Yearbook Staff and ESU Community

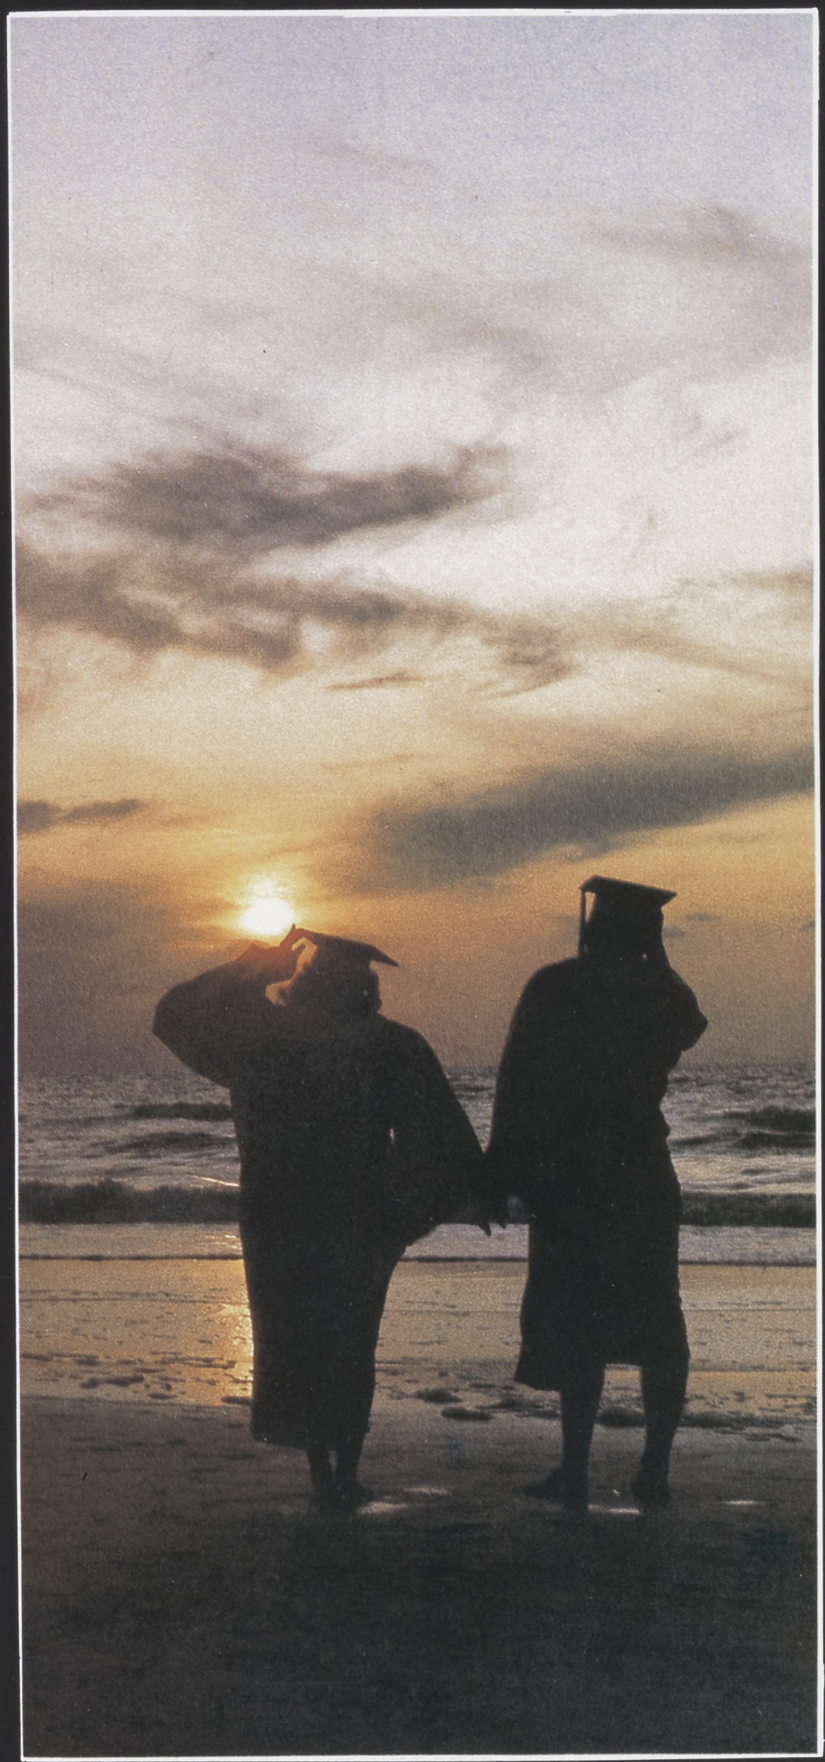

Congratulations on this outstanding journalistic effort focusing on those activities and events that summarize another good year at ESU. The many hours for compiling, editing, producing, and distributing this publication are greatly appreciated by all.

As we complete our second year as a more autonomous university, we are moving forward in areas of academic planning, financial planning, and development. We continue to give recognition and attention to the outstanding learning experiences that students have in the various areas of student activities. We see students continually learning and growing as they interact with other students and members of the academic community in these important co-curricular programs. All these experiences help foster the total development of the students to better them for their leadership roles in society. The Stroud has indeed memorialized a number of these activities which students will long remember.

Again, congratulations on this 1985 yearbook. It is a manifestation of the important things that have happened at ESU this past year.

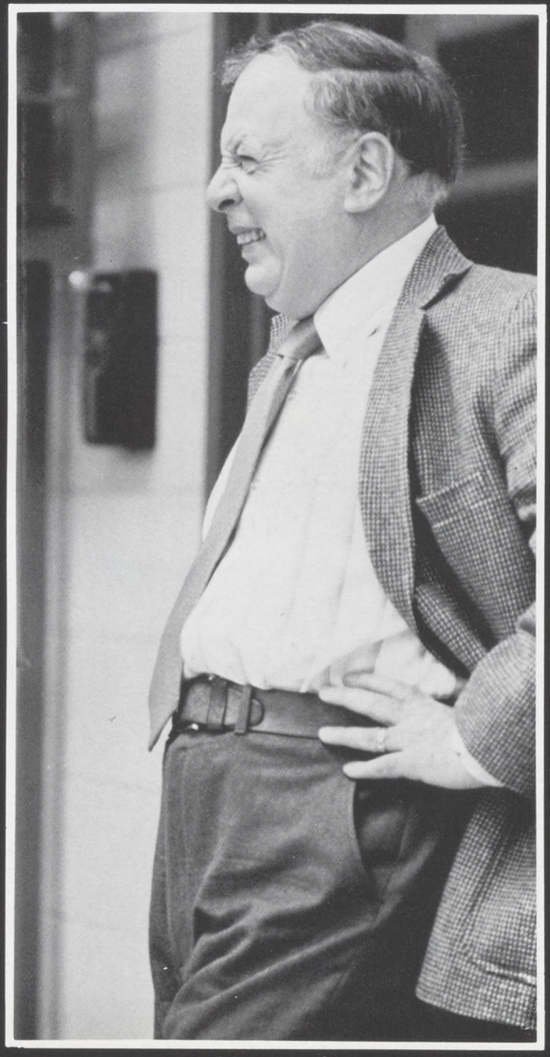

Sincerely yours,

Dennis D. Bell
President

We, the editors and the staff of the 1985 Stroud, wish to dedicate this yearbook to a very special man who is leaving ESU this year. Norman Gelber, an English professor, is retiring after twenty-four years of love for and devotion to the students here at East Stroudsburg University. Dr. Gelber is a true hero in our eyes, and we shall all miss him dearly. So, here's to you, Dr. Gelber: Sir, we salute you!

For you and me, this is our valedictory year as we say farewell to East Stroudsburg University and look ahead. We share a rite of passage: you from an undergraduate to a graduate status, and I from the teaching profession to retirement.

We wave goodbye to the academic world with bitter-sweet memories. We feel sad because we leave the campus where we have increased our knowledge and skills, enriched our lives with cultural activities, and enjoyed the social exchange with students and faculty.

Yet we treasure the years we have devoted to the joint adventure of learning, which gives us the deep satisfaction of personal growth. Though we head in different directions on our compass, we share the excitement and the challenge of moving into a new phase of our lives because it is like venturing into new territory without a detailed roadmap.

So I wish all of you success and self-fulfillment — whether or not it is tax-deductible.

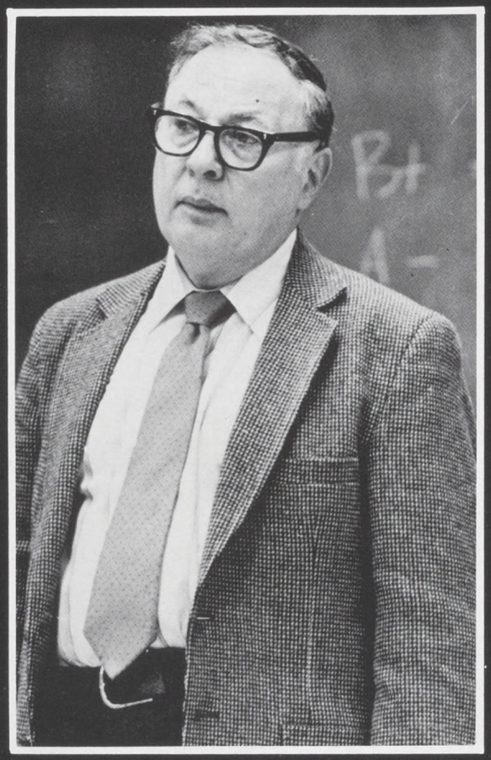

Norman Gelber
Associate Professor of English

Reflection on Retiring

On this, my valedictory year of waging war on ignorance
a quarter-of-a-century's hoard of academic souvenirs
adorns my shelf of memory.
Had I remained a business man, steeped in profit and loss, I might have reaped a rich portfolio and sported round the Riviera — or skidded toward a coronary.
Instead I chose the teacher's role, content to gain a bookish wealth and thrive upon the give-and-take with colleagues and the cavalcade of students stumbling toward the light.
— Norman Gelber

The Statue of Liberty celebrates her 98th birthday in 1984 and begins to show her age. The statue is worn from constant pummeling by wind, salt air, and acid rain, and the iron ribbing supporting the copper covering is badly corroded. A two-year restoration project begins in July, 1984.

Pope John Paul II is traveling Pope in 1984. In May he goes to South Korea, Thailand, Papua New Guinea, and the Solomon Islands; in June he goes to Switzerland; in September to Canada, and in October to Spain, Dominican Republic, and Puerto Rico. The photo shows the Pope in Mt. Hagen, Papua New Guinea where he met some of the 200,000 natives who turn out to welcome him in the highland jungle country.

Above Top: Mission specialist Bruce McCandless takes a walk in space in early 1984. In the photo he is seen using the so-called manned maneuvering unit as he moves away from the Shuttle Challenger during the eight-day space mission.

Michael Jackson conducts his so-called Victory Tour to more than a dozen cities. The original ticket policy, which requires fans to mail in a $120 postal money order for four tickets, with no guarantee that they would receive the tickets, is shelved after much criticism.

Vanessa Williams is forced to surrender her title as Miss America at the request of pageant officials because she had posed nude for sexually explicit photos. She becomes the first of 57 Miss Americas to be forced to resign.

The United States Marines arrived in Beirut in 1982. Lebanon is torn by civil war and foreign invasion. In 1984 when the Marines leave, more than 260 Marines are dead, and Lebanon is still at war, with most of its territory occupied by foreign troops and its government tottering. The price of President Reagan's commitment is too high, and the Marines leave Beirut.

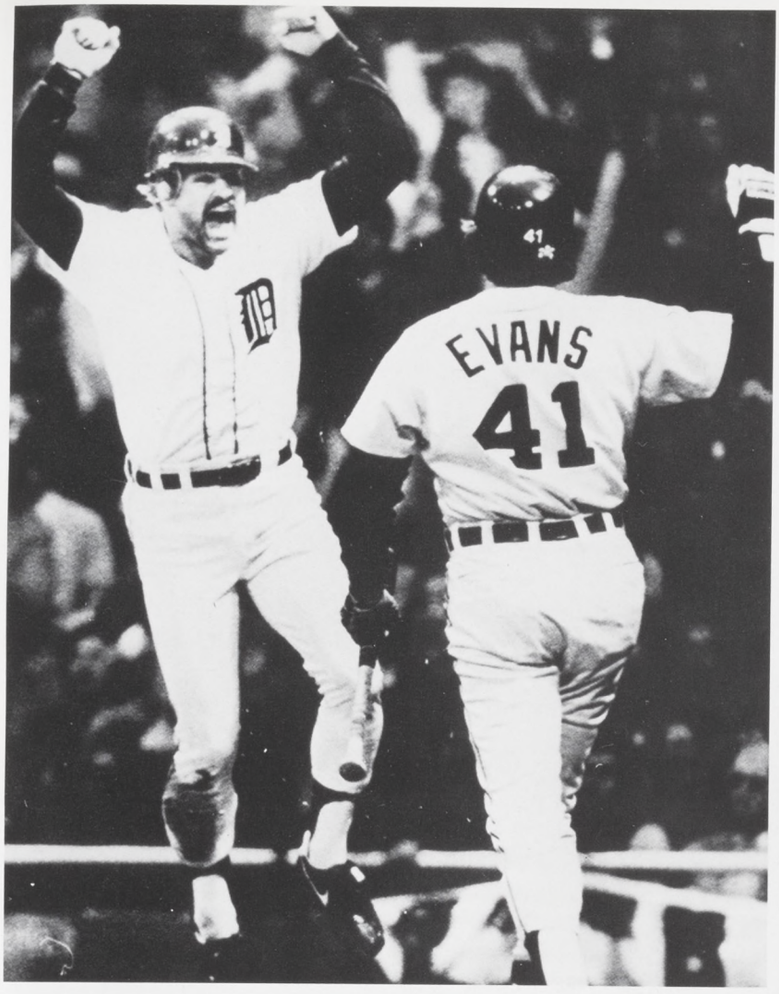

After years of civil war, elections are held in El Salvador in 1984. Jose Napoleon Duarte is elected president in what international observers call the most open and free election in that country in 50 years. The photo shows a soldier reading a newspaper at the Rio Lempa checkpoint near El Salvador. The headline reads "There is Faith in the Electoral Process."

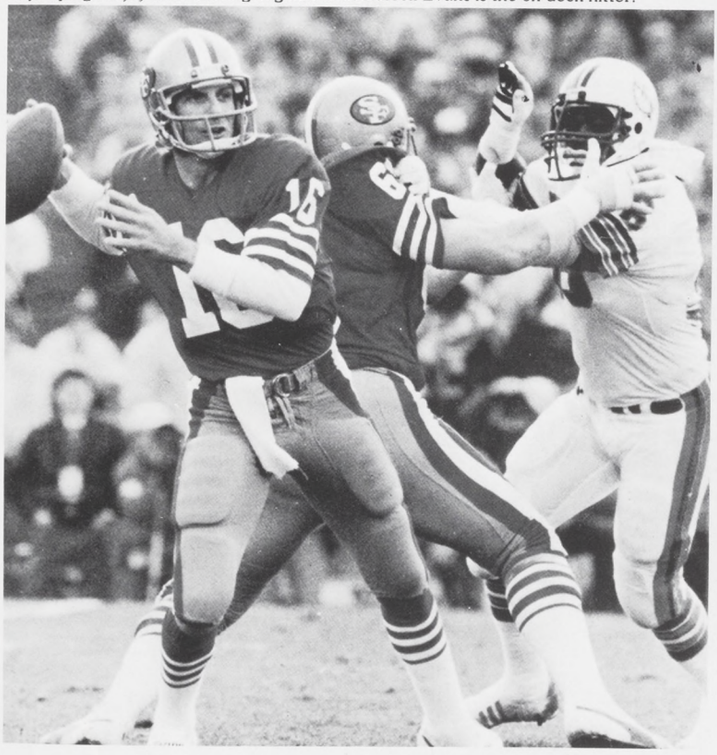

President Reagan wins re-election with the biggest electoral vote in the nation's history. He wins 49 states with 49 percent of the total vote. The photo shows President and Mrs. Reagan at the victory celebration on election night, November 6, 1984.

Democratic presidential candidate Walter Mondale makes history when he chooses a woman, Geraldine Ferraro, as his vice presidential running mate. Mondale and Ferraro are nominated on the Democratic ticket at the party convention in San Francisco in July.

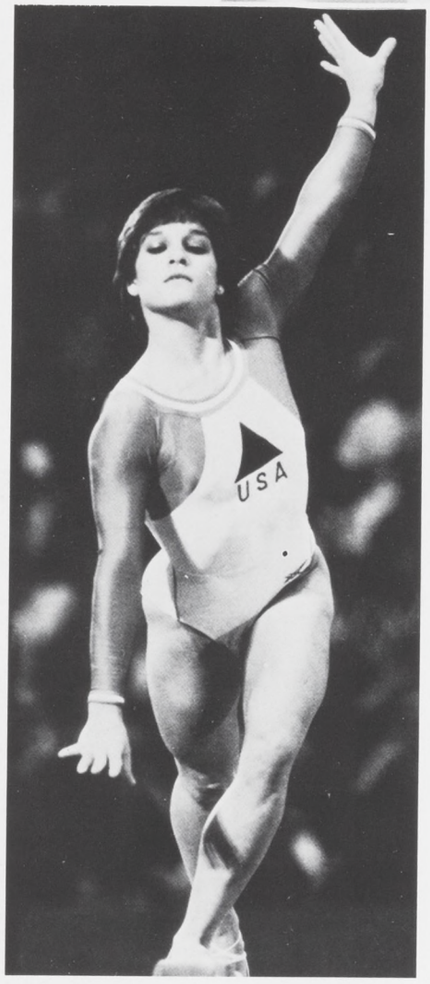

The World Series in 1984 sees the Detroit Tigers beat the San Diego Padres four games to one. The Chicago Cubs come close to getting into the series, but the Padres win. In the American League, the Kansas City Royals lose in the play offs to the Tigers. The photo shows Kirk Gibson of Detroit jumping for joy after scoring in game five. Darrell Evans is the on-deck hitter.

San Francisco 49ers quarterback Joe Montana looks for receiver behind protective blocking of left guard John Ayres (68) in first half of Super Bowl XIX game on Sunday, January 20 in Stanford Stadium, Stanford, California. Rushing Montana is Dolphin's Don McNeal (28).

The United States does very well in the Summer Olympics, winning 83 gold medals, 61 silver, and 30 bronze. Carl Lewis wins 4 gold medals — the 100 meters, the 200 meters, the four 100 meter relay, and the long jump. Mary Lou Retton wins the all-round gold medal and leads the gymnastics team to a silver medal; she also wins bronze medals for the floor exercise and the uneven parallel bars, and takes a silver medal for the vault. The Soviet Union and other Communist countries boycott the Summer Olympics.

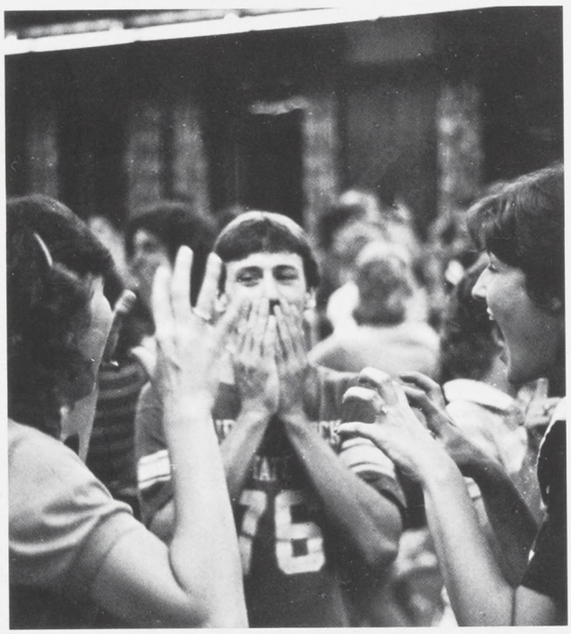

ACTIVITIES

Welcome Week

Who's new at ESU? Seven days' worth of orienting activities enable university acolytes to "take the plunge" into college life with a little less apprehension — and a lot more enthusiasm. Both wide-eyed freshmen and jaded upperclassmen take full advantage of the offerings of Welcome Week, making the transition from summer vacation to fall drudgery just a little bit easier.

Playfair

Welcome Week presents Playfair, an ice-breaking exhibition of non-competitive activities which emulate physical education's New Games on a grand scale. As Matt Weinstein leads the crowd in frivolous fun and games, students are able to relax, adjust to new surroundings, and meet lots of new friends. Who says college students are too old to play?

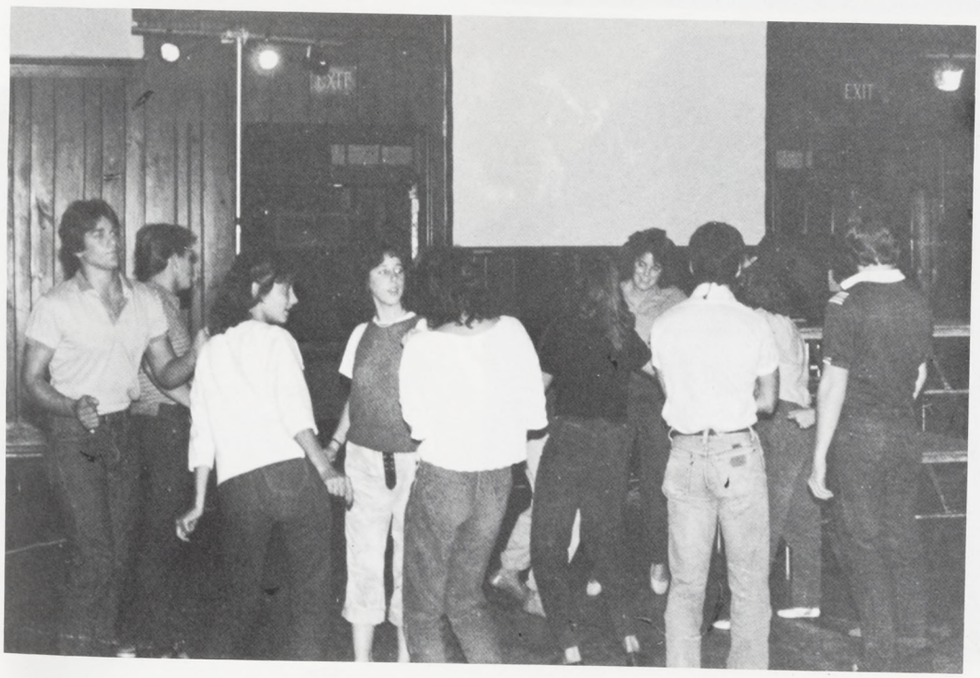

Regency

Remember those musty Mills Brothers albums collecting dust in your grandmother's record cabinet? That 40's flair is again brought to life when Regency, a five member a capella vocal group, performs for a noontime college center crowd during Welcome Week. Regency's distinctive style and talent, reminiscent of the days of 78 rpm and "follow the bouncing ball," reminds students that not only heavy metal merits musical renown. Maybe those old Mills Brothers albums deserve a second chance . . .

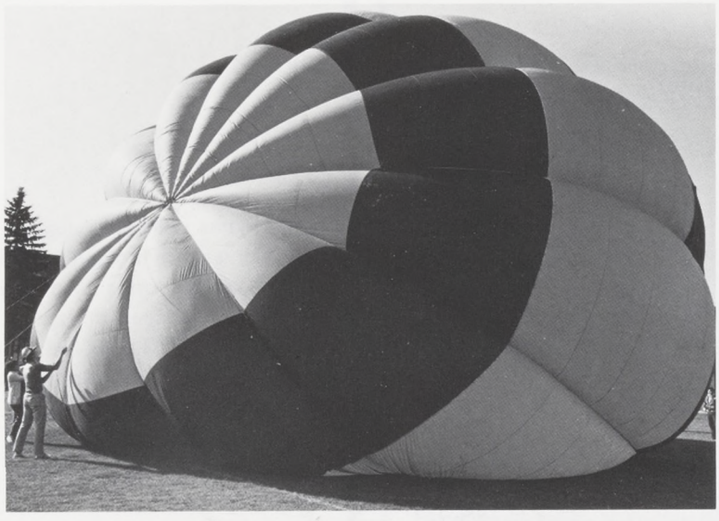

Video Dance

Move over N.Y.C., your clubs and discos aren't the only places where people can boogie with the bands at video dance parties. The ESU Annex, outfitted with two 6′ x 9′ screens, recreates the atmosphere of Studio 54 and then some, as any of these strutting students will gladly acknowledge . . . . if you can get them to stand still long enough.

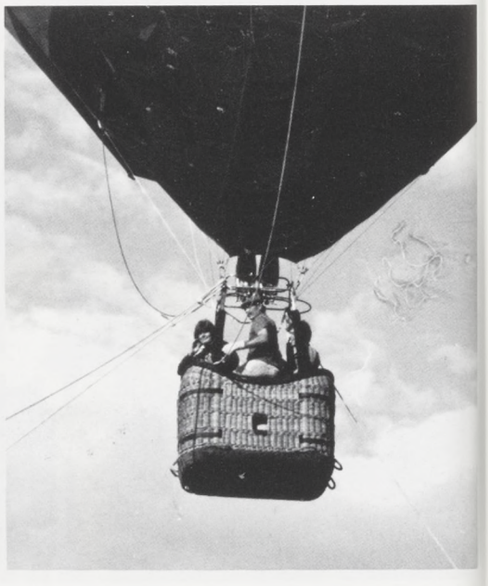

Hot Air Balloons

Q: What has 22 different colors, is subject to the whims of the weather, floats all over campus, and almost crashes into Minsi Hall?

A: There's that hot air balloon again. Hey, anybody want a free ride over to the snack bar?

Denny & Lee

Fascinating and captivating, Denny and Lee pack the auditorium with their performance of amazing illusions, which are a definite highlight during Welcome Week. Say, how do they catch those bullets between their teeth? How does Denny balance Lee on her back with that razor-sharp blade at the base of her neck? Hey, how do they do that?

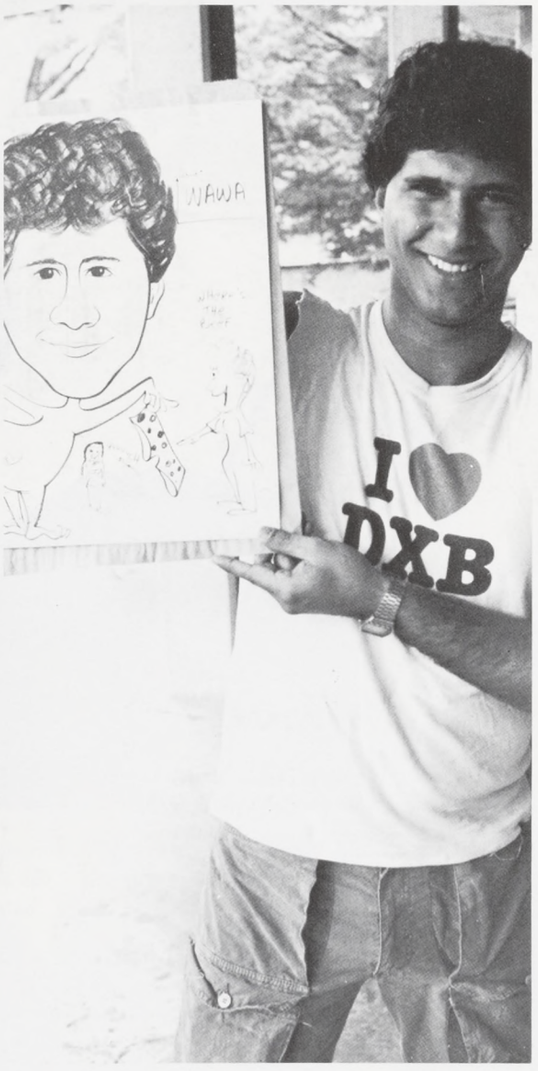

Barry Drake

Caricatures

So, you want to be a movie star, have your picture on the cover of a magazine, or at least make the Sunday funnies? Well, that Howdy Doody mug of yours will never be splashed across the cover of Time, but you can always resort to the next best thing and sit for a caricature drawing. During Welcome Week and Spring Fest, our caricature artist makes everyone a celebrity — and that's the funniest looking group of celebrities we've ever seen.

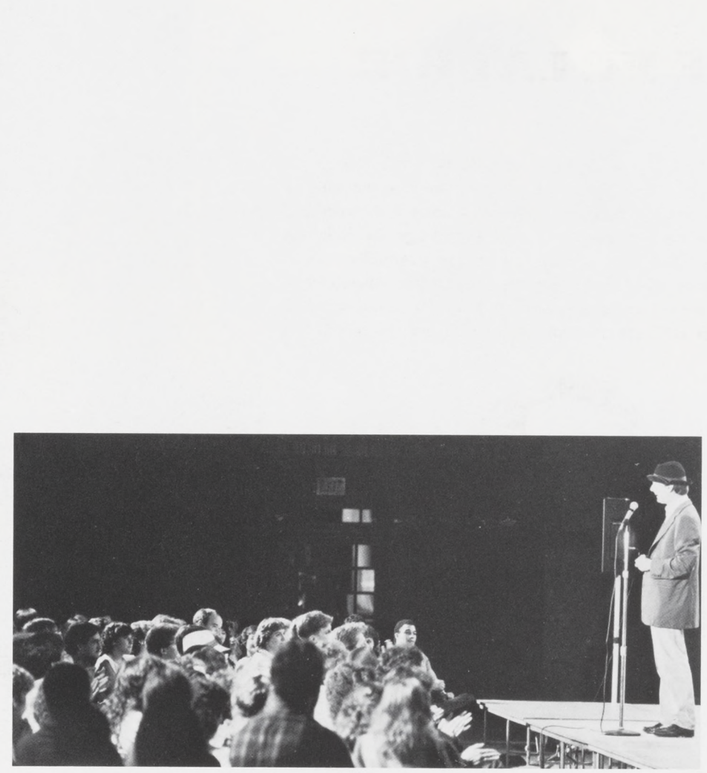

MAKE ME LAUGH!

ESU welcomes the three comedians of the "Make Me Laugh" comedy troop, which is a take-off on the popular television show. To start off with a bang, the comedians do a stand-up routine, and then challenge the audience to a "Make Me Laugh" contest. A twenty-five dollar prize is awarded to those who can withstand the antics of all three comedians without losing their composure. Most contestants laugh right away, some are able to resist for a while, but only a poker-faced few manage to suppress their snickers and gain the prize. Go ahead, "Make Me Laugh" — but whether witty, batty, or bawdy, the laughs are still on us.

FOOT MASSAGE

On a cool September morning, get your feet washed, massaged, and pampered on the steps of the college center. Ex-student Steven Hoog leads a trio of foot massagers as they proceed to make your feet sparkle with energy so that you run eagerly to class. Well, almost!

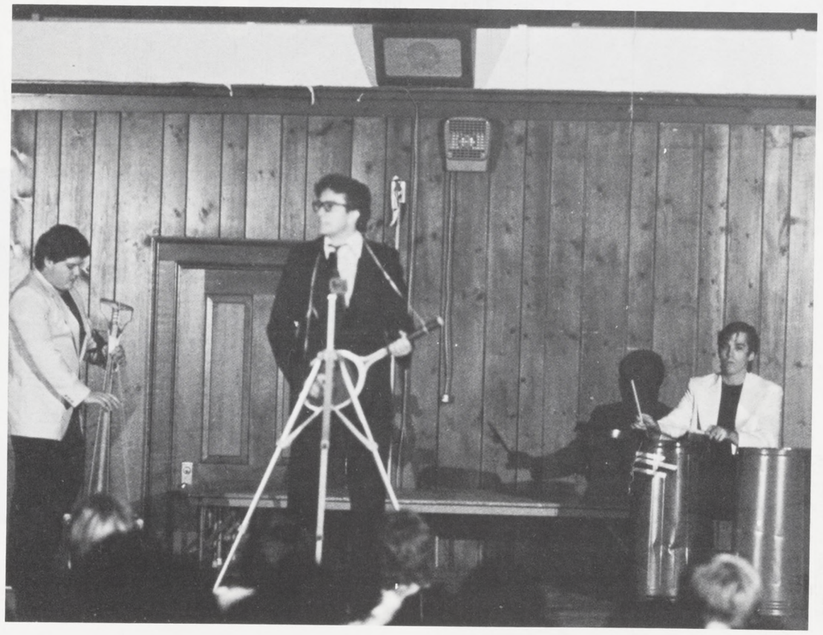

AIR BANDS

Act out your fantasies. Perform in front of hundreds of screaming fans, even though you can't sing your way out of a paper bag. Lip-sync and gyrate as you perform as your favorite groups, like The Go Go's, The Cars, Bette Midler, and the Beach Boys.

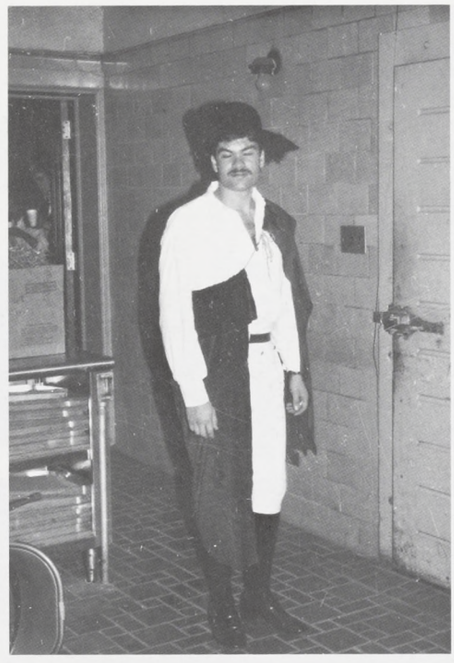

HALLOWEEN PARTY

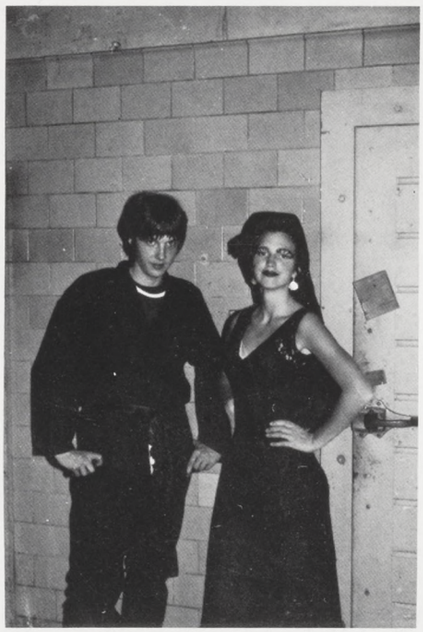

EXIT

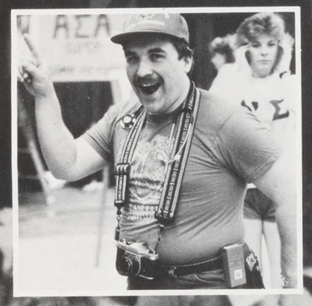

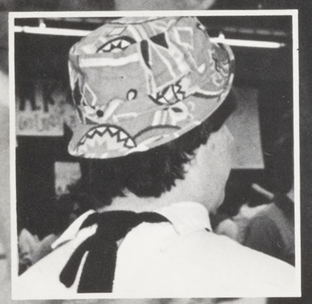

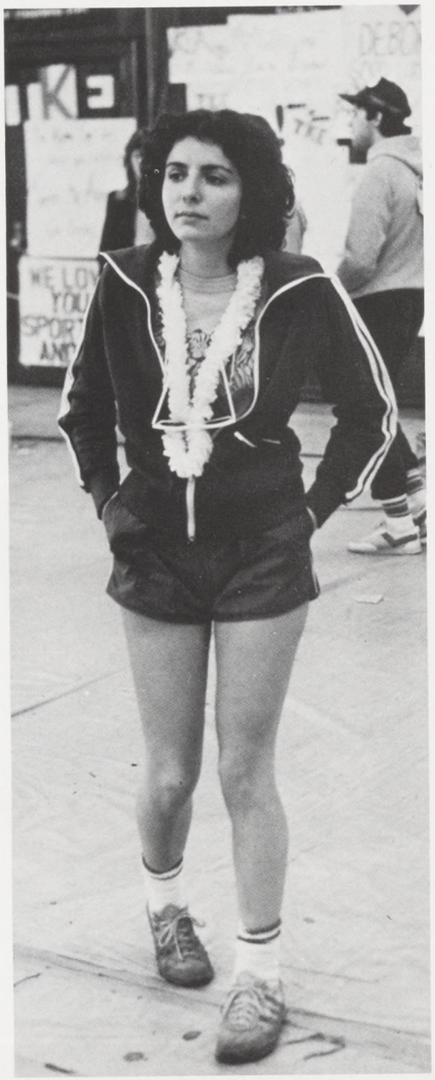

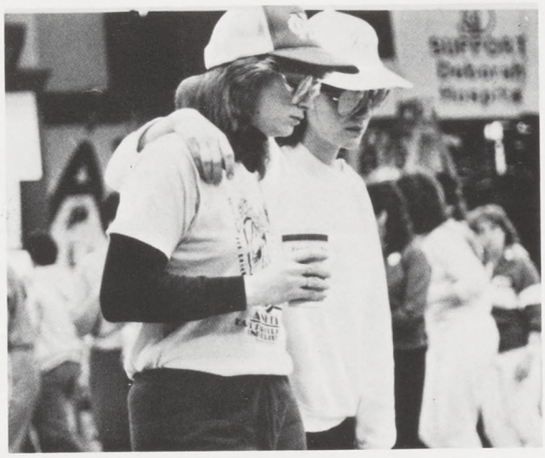

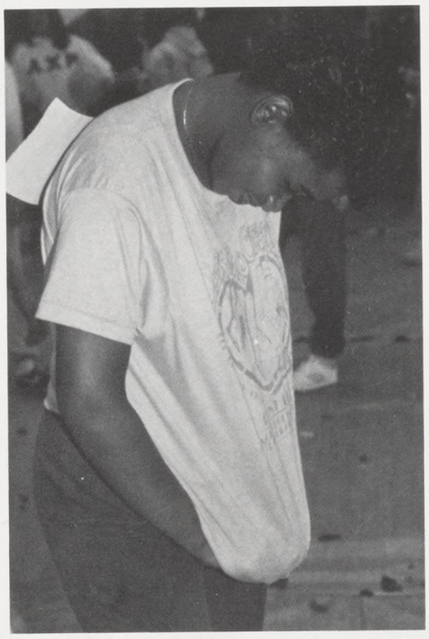

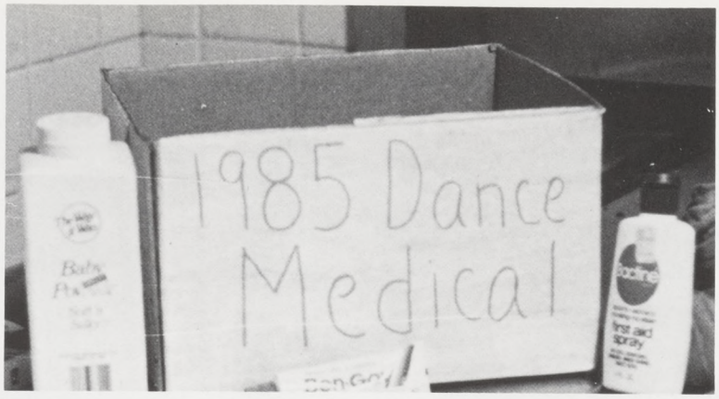

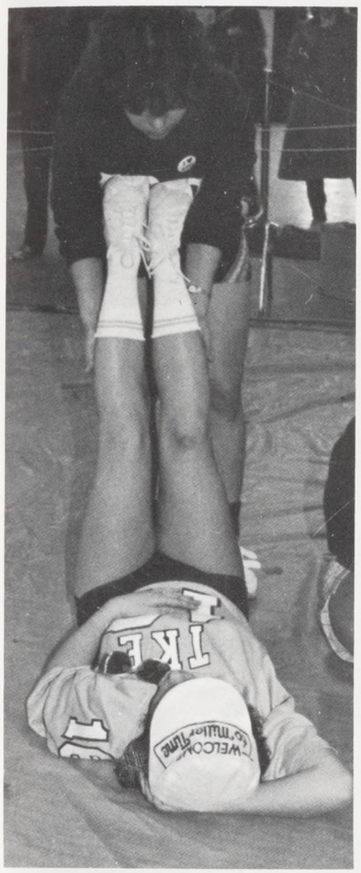

"Let's Go Crazy" is the theme of this years marathon, and even Prince would be proud of ESU's handling of the event. Fueled by Ben Gay, peanut butter sandwiches, and frequent foot massages by Steven Hoog and company, participants literally "bop 'till they drop" for the Deborah hospital fund, raising over $16,000 for this worthy cause.

CPR

Want to save a life? These noble students are taking a class in CPR, which means Cardio-Pulmonary Resusitation. But who are their pale-faced and goggle-eyed victims, er, demonstration volunteers, you ask? Well, don't look now, but they were borrowed from the Homecoming Court and the Fashion Show. Can't you tell?

VARSOVIA

Direct from the sparkling mecca of Poland comes the Varsovia String Quartet for its second visit to ESU. The Varsovia String Quartet performs in front of hundreds in the ESU auditorium, and proves once again to us Yankees here that they are indeed among the best quartets in Europe.

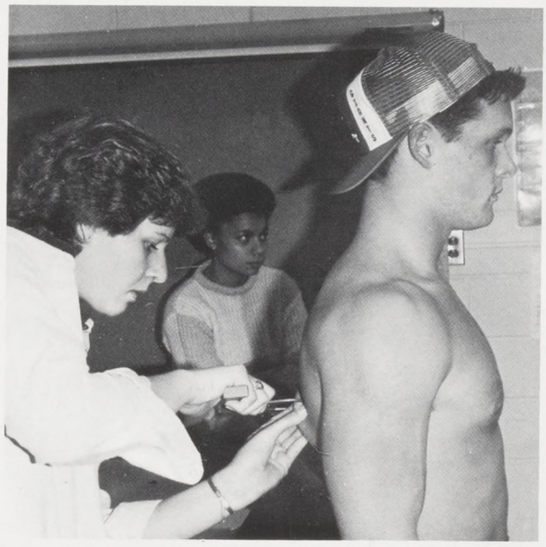

PHIL WOODS

Another successful group to perform for ESU music-lovers is the Phil Woods Orchestra. Students, staff, and faculty all love the beat and the pizzazz that practically radiates off this one.

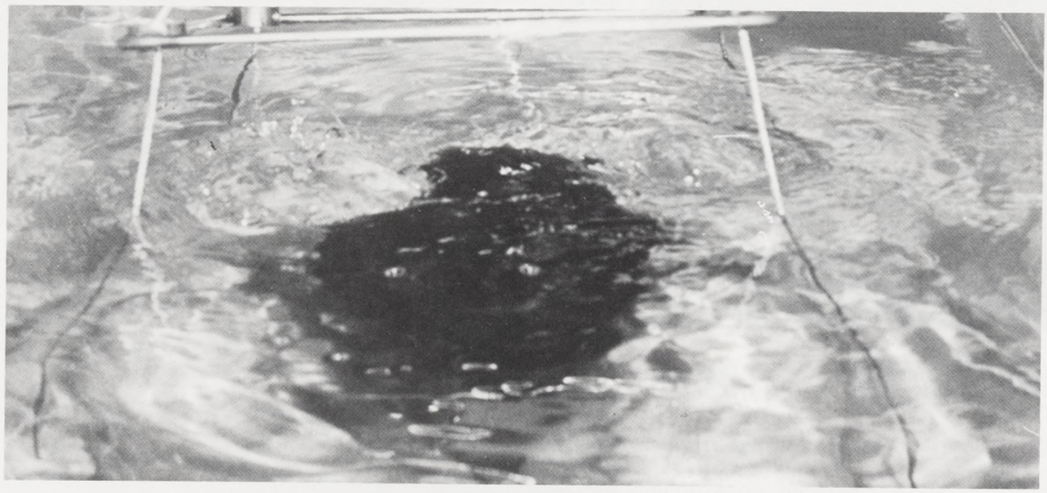

FAT FINDING

Here we go, let's check out the old bod for those extra pounds of FAT! First, we pinch an inch (or a yard), and then we dunk our skunk to see how he floats, although this one here is either bone skinny or door-nail dead.

FASHION SHOW

Here they come, those daring young ladies in their captivating new clothes! From slinky sex-kittens to sulky sirens, ESU's lovelies parade down the avenue inside the Student Union to the tune of whistles and cheers from the lusty young chaps of ESU's male population.

CABO FRIO

Cabo Frio, the critically acclaimed jazz and blues band, makes its second successful appearance of the year at the College Union Board's Spring Fling "High on ESU." For over an hour, the ESU crowd is entertained by the smooth musical stylings of the group from Rochester, New York, who contributes to one of the greatest Fun Days of the year.

KALAIDOSCOPE PRESENTS

The Italians had their Rennaissance, and the Coffeehouse committee figures it is time that they have one, too. 1985 becomes a year of experimentation for the Coffeehouse committee as they try to find the best possible atmosphere through which to present the quality performances that are its hallmark. The experiments, though they continue today, are always a success as can be evidenced by the growing attendance at the performances. People who used to consider jazz, folk, and blues as forms of mutant, aberrant music, start attending the shows and are discovering that they almost missed the boat.

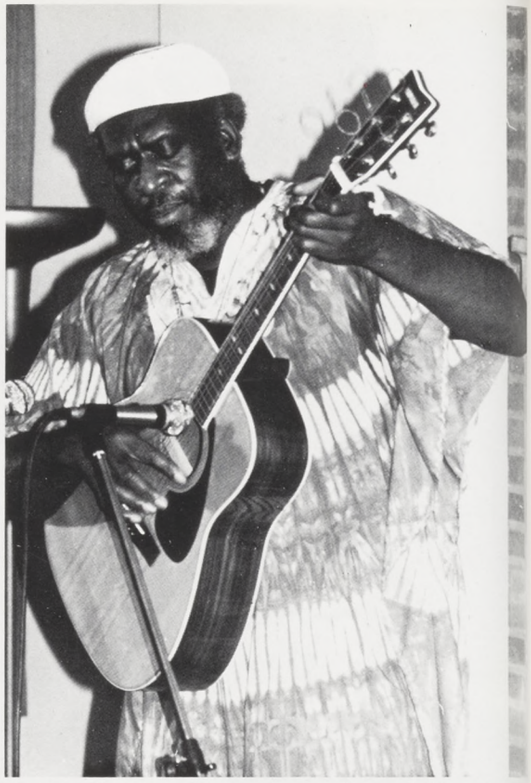

Through wonderful performers such as Barry Drake, George Gritzbach, Elaine Silver, Kim and Reggie Harris, Linda Black, and Reverend Fred Kirkpatrick, the students of ESU are both educated and entertained — no easy feat on any campus.

Films

Larry! Larry! Larry! Almost like Pavlov's dog, everyone knows that the Sunday Night Films never begin until Larry Hummer gives his announcements.

CUB sponsored four different film series: first run, foreign, musicals, and classics. It came as no surprise that the movie which boasted the biggest audience was "Footloose."

While still at bargain rates, the admission fee was raised a whopping 25% due to inflation, forcing poverty-stricken students to hand over one whole buck to see the movie. Shucks and wazoo!

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

A positives as well as O negatives are welcome at the semi-annual Red Cross Blood Drive, which is held this year in Linden Hall. Alarming area shortages make this year's drive even more appreciated, as students and faculty alike contribute substantial donations to this worthy cause. Whoever thought giving blood could be such a blast?

o R: Peter Mushala, John Rourke, Robyn Hartman.

Susan Freundlich

Through a presentation of song and dance routines accompanied by sign language, Susan Freundlich attempts to "bring the language of the deaf to the hearing" and give the latter "the rare opportunity to experience what the deaf world is like." And successful she is, for by combining moving lyrics, graceful dance steps, and sign language, Freundlich evokes the emotion and heightens the sensitivity of every member of the audience . . . an audience that feels each moment of the performance — whether they hear it or not.

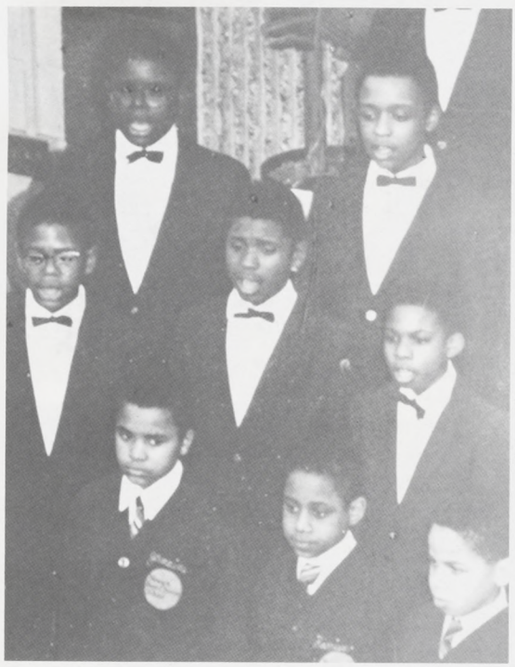

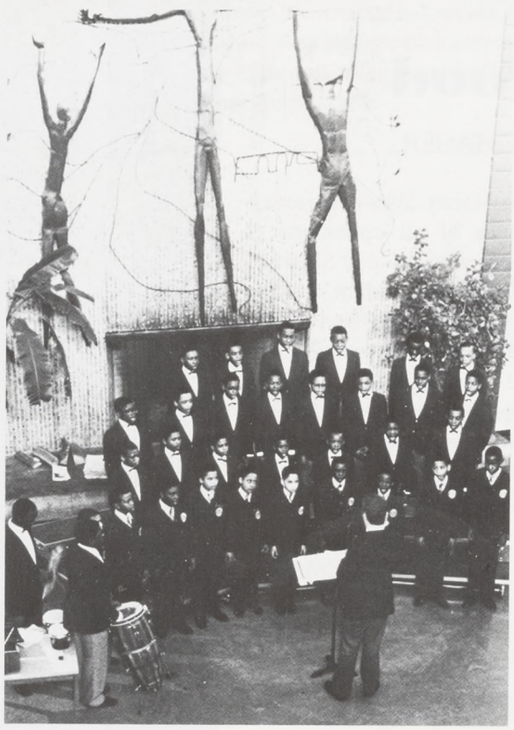

Newark Boys Choir

The Newark Boys Choir has performed all over the world and is considered to be one of the finest choral groups in the country, but this talent is apparently wasted on an ESU audience, one described as "animals" by choir director David Butterfield. Turning deaf ears to the boys' renditions of everything from madrigals and Gospel music to Aaron Copeland and Stevie Wonder, students laugh, shout, and even throw paper airplanes. Our apologies to the Newark Boys Choir; although their performance does not impress or inspire the students of ESU, it is nevertheless an exhibition of rare and commendable talent.

C.U.B. Speakers

Dick Gregory

DICK GREGORY . . .

Dick Gregory deals with the controversial concerns over the basic citizen in America, and feels that "you can make a difference" in nuclear war, unrepresentative government functions, and citizens rights issues.

Silkwood

ROBERT HAGER . . .

Questions concerning Karen Silkwood remain foremost in the minds of all opponents of nuclear power. Ten years to the day Silkwood died in a mysterious auto accident, lawyer Robert Hager discusses his former clients case. Using Silkwood as "a model of an ordinary person who, when faced with a problem, stood up and spoke out," Hager encourages students to rally for causes which they feel are just — whether their adversaries be the nuclear industry, or just the local electric company.

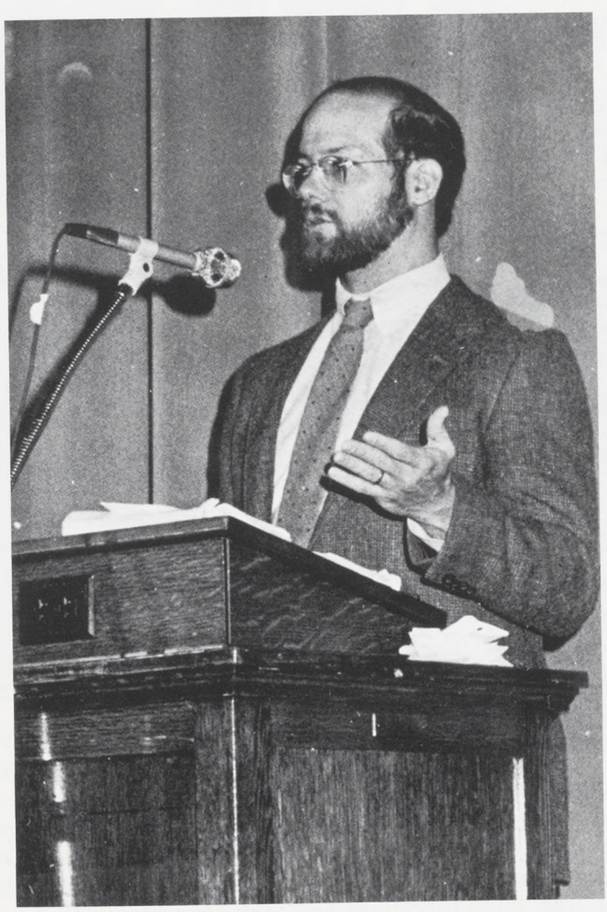

Holocaust

HELEN WATERFORD . . .

ESU takes part in the national celebration of the end of World War II with a dual presentation by Helen Waterford, a survivor of Auschwitz, and Alfons Heck, a former general in Adolph Hitler's Youth Corps. The how's and why's of the Holocaust are examined as Waterford recounts the horrors of Auschwitz . . . "I have seen people hanging in the electric fence wires because they couldn't stand life anymore," and Heck explains the Nazi brainwashing techniques which allowed those horrors to be realized . . . "In their (the Nazi's) captivation of the young . . . they succeeded brilliantly." Through their poignant words and painful recollections, Waterford and Heck show that victimization can take many forms, but more importantly, they prove through their united efforts that "formerly great enemies can work together for peace."

ALFONS HECK . . .

Playboy

JAMES PETERSON . . .

"M," the author of The Sensuous Man, has nothing on Playboy Advisor James Peterson, who feels that the Boy Scout Motto of "Be Prepared" applies to sex as well as to forest fires. Peterson, Playboy's widely acclaimed "sex expert," offers his advice on such previously taboo topics as masturbation and performance anxiety, while all the while emphasizing the importance of the need for communication and consideration between partners. The Advisor answers questions which curious-but-shy audience members have anonymously submitted — questions ranging from romance to oral sex. Peterson closes his entertaining and informative lecture by reciting for the audience the Advisor Oath . . . "I am incredible in bed, and when someone else is there, I'm even better."

High on ESU

Spring Fling '85 at ESU is a great success again this year as students participate in the assortment of activities available to guarantee a really fun week. Monday starts the festival off right with a titillating lecture from Playboy's advisor, James Peterson. Tuesday, determined not to be up-staged, brings with it the taste-tempting delights of an ice cream social. Wednesday is a double-feature with corny caricatures and hairy Homegrowns in the Union. Thursday is tense with excitement over the film "High Anxiety," shown outside on the Quad. On Friday, comedian Tim Cavanaugh performs to a T.G.I.F. crowd, and on Saturday, the fun really flows with the Vaudeville act "Bounce and OOO La La," the jazz band "Cabo Frio," the musician-comedian Scott James, the hypnotist Ken Weber, and, as a final show-stopper topper, a Video Dance in the Annex. By the end of the night, there isn't a single partier left who isn't "High On ESU."

SPORTS

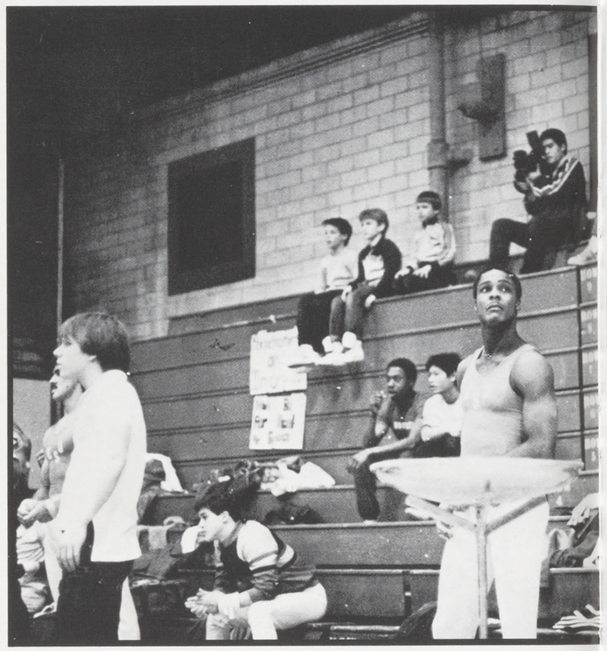

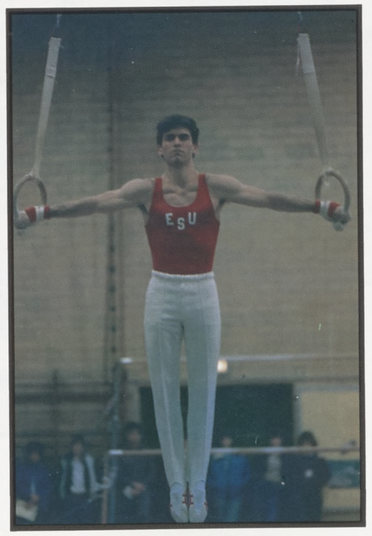

Men's Gymnastics (10-1, USGF National Champion, EIGL Co-Champion)

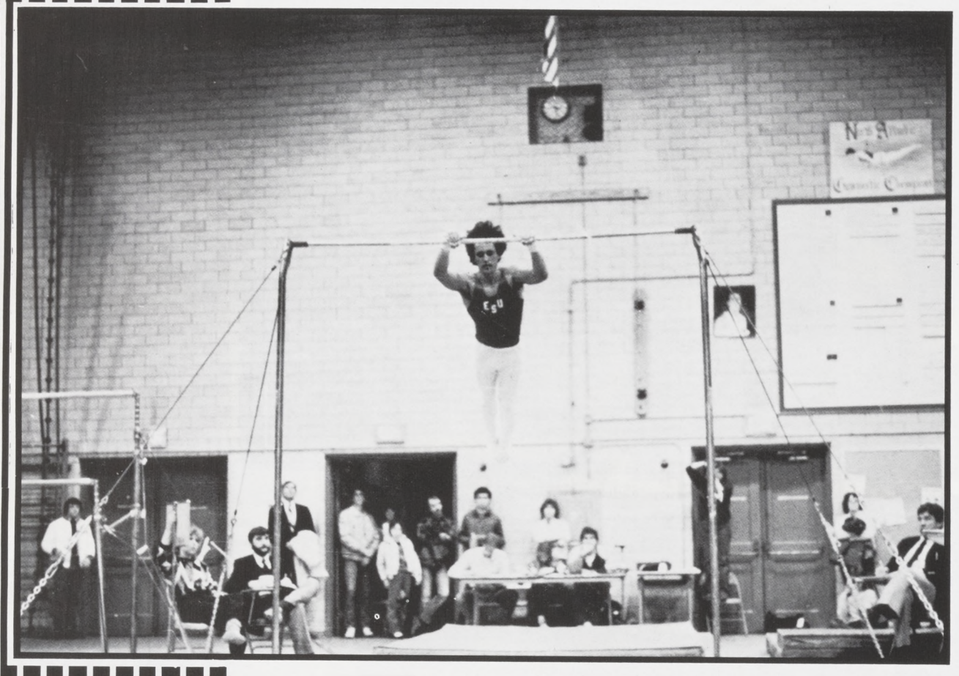

It is another championship season for Coach Bruno Klaus and his ESU men's gymnastics team. The Warriors win the first United States Gymnastics Federation Collegiate Championship for Division II and III teams and tie for first in the Eastern Intercollegiate League.

It is the third straight national title for the ESU gymnasts, who won the NCAA Division II championship in both 1983 and 1984.

The Warriors finish with a 10-1 dual-meet record, beating all seven EIGL opponents including ten-time champion Southern Connecticut which ends the Owls' 23-meet league winning streak. The only loss is to NCAA runnerup Penn State.

In the EIGL championship meet, Coach Klaus' team sets a school record of 273.60 points, but still place second to Temple's 275.10.

Three ESU gymnasts win national titles — Joao Luiz Ribeiro in the all around and side horse, Jamie Clements on the still rings and Russell Wallace in the vaulting. Ribeiro is an EIGL champion on the high bar while Devot Garrett, who missed the USGF nationals, wins the EIGL floor exercise title and ties for first in the vaulting. Felipe Sanchez and Dennis Vazquez also are USGF All-Americans.

Women's Field Hockey

Women's Field Hockey (4-11-1)

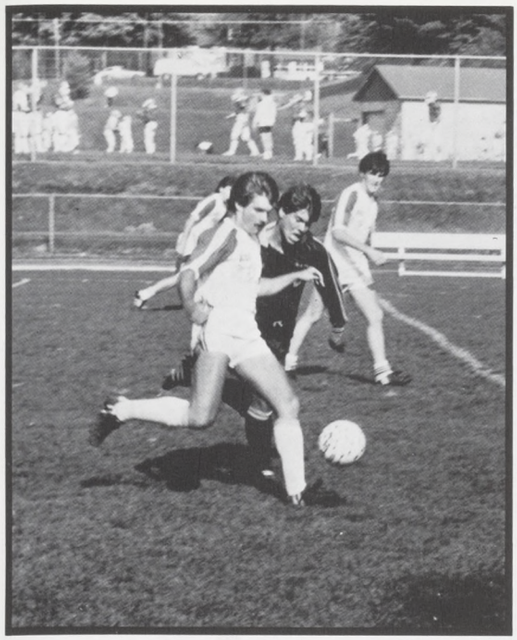

The Warriors send one of their youngest field hockey teams over into the 1984 season under new coach Sandy Miller. Nine of the 14 letter-winners are freshmen and sophomores, eight of whom are new to the ESU program.

Five of the team's losses are by a single goal or in overtime and two other defeats are by a two-goal margin. The Warriors carry nationally-ranked C. W. Post into overtime before losing.

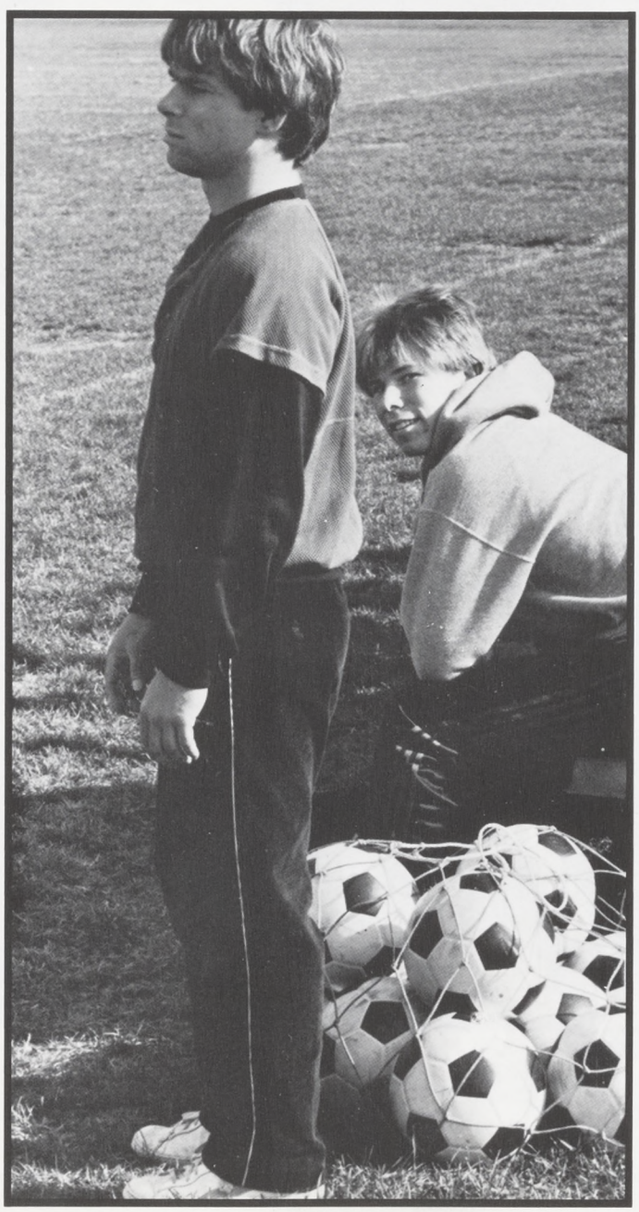

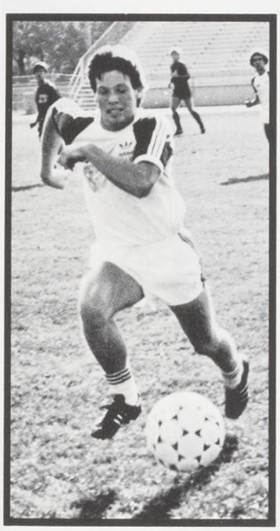

MEN'S SOCCER (13-6, School Record for Most Regular-Season Wins)

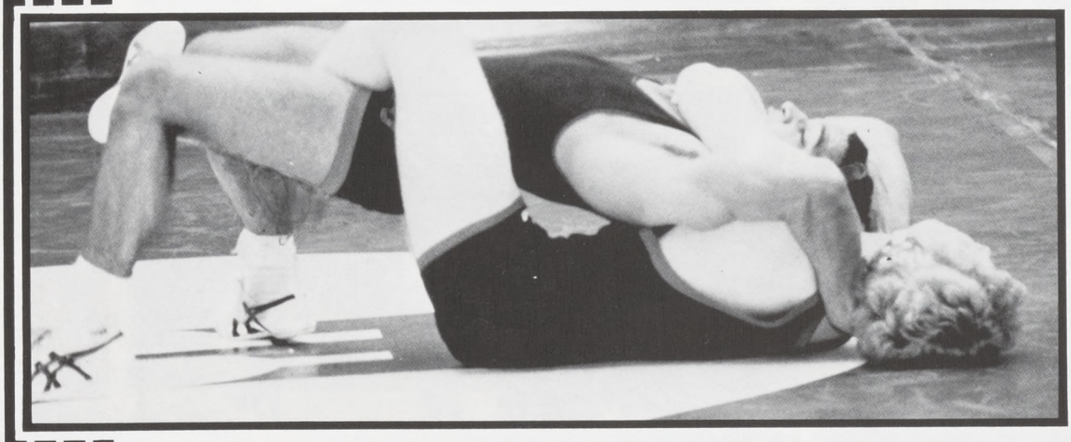

The Warriors set a school regular-season victory record with a 13-6 mark and place second in the Pennsylvania Conference Eastern Division during the 1984 campaign.

Coach Jerry Sheska's squad has a potent offensive punch, scoring 53 goals, only two short of the school record. The single-game high is in a 7-1 romp over arch-rival West Chester, which represents the most one-sided series win ever over the Golden Rams and the most ESU goals in a game in 15 years.

The Warriors have wins over five NCAA Division I opponents and nearly stun Penn State, leading 1-0 before the Nittany Lions score with 3:18 remaining in regulation and then score three overtime goals against a short-handed, ten-man ESU squad for a 4-1 win.

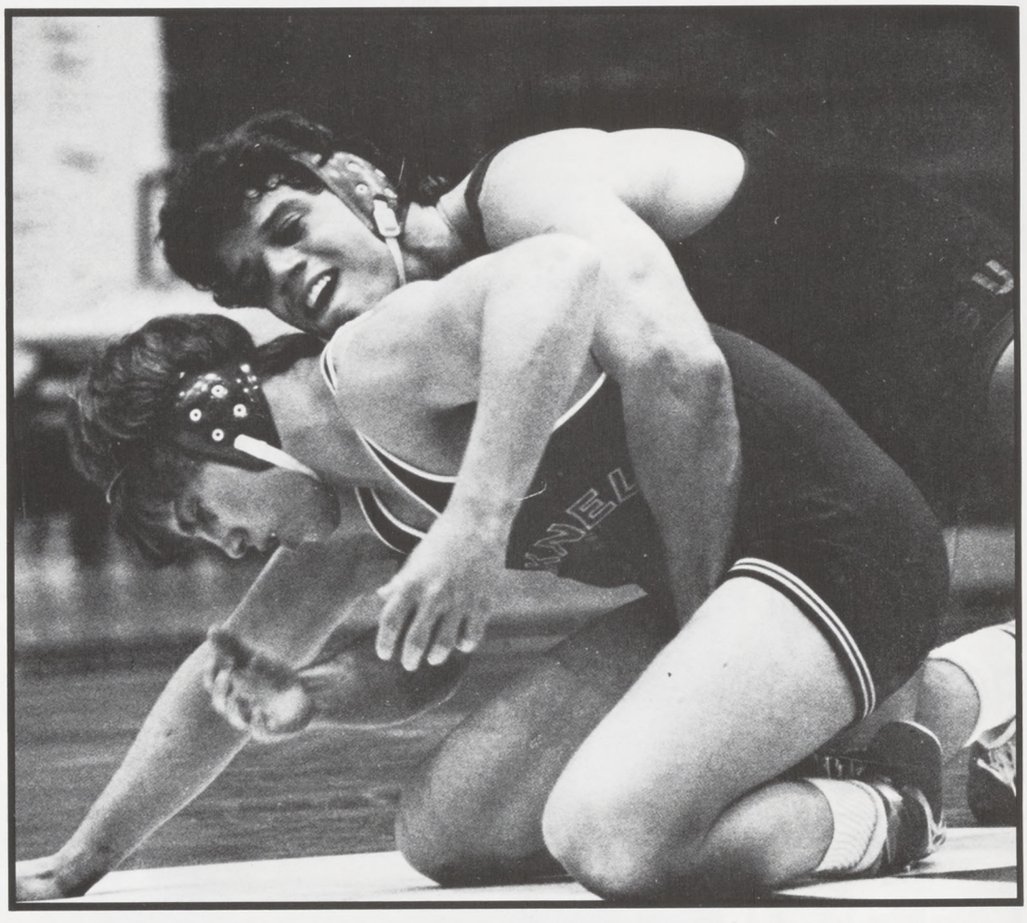

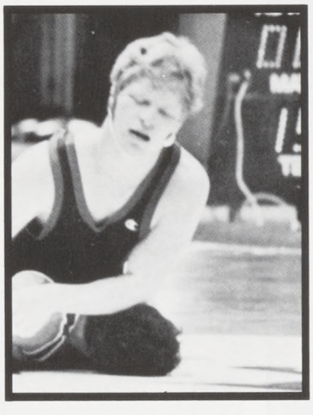

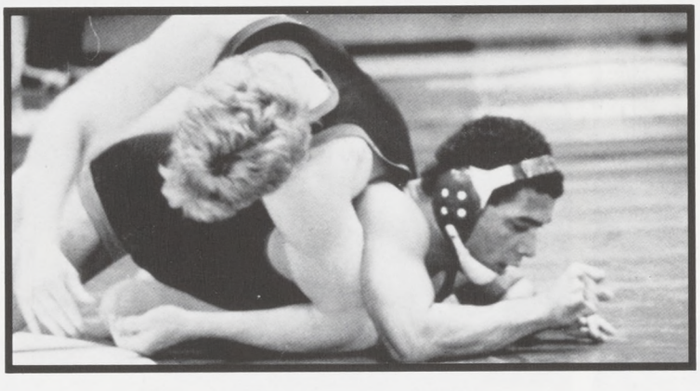

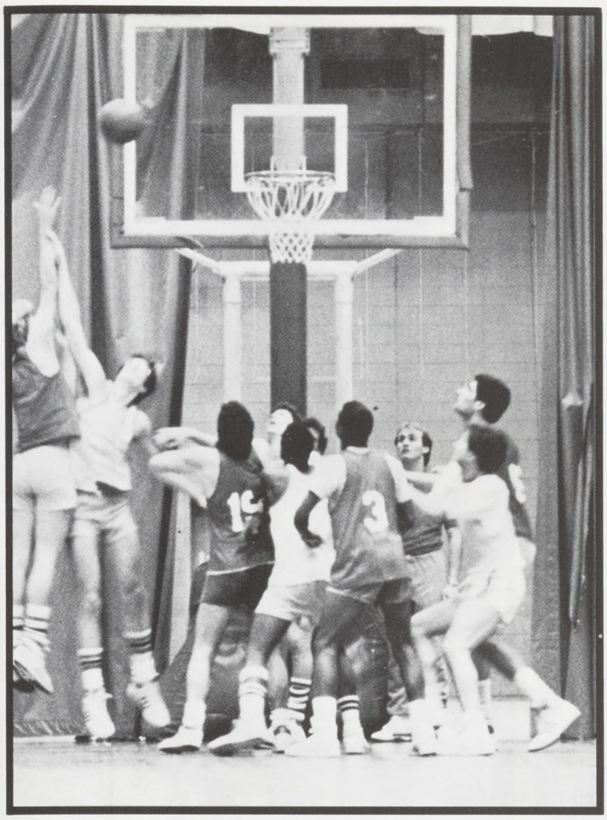

MEN'S WRESTLING (14-7)

Coach Bob Dalling's ESU wrestlers tie a school record for most victories in a season with 14 and almost reverse the 1983-84 record of 7-16. The team beats the nine opponents it lost to the previous year. There also is an improvement of two places to sixth in the team's Pennsylvania Conference finish.

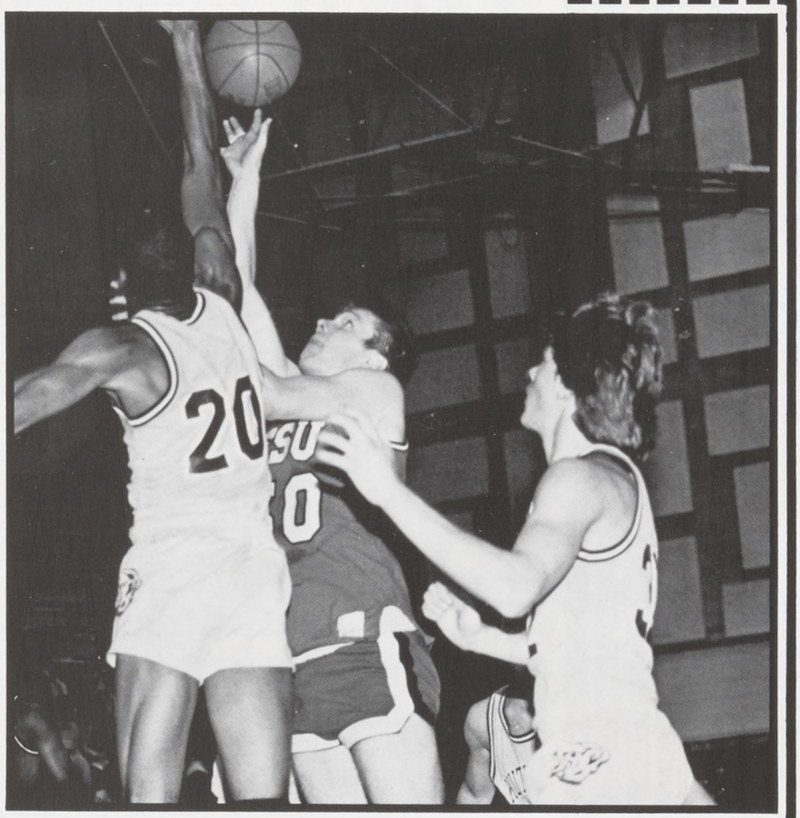

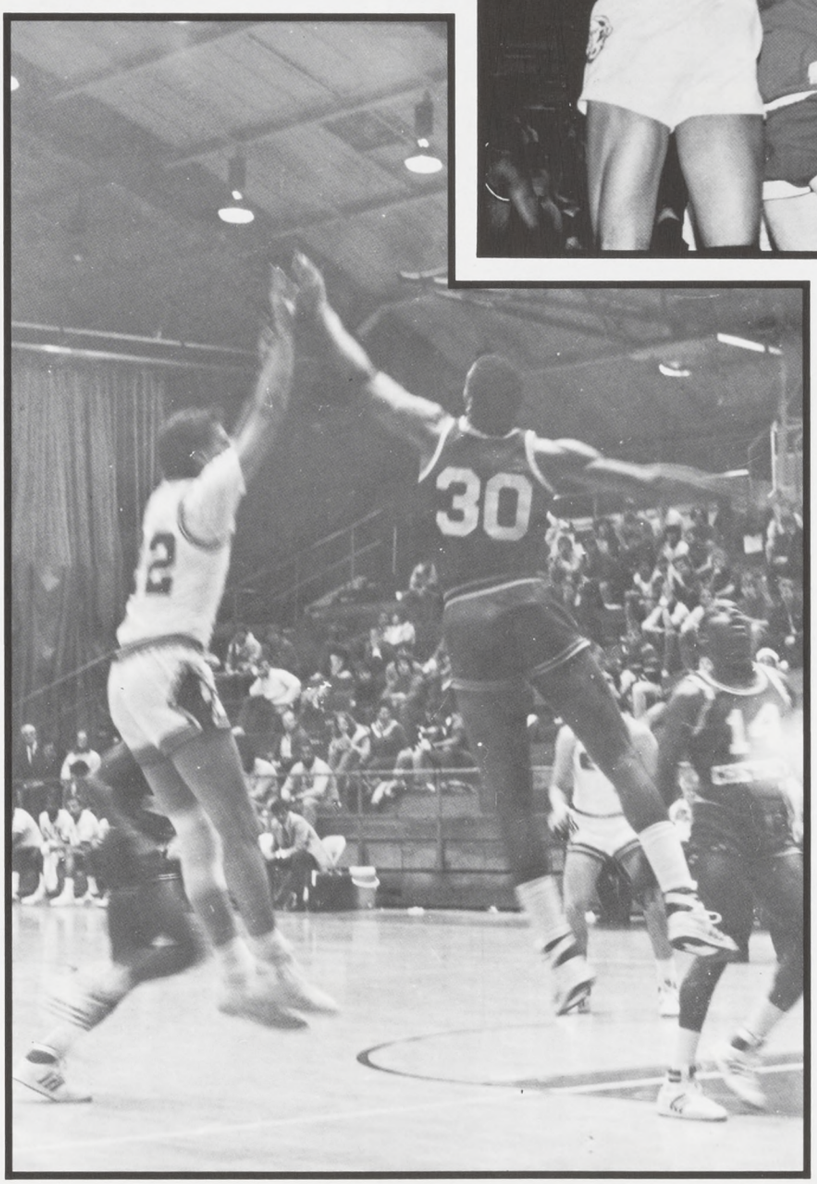

MEN'S BASKETBALL (3-24)

The Warriors have perhaps their youngest and least experienced men's basketball team ever with five new starters and a roster of five freshmen and four sophomores.

The team wins its first and last games, both over Kutztown, but in between, there is only one victory, a decision over West Chester. It ends a 20-game losing streak.

Coach Lee Roberts' squad still is in contention in many of the contests, losing to conference champion Millersville by two points on a last-second shot, to Division I Rider by four points and to LeMoyne by one point.

Football

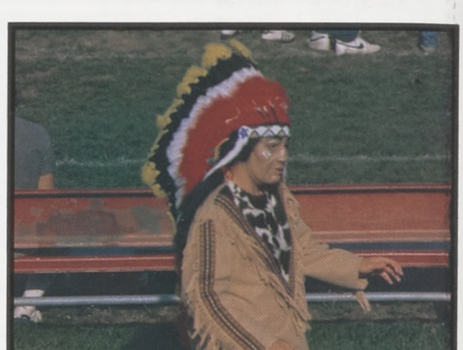

FOOTBALL (5-5)

The Warriors strike often and quickly through the air during the 1984 football season behind the arm of Kodak Coaches' All-America first team quarterback Andy Baranek.

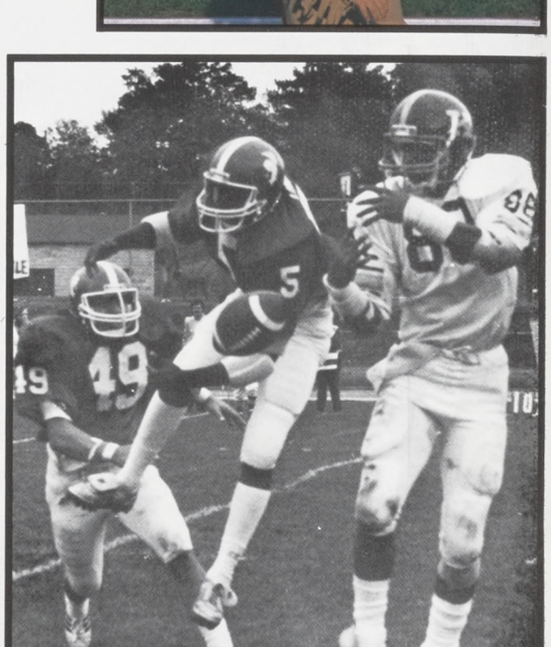

The team finished fourth in the nation in passing offense with an average of 278.6 yards per game. There are seven passes of better than 50 yards, six of them for touchdowns.

With their passing ability, the Warriors are in contention in every game but still finish with only a 5-5 record. In the five losses, they average 24 points per game, but give up an average of close to 36 points per contest.

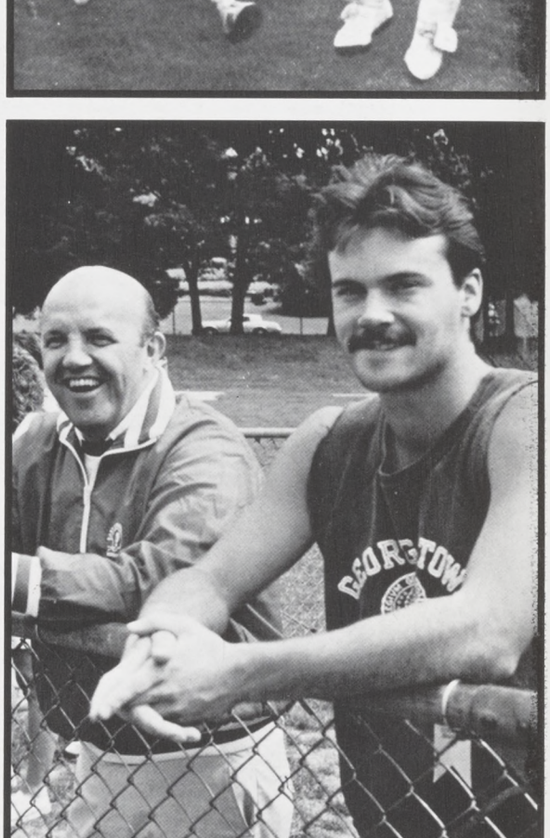

The Warriors score major wins over Southern Connecticut, 15-10, and Montclair State 10-7, on a touchdown pass with 1:44 remaining.

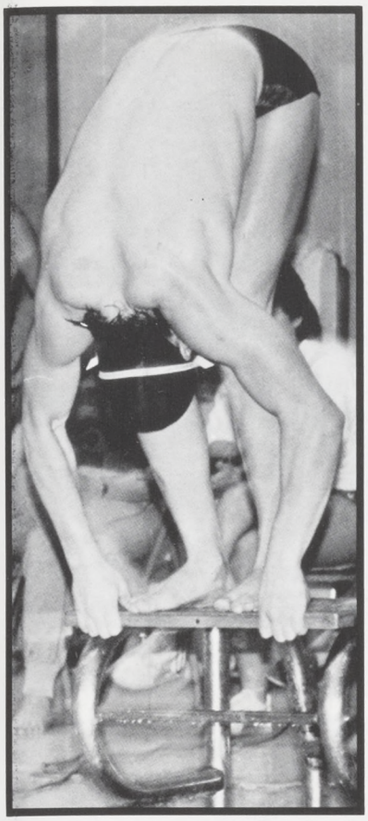

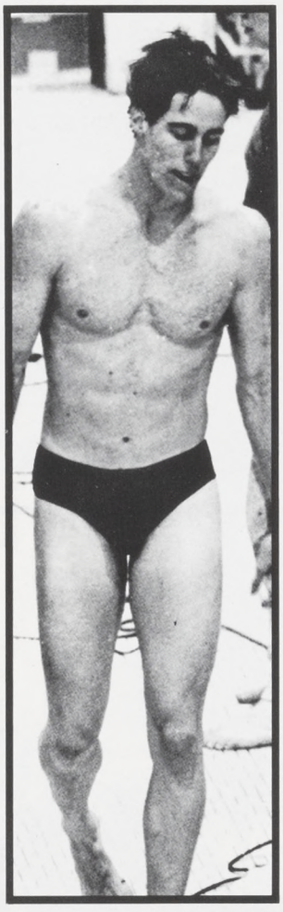

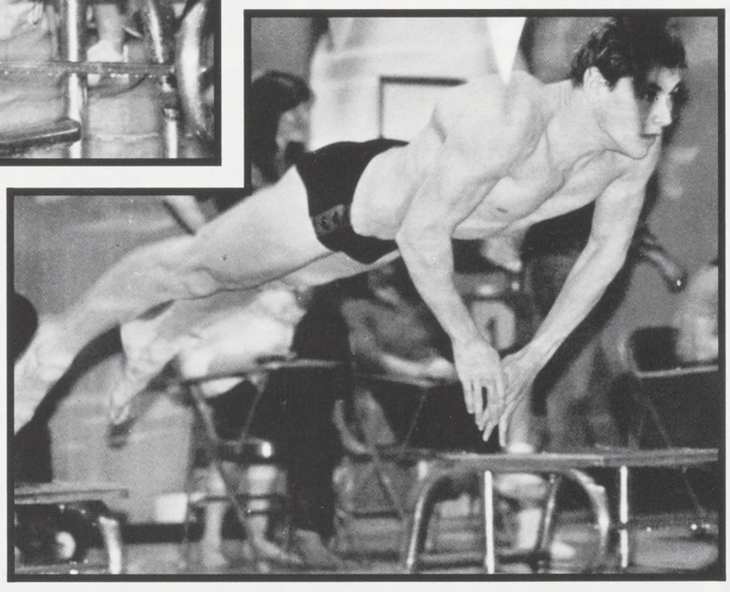

MEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING (4-7)

Bob Krayer leads the swimmers and All-America Doug Miller and Mike Kellermann, the divers, for an improved East Stroudsburg Men's swimming and diving team. The Warriors moved up two places to sixth and scored 51 points more than in 1984 in the Pennsylvania Conference championships.

The Warriors have one other PC finalist in Kip Emig, 6th in the 200 backstroke. Butterflier Ken Krell, freestyle sprinter Dan Orledge and distance swimmer Sean McKernan are the team's other top scorers.

BASEBALL (25-18)

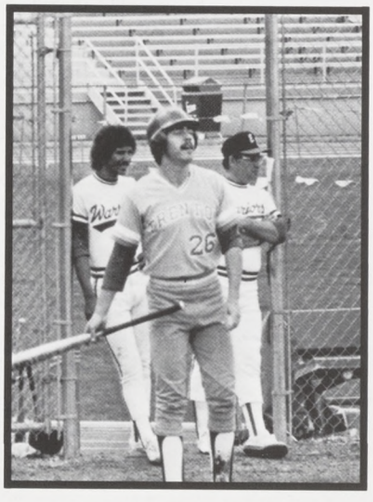

The Warriors set a school record for most baseball victories in a season — 25, win the Pennsylvania Conference Northern Division championship, and finish as runnerup in the PC championship playoff during an outstanding 1985 baseball campaign.

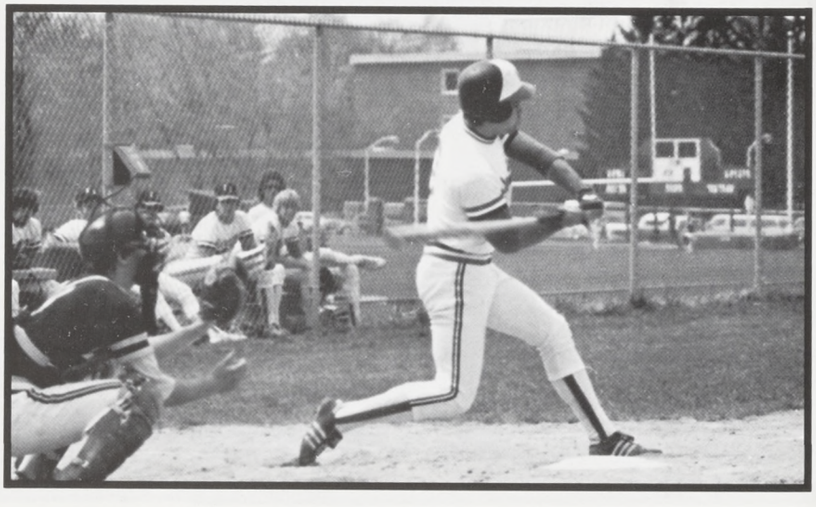

After a 2-3 PC start, Coach Glenn Hayes' baseballers win 11 straight conference games, sweeping doubleheaders over all three division rivals — Bloomsburg, Mansfield and Lock Haven. They win their first playoff game over California, 6-3, but then lose to West Chester, 11-8. They battle back, however, beating both Shippensburg, 5-4, and Westchester, 2-1, before a final game 4-0 loss in a third meeting against West Chester.

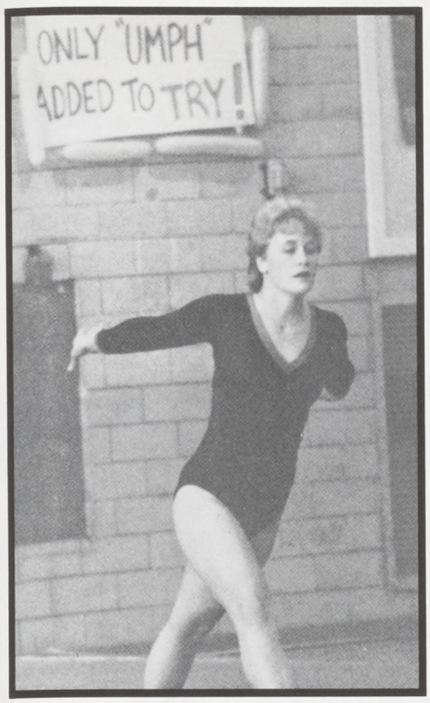

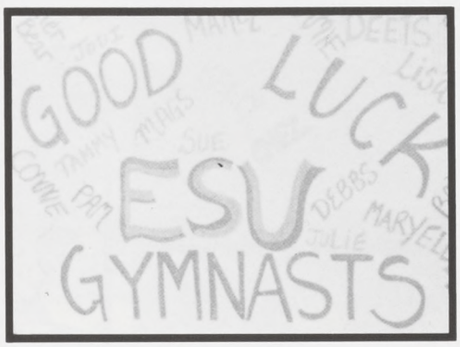

The Warriors have seven .300 hitters as the team posts an overall .319 batting mark. Outfielder Bob Siemon hit .367 followed by Bishop .340, Tischauser .333, Vyskocil .319, Becker .318 and designated hitter-outfielder Billy Hill .306.

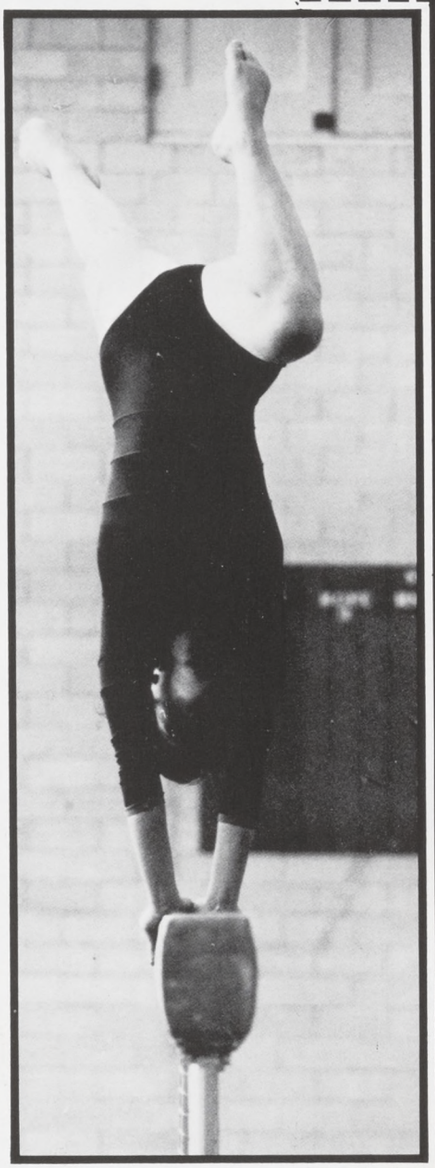

In the NCAA Division II tournament played at West Chester, the Warriors lose back-to-back games to Shippensburg, 7-2, and Valdosta, Ga., 16-3.

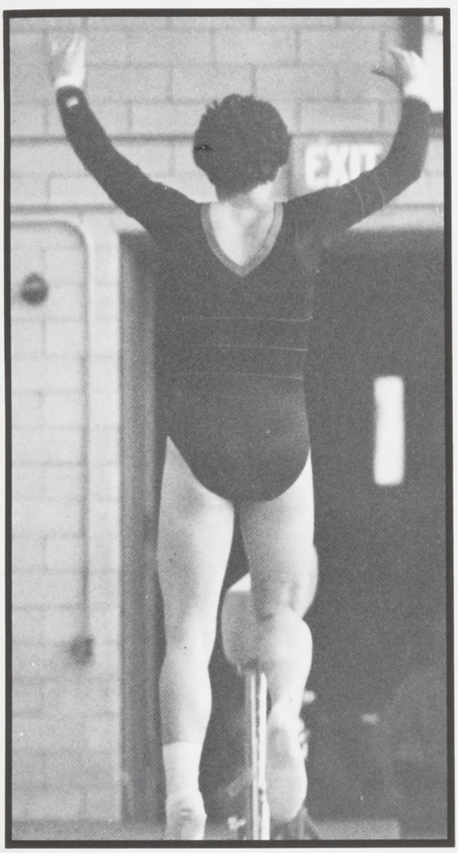

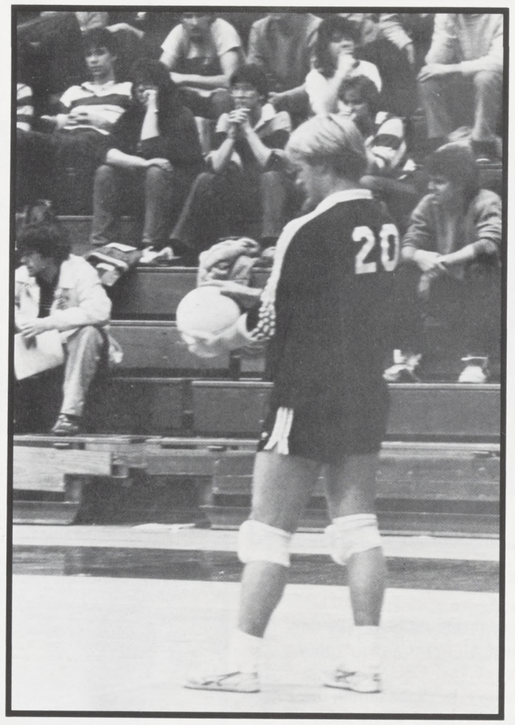

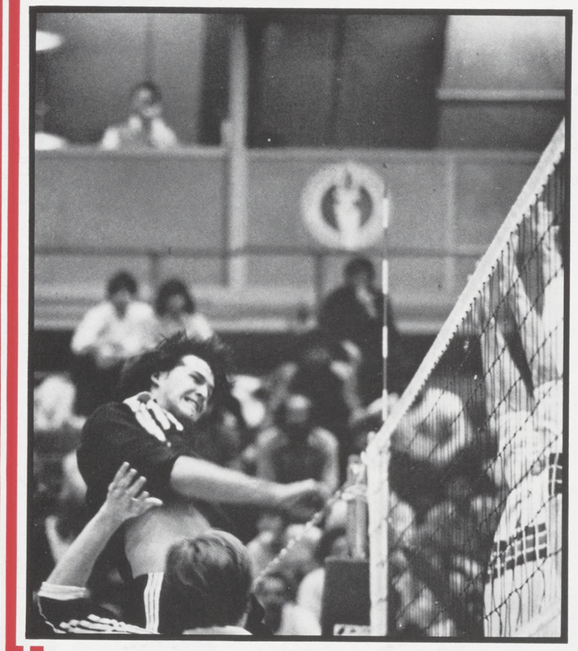

WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS (2-11)

The record might not be outstanding, but the individual improvement shown by members of the ESU Women's Gymnastics team take place during the 1984-85 season. First-year Linda Renehan has an extremely young team with only one senior among the eventual 14-letter-winners.

The team improves its score almost continually throughout the season and hits a high of 158.10 points in the final dual meet. Brygier and Diana Outhouse both top 31 points in the all-around in the meet.

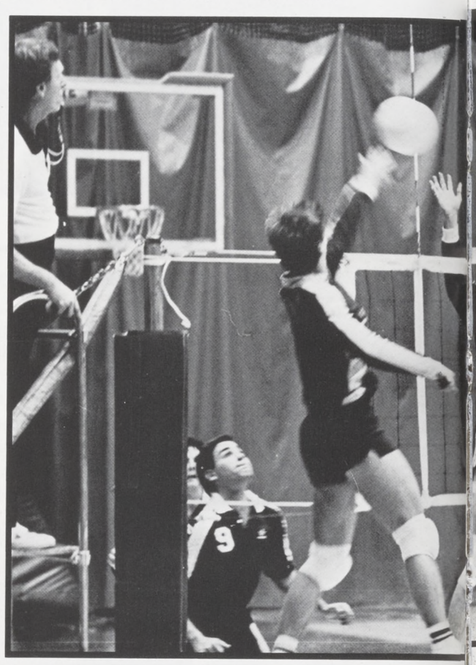

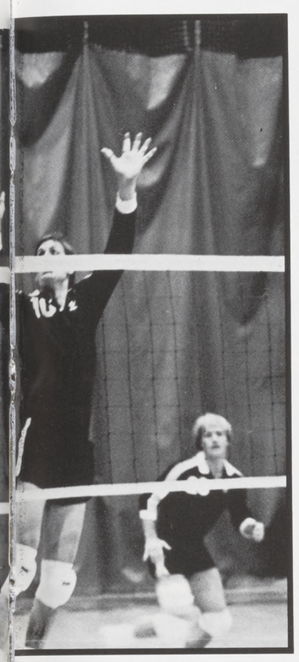

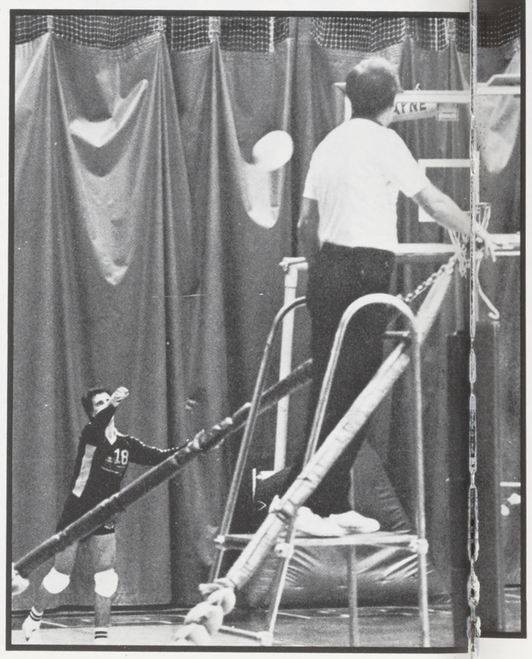

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL (28-5)

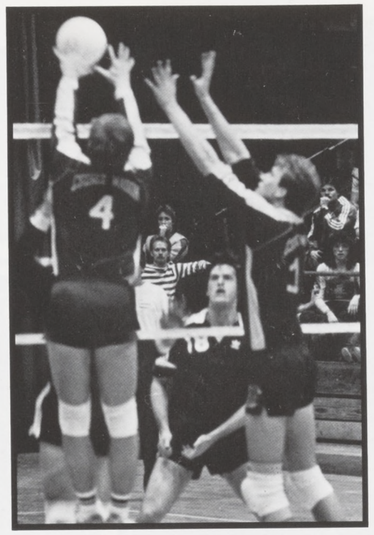

The Warriors match their best Eastern Collegiate Volleyball League finish as a varsity team by placing third in the ECVL championship playoffs. Of the five losses, four are to league champion George Mason with only one of these defeats, however, in straight games.

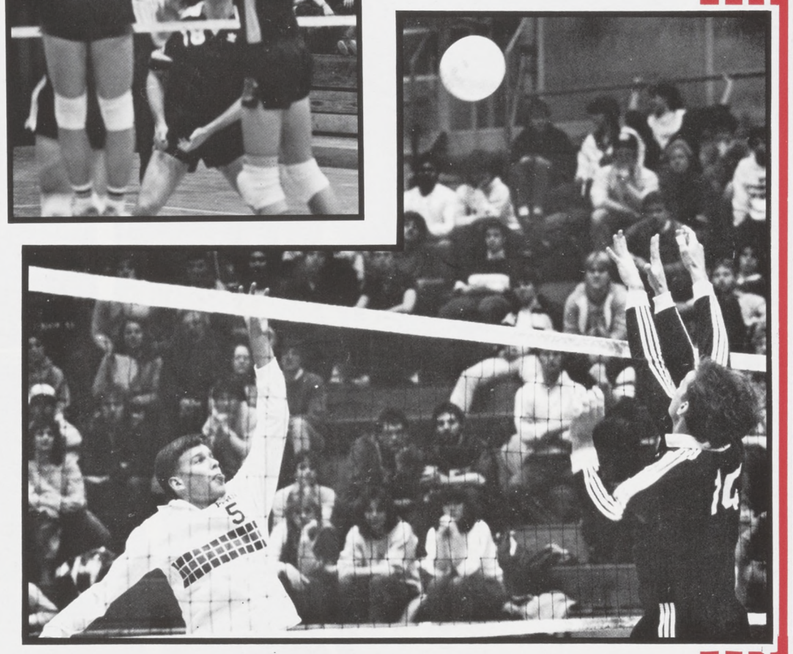

The team beats Penn State for the first time in seven years before a large enthusiastic crowd in the Koehler Fieldhouse, 15-7, 15-10, 9-15, 15-8. Another major win is scored over nationally-ranked Ohio State in the finals of the Edinboro Tournament. The Warriors finish first in tournaments both at New Jersey Tech and Edinboro, and are second in the ECVL Open 'A' Tournament.

PERSPECTIVES

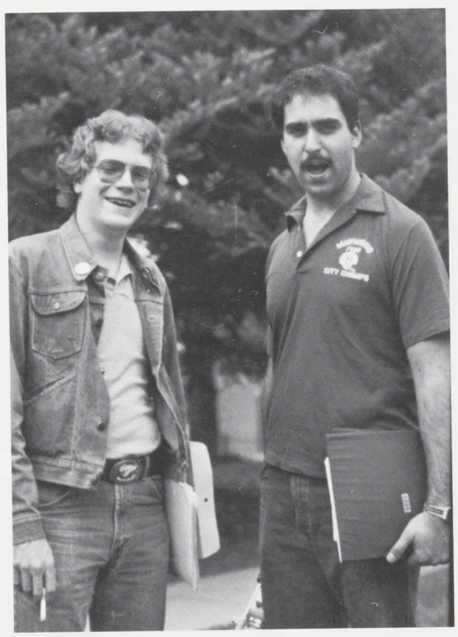

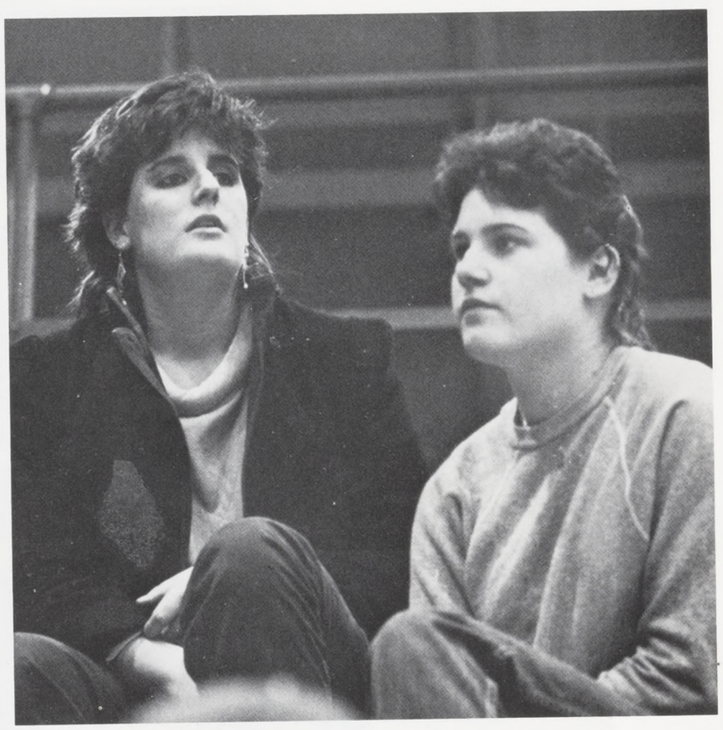

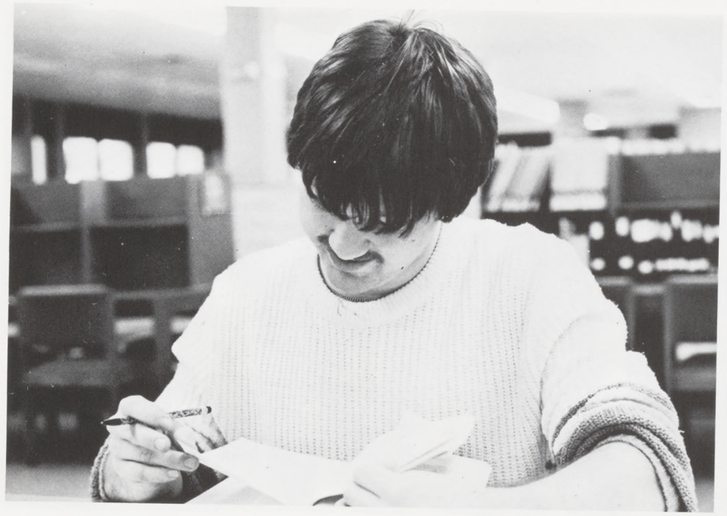

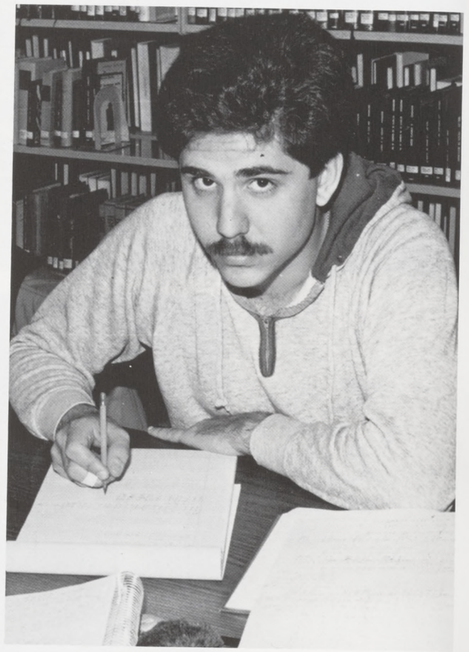

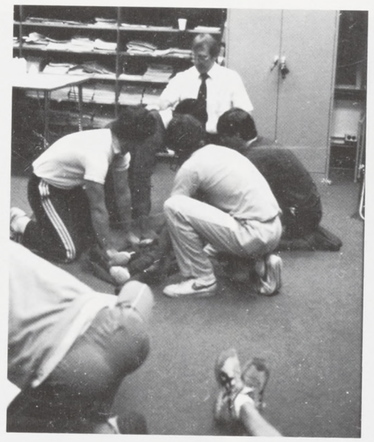

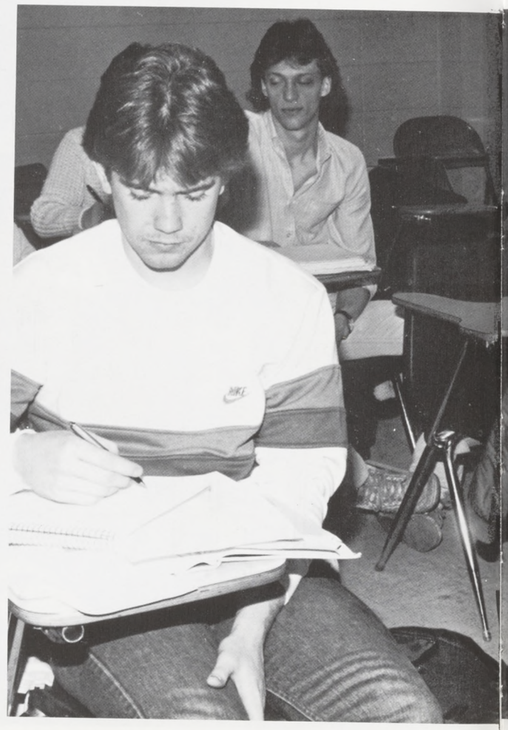

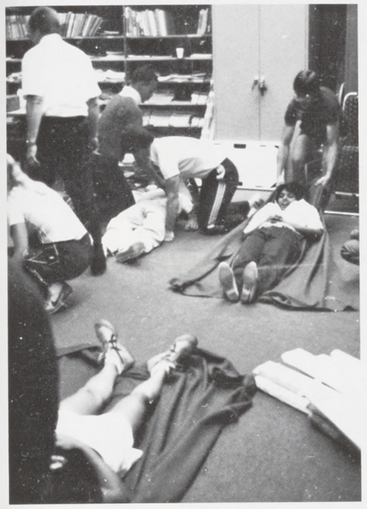

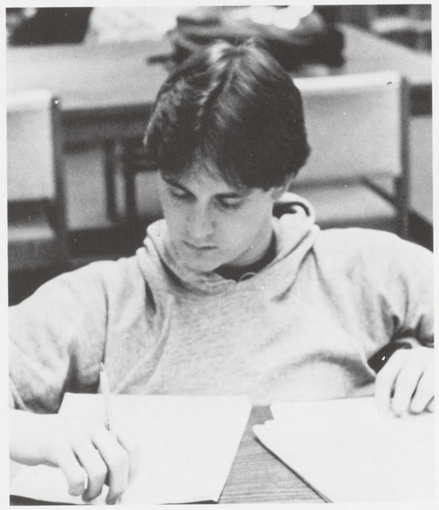

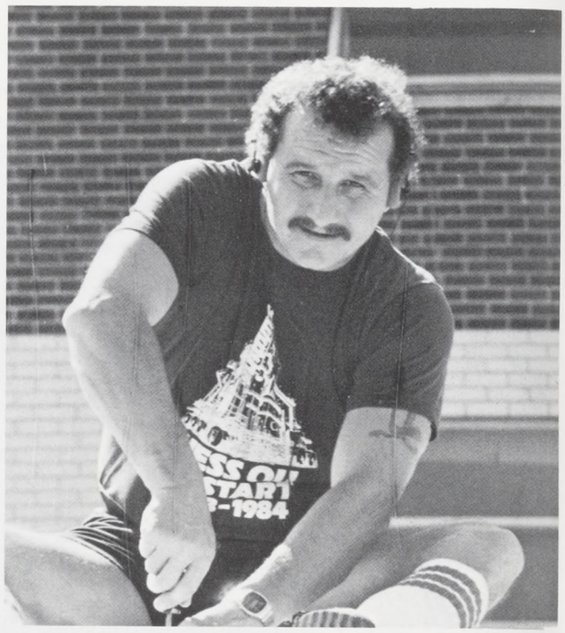

Oh, the drudgery. Will it never end? Sometimes it's hard to believe the extent of torture which can be endured by the human mind and body. And alas, the only route of escape is through continued diligent study which will one day lead to graduation. But then, friends, the drudgery only begins anew when we trade our books for briefcases. Wonder if these poor students realize what they're letting themselves in for? Ah well — it's the price we pay for enlightenment and a Mercedes Benz.

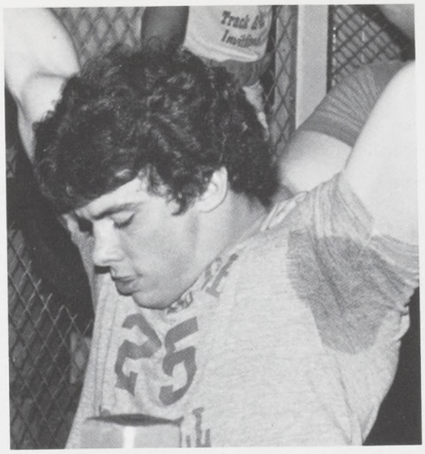

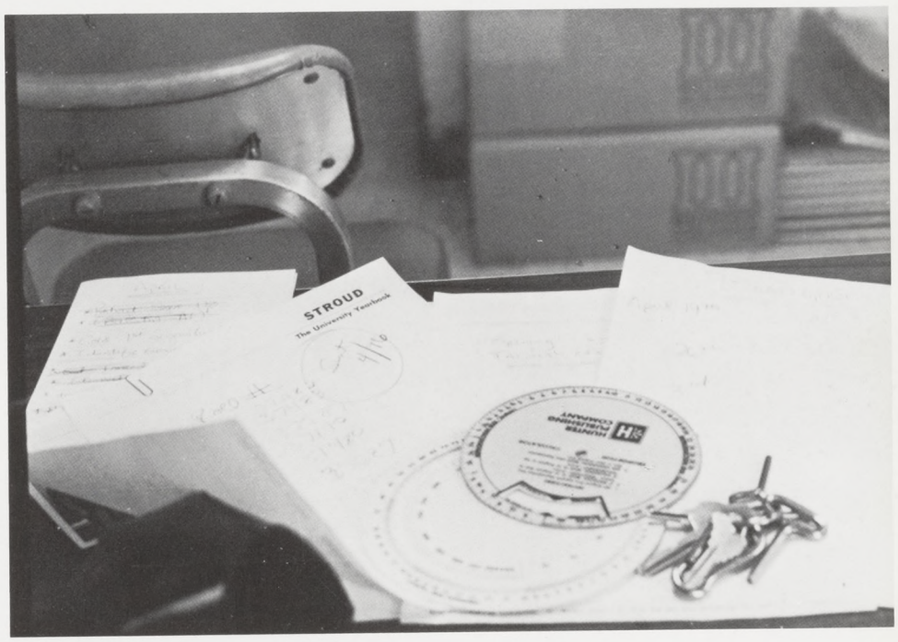

Every college town has one: a favorite place where students go to relax, party, and forget about papers, tests, and classes. For us, that place is Rudy's, which has been recognized for years as the official ESU hangout. Joked about by teachers, despised by townspeople, and revered by students, Rudy's and its 35 cent draughts will be forever dear to the hearts of many who often awoke with a crashing headache — the painful consequence of a night before spent hoisting endless brews at that beloved bar.

If this isn't an oasis in the desert, what is? The college center provides students with a welcome reprieve from obligations and schedules by acting as an arena for gossip, a place to score with the opposite sex, and a convenient area for grabbing a much-needed catnap. Add to this its use as a theater for the presentation of coffeehouses and CUB events, and the college center becomes an irreplaceable fixture on the campus of ESU.

Everyone has to eat, right? Sometimes we'd rather not submit to that fact, given the frequent complaints about ESU food quality, but everything considered, the cafeteria and snack bar really aren't bad places to fill your face. Just think of them as academic Burger Kings.

My years at ESU were filled with both many highs and lows. I met some very interesting people and made some lifelong friends. I'll never forget my times at ESU. Here are a few names that will always stay with me: Swid, Zoo Hanlon Softball, Glue Crew, ESU Football ('82 champion season), 211 Linden with Baublitz, Pat Monahan, 25A South 7th Street, Twig (Richie 202), Quinney (man and dog), Kovs, Parksy, the Quad, the Caf, the Union, ESU Lacrosse, and, of course, not to forget all the lovely women at ESU (psych.). And Lynstan parties in '80-81 must be included. To all those I've seen come and go, 'tis my time to bid farewell — it was fun (I think?)

As I reminisce over the four years I have spent at ESU, I recall the experiences I have encountered. The education I am leaving with is greater than I could have imagined, not only academically and culturally, but also socially. The people I have met have been the largest contributors to my overall education. Ranging from administrators, faculty and staff to students, the people I have met come from all walks of life. Having the opportunity to know such a variety of people has made my years at ESU special to me. People really can, and do, make a difference — always.

My experiences at ESU over the past years have produced tremendous growth in my life. Although I have gained much academically, I feel that, more importantly, I have grown as a person both socially and spiritually. Through my involvement in ESU Christian Fellowship, God used many people to challenge my faith and develop me as a person. I thank God for each person that he brought into my life here, and I hope I have challenged, taught, and encouraged each of you as much as you have challenged, taught and encouraged me. If my presence on campus made any difference, all honor belongs to Christ who has made a difference in my life.

As a graduating senior in biochemistry, I sometimes wondered what it would have been like if I had begun my career without attending college. In the past four years, I've been active in at least seven on-campus and two off-campus clubs. Would there have been different outcomes in certain controversial decisions made by these clubs if I wasn't around to offer my own views? Would my lifestyle be different if I hadn't participated in these organizations? The answer to both questions is — probably so.

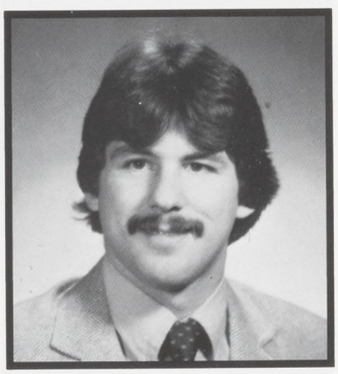

College is a place for education, in the classical sense as well as socially and culturally. For example, not only did I feel that the university (yes — "university" and no longer "state college") was stimulating in its course offerings, such as advanced emergency care (in which I acquired certification as a P.A. Emergency Medical Technician — E.M.T.), mountaineering, and skiing, but also college life offered me the opportunity to live in a dormitory with 300 other men. Try doing that without becoming good friends, maybe lifetime friends, with at least two of them.

I have spent four years of my life in a new environment — college — and I am glad that college was ESU.

Well, first of all, I have only been here for three years, but as I look back, it feels like four. When I look back, I think of many things: being President of Alpha Chi Rho; being Photography Editor of both the Stroud Yearbook and the Stroud Courier; being a member of the Student Faculty Judicial Board Student Senate, and many other committees and clubs. But being part of all these organizations hasn't meant half as much to me as all of the friends and relationships that I have made here, and hopefully I can keep them going for many years to come. I know through the years I have made some enemies due to my "Spring Break" slide shows at Sunday movies, but those of you who are still offended, don't look at it as an exploitation of women, but instead as showing their beauty. When I came here in the Fall of 1982 and this college was ESSC, I found many problems, one of which was student apathy. But after three years and a name change to ESU, I feel the apathy rate has dropped immensely. One of the main reasons I feel this is that when I traveled to Ft. Lauderdale in 1983 and 1984, I saw everyone rallying together to put ESU (or should I say East Stroudsburg), on the map. So when someone says ESU is apathetic, tell them to go to Florida and then tell you where the apathy is. So, out of all the things that have happened to me, I feel that my experiences at ESSC-ESU have been the best times of my life, and I will miss them a lot.

As a freshman, I hesitantly got involved with the Stroud Courier. I always wanted to be a newspaper reporter in college, and so I became one — all the way up to editor-in-chief. I learned so much, not only about the issues on campus, the administrators, and the school events, but also about myself, and the people I worked with and for — ESU students.

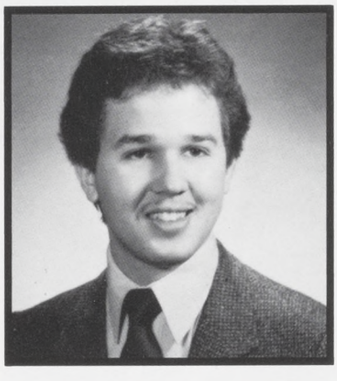

I spent many lonely nights pasting up a newspaper that would be read and in the trash by noon the next day. I spent endless hours reading and creating what I hoped students would find an interesting newspaper. The acknowledgements were often lost behind the complaints and criticisms, but I continued to learn and grow.

It paid off in the end. I can happily look back and say that it was all worthwhile.

My four years at ESU were a blast! My involvement in the Association for Elementary Education, the College Union Board, and Kappa Delta Pi gave me the opportunity to meet some really super people. The professors in the Elementary Education and Reading Departments are excellent; I owe them a lot — especially Dr. Mark.

I'm so glad I was able to be very involved, party often, and keep my grades up. What I'm most excited about is that I'm really a full-fledged teacher! I owe all my thanks to Mom, Dad, and God!!!

Life at ESU was a time of rapid growth intellectually and socially. We were to behave like adults, yet treated like children. You did as you pleased, dared, and defied, after which you were denied.

I learned the many different kinds of love; to really miss your parents, to grieve at a loss, and to truly love a friend. I found my strengths and weaknesses and also my very best friends. It was the best of times . . . it was the worst of times . . . it was college.

As I look back on my four years at ESU, I remember having good times with friends, playing intercollegiate sports, and enjoying the Poconos. Sure, it had its ups and downs, but the good times far outweighed the bad. Now that it's over — how quickly it went by! I can definitely say I wouldn't have given up these four years for anything in the world. I have the memories and they will linger forever.

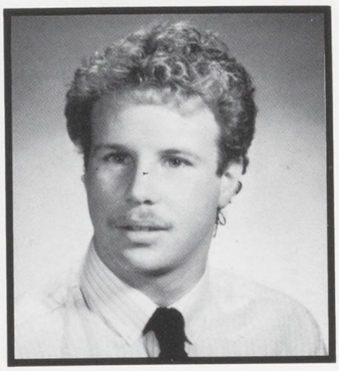

GINA J. MOHR

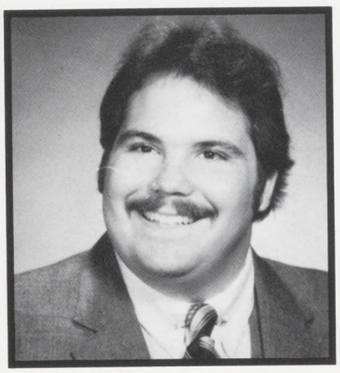

If someone had told me four years ago when I was a freshman in Shawnee Hall, that in my senior year I would be the Student Government President and live in a place called Animal House, I would have called him crazy.

I guess if I reflect on my experiences here, I would say "High Volume." The friends I made on the track team, Team Old Milwaukee, and being president will last a lifetime, for which I am grateful. Involvement was the key. Aloha!

East Stroudsburg University: a reflection of my past. Choosing a college to attend was one of the toughest decisions made in a lifetime. Since the first day I walked on campus, I was greeted with friendly, hello's! Along with ESU's academic reputation, the feeling of friendliness in the air swayed my decision. Since my first day, all four years have been filled with the same sunshine, not only the students, but the faculty, administrators and deans as well. I have enjoyed my studies and leadership experiences with equal enthusiasm. Upon graduation, I leave with mixed emotions — tears of joy and tears of sorrow — for it is great to finally accomplish such a goal. But I am saddened by the many friendships that may be shattered by distance and time. Farewell, fellow students!

Kathryn Tchorz is the 1984 recipient of the prestigious Student Leadership Award of East Stroudsburg University at commencement exercises held on Saturday, December 22. Kathy Tchorz, a biology major, has been active in numerous activities during her undergraduate years at ESU. She has held a variety of positions on the Student Activity Association, Inc. She has also served as student representative for the Student Trustee Search and Screen Committee, Intercollegiate Athletics Committee, Minsi Hall Council and for the Student Affairs Sub-committee of the Council of Trustees. Additionally, Kathy has been active in such other student organizations as the Children's Theater, Musical Theater, Stroud Courier student newspaper and Encampment (student forum). She also served as chairman of the Stage II Board of Directors and resident advisor for Student Affairs.

As I look back and reflect on my years here at ESU, there are certain things that stick in my mind. It is not so much the education I have received as it is the friends that I have made. I feel that by being IFC President, I have been very lucky. It has given me the opportunity to get to know and work with students and faculty from many different organizations and departments. As I leave this institution and go out into the world, I may forget all the history dates I have memorized, but the friends I have will always be with me, at least in thought.

IN MEMORIAM . . .

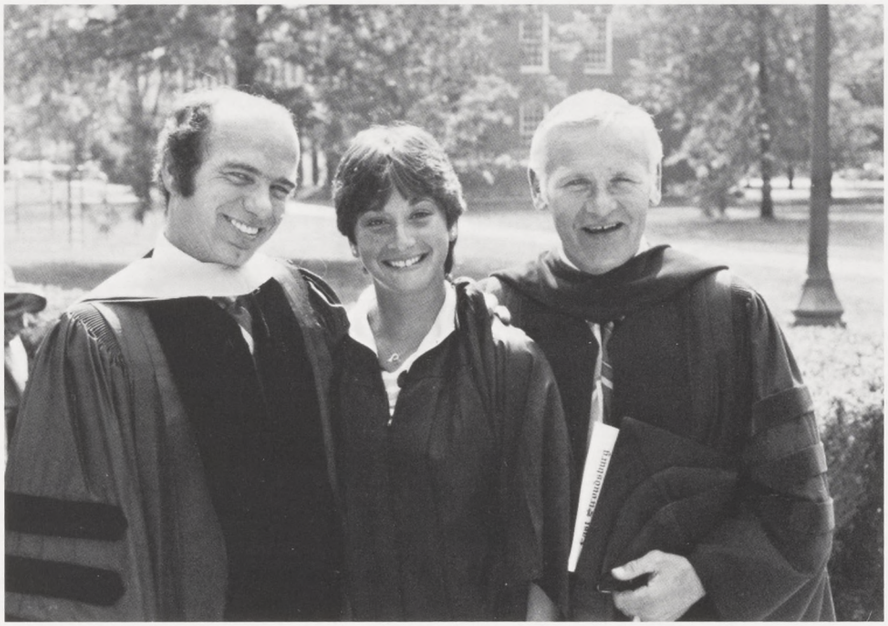

Colleen Fleming

Two members of our faculty and staff truly must be recognized here as "people who made the difference." Both Colleen Fleming and James Chamberlain died this past year, but their individual contributions ensure lasting places for them in ESU's collective heart.

Colleen Fleming worked as a secretary in the communications Center at ESU and as Coordinator of the Deb-ette Baton Corps of Stroudsburg. Colleen is remembered by all who knew her as a warm, caring, and conscientious woman whose commitment to her fellow humans made her an invaluable friend and helper. ESU has since set up the Colleen Fleming Award in her memory for those students who display the qualities that Colleen exemplified throughout her life.

Dr. James Chamberlain was chairman of professional physical education here at ESU, and was also active in many community activities including the YMCA and his own canoe rental business. In addition, he was the director of ESU's Pocono Mountain Triathlon from 1983 to 1984, and was the former director of the YMCA summer day camp. In 1972, Chamberlain was voted the Outstanding Young Educator by the Pocono Mountain Jaycees, and in 1982 was proud recipient of the Distinguished Faculty Award for Excellence in Teaching. In all of his many and varied activities and hobbies, Jim was thought of, and is still remembered, as a leader, a go-getter, and also as a warm and sincere man whose ambition and devotion were more for his community than for himself.

We, the editors of the Stroud 1985, proudly present this book to you, the senior class of '85 and the entire student body of ESU. We hope this book accurately reflects the hopes, dreams, and realities of you, the students who "make the difference."

Like all those that came before, this yearbook has had its changes, revisions, problems, and setbacks. Many times we reviled this book to ourselves and each other, but despite the severe lack of staff and the never-met deadlines, we hope this book has, nevertheless, resulted in a creative compilation of the best of life in 1985.

Since no book can ever be produced without the help of a few very special people, we would like to first and foremost thank Chuck Feiner, our advisor, for his infinite time, patience, and energy. For you, Chuck, who are leaving ESU as this book goes to print, we hope that in years to come you will be able to hail the Stroud '85 as your greatest triumph at ESU. Thank you, and best luck to you at Ramapo. We will miss you enormously.

Next we would like to thank Bernadette Pesock, our only other staff member, for all the miles she travelled over this campus identifying people in our thousands of photos, and also for all the brainstorming she did to write so much of our copy. Bern, you are priceless!

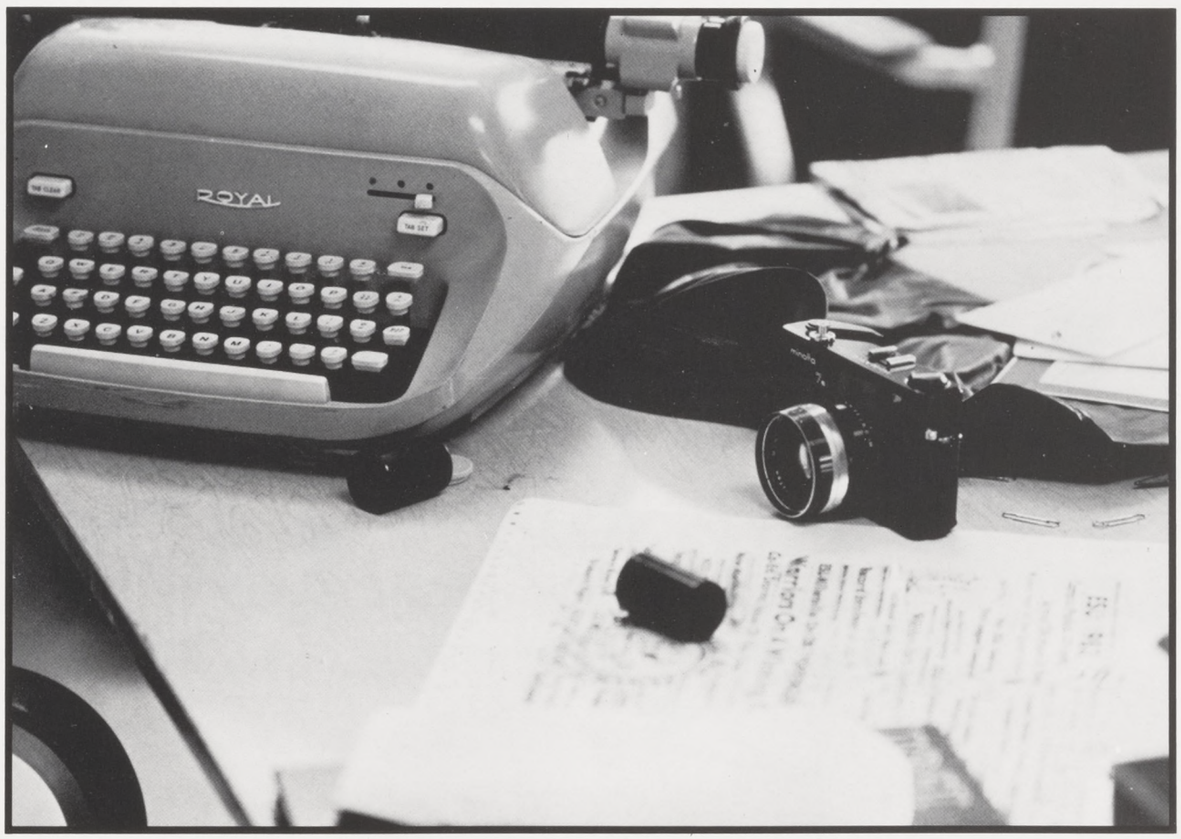

Thanks are also due to Donna LaBar and Carole Reilly for all their typing and general assistance.

We are also indebted to Merin Studios for the fine quality photos they shot and developed for us.

Matt Lynott also deserves recognition for his knowledge and guidance, and for all the inspiring posters he gave us.

Finally, on a lighter note, we would like to thank each other, since there were times when we (barely) kept each other sane (enough to finish the book) through sheer determination, perseverence, and stubborness. So, here's to me and here's to you, and when we meet again in the "real" world, let us never speak again of the Stroud '85 without a grin and a chortle.
