

David Mackay
to David Munro

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Rockland County David Allen of Haverstraw in said County, being duly sworn says that he is the landlord & owner of certain premises situated in Haverstraw in said County, now occupied by David Mackay — and said further says that by a lease & certain lease heretofore made, executed & delivered by & between the said David Allen & David Mackay, ~~whereby~~ which lease is hereto annexed marked A. — that the said Mackay is indebted to the defendant who is the landlord of said Mackay as tenant in the sum of fifteen hundred & eighty two dollars for said premises, not yet paid described in said lease, which was accounted for on the first day of April 1835, at which last mentioned date the whole of said tenants fully due to defendant, which said premises are still in the occupation of said Mackay — also that the right of said lease the defendant was at the time of said premises was then entitled to the possession of the same — and defendant further says that he has demanded the said sum from the said Mackay who has made default in the payment thereof pursuant to the agreement under which the said premises were demised to him and the said Mackay holds on & continues in possession of the said premises without the payment of the said balance after default in the payment thereof.
