There were three sons of Marsten Allen with houses in Glendale

Charles Henry, Alfred Franklin, and Samuel Badger noted in Glendale Book

1976 for GHP. Alfred Franklin was left out of the family enclave discussion of the Allens in the recently published GHP book.

Probable association with underground railroad.

We filled in a tunnel in our basement in 1992? leading to Charles Henry's house "The Pillars" at 780 Congress. There is an underground room on the corner of Congress and W Fountain on our property.
