Wynette Suber

A black and white photograph of a school building, likely Central High School in Thomasville, Georgia. A large, leafless tree stands in the foreground on the left side, its branches reaching across the frame. The school building is a long, single-story structure with a flat roof and several windows. The ground in the foreground is covered with patches of snow or frost. The sky is overcast.

Yesterday . . . an Experience

*And so . . .
by myself I've come
unadorned and
plain to offer
you without condition a life just past
and just beginning.*

*I've saved
some sunlight
if you should
ever need a
place from darkness where
your mind
can feed.*

*Some years
later there's always mental photographs.*

*Photographs
of feeling mir-
rored in the mind.*

For me old habits don't break easily.

*Never be afraid to say
"What is it?"*

*You turn a corner and
things change.*

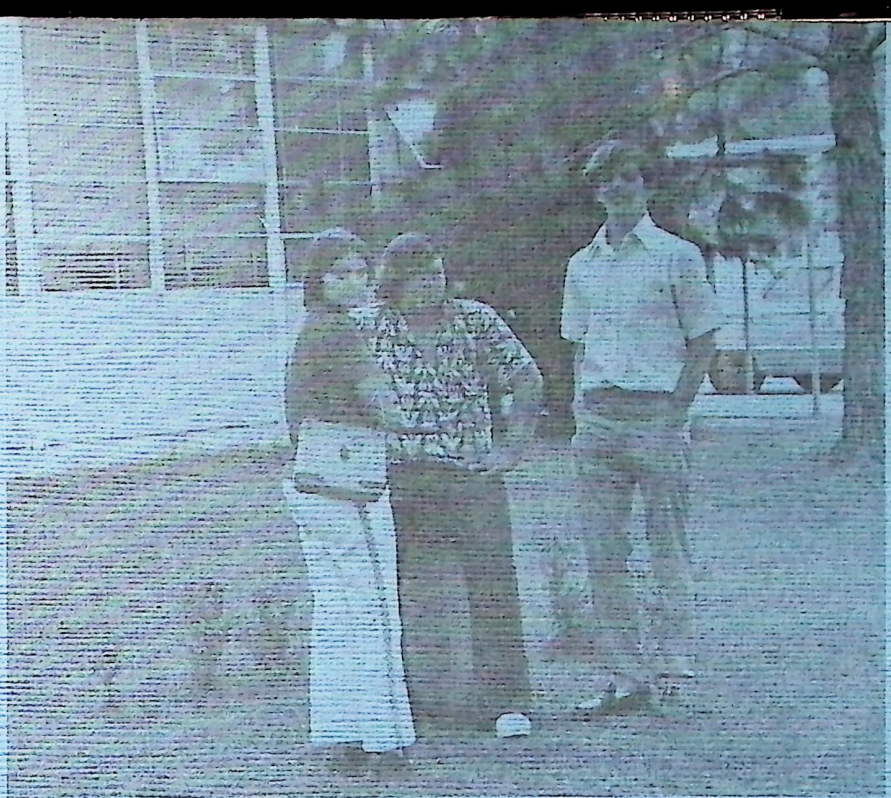

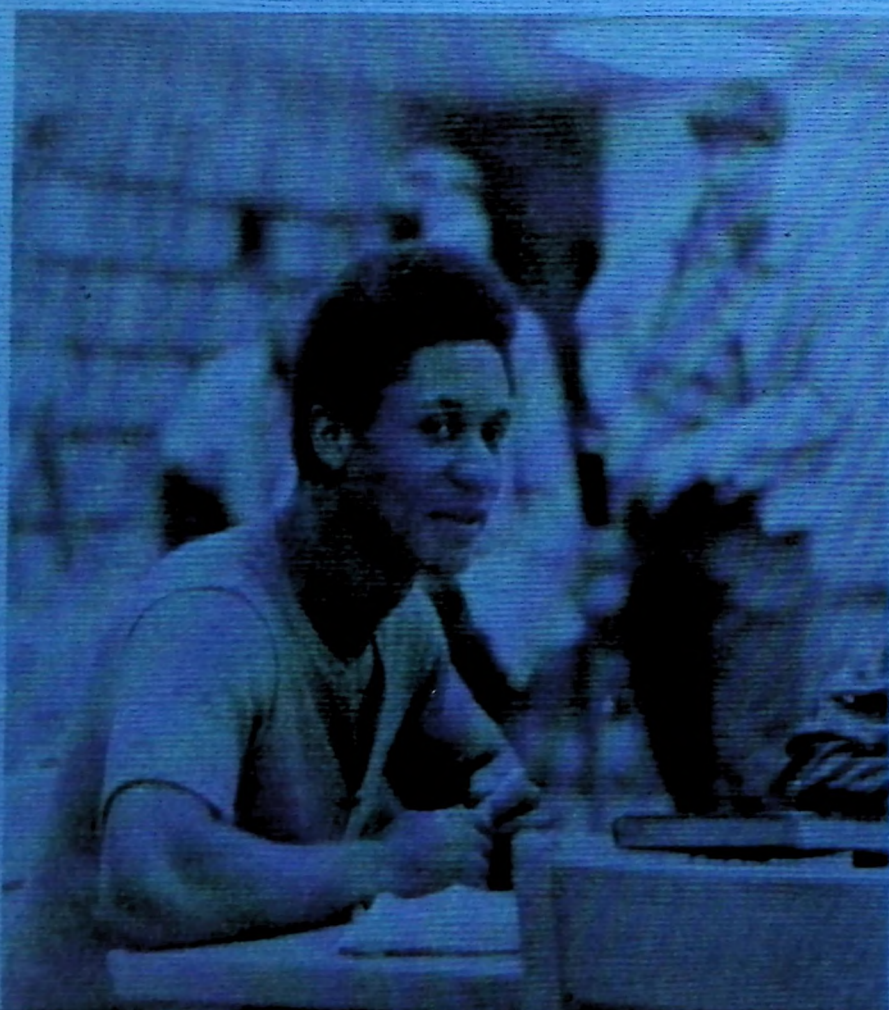

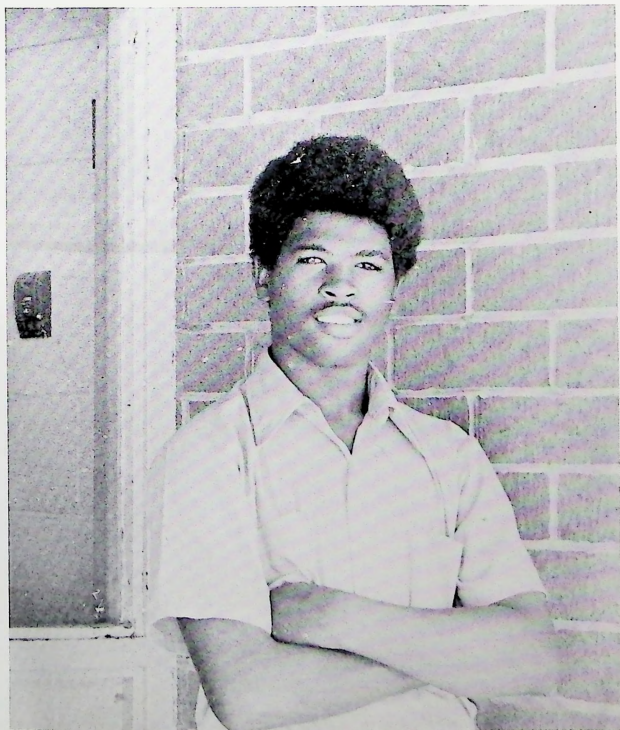

*Like wrinkles
changing into dimples and
nighttime
changing into
day.*

*Yesterday, did you remember
how we met?
Today, do
you remember
what I said?*

*And between the morning
and the evening I draw your faces a little
fainter
everyday.*

*The year was only one long
noisy day that never knew a quiet night.*

The Instructor

*You might expect us to be tired.
No.*

A vintage photograph of three young men standing in front of a rustic wooden wall. The man on the left is wearing a light-colored suit and a patterned tie. The man in the center is wearing a light-colored suit jacket over a patterned shirt and a patterned tie, with patterned trousers. The man on the right is wearing a light-colored suit jacket over a patterned shirt and a patterned tie, with dark trousers. All three are smiling and looking towards the camera.

In Memory . . .

*Gayle Council
Sheryl Jones*

*Below the surface stream, shallow and light,
Of what we say and feel — below the stream,
As light, of what we think we feel, there flows
With noiseless current, strong, obscure, and deep,
The central stream of what we feel indeed.*

— Matthew Arnold

Alma Mater

*Hail, Alma Mater, our homage we bring;
For thy rich blessings we laud thee and sing.
Knowledge, truth, honor, and courage of heart —
These gifts so rare Thou dost ever impart.
Hail, Alma Mater, Central High School, all hail.*

*Thy children Thee ever love and adore;
Thy guiding hand leadeth them evermore;
Hail, Alma Mater, Central High School, all hail.*

We of the 1973 VESPA Staff hope that we have succeeded in retaining the highlights of this past year with which you can frequently refresh your memory of Central High School. Each page is intended to portray to each one of us at least a glimpse of the laughter and tears we experienced together and occasionally alone. The spirit, friendliness, success, and love we shared at CHS are eternally captured between the covers of this annual. As time elapses and the Future becomes the present, our mental images of this short time together will slowly diminish. When we wish to recall this past year's events, these pages truly possess the only indelible imprints of the priceless moments we have enjoyed uniquely at Central.

Phrases on pages 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 12, 13, 14, 17, 18, 21, 37, 57, 113, 163, 201, and 263 were taken from the poem listed below with the permission of the publishers:
