

Landmarks of New York

INDEX OF MANHATTAN

PLATE 15. INWOOD HILL PARK AND VICINITY

111—Site British camp. 112—Headquarters, Gen. Heath. 113—
 114—Site British camp. 115—Dyckman House. 116—Tavern site same
 117—Cold Spring. 118—Tulip Tree. 119—Indian Rock Swallow. 120—
 121—Site Fort Prince Charles. 122—Site King's Bridge. 123—Site "Free Bridge."

LANDMARKS OF NEW YORK

of all the military relics (see "Relics of the Revolution" by R. P. Bolton). The (118) "Dyckman House and a little park in which it stands is at Broadway and 24th St.; it was built in 1783 and occupied by the Dyckman family, and gives a good idea of the appearance of a colonial farm dwelling (the "Century House" was a built

DYCKMAN HOUSE, BROADWAY AND 24TH ST.

ing of much the same type); the other part of the building is on the south side with open fireplaces and two brick bake-ovens. Descendants of the family presented the property to the city in 1915, and incurred the expense of restoring the interior as nearly as possible to the precise condition in which it was when first occupied, as well as supplying it with furnishings owned by their ancestors. A lot in the rear of Dyckman House Park is to be the

THE CITY HISTORY CLUB

announces the publication of

LANDMARKS OF NEW YORK

A. EVERETT PETERSON, Ph. D., Editor

THE cover design and sample pages herewith produced serve to introduce this handy pocket volume of 261 pages, a guide to the historic places of the metropolis. A frontispiece map (in color) of Greater New York is a key to 44 sectional maps, all especially drawn for this book and intelligible without reference to the text. However, prefixed to the description of the several landmarks are numbers corresponding with numbers on the maps, and reference from one to the other is very easy. Forty half-tone cuts of the more famous structures and localities add to the value and attractiveness of the book.

On sale at bookstores or at City History Club

105 West 40th Street, New York City

Price $1.50

ORDER

CITY HISTORY CLUB, 105 West 40th Street, New York City

Please send _____ cop. of "LANDMARKS OF
New York," at $1.50 postpaid, to the following address:

Enclosed:

Cash _____

Check _____