectual life of campus; (3) to develop a mature Christian faith; (4) to guide students in becoming efficient Christian citizens.

Participation in several Christmas celebrations, in the national clothing drive, and in religious conferences at Washington, D. C., and Kutztown, are but a few of the association's accomplishments.

ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

This association was established as a local chapter of the state and national A.C.E. Its purpose is to further interest in early childhood education. The meetings are devoted to discussion of all phases of elementary education. The club's program is so arranged that half of the meetings deal with educational interests and the other half of the meetings are of a social nature.

A Christmas program directed by A.C.E. members was given by the pupils of the Training School. The club members enjoy hikes and picnics and this year are planning a visit to the Toy Shop in Stroudsburg.

The Blue Pencil Club is designed to promote interest in worth-while literature and original writing. The membership is composed of majors and minors in English and of those other students who would like to increase their appreciation of good books of the past and of the present. Talks are given by invited guests and discussions are held.

The club members enjoy various social functions during the year. Dr. Edna Rosenkrans, the adviser, often entertains with holiday parties and Sunday night suppers in her apartment. A trip to New York is usually included in the club's calendar. This past year they attended the opera and a Broadway production.

The Blue Pencil Club has for its officers Marijane Everett, president; Neita Austin, vice-president; Phyllis Jones, secretary, and Una Marie Bronner, treasurer.

WHO'S WHO

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges offers nation-wide recognition for outstanding students who have distinguished themselves in scholarship and leadership on their own campus. The method of selection varies according to the school's situations. The basis of consideration is character, scholarship, leadership in extra-curricular activities and potentiality for future usefulness to society.

This honor is comparatively new on our campus. These students are held in high esteem by all those who know them. Those selected may be juniors or seniors.

It is designed to act as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college experience and as a compensation for what they have already achieved.

WORLD OUTLOOK

A comparatively new club on campus, World Outlook, provides an opportunity for world-minded students to broaden their views on contemporary history. By analyzing and discussing current social, political, and economic problems each member develops a clearer understanding of pertinent national and international questions.

The only requirement for membership is a sincere interest in current events. A variety of discussions including formal debates, round table and panel discussions are used in the procedure of the club meetings. Through these methods, each member can draw his own final conclusions on the topic discussed. Officers include Lester Brown, president; Marise Kenderdine, vice-president; Gene Egli, secretary; Irene Belensky, treasurer, and Mr. LeRoy Koehler, faculty adviser.

On floor: J. Deobold. Seated: L. Evans, M. Kenderdine, R. Patterson, R. Gingrich, D. Henning. Standing: G. Egli, A. Morgan, B. Wood, L. Brown.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Alpha Psi Omega is a newly organized honorary dramatic fraternity on campus. The local chapter, Iota Omicron Cast was established on campus March 16, 1945, at which time 11 charter members were initiated under the direction of Miss Helen Thornton, adviser.

This year again the Iota Omicron Cast continued its work under the advisership of Dr. Grace Ingledue, and the officers, Madeline Mohrey, president, Marge McCall, vice-president, and Constance Ervey, secretary.

To become a member a person must meet both national and local requirements, not only play a major role but also work a certain number of hours in the workshop.

This club's activities include sponsoring at least one play a year, holding initiation banquets twice a year and discussing all phases of the theater in regular bi-monthly meetings.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Established in 1931, this honorary fraternity has proved itself one of the most prominent organizations on campus. The local chapter, Gamma Xi, is an active group of juniors and seniors who possess very high personal qualities, intellectual and scholastic standards.

The first big event of the year was the impressive candlelight ceremony at which time the new members were initiated. This year, for the first time in several years, there was a regular Installation Banquet at the Indian Queen Hotel.

Bi-monthly meetings are held at which panel discussions, debates, artists, student talent and interesting speakers make up the program. The club usually has charge of one assembly program each year. One of the outstanding enjoyments of the year is the trip to New York City.

The purpose of the society, which is to "encourage high intellectual and scholastic standards and to recognize outstanding contributions," is guided by the adviser, Dr. Francis McGarry, and the officers, Rosina Patterson, president; Leni Eiseman, vice-president; Bette Wood, secretary; Ruth Gingrich, treasurer; Nora Hinaman, corresponding secretary; and Ruth Draper, historian.

Shall win for the Black and the Red.

1st row, left to right: V. Loop, A. Burkhart, R. Gingrich, M. Kruckel, D. Henning, R. Mooney, M. J. Exner. 2nd row: C. Blinn, A. Reber, P. Herbert, M. Postetter, C. Yocum, E. Wasser, N. Dresher, Z. Ground sticks . . . ground sticks . . . ground sticks . . . fifty-five candidates paced the field . . . anxious for the rugged six-game schedule of the season.

"Make-connections" motto created excellent teamwork first evident in the game with Temple. It was a 5-0 loss for the Zimbarettes . . . the girls fought hard and did some spectacular playing.

Two weeks later some good, keen competition was encountered by the experienced Ursinus team . . . E.S.S.T.C. lost . . . 4-1.

The girls traveled to play Brooklyn College . . . they turned in their first win of the season by defeating Brooklyn 2-0.

Congratulations team! For the first time in E.S.S.T.C.'s hockey history, the girls scored against that strong Temple team. The defensive plays of our girls were exceptional.

An excellent offensive show was put on by the Zimbarettes in their fray with N. Y. U. It was a hard-hitting game from start to finish . . . the teamwork displayed aided the forward line to move down the field fast and overtake the N. Y. U. team by a score of 4-1.

For the second consecutive year the East Burg team participated in the Intercollegiate Hockey Tournament at Swarthmore College. E.S.S.T.C. held Immaculata 0-0; was defeated by Rosemont 3-0 and by Chestnut Hill 1-0.

HOCKEY

Soccer was the first men's sport to return on an intercollegiate basis since 1942. Almost every boy in the school turned out for the squad. Coach Howard DeNike's booters played six games without a victory. They tied Kutztown S. T. C. in two games 2-2 and 0-0 and lost two to Panzer 3-1 and 1-0. A powerful Muhlenberg team defeated them 2-0 and they lost to Cortland S. T. C., New York, 4-1.

Untiring Tony Romano captained the squad, leading attacks and coming back fast on defense. Les Himmelrich in the goal held up beautifully under consistent pounding. Bob Tucker filled that position also. Key men on the defense were Lendacki and Bob Stevens. "Red" Salling could also be counted on to help turn back the opponents' offense. Art Meryweather and Ted Martz, returning veterans who played under Mr. DeNike back in '42, helped carry the greener members of the team. Little Eddie Codd and Herbie Kelshaw showed plenty of fight despite their small stature. Tom Carr, whose speciality is corner kicks, Paul Kuklentz, Shollenberger, and Mittan pounded the opponent's goal consistently. Injuries took their toll and a number of good soccer players decided to play football instead. When the season closed only a dozen battered warrior booters remained.

SOCCER

No sooner had Thanksgiving vacation ended, when Coach Genevieve Zimbar sent out a special news flash—"Wanted—Candidates for the 1945-46 Basketball Team." This communique brought results—seventy-five strong.

With more than ten veterans of last year's team as a nucleus, Coach Zimbar had high hopes and new ideas for the '45-'46 squad. This year, Miss Zimbar picked a squad of forty instead of a team, the object being to pick a team from the squad for every game.

The basketeers started out with a bang when they gained a decided victory over the Moravian College lassies 36-21.

In the games following, the girls handed out defeats to Elizabethtown, 17-12, and Rider, 19-6. After three straight wins, they lost to Elizabethtown on the latter's court, 35-26. A return game with Rider brought forth another victory for the Zimbarettes, 44-9. The forwards displayed speed and accuracy in passing and shooting, while the guards bottled up their opponents continuously.

Our coach, Miss Zimbar, is to be highly complimented for her patience, her endurance, her encouragement, and her excellent training. We're with you, girls, from the beginning whistle to the final blast. May we cheer you on to more victories throughout the season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Scrimmages without two full teams, running through plays with only one tackle, or one end, injury after injury, four games without a victory, that's the way E.S.S.T.C. began its gallant comeback in intercollegiate football.

The opening of the season found a strong squad coached by Mr. Martin and Mr. Grimm. Though losing to Bloomsburg S. T. C. 13-0 the team showed they had plenty of punch picking up 12 first downs to the Bloom 5 downs. This was that critical week when the Warrior squad played three games in seven days. Four days later the same Bloomsburg team rolled up a 19-7 score besides administering a physical drubbing to the fast depleting Warrior eleven. Then with three days' rest they lost to Lockhaven S. T. C. 19-6. In this game Bob McCullough romped 95 yards to score.

Tom Matalavage, brawny tackle, was captain. Mat Lynaugh and Danny Riechert filled in these "slots" also. Pat Murphy, Musto, Callahan and Masonheimer, 1st guards, blocked up the center of the Warrior line.

Tom Davis and Emil Carazo hauled in passes thrown by triple-threat Ed Mink. Al Lapchak and Ray Smith were over the ball. Frank, Stitzer, Virgilio, Jones, Davies and Jackabella all "toted" the pigskin.

FOOTBALL

A very large group of members reported for practice . . . a workout was received the first night. It consisted of fundamentals in marching, club swinging, wands, springboard with apparatus, tumbling on the mats, and dancing. The team was chosen consisting of eight girls who showed some very promising talent . . . and so . . . with emphasis on these eight, the team practiced endlessly preparing for a complete program for the season. About ten exhibitions were presented . . . Bethlehem . . . Emmaus . . . Fountain Hill . . . Coopersburg . . . and others. All the girls did a fine job . . . a great deal of ability could be seen in each faithful individual.

Girls . . . you have done a grand job with the patient help of the coach. Your ability has been greatly appreciated . . .

S-T-R-O-U-D-S-B-U-R-G — TEAM — TEAM —TEAM! These cheers were still ringing on campus from the football and soccer season, when Coach Frank Grimm rounded together his first E.S.S.T.C. basketball team.

Strong opposition such as Lafayette, Scranton U., Panzer, Cortland S. T. C., Bloomsburg S. T. C., Kutztown S. T. C. and Wilmington Army Air Base lay ahead of the squad. The 1945 team left us six veterans: Schmidt, Carazo, Romano, Carr, Matalavage and Mink to form a nucleus of the year's basketeers.

New berths on the team were claimed by "Big Red" Lynaugh, the main strength on the back board, and John Etcho, the fellow with the magic touch on the ball. Bob McCullough and Howard Stitzer, scrappy and dependable players, completed the line-up.

The first semester saw the Warriors without a victory but still a hopeful team with plenty of Stroudsburg spirit. The team was toppled by Kutztown 48-36, Lafayette 65-43, Wilmington 55-43 and Panzer 59-42.

The 2nd semester brought new strength and height to the warrior five and they prepared to face the remaining games of the season with new hopes.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

SWIMMING TEAM

With a dive and a splash the new swimming recruits maintained the first E.S.S.T.C. swimming team in the history of the college. Though it was not a varsity sport, Mr. DeNike coached the team in two intercollegiate meets. The team consisting of 9 good swimmers, started its current season challenging the strong N.Y.U. team. At a later date . . . a returned match was featured between E.S.S.T.C. and N.Y.U. Both were dropped to N.Y.U. by very close margins. The N.Y.U. team a few days previous defeated a good Temple team by a decisive score. We are proud to state that the Warriorettes took two firsts: Helen May in the 40-yard free-style and in the relay. The E.S.S.T.C. team showed exceptional speed in the relay.

In addition to this intercollegiate competition, an inter-class swimming meet was held. The Freshmen took an easy victory . . . congratulations!

We are pleased with the showing of Coach Howard R. DeNike's swimming team despite the two defeats. They showed their competitive ability and did their best throughout the season. This activity has become a definite part of the college athletic program and will undoubtedly continue in future years. Successful returns are seen for the swimming team's future.

BASEBALL

In the spring of 1945 E.S.S.T.C. played its first varsity baseball since the early months of 1942. In was the first time the class of "'46" had seen a Warrior nine take the diamond. The squad of ten, coached by Mr. Martin, played a six-game schedule. They dropped two to Bucknell University 4-1 and 8-4. Incidentally the Warriors out-hit Bucknell on that 4-1 contest 4-3. They split with West Chester, losing a tough 6-5 game and then beating them 8-4. They also split with Bloomsburg S.T.C., losing a thrilling ten-inning game 6-5 and then beating them on Alumni day.

Ed Mink, the pitching ace, averaged better then ten strikeouts a game. Ed also captained the squad and was one of the leading hitters.

Tom Matalavage held down the right-field post and hit over .300. Bob Mendsen and Lloyd "Red" Salling chased them out in the garden with Matalavage. "Red" showed lots of power at the stick. Tom Carr was plenty flashy at third and Sy Bernosky and Emil Carazo at short and 2nd respectively came up with plenty twin killings. Tony Romano at first pulled them in from all over. Lanky Dick Linn did the catching.

In the Spring of 1944, the first intercollegiate tennis team for women was established at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. "Varsity" emblems and certificates were awarded this year for the first time, and from all indications will continue as long as the sport survives.

The tennis team of the 1944-1945 season, captained by Ruth Reinheimer, had only two veterans of the previous year. Despite this fact, the Zimbarettes came through with a bang, and won two of the three games on their schedule.

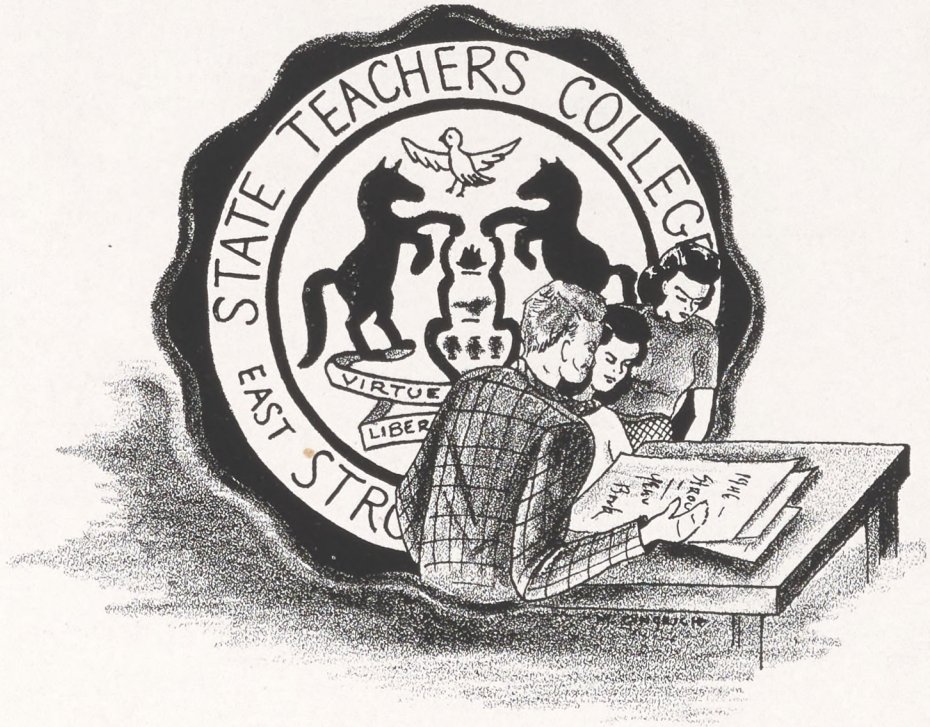

Against the Temple team from Philadelphia, the "East Burg Lassies" played great defensive tennis, but Temple proved too strong for them and they lost 4-1. This game, however, gave the girls the push they needed and against Brooklyn College, regardless of a strong wind, the representatives of E.S.S.T.C. came through in a tough spot by defeating Brooklyn 3-2. When pitted against their teammates of last year, they showed up beautifully and won by a 4-0 score.

Due to the patient training of Coach Zimbar, the participants of the various matches displayed excellent fighting spirit and superior sportsmanship.

We're proud of you, girls, keep slamming and pile up more victories for E.S.S.T.C.

TENNIS

Ruth B. Kistler
ADVISER

At last we present to you the 1946 Stroud. We, the staff, have tried to give a true picture of life here at E.S.S.T.C.

No one but those who have actually worked on a staff can fully appreciate the tremendous task of putting out a Stroud. Starting from scratch—no money, no ideas, no materials—we found the Stroud a constant challenge to our creative, executive, and financial abilities. Planning of the dummy, scheduling and taking pictures, writing and editing copy and adjusting the budget have taken much time and energy, but we think it was worthwhile. The entire class, headed by the business staff, was busy even during the summer soliciting ads and patrons, and selling yearbooks.

Miss Ruth Kistler, our capable adviser, made our work easier and more enjoyable through her patience and encouragement.

The 1946 Stroud, despite all our efforts, is not a utopian yearbook, nor is it the same book we originally planned, but we hope that you will cherish it, and that in future years it will recall fond memories of the E.S.S.T.C. we know and love.

The Stroud Courier, official college newspaper, ranks high in the field of journalism. This publication holds the distinction of having received many notable awards in national collegiate competition. This past year it again took first place in the rating made by the Columbia Scholastic Press. The Stroud Courier, a member of this association, appears bi-monthly. The co-editors-in-chief of the Courier are Mary Ann Major and Bessie Daubert. Mr. Paul Crawn is adviser.

The purpose of this publication is to present a cross section of student activities and opinion. One of the foremost features of the newspaper, is undoubtedly, the fine photography and art work so interestingly employed.

Membership is determined by try-out. An attractive key and pin is awarded for a year or more service on the paper. Work on the newspaper provides an opportunity for practical training in original composition and also affords excellent preparation for the advisership of a school newspaper.

At the annual Fall Outing the new members are initiated and at the annual Spring Banquet they are installed. Speakers from the field of professional journalism highlight both affairs.

We'll sacrifice self to thy aim.

STUDENT SENATE

The executive body in charge of student government in this college is called the Student Senate. It is part of a larger organization called the Congress, which includes the whole student body and faculty. The president of the Congress, chosen by Congress members is also president of the Senate. The president of the Congress, sixteen senators, (two men and two women from each class), and three faculty advisers appointed by the president of the college make up the Senate.

In administering the budget of the College Activity Association, in supervising and conducting elections, in reviewing the minutes and auditing the books of student organizations, in making expenditures for capital purposes, and in formulating policies, the Senate attempts to make all student activities the kind which can do the most toward the betterment of the student body. That our student organizations may be improved from year to year, the Senate arranges to have representatives from them attend conferences. This fall it authorized a delegation of students and one faculty member to attend the annual conference of the Student Governments of the State Teachers Colleges at Cheyney State Teachers College. A delegation will also be sent to the Spring Conference of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers.

One of the first matters that the Senate is concerned with when it organizes in the spring is that of allocating the money from the Student Activity Fund for the Senate and activity council programs. The actual reviewing of tentative budgets and the making of recommendations for allocations is done by the Budget Committee. Much of the work of the Senate is done through committees. The petitioning, voting and posting of returns in all campus elections are under the supervision of the Elections Committee. Regulation of extra-curricular activities is in charge of another committee. Special committees may be appointed to perform particular tasks. Such a committee succeeded in equipping each student organization with a uniform record and cash book this year.

Not all of the activities of the Senate are of such business-like character. Social activities which lead to a better understanding of the purposes and principles under which student government operates are in order. The outstanding social event sponsored by the Senate is the mid-winter banquet served in the college dining room for all students.

One assembly each month is devoted to a meeting of the Congress, over which the president presides and reports the activities of the Senate.

AMELIA MORGAN

President

At this meeting all students and faculty members have an opportunity to participate in the government of campus life.

Amelia Morgan, better known as "Minter," is the second woman student to be elected to the office of President of the Congress. She is a member of the Junior Class. Her experiences as president of her Sophomore Class and as chairman of a special committee in Senate last year have prepared her well for the highest office that a student can hold in this college. She is friendly, enthusiastic, conscientious, and believes in "getting things done." In the words of one of the senators, "Minter is a natural-born executive." Much preparation is necessary for each successful meeting of the Senate and Congress. Her work in this respect and others has made this a year of real achievement in student government.

"Where's my Big Sister?" was the clamor of the "frosh" girls last fall. The "Big-Little Sister" program is just one of the many ways in which this council helps each woman student make a happy adjustment to campus life.

At the annual fall affair for women the cry becomes "Where's my Little Sister?" as the Big Sisters try to identify their masqueraded Little Sisters. In more dignity the women students attend the four class teas sponsored by the council. A bright spot in the gloom of examination week is the Chocolate Fest. The final social event for all women is the gay Spring Frolic.

To make dormitory life more pleasant and homelike the council provides the Kitchenette, the Smoker, and the Quiet Lounge. Each spring the most attractive dormitory rooms are selected and prizes awarded. An outstanding achievement of the council for this year is the redecoration of the Quiet Lounge.

This council is made up of three girls from each hall acting as counsellors and carrying out their dormitory cooperative plan. During the first semester, women students occupied both Shawnee and Stroud. However, with such a rapid increase in men students, the girls found it necessary to move suddenly into Stroud. This process was nicely handled by the council, with a minimum of confusion.

The council, with its dormitory cooperative plan, has met and passed a real test of efficiency.

WOMEN'S EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

For the past few years the men of the college have had to take a back seat. However, now as the enrollment increases the men will once again dominate. With this change we will see the growing importance of the Men's Student Governing Association. This association is composed of all the male students of the college. From this group, men are elected as representatives to the Men's Executive Council. It is this body, with Dean Eugene Martin as the adviser, which has the responsibility of regulating the campus and dormitory life of the men students.

The foremost of the council's duties is that of making the life of the men students as comfortable as possible. Under this duty comes the social life of the men. The council also has well provided for this. Two of the annual social events are the "Fall Smoker" and the "Hobo Party."

Another of the responsibilities is that of initiating incoming men. It was the custom at one time to have every new male student wear a green hat, tie, and black socks. Lately these "regs" have not been enforced because of the shortage of men. With the increased enrollment of male students a renewal of these amusing "regs" will probably be made.

During the year the Men's Executive Council provides frequent opportunity for the men and women students to get together to play cards, to play ping pong, or to dance. Also in the future more of these social get-togethers will probably be held.

The council has many hopes for the fulfillment of all their duties and until a full program is set up they will work diligently.

MEN'S EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The prosaic name of this council gives but a hint of the great amount of activity and interest added to life on our campus by student publications. We like having easy access to information about our college; we like to read about ourselves and our friends; and we like to save publications as memoirs of our college days.

The Publications Council is directly or indirectly responsible for The Stroud Courier, the college newspaper; The Stroud, the senior yearbook; and the Stroud-Way, the student handbook. Although The Stroud is published independently the editor, business manager, and other staff members must be approved by the council. The Stroud Courier is more directly under the council supervision. The council studies the comparative costs of various types of student newspapers, obtains bids, approves all contracts, and pays the bills incurred by publication. Not only does this group attend to such matters of business, but it also determines the general policies of the paper.

The student handbook, this year called the Stroud-Way, is both edited and published by the council. An outstanding improvement in this book is the inclusion of actual photos to supplement the usual information.

The council strives to maintain a very high standard of quality for its publications. That it is attaining its goal is shown by the fact that two of last year's publications received national honors. That they may be even more successful in the future, a set of qualifications has been set up which must be met by editors and other high officers in the publications field.

PUBLICATIONS COUNCIL

Without the Athletic Council our college would have no intercollegiate sports program. It is this council which plans the schedules, engages the officials and provides the transportation necessary for scheduled games.

These duties are maintained by a budget which is the result of an allocation from the Student Senate. The budget is very closely followed, for the council also purchases and reconditions the equipment and uniforms.

This year once more the varsity sports of the men are taking their place in the college plan. For the first time in three years it was possible to have a varsity football team. This team was equipped and supported by the Athletic Council. Also this year a boys' varsity basketball team was provided for.

Just because the men have returned the girls' sports have not been cut. As last year, the girls have both a varsity and junior varsity team in basketball. Also in the fall there was a varsity hockey team which maintained a full schedule.

Besides the varsity teams the council sponsors an extensive intramural program for those with lesser abilities. This program provides both recreation and exercise for many students. In this program anyone who is not on a varsity team may participate.

Toward the end of the year the council holds a banquet at which the letters and awards are presented to the deserving athletes. For the past few years the council has invited the students and faculty to this banquet.

As the enrollment once again reaches a normal size, the Athletic Council will guide us toward a well-rounded sports program.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

One of the highlights of college is the social program presented for the students. E.S.S.T.C.'s answer to this need is made through the Social Council, which is composed of five students and two faculty advisers, Miss Ruth L. Jones and Mr. Eugene H. Martin.

From the very beginning of the school year the social program begins to function. First is the Fall Reception at which time the freshmen have an opportunity to become acquainted with their faculty and with each other. This reception is usually in the form of a semi-formal dance.

During the second month the big day is Homecoming. This is the time when the alumni come back and with great whoops of joy greet their old friends. Also they have this chance to observe the new "frosh" and to learn to know some of them. Athletic contests are planned for this day and a big dinner and dance are the climax.

In December when everyone is looking forward to the Christmas season the council once again comes out with the proper entertainment. First there is the tree lighting ceremony on front campus. Then to top everything there is the Christmas dinner and dance. Everyone leaves for vacation with a hearty Christmas spirit.

Two of the most important days of the year are in the spring—Parents' Day and Alumni Day. On Parents' Day there is a chance for the parents of the students to see the college, meet the faculty, and see the special program provided for them. On Alumni day, the college is given over to former graduates, the main event being the Alumni Dinner.

SOCIAL COUNCIL

When a week of hard work has passed, all of us are ready to relax and enjoy the Friday night movie, which may be anything from light comedy to thrilling mystery to serious and thought-provoking drama. The Friday night movies, along with occasional dramatic and musical programs, are provided for us by the Entertainment Council.

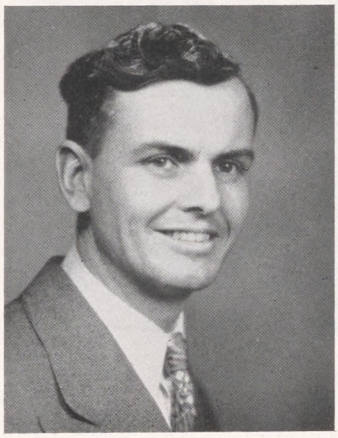

The council is made up of two seniors, one member from each of the other three classes, and two faculty advisers. This group meets once a month in the usual parliamentary manner. The council rents the movies and hires the performers. Sub-committees are appointed to receive performers, supply ushers and programs, and anything that is necessary for successful programs of entertainment.

Three assembly programs a year are put on by this council. In recent programs a local soprano soloist, a well-known pianist, and a dancing team were featured. Not only have the performers been excellent, but such details as the stage setting and the making and distributing of programs have been well-managed.

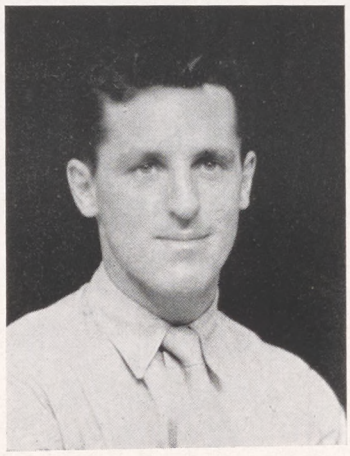

In selecting movies and in making up programs the council considers the likes and dislikes of all groups of students and at the same time keeps before it the ideal of fine quality entertainment. We may help the council make up an all-around program by relaying our preferences through class representatives. Now that war conditions are being replaced by peacetime full enrollment conditions, we can look for even more of the superior kind of entertainment that the council has been providing for us all through the war years.

is the product of the efforts of a capable editor plus the interested cooperation of a seasoned specialist. To an editor, who wishes to make a success of his first publishing venture, specialization offers innumerable advantages that are most helpful—in fact—indispensable.

It is advisable to have a specialist handle your yearbook. Investigate the services of "Campus," an organization whose entire business is college and school publications.
