

RENOVATION PROJECT: The beginning of work on a $125,393 project to renovate the Village of Glendale police station is visible at the rear of the building on the south side of E. Sharon Avenue at Troy Avenue. Required by the state to meet new standards for detention facilities, the project also includes long-needed improvements in the 120-year-old building's electrical, plumbing and heating systems.

12/3/87 SUBURBAN PRESS