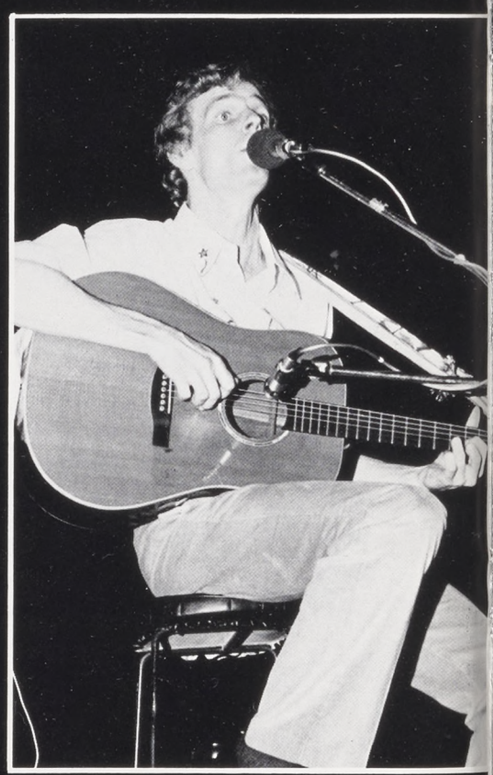
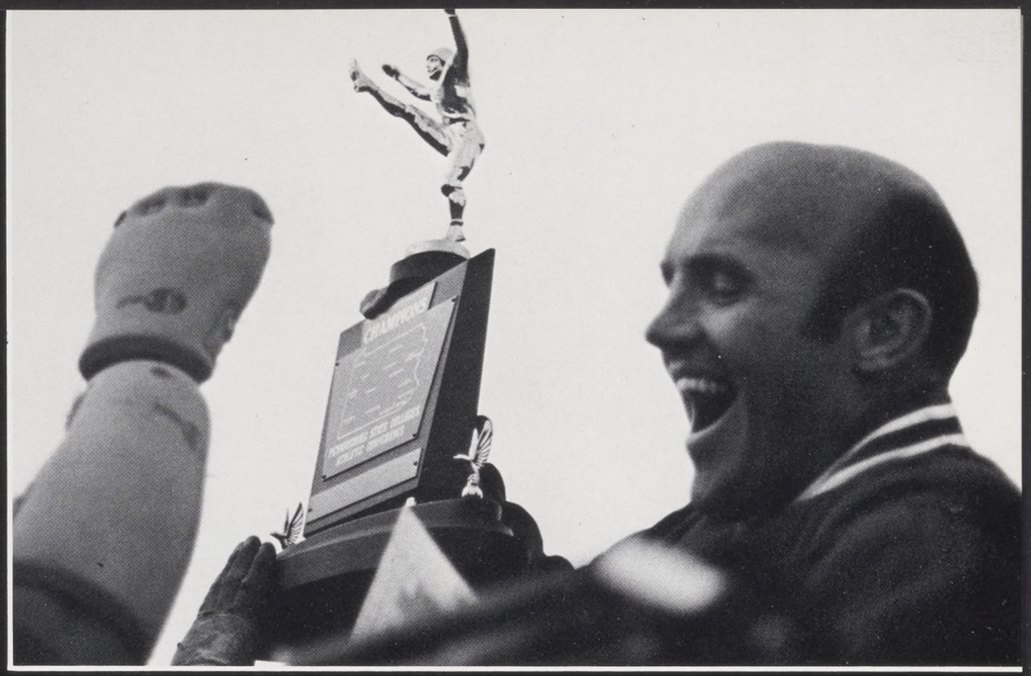
Celebration . . . A time to be happy!

There were many reasons to celebrate at ESSC during 1976. The Bicentennial intensified feelings of pride in America's heritage and this spirit was reflected throughout the year in a variety of campus activities, the Warriors capped an undefeated season by winning the State Game against Edinboro, and the administration finally capitulated on the question of co-ed dorms.

These were a few of the major events which distinguished this year from other years, that made 1976 special. But there were also many "ordinary" occasions for celebration, like turning 21, or a weekend 50's party, or an especially good concert, or (heaven be praised) an A in BSR. These are the so called little things which differentiate living from existing, that add up to happiness and that make one's college years memorable.





Certificate of Cultural Recog

May, 1976

Dear Students:

This outstanding Yearbook commemorates many special programs, activities and events conducted on campus during 1975-76. Our Bicentennial Programs attracted much attention nationally, and the college was officially designated as a Bicentennial College. Programs were conducted throughout the year to draw greater focus on this nation's past and present; and during the coming academic year, the college's programs will look to the future.

As the college looks ahead, it reflects upon the ways in which traditional services can be enhanced and new directions established. Faculty, administration, and students, are planning new academic programs, working out new student life standards and concentrating on building a quality institution.

All of us join in congratulating each individual student and every student group and athletic team whose accomplishments and deeds are reflected in this book. Students, through their efforts and dedication do in fact make this a great college. As a consequence of our emerging traditions, each successive generation of students profits a little more than the previous one. As the years unfold, your college will continue to need your understanding and support and we know you will measure up to the challenge.

May the years ahead bring you increasingly fond memories of your college, including the many ways in which you have both enjoyed and profited from your experiences while a student here.

Sincerely,

Darrell Holmes

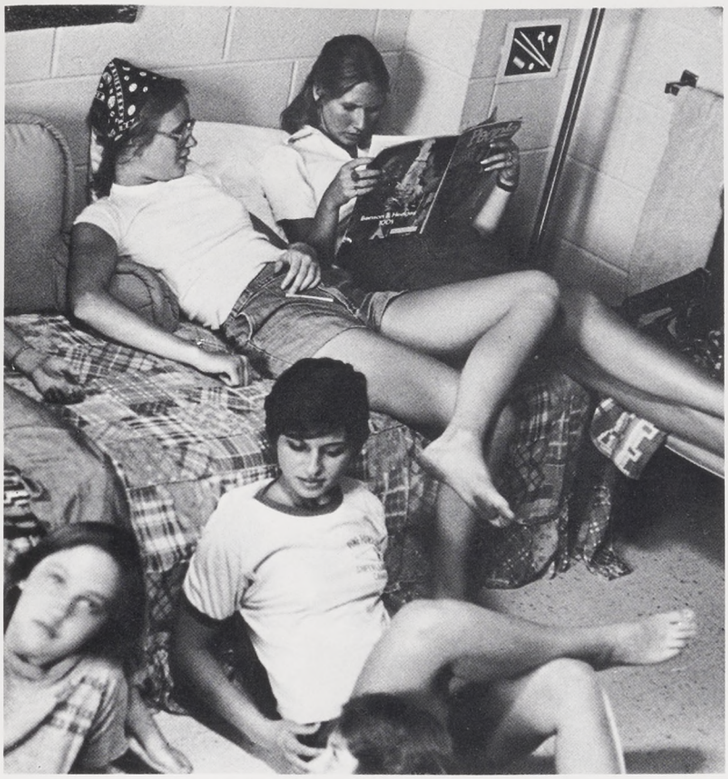
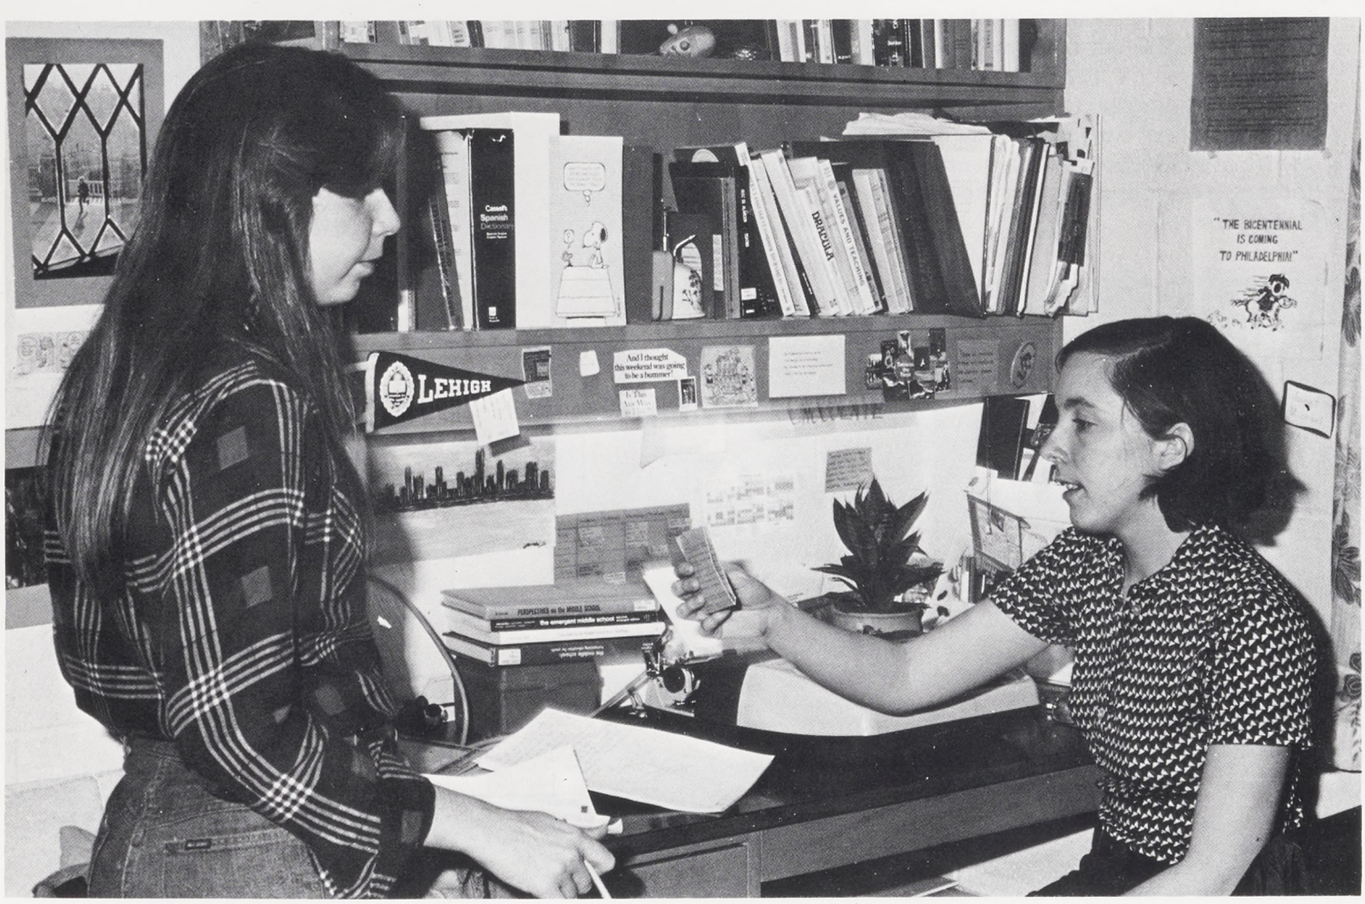
You've come a long way, baby.
The trouble with being a GOOD SPORT is that you have to
A NIGHT OUT WITH THE GIRLS
LASSIE LEAGUERS



DORM LIFE

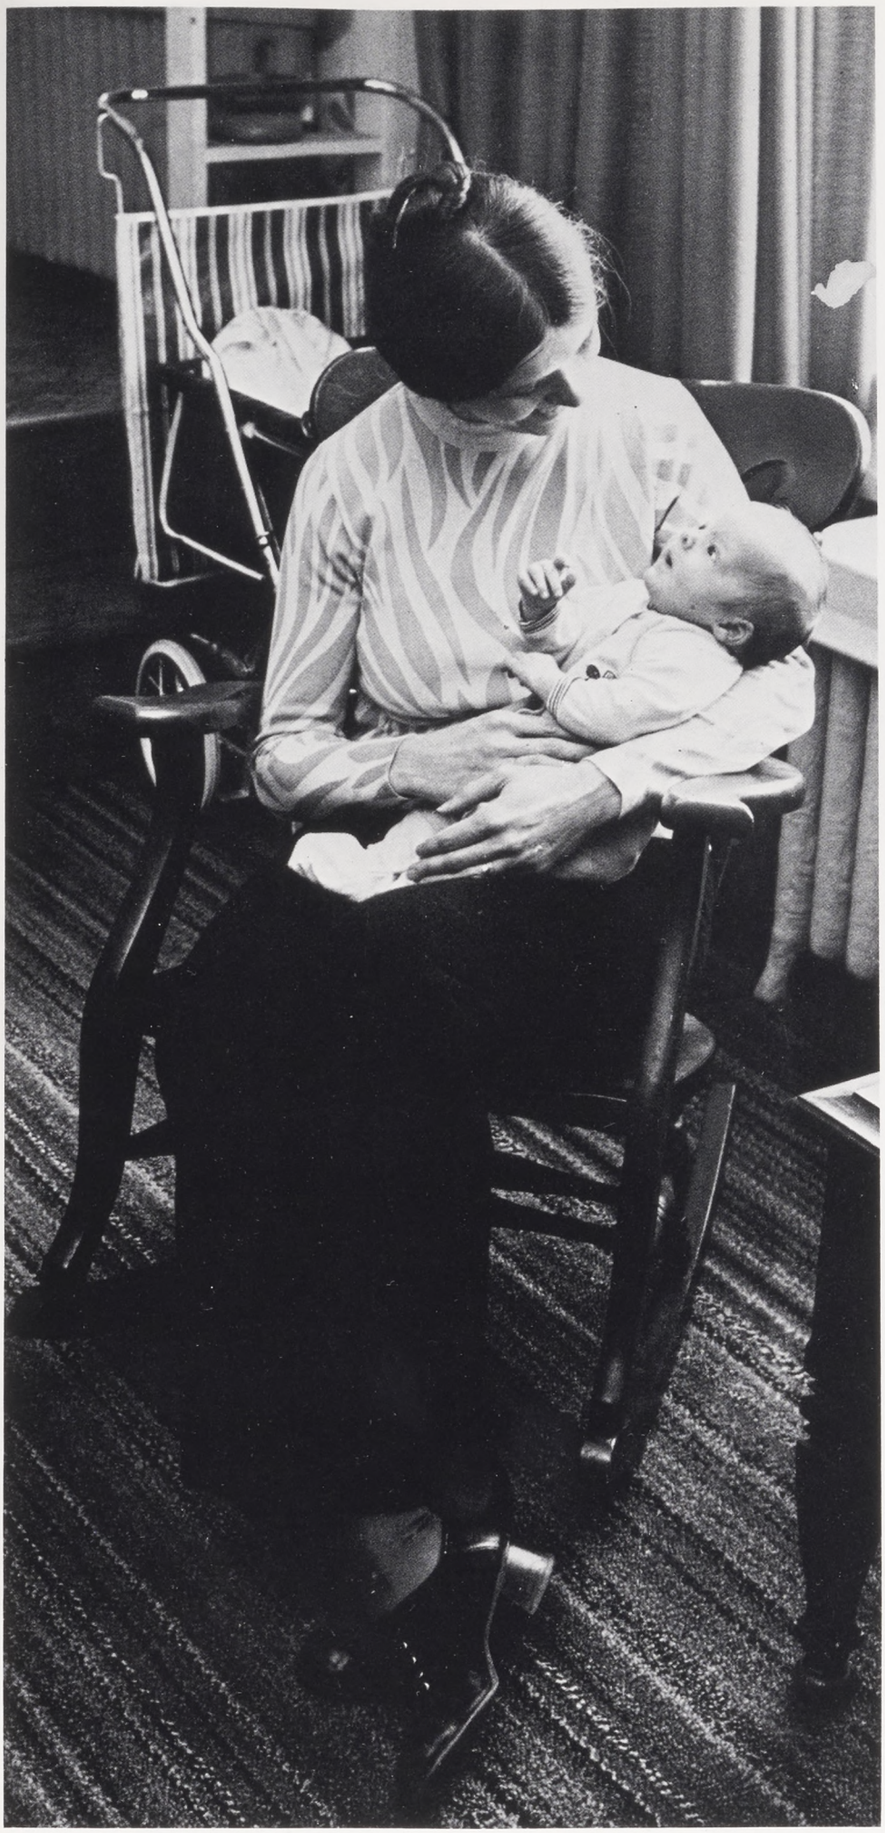
As your parents drive away after depositing you and a years worth of your belongings in one of ESSC's double-occupancy cubicles, they are plagued by the usual anxieties: Will she be able to get along with her roommate? Will she be able to handle college coursework? Will she be able to deal with home-sickness?

Meanwhile, you're facing the real problems involved in successful adaptation to dorm life — like trying to convert the American Institutional decor into something a little more personal with posters and homemade curtains, or trying to squeeze two bicycles, a TV, a stereo, a refrigerator, and a pair of skiis into one room, or trying to do your laundry when 600 girls have to share six washers, four of which are always broken. What fun!



OFF-CAMPUS LIVING

So you've had enough of the artificial atmosphere of dormitory living and you're going to get back into the "real" world by moving off campus. First you've got to find an apartment, which isn't as easy as it sounds due to the local zoning laws. Then there's the question of transportation, which may seem to be a minor point on the cool autumn mornings when you can bike to campus, but isn't so minor anymore when December rolls around with its freezing rains. And finally there are the day to day hassles of who's cooking dinner tonight, and who's cleaning up afterwards and who forgot to pay the electric bill because they threatened to shut off the lights, and who's going to apologize to the people downstairs because the noise from the party on the weekend woke them up? Sometimes you wonder if you left the frying pan for the fire . . .



Life can be twice as hectic for married students. There are two people to get up and out of the house for an 8:00 on Monday mornings, two people who are writing papers and cramming for finals, and if you happen to have children, it's twice as hard to arrange schedules so one of you can be with the baby while the other is at class.

But there are compensations. You have someone to share with, someone who'll rub your neck and make you a cup of tea at the end of a hard day, and someone who'll help celebrate the good times with a glass of wine or dinner at Albino's.

And besides, if you have the same major, it will only cost half as much to buy books!

MID-CAREER STUDENTS

The mid-career students at ESSC are here to complete their education after being away from school for an extended period. Some of them are teachers keeping up with recent innovations in the educational field while others are nurses pursuing their bachelor of science degree. Still others are parents who are resuming studies that were interrupted by the necessity of caring and providing for their children. Whatever their reasons for returning, their presence is a contribution to the college community.

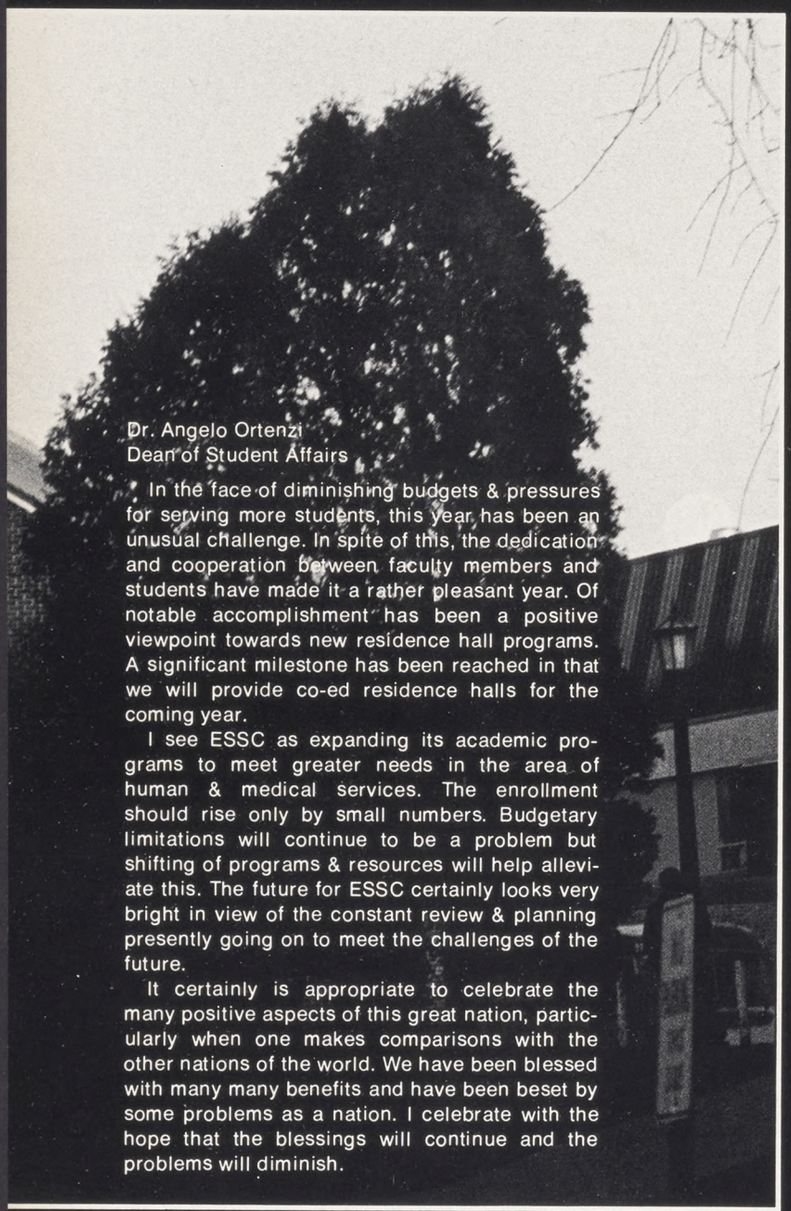
OPINIONS

Various people at ESSC were asked to respond to the following questions:

1. What has this year at ESSC meant to you?
2. What do you foresee in the future at ESSC?
3. (optional) Since the theme of this year's book is "celebrate" what cause have you had to celebrate this past year?

Several of the replies appear below.

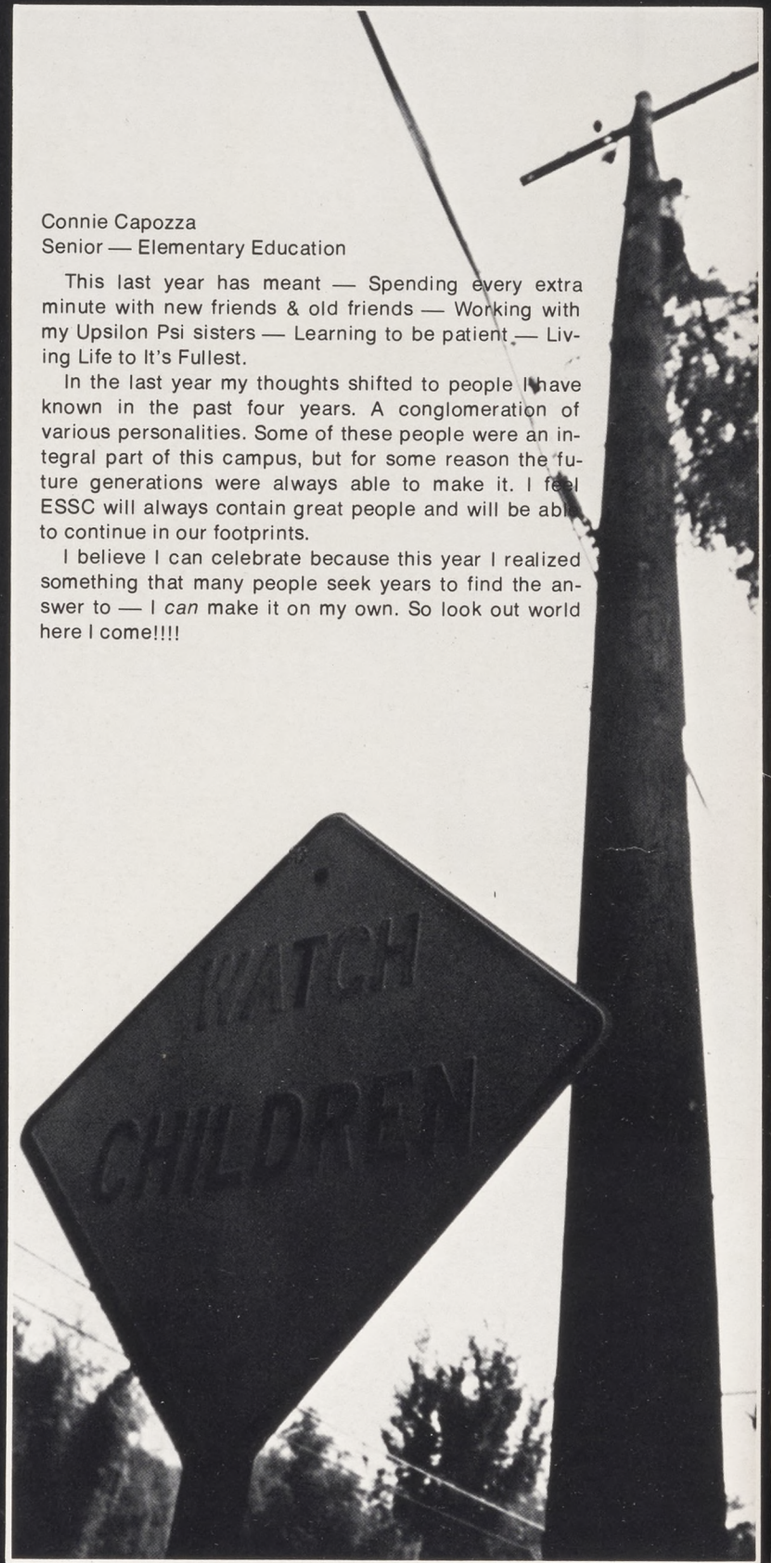


Dr. Angelo Ortenzi
Dean of Student Affairs

In the face of diminishing budgets & pressures for serving more students, this year has been an unusual challenge. In spite of this, the dedication and cooperation between faculty members and students have made it a rather pleasant year. Of notable accomplishment has been a positive viewpoint towards new residence hall programs. A significant milestone has been reached in that we will provide co-ed residence halls for the coming year.

I see ESSC as expanding its academic programs to meet greater needs in the area of human & medical services. The enrollment should rise only by small numbers. Budgetary limitations will continue to be a problem but shifting of programs & resources will help alleviate this. The future for ESSC certainly looks very bright in view of the constant review & planning presently going on to meet the challenges of the future.

It certainly is appropriate to celebrate the many positive aspects of this great nation, particularly when one makes comparisons with the other nations of the world. We have been blessed with many many benefits and have been beset by some problems as a nation. I celebrate with the hope that the blessings will continue and the problems will diminish.

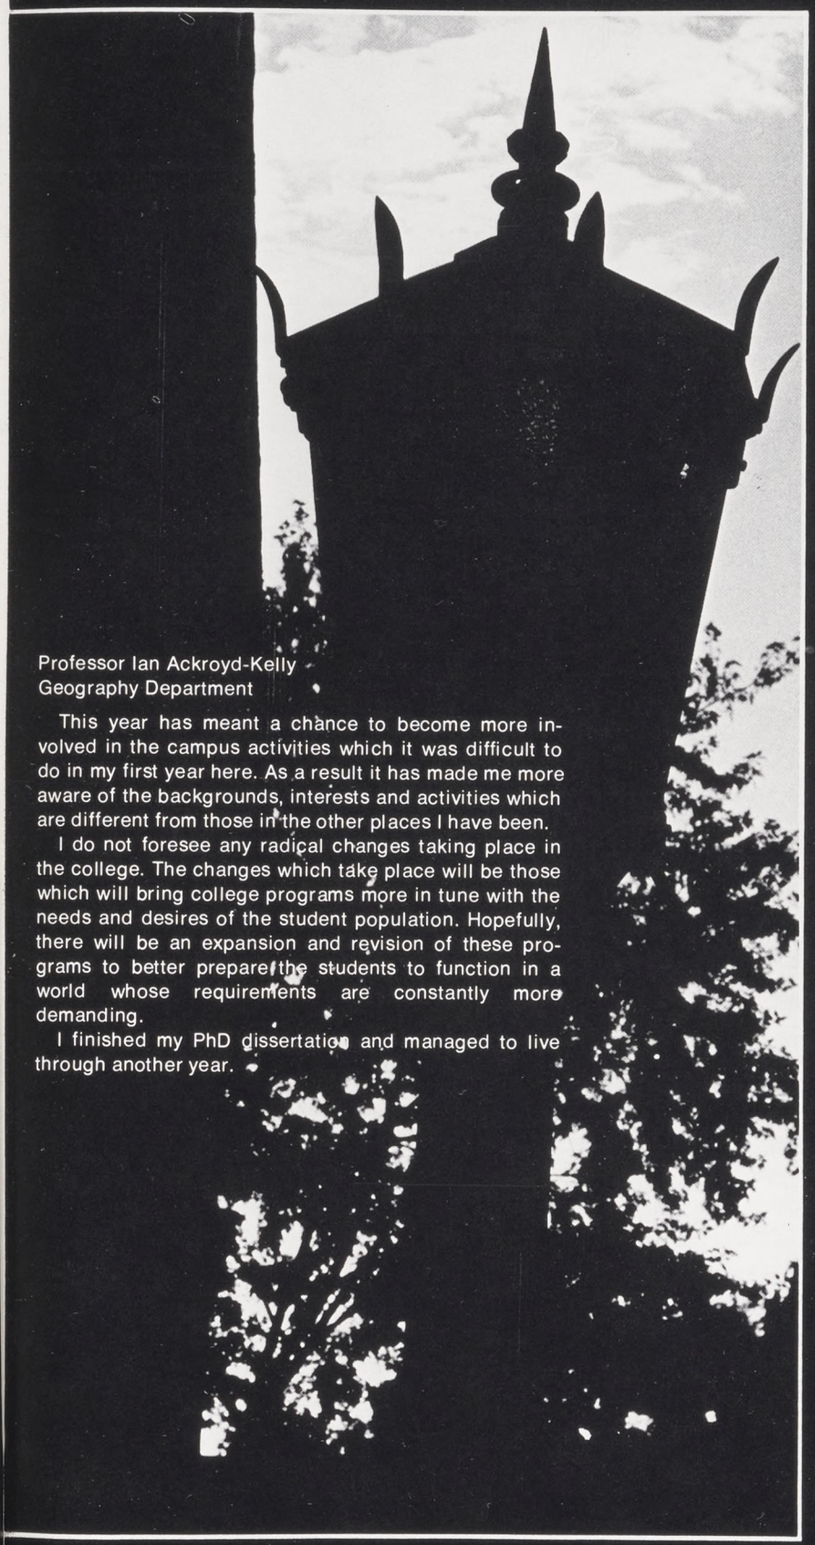


Connie Capozza
Senior — Elementary Education

This last year has meant — Spending every extra minute with new friends & old friends — Working with my Upsilon Psi sisters — Learning to be patient — Living Life to It's Fullest.

In the last year my thoughts shifted to people I have known in the past four years. A conglomeration of various personalities. Some of these people were an integral part of this campus, but for some reason the future generations were always able to make it. I feel ESSC will always contain great people and will be able to continue in our footprints.

I believe I can celebrate because this year I realized something that many people seek years to find the answer to — I can make it on my own. So look out world here I come!!!!

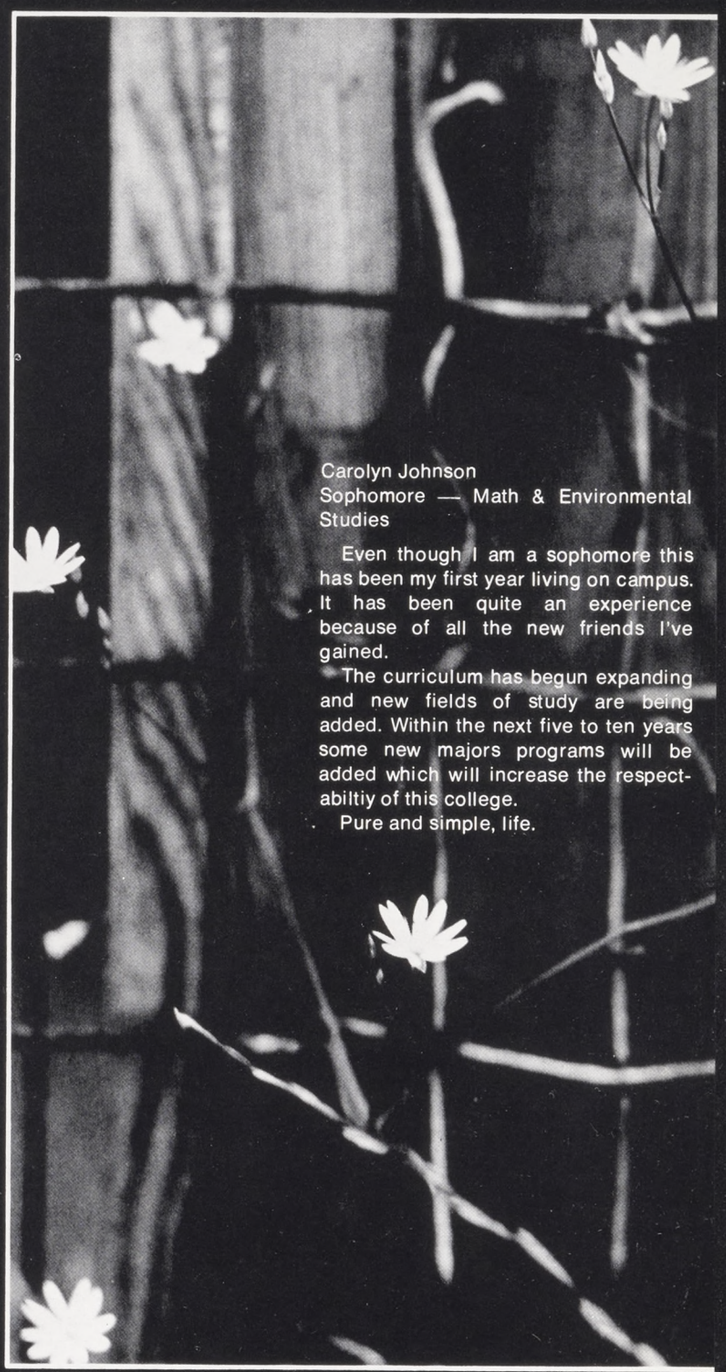


Professor Ian Ackroyd-Kelly
Geography Department

This year has meant a chance to become more involved in the campus activities which it was difficult to do in my first year here. As a result it has made me more aware of the backgrounds, interests and activities which are different from those in the other places I have been.

I do not foresee any radical changes taking place in the college. The changes which take place will be those which will bring college programs more in tune with the needs and desires of the student population. Hopefully, there will be an expansion and revision of these programs to better prepare the students to function in a world whose requirements are constantly more demanding.

I finished my PhD dissertation and managed to live through another year.



Carolyn Johnson
Sophomore — Math & Environmental Studies

Even though I am a sophomore this has been my first year living on campus. It has been quite an experience because of all the new friends I've gained.

The curriculum has begun expanding and new fields of study are being added. Within the next five to ten years some new majors programs will be added which will increase the respectabiltiy of this college.

Pure and simple, life.

Dean David C. Johnson
Arts and Letters

The heightened sensations and perceptions which come with the realization that I will be leaving this college and so many people, students and colleagues, whom I value for all the complexity of our association.

Fewer students who will become teachers. Correspondingly more who will select East Stroudsburg because they want a liberal arts education which still gives them an introduction to a career.

The cause of freedom to emigrate and immigrate. Everywhere in the world are streams of people seeking a new life in a new nation. The process once symbolized by Ellis Island continues.

Mr. Pete Nevins
Sports Information Director

As every year the joys and rewards of meeting, working with and hopefully offering help and advice to students, both athletes and non-athletes.

With the dedication and hard work of the student body and faculty, ESSC can only prosper. I fear, however, budgetary limitations may restrict our ability to deliver the best possible educational experiences for our students.

In athletics we "celebrate" the achievements and accomplishments of the young people in the program. Obviously, 1975-76 meant an undefeated football team, outstanding performances by numerous other teams and individuals and as always, many reasons to be proud of the athletes wearing East Stroudsburg State College uniforms.

Dave Pieplow
Stroud Courier Co-editor

I have had the pleasant opportunity to grow both mentally and spiritually this past year at ESSC. Through the leadership responsibilities of becoming editor of the Stroud Courier and my extra-curricular religious activities I have learned a great deal in a mere nine months.

I don't know what will happen in the future here at ESSC but I know what I'd like to see. I would hope that the administration, faculty and students would work together as a unified body instead of three separate groups of people working against each other.

In December, I was notified that I was to become editor of the Stroud Courier and I was thrilled.

In March, after waiting two months, I was finally told that I was accepted at the University of Endinburgh in Scotland for the fall, 1976. Boy was I happy!

Kate Kellner
Graduate Student — History

1. intellectual challenges because graduate work is more concise and developed not like the watered-down versions in under-grad.
2. personal growth through expanding friendships and not worrying about "playing the game" for grades and influence.
3. a chance to celebrate life, without fear and pain of real world.

1. hopefully better and stronger programs particularly in the area of the arts.
2. more centralization in studies and a movement back to required courses and specified course work.
3. unfortunately, a breakdown in communication between students, staff and faculty as each group moves into their own power sphere.

1. passing my masters courses!!
2. being in 1776 even though the Bicentennial is commercial.
3. simply meeting many new and varied people who have contributed to my growth as a human being.

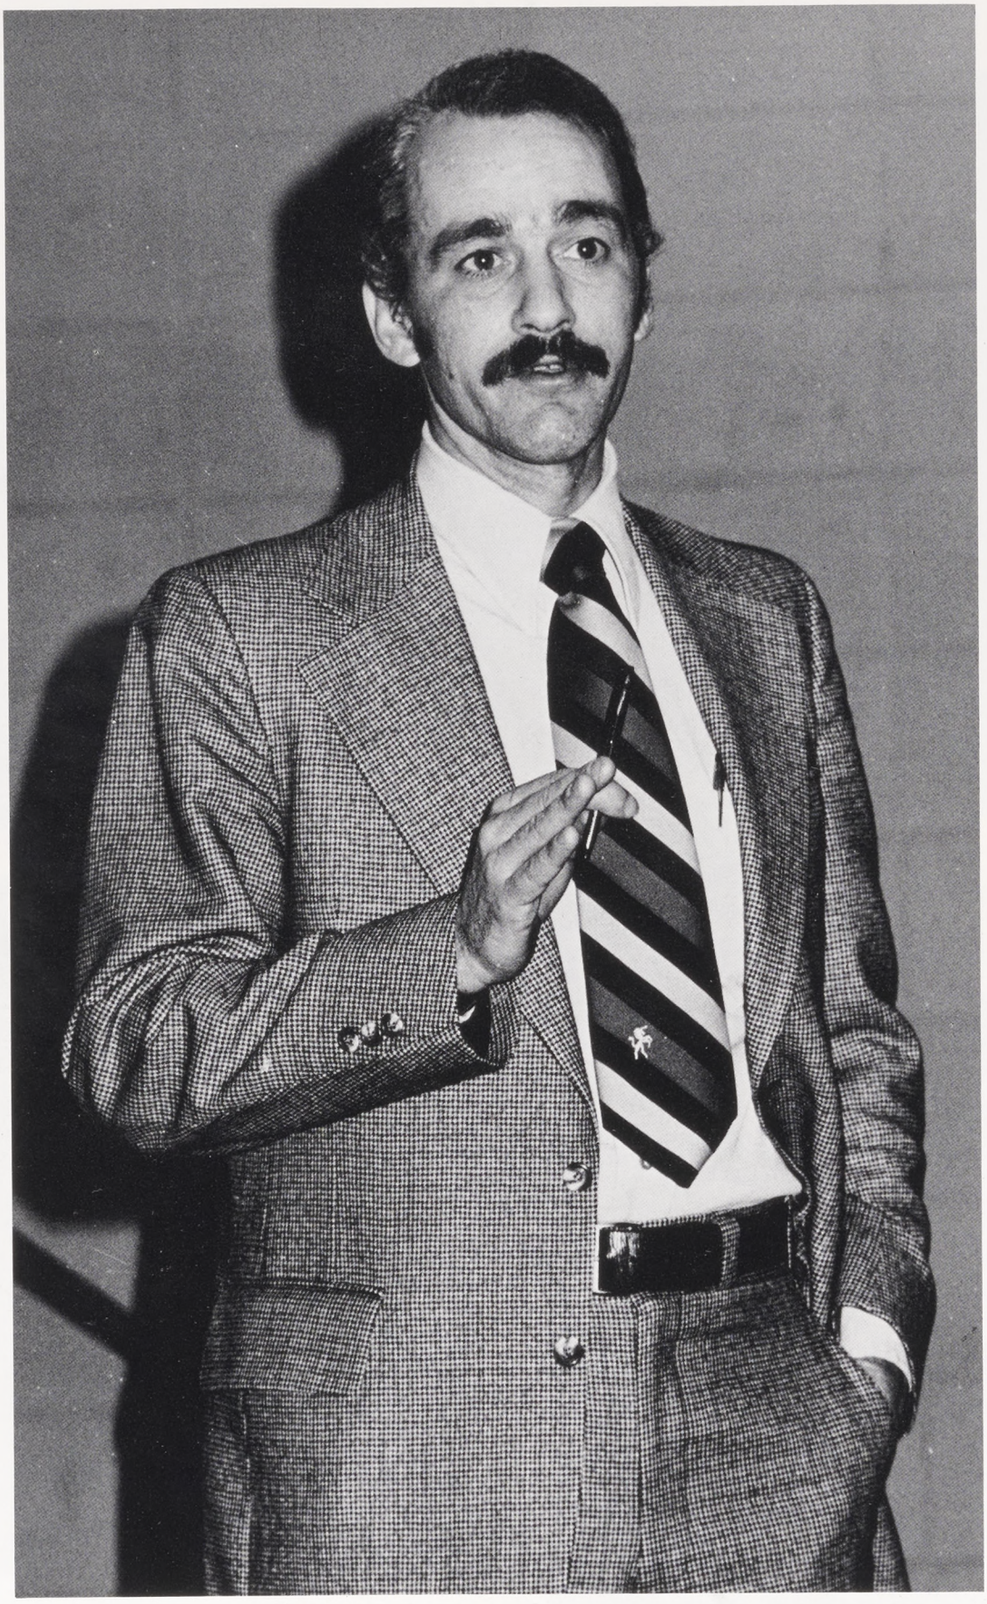
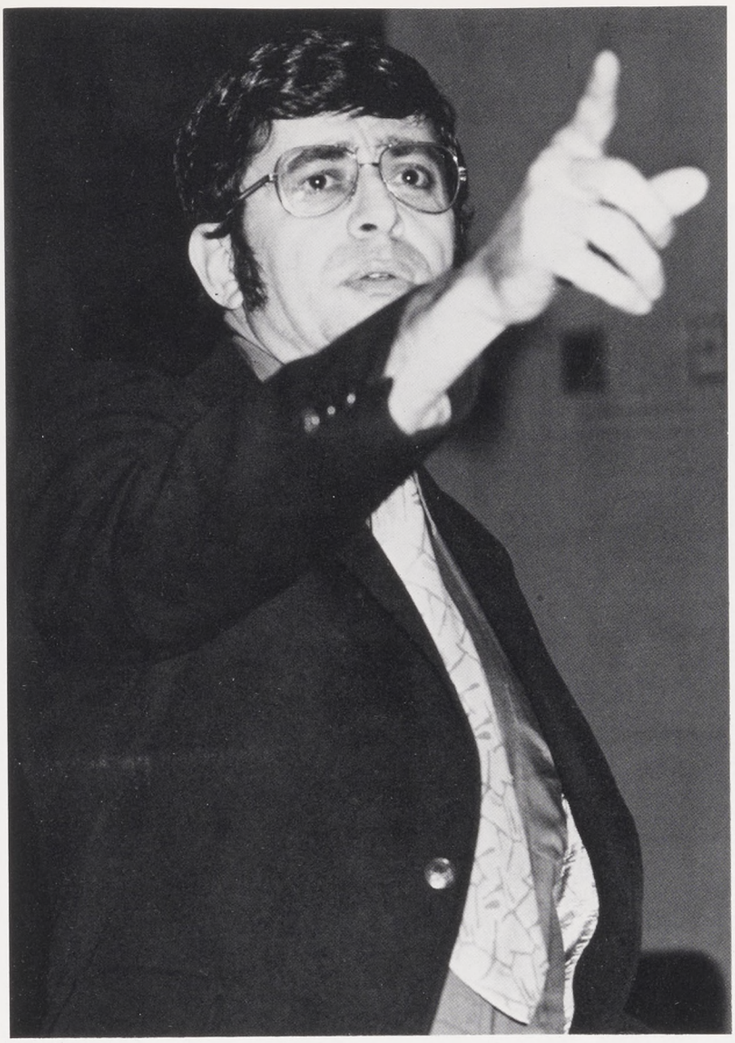
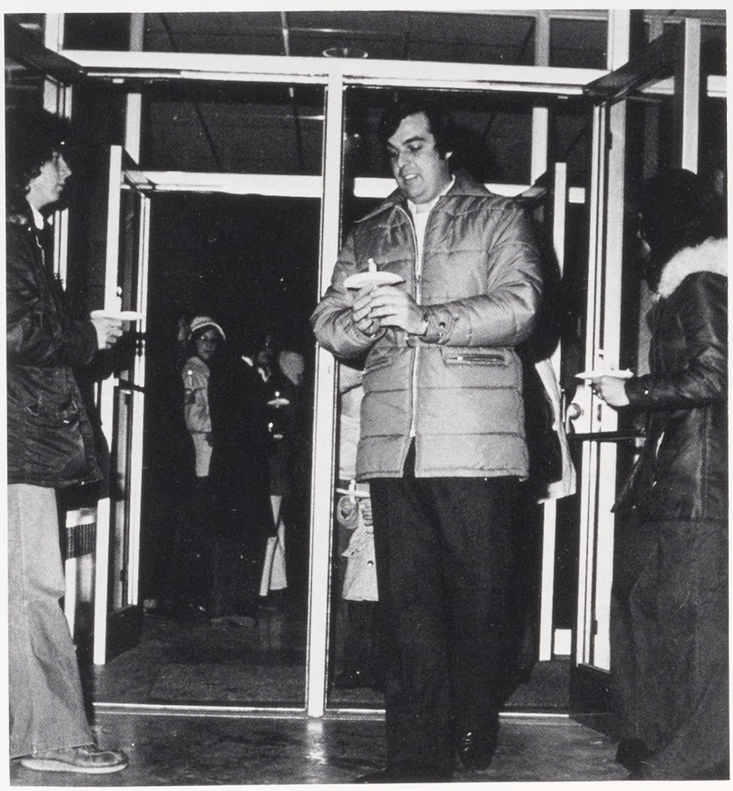
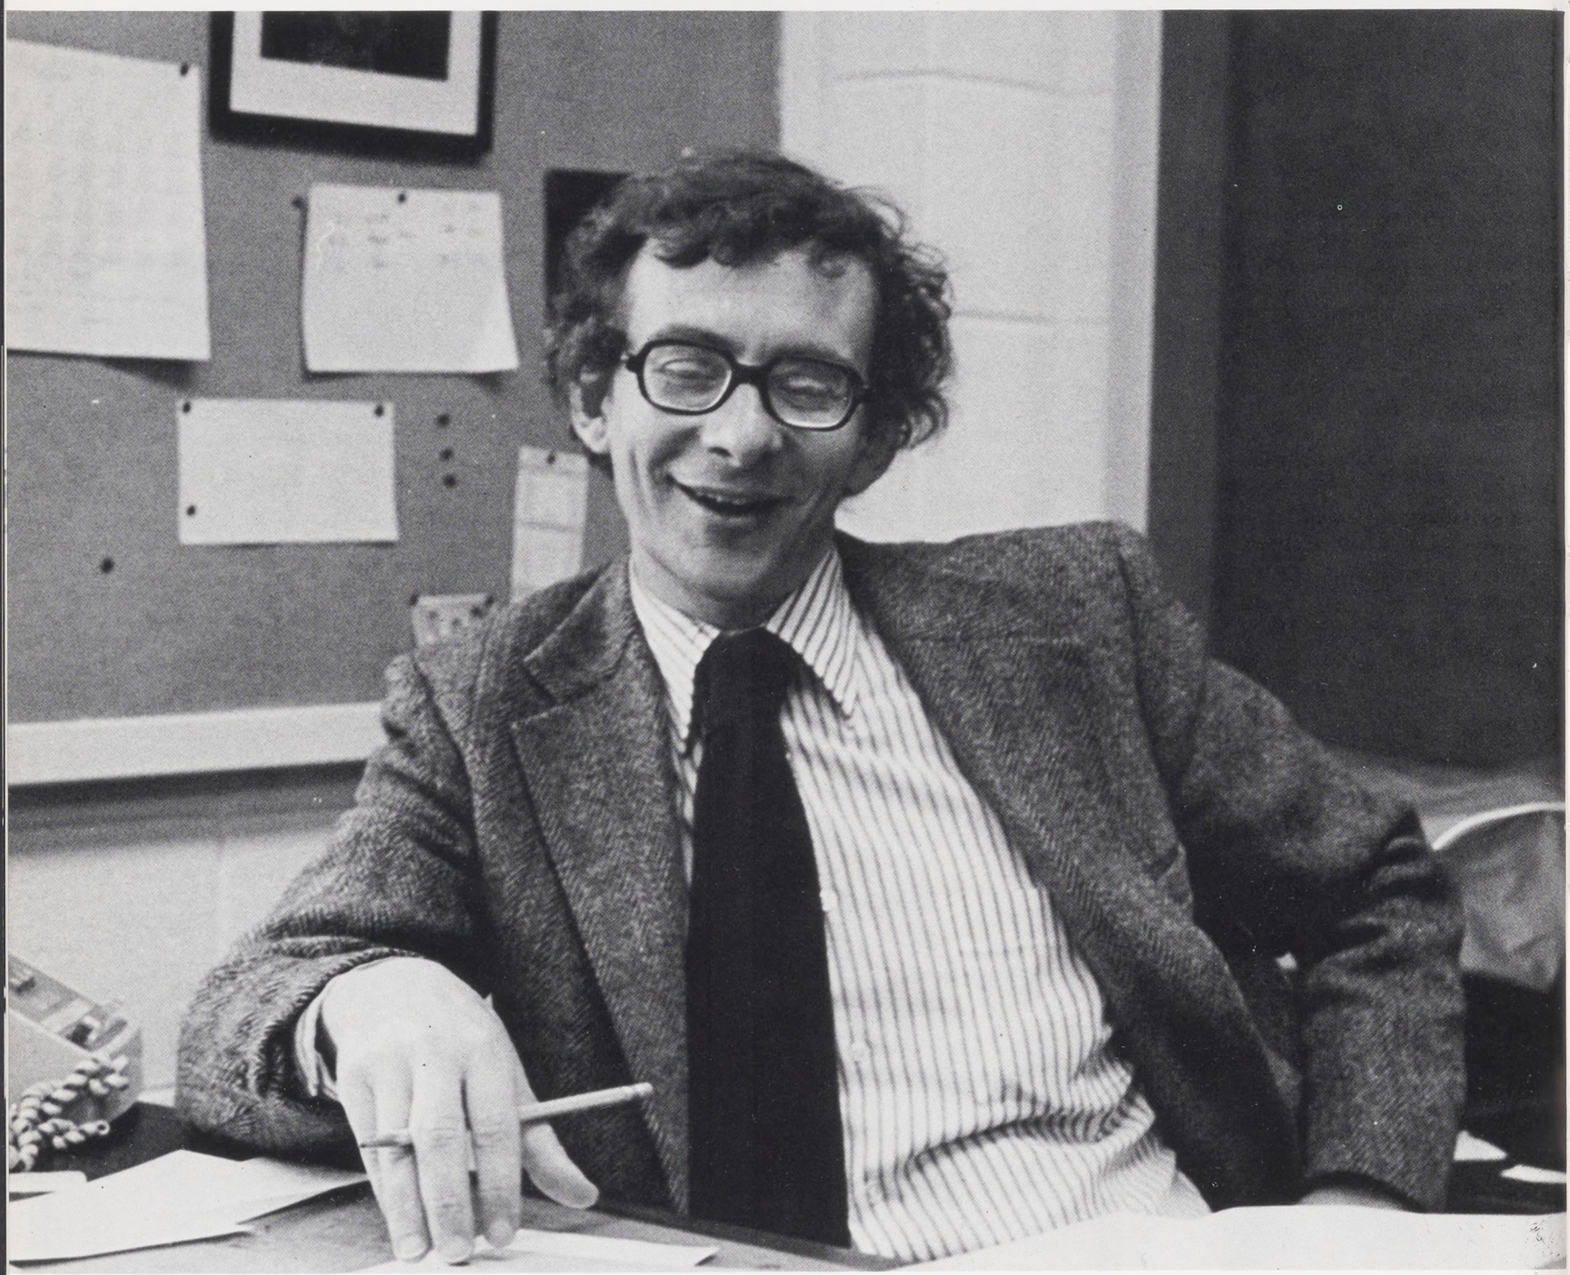
FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION









In the past six years, Dean David C. Johnson has contributed much to the college community. He's helped to make ESSC a better place, not only through his work as an administrator and professor, but also through his sincere interest in the welfare of the students on this campus. We thank him for his services to the school and wish him continued success at St. Cloud.

Sorry guys — we did it again! Everyone must think ESSC has a phantom Golf Team because there haven't been any pictures of them in the past years. Believe us — there IS a Golf Team, but it's just that they move too fast for our photographers to keep up with them. All we can say is "We'll try again next year!"

Our apologies especially go to letter winners:

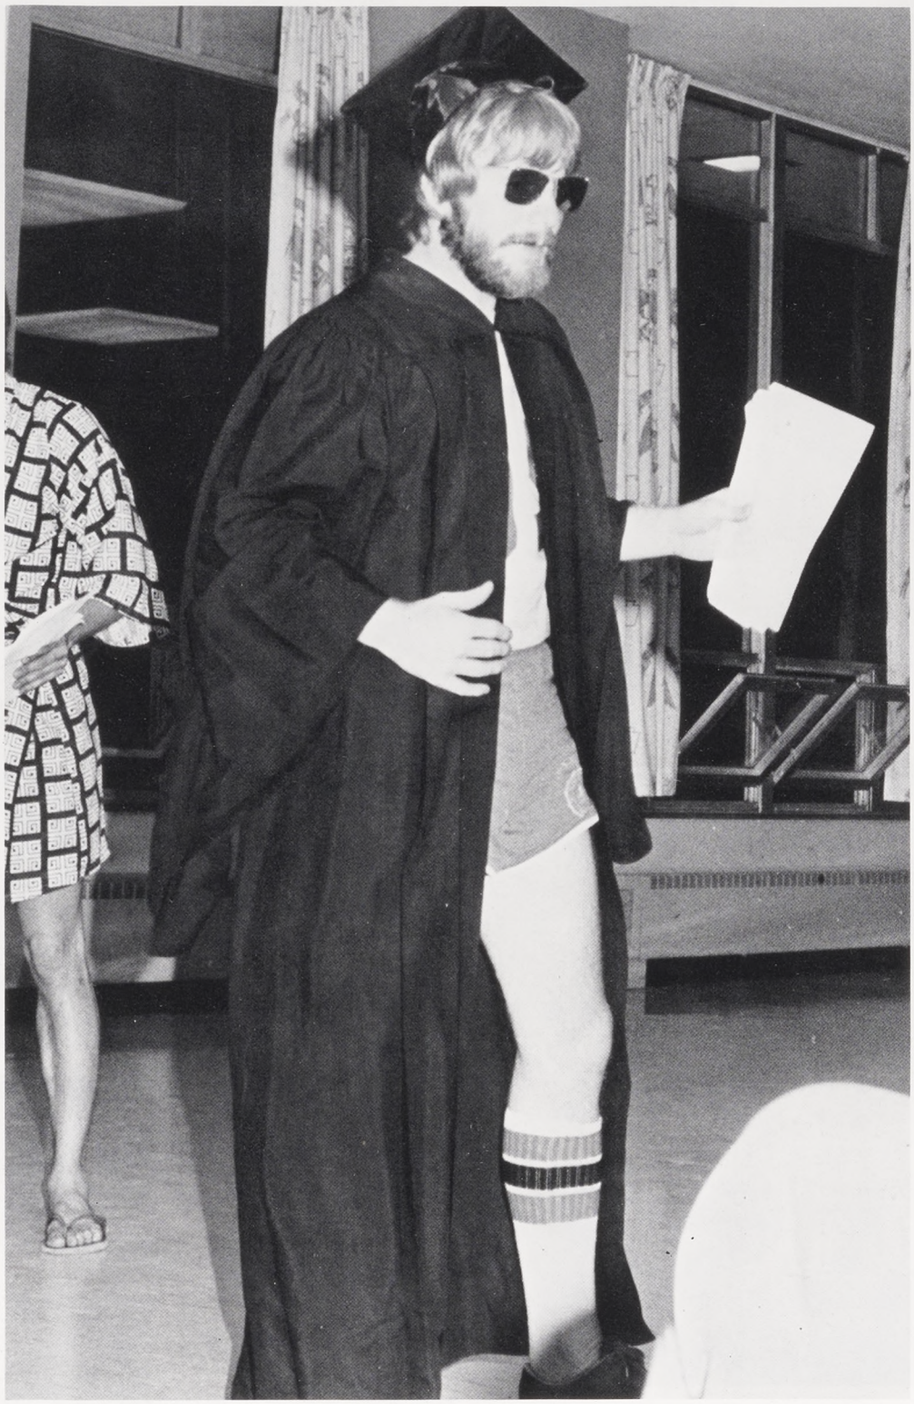
ALPHA CHI RHO

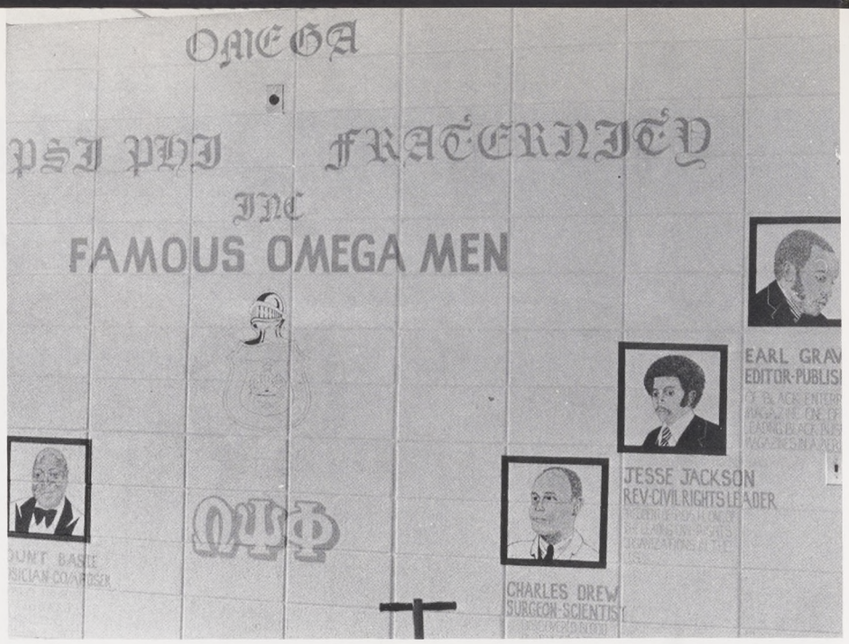
Although founded in 1965, Alpha Chi Rho is now the newest national fraternity on campus. They were accepted as a chapter of their national fraternity on April 10, 1976. Their numerous service projects have included a National Association for Retarded Children raffle, a Thanksgiving canned goods collection, a collection for Muscular Dystrophy at Halloween, and help with U.C.M.'s Big-Brother program. Their garnet and white colors were represented at the Penn State Crow Bowl. AXP won the Academic Trophy for the 10th year in a row and their float placed third in the Homecoming parade. Members of Alpha Chi Rho include Ray Morris, who placed second in the Eastern division Archery championships; Mike Kelly, who went to the NCAA swimming and diving championships; and Paul Morse, president of the Pennsylvania Newman Province.



ALPHA OMICRON PI

Alpha Omicron Pi's motto, "Sharing, Helping, Encouragement, and Friendship", is demonstrated through the many service projects held throughout the year. The sisters participated in a mock disaster for the Civil Defense of Stroudsburg, made weekly visits to Stroud Manor, and were closely involved with the Arthritis Foundation. They also played basketball in the I.S.C. league. The cardinal color of Alpha Omicron Pi was seen glowing brightly after they were named Greek Week winners, placing first in the Greek sing, talent show, and games. Some members worth mentioning — Chris Hubbard and Beth Ernst were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and Kathy Heck was given the Alumni Outstanding Award.

OMEGA PSI PHI



"Friendship is essential to the soul" is the motto of Omega Psi Phi, who received their national charter on November 16, 1974. Their service projects have included sponsoring a "College Information Center" for college-bound seniors at East Stroudsburg High School and helping the Black Student Movement with their many projects. They tied for first place in basketball this year and won the I.F.C. track title. The brothers are proud of their mural in the Union of famous Omega men. Some of the members of Omega Psi Phi include Dwight Brooks and Donald Ford, recipients of Act 101 Scholarship awards, and Melvin Davis who is in Who's Who Among College Students.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

The crimson red and pearl white of ASA have sponsored a little girl in the Phillipines and had a Halloween, Christmas, and Easter party for the mentally retarded children of the community. This year ASA won their sorority's National Philanthropic Award on the national level and locally retired the "Most Beautiful Homecoming Float" trophy. The Alpha Sigma Alpha motto is "Aspire, Seek, and Attain." Included among their members are Deb Morgan, Theta Chi's Sweetheart and Maureen Shiner, captain of the cheerleaders.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

The motto of Phi Sigma Kappa is "Brotherhood, Character, and Scholarship." Perhaps something about competition should be included in that motto as they won the interfraternity bowling, softball, and wrestling trophies and retired the All-Sports Trophy. The brothers of Phi Sig don't spend all their time flexing their muscles, they spend time also on service projects, such as a Halloween party for the Retarded and raising money for the Heart Fund. On the national level, Phi Sig won their fraternity's Manpower Award and the award for the outstanding chapter.

LAMBDA IOTA

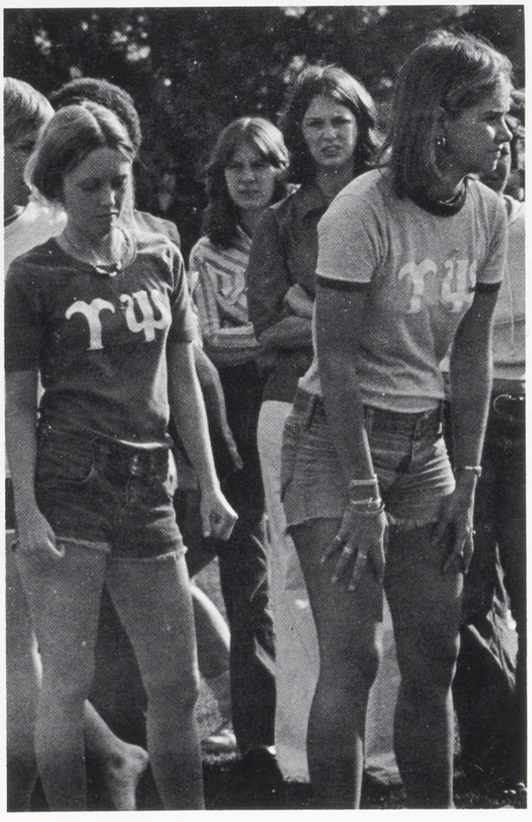
The newest sorority on campus is Lambda Iota, which was founded in April of 1975. Their motto is "Follow your dreams," but they also help others in following their dreams by taking part in many service projects. These projects include a Halloween party and Christmas party for the children at the Y.M.C.A., visiting the Children's Home of Easton, doing volunteer work in the Mental Health Ward of Pocono Hospital, and volunteer work for the Easter Seal Society. Lambda Iota is one of the two local sororities here and although only one year old, it's growing quickly.

SIGMA PI

The brothers of Sigma Pi "get what they go after." This includes getting the interfraternity volleyball and basketball championships. They participated in the Walk for Mankind and in raising money for MS. As a new idea for a service project, Sigma Pi sold mischief night insurance to local residents and cleaned up after mischief-makers. They received the chapter award for the most new initiates and traveled to West Virginia to win the Sigma Pi Invitational Basketball Tournament. They certainly do get what they go after!

UPSILON PSI

Upsilon Psi is the other local sorority on campus. Their motto is "Service, Scholarship, and Friendship." Examples of the service part of their motto can be seen in their Mother of the Year contest, painting of a citizen's home in East Stroudsburg, and participation in the March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon. The sisters also participated in the many intersorority events and won the basketball championship. The sisters of Up Psi wanted to be sure to mention that Greeks are an asset to ESSC.



TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Tau Kappa Epsilon is the "fraternity for life." This past year they sponsored a community Halloween party, participated in the Walk-a-thon and gave blood during the blood drive. Nationally, they were the most improved chapter and locally, the I.F.C. football champs and champions of the Greek Games. The many individuals with different interests really show that "TKE is Unique."

THETA CHI

Military red and white represent Theta Chi, who's members have participated in numerous activities including a canned foods drive, entertaining at nursing homes, and sponsoring a Spring Carnival for United Way. All these service projects explain why their motto is "Helping Hand." Nationally they were first runners up as most improved chapter and during Greek Week, they placed first for fraternities. Some of the members of Theta Chi are Sam Sica, first runner up in the 1975 Mr. Anthracite Contest; Scott Ditcher, national gymnastic champion; and Willard Stem, who received All-American honors in football.

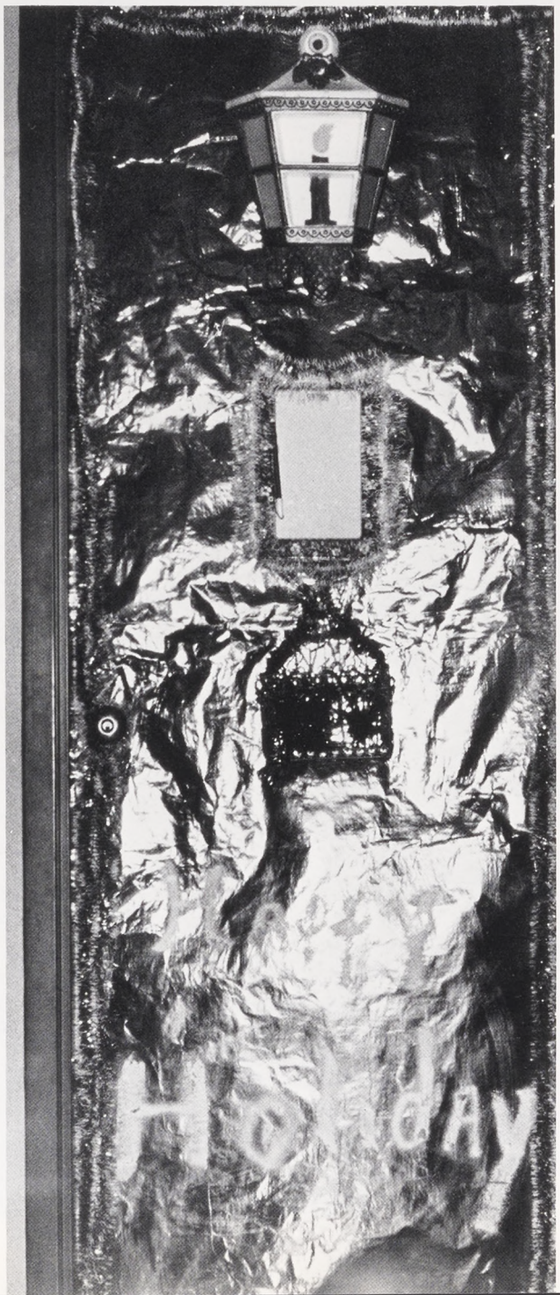
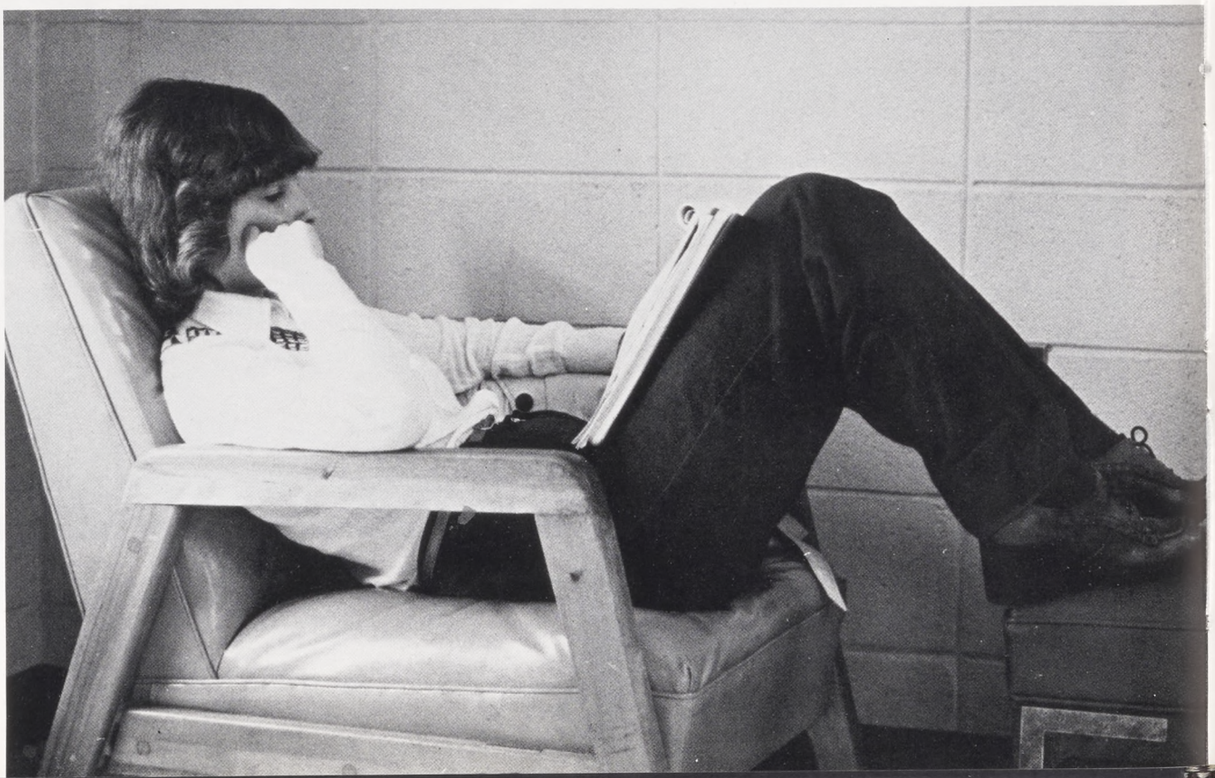
CHRISTMAS

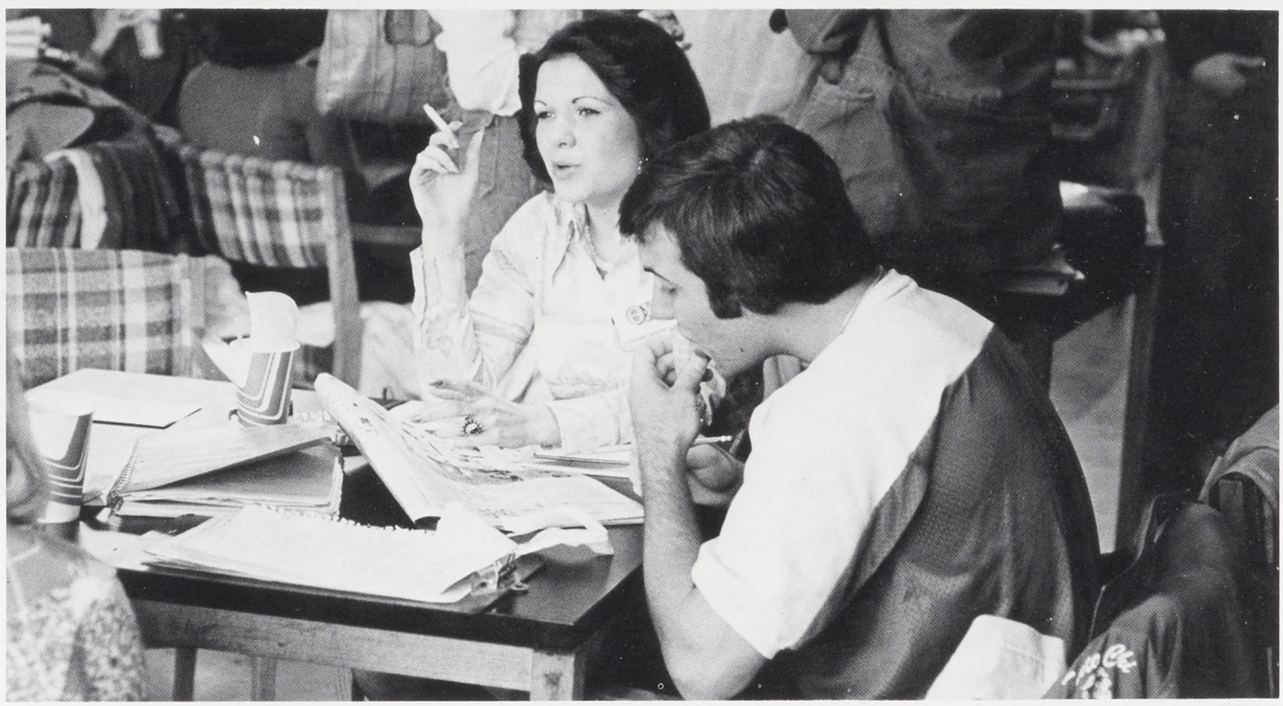
Christmas at ESSC has a spirit all its own. It's a package from home filled with broken cookies and a stale fruit cake. It's the kid next store repeatedly playing the Rocky Mountain Christmas album. It's "decking the hall" to bring an air of festivity to a dorm corridor and then trying to explain the presence of the forbidden spruce tree and twinkling lights to the housemother. But underlying all the craziness that goes along with trying to buy and wrap gifts during finals week, with writing cards instead of term papers, and partying instead of studying for your Civil War test, are the special feelings of sharing and thoughtfulness that come with the season, and will hopefully remain through the year. And they're what the real celebration is all about.

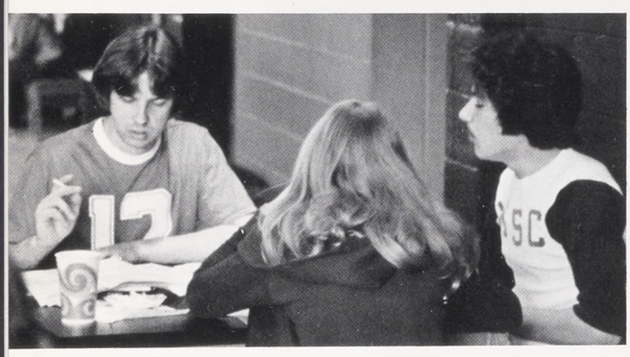


Sometimes I sits and thinks and . . .



sometimes I just sits!

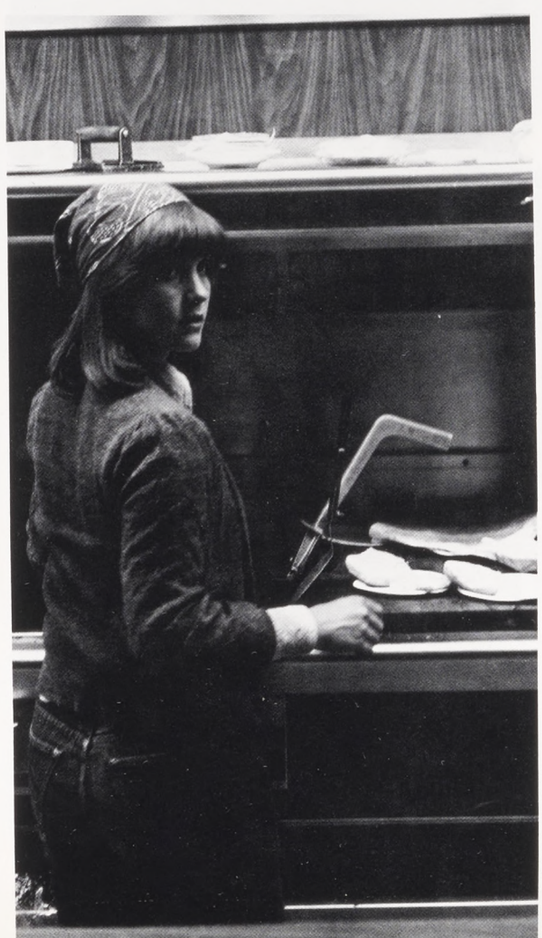




Our Union — almost like home for many students. It's a favorite place to meet people, to play cards, to study (sometimes!), to sun ourselves, and maybe even a place to be alone.

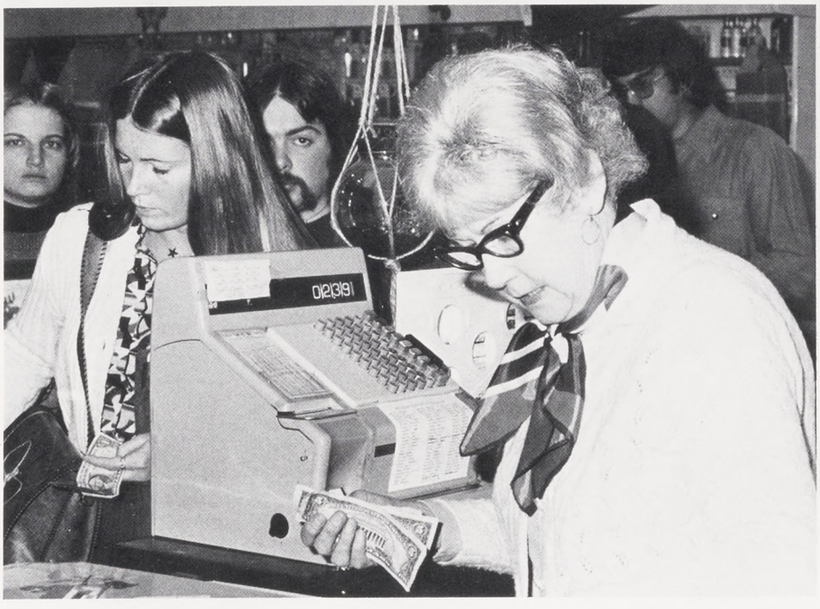
THE GAMEROOM

You don't find as many people relaxing in the gameroom as you used to. Lots of people who enjoy shooting pool or playing the pinball machines will tell you it's because it's not open as often as before. But the real reason is that all the people who enjoy playing good games, like air hockey, are down in the Snack Bar, much to the dismay of the people who enjoy playing the juke box.



SNACK BAR

The Snack Bar is where you go to:
a. get a decent 20¢ Coke.
b. meet your friends.
c. take a break during a night class.
d. seek refuge from ptomaine at Dansbury.
e. all of the above.



People buy all sorts of things at the Bookstore. You'll see them buying plants and T-shirts, toothpaste, greeting cards, The New York Times, The Pocono Record, crayons and stationery. Occasionally you'll even see them buying books.

The administration has plans to improve the ESSC campus with the new science building, a newer fine arts building and renovations of the Union and the cafeteria. But the most important change will be on the Quad, as the result of an all out effort to keep the grass growing.

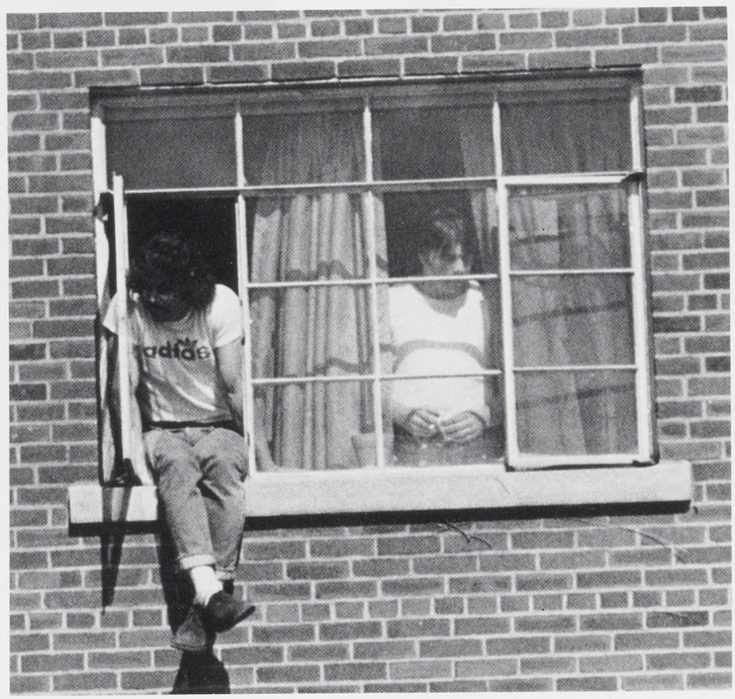
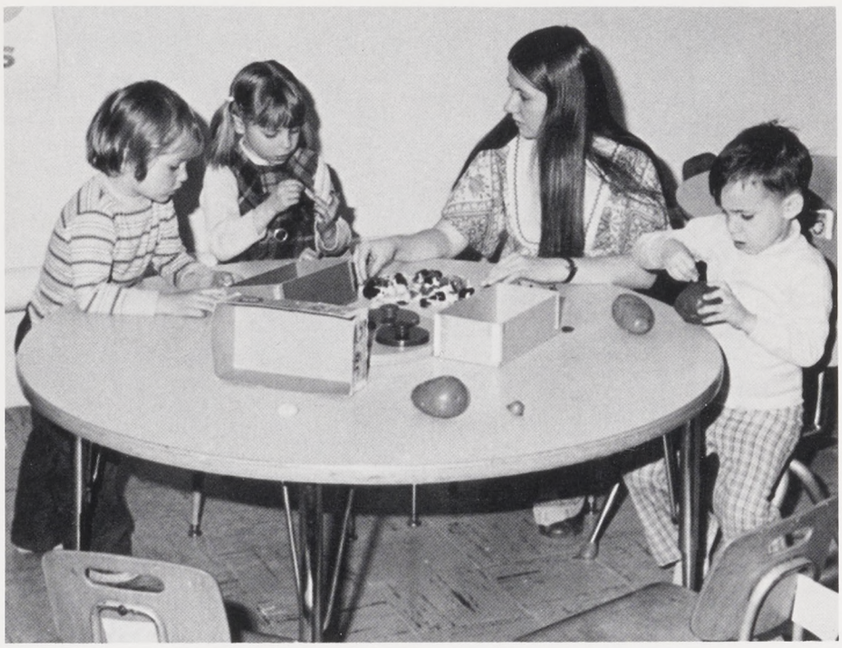
Before you know it . . .

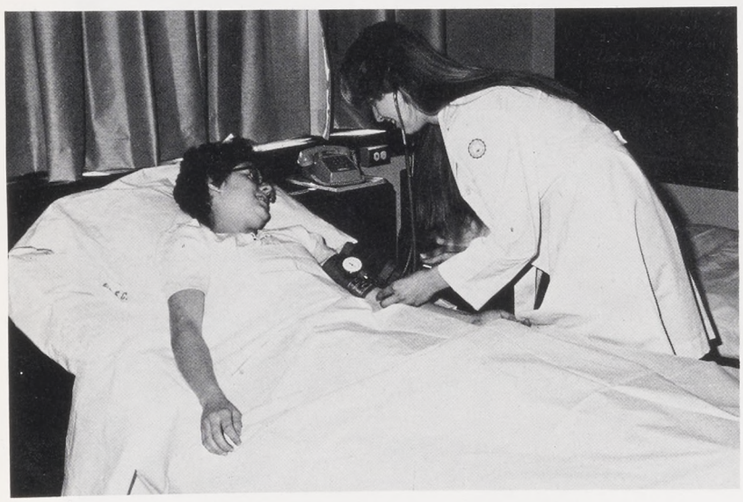
SPRING IS HERE!

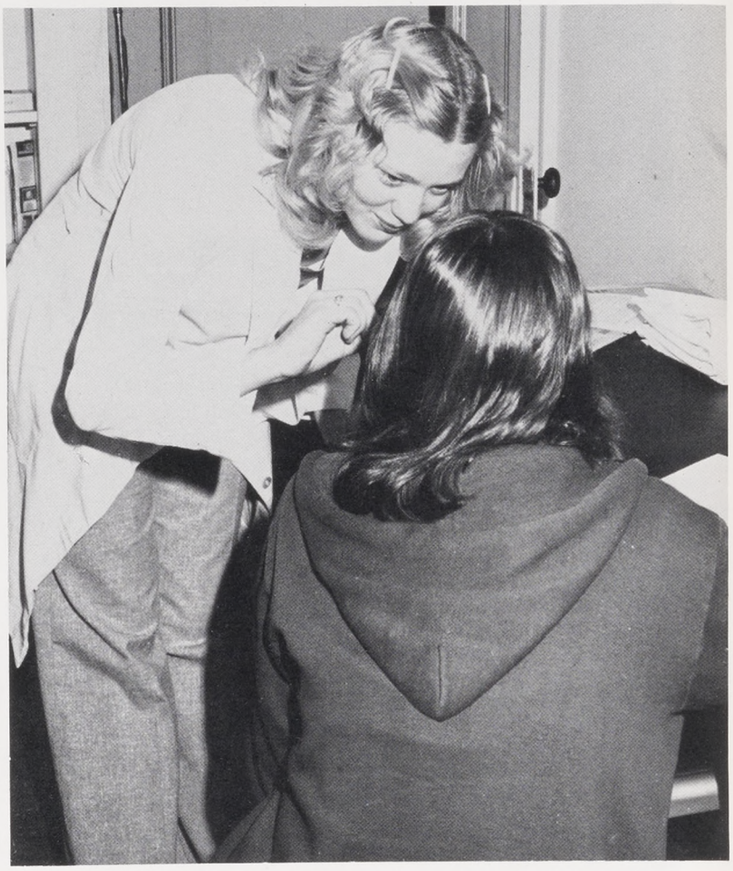


KIDDIE KORNER



No, those little people you may see running around campus are not pint sized freshman. They are children of our students, faculty, and community, who attend ESSC's own child care center. The Kiddie Korner, housed in the basement of Shawnee Hall, is under the supervision of teacher, Mrs. Barbara Meyer, and staffed by student volunteers from the elementary curriculum. Janne Helgren, in connection with the Mid-Career students, was responsible for getting the center started and received recognition from President Holmes.





Seen frequently around campus anymore are the blue and white uniforms of the ESSC student nurses. The nursing program, while still relatively new, is growing rapidly. Trained at Pocono Hospital and Stroud Manor, the nurses put in many long hours in addition to attending their regular classes. Next time you feel sick, be sure to call on one of the student nurses!

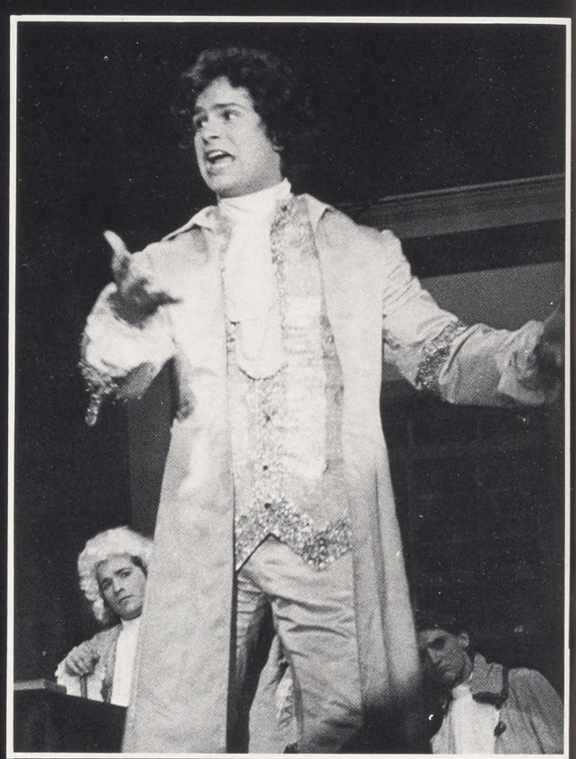
"Revolutionary Sneakers?!?"



IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences:

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

The newly formed College Union Board was responsible for the movies, dances, concerts, coffee houses, and many other activities at E.S.S.C. Much time and hard work was put in by a few individuals to bring Peter Frampton, Livingston Taylor and Keith Berger to perform here. The big success of the year, however, was having Hall and Oates come for two sold out shows. Next year promises to be even better.

For those of you who are tired of listening to the same old radio station, why don't you experience something different and tune in WESS. Yes, ESSC has it's own radio station, located in the basement of Shawnee Hall. You can hear all types of music, plus the latest news and a variety of programs. Who knows, maybe you'll even hear your friend's voice on the air someday!

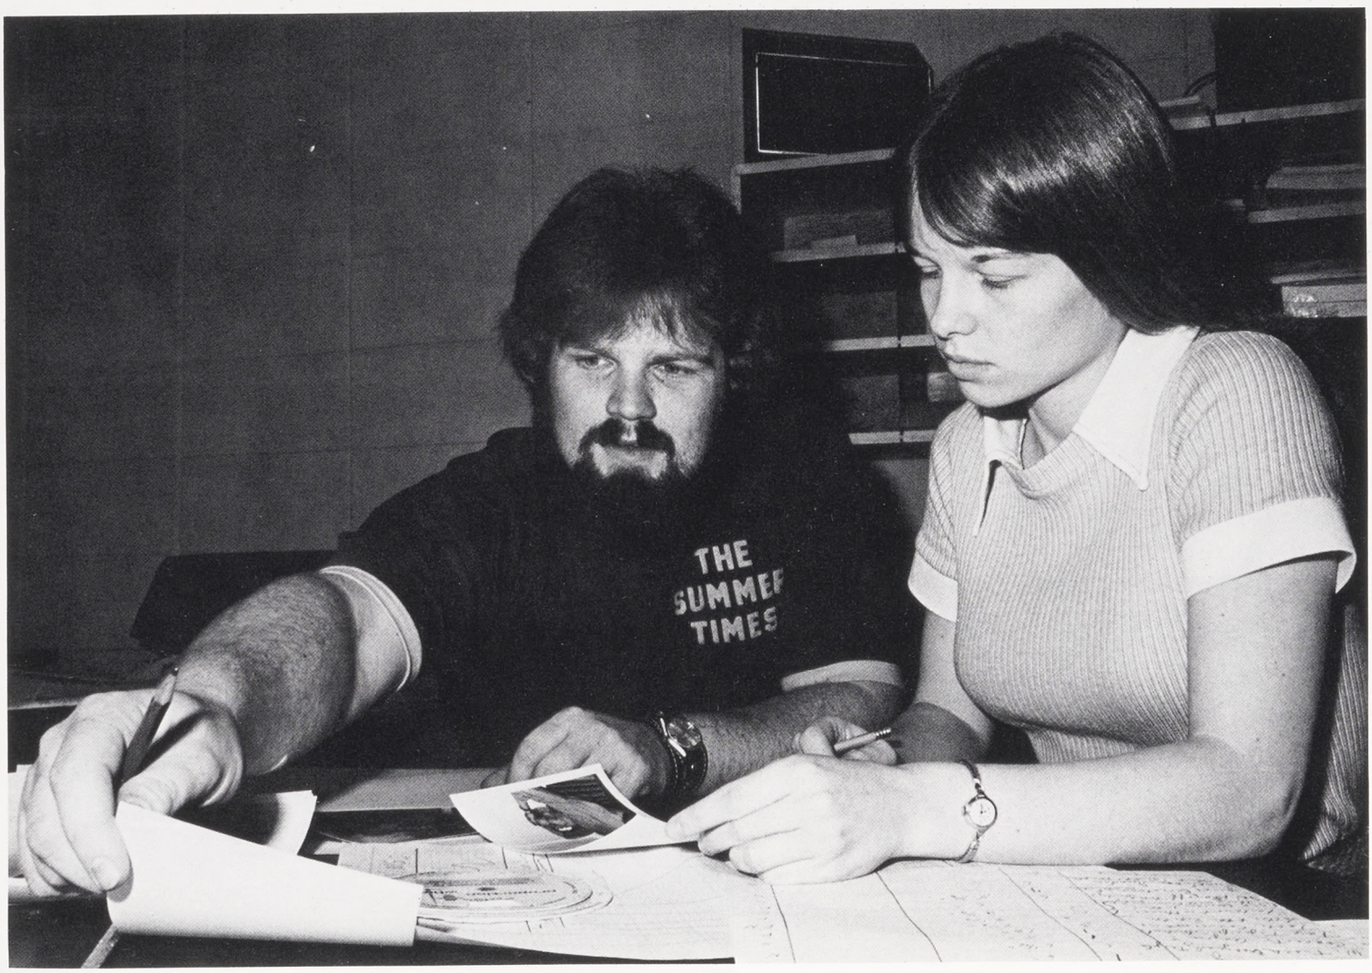
The Stroud Courier, despite numerous threats of budget cuts, continued to put out a newsworthy paper again this year. It takes a lot of work and cooperation among the staff to produce such a paper.

Many students don't realize how many people it takes to make the paper and we wish there was room to list everyone: But we have to commend you guys — you did a hell of a good job (and your parties weren't bad either!)



Music is a valuable part of college life and there are many musical organizations here on campus to prove it. The ESSC Marching Band gets us in the spirit at football games, the College Choir, Women's Chorus, and Madrigal Singers set holiday moods for us, and of course the infamous Pocono Boy Singers are as much a part of the college as Oakes Hall.

A.E.E.

The Association for Elementary Education was busy in numerous activities this year. The year was highlighted by the annual Creativity Fair. Students from creativity and other education classes displayed their projects for others to discover new ideas in teaching at the elementary level.

The Homecoming Committee's hard work paid off too — their float finally placed in the Homecoming parade.

Various speakers and fund raising projects were also a vital portion of the association's plans.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It's not easy being editor, and if it weren't for the co-operation and support of many people, it would be impossible. We'd like to take this chance to thank:

— Steve Merin, our sales rep. and all the people at Hunter, for their patience with a neophyte staff.

— Barry Wilson and Dr. Penny for their help with the budget and bid specs.

— Donna and Edith for putting up with all of our questions and problems.

— Pete Nevins for providing information for the sports section.

— Our roommates and friends for their patience and helpful suggestions.

— Buffy and the photographers for their time and effort.

We're also grateful to our staff for all their hard work and would especially like to thank those who came up during the summer to finish the book.
