These are great days to be livin' in. New excitement hangin' in the air.

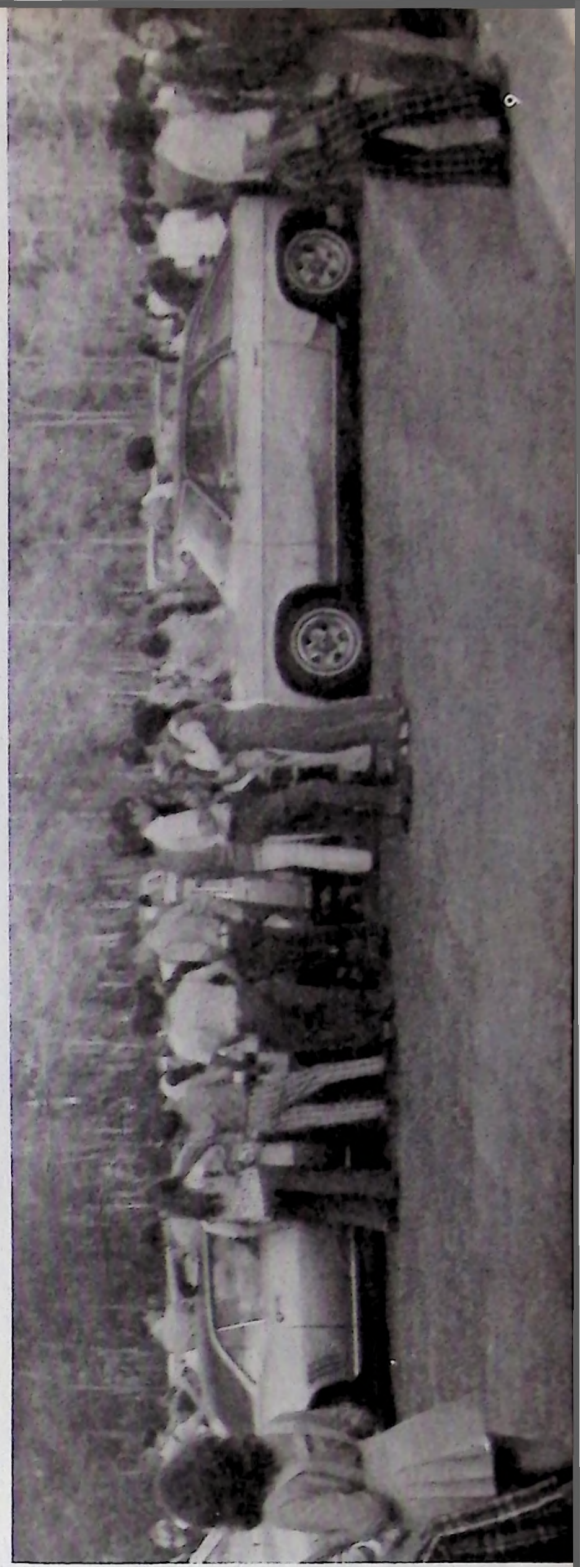

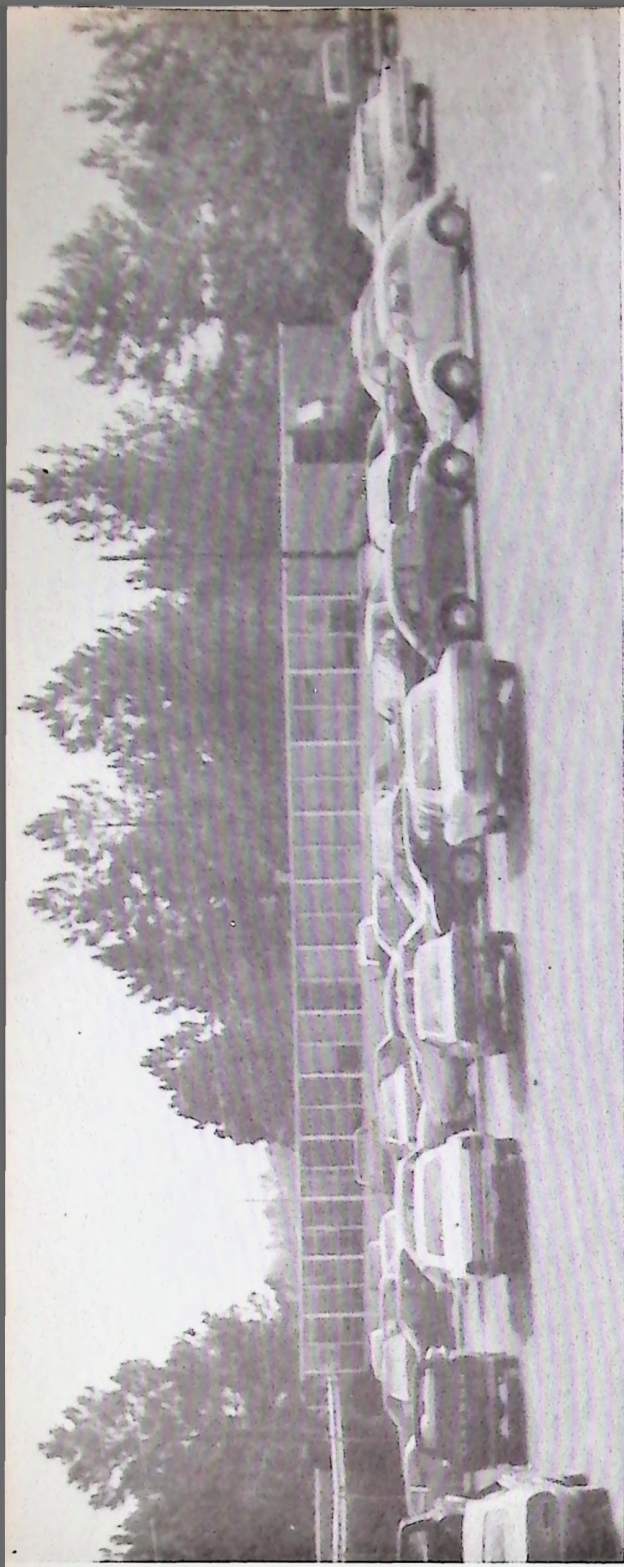

Expectations growing, building, rising, nearing . . . feel it mounting higher everywhere.

CHS life has been a tapestry . . . of rich and royal hue, an everlasting vision of the everchanging view.

*A wondrous woven magic . . .
In bits of blue and gold*

A black and white photograph of two young Black people on a swing set. A young woman with a large afro sits on the swing in the foreground, wearing a dark jacket and pants. Behind her, a young man stands holding the swing's chains, wearing a light-colored patterned trench coat over a collared shirt. The background shows a park-like setting with trees and a fence. A large, semi-transparent watermark "TCCOHS MEDIA CENTER" is overlaid across the middle of the image.

*Hail, Alma Mater, our homage we bring
For thy rich blessings we laud thee and sing.
Knowledge, truth, honor, and courage of heart —
These gifts so rare thou dost ever impart.*

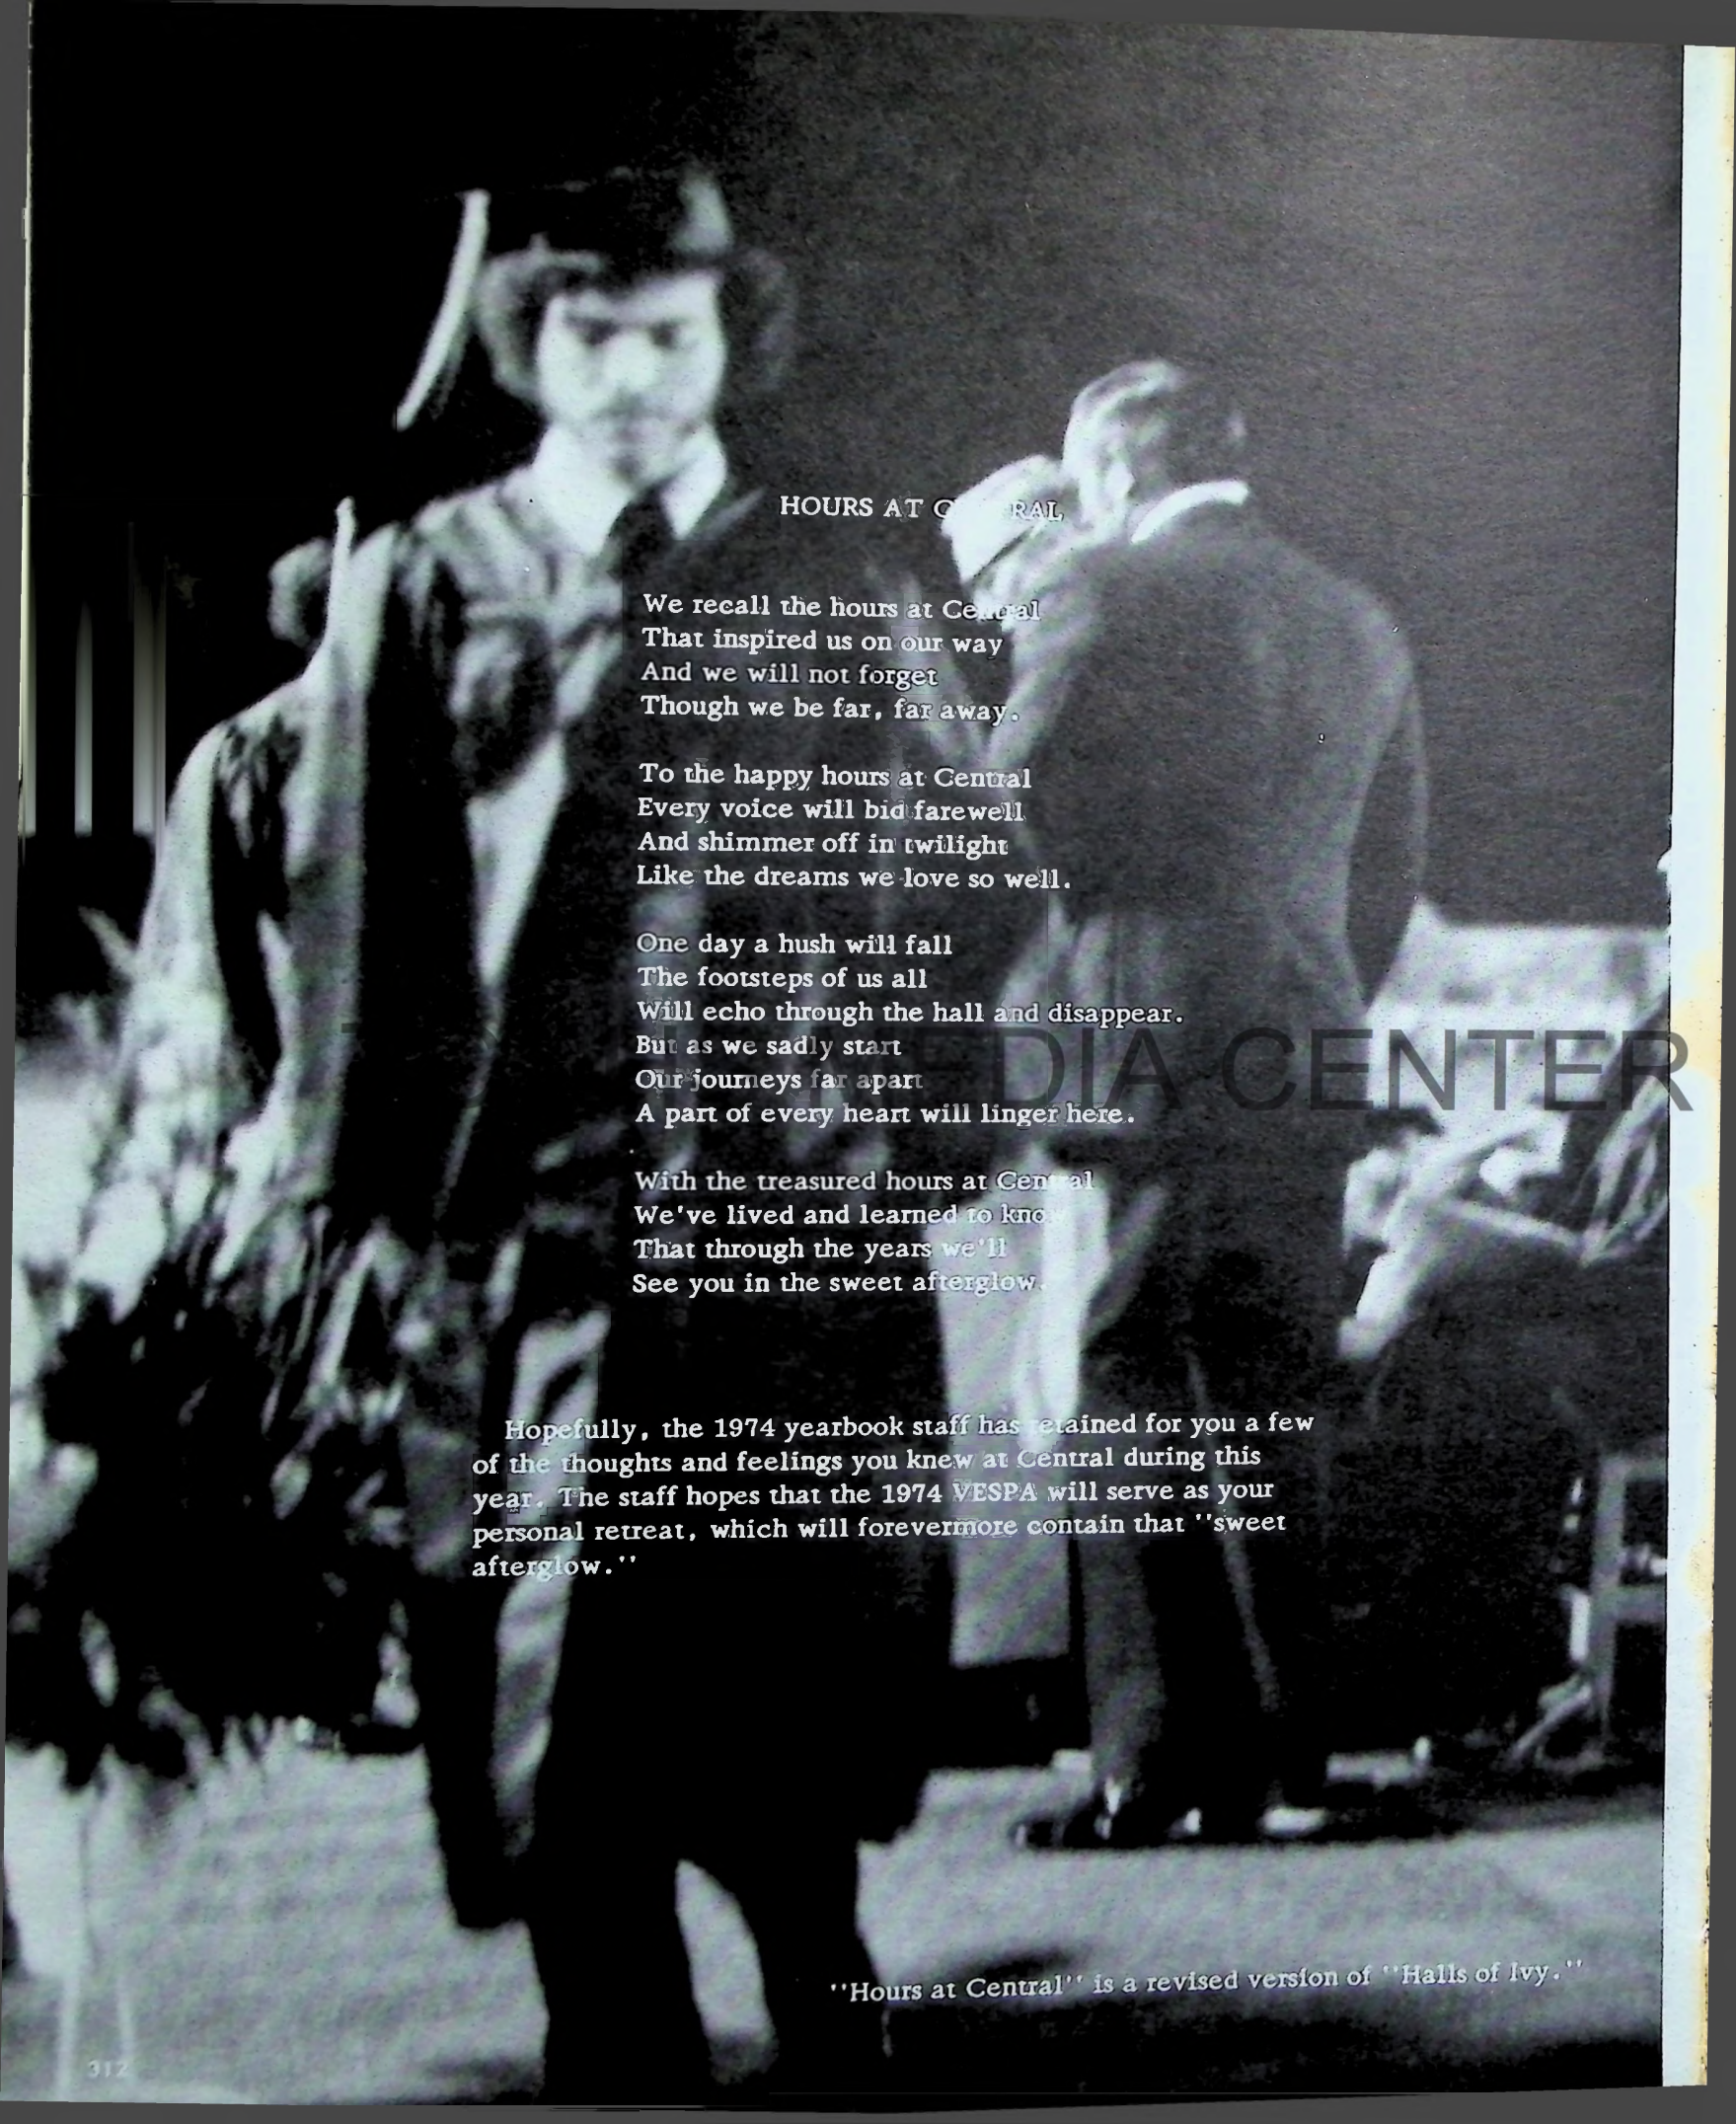

*Hail, Alma Mater, Central High School, all hail.
Thy children thee ever love and adore;
Thy guiding hand leadeth them evermore
Hail, Alma Mater, Central High School, all hail.*

HOURS AT CENTRAL

We recall the hours at Central
That inspired us on our way
And we will not forget
Though we be far, far away.

To the happy hours at Central
Every voice will bid farewell
And shimmer off in twilight
Like the dreams we love so well.

One day a hush will fall
The footsteps of us all
Will echo through the hall and disappear.
But as we sadly start
Our journeys far apart
A part of every heart will linger here.

With the treasured hours at Central
We've lived and learned to know
That through the years we'll
See you in the sweet afterglow.

Hopefully, the 1974 yearbook staff has retained for you a few of the thoughts and feelings you knew at Central during this year. The staff hopes that the 1974 VESPA will serve as your personal retreat, which will forevermore contain that "sweet afterglow."

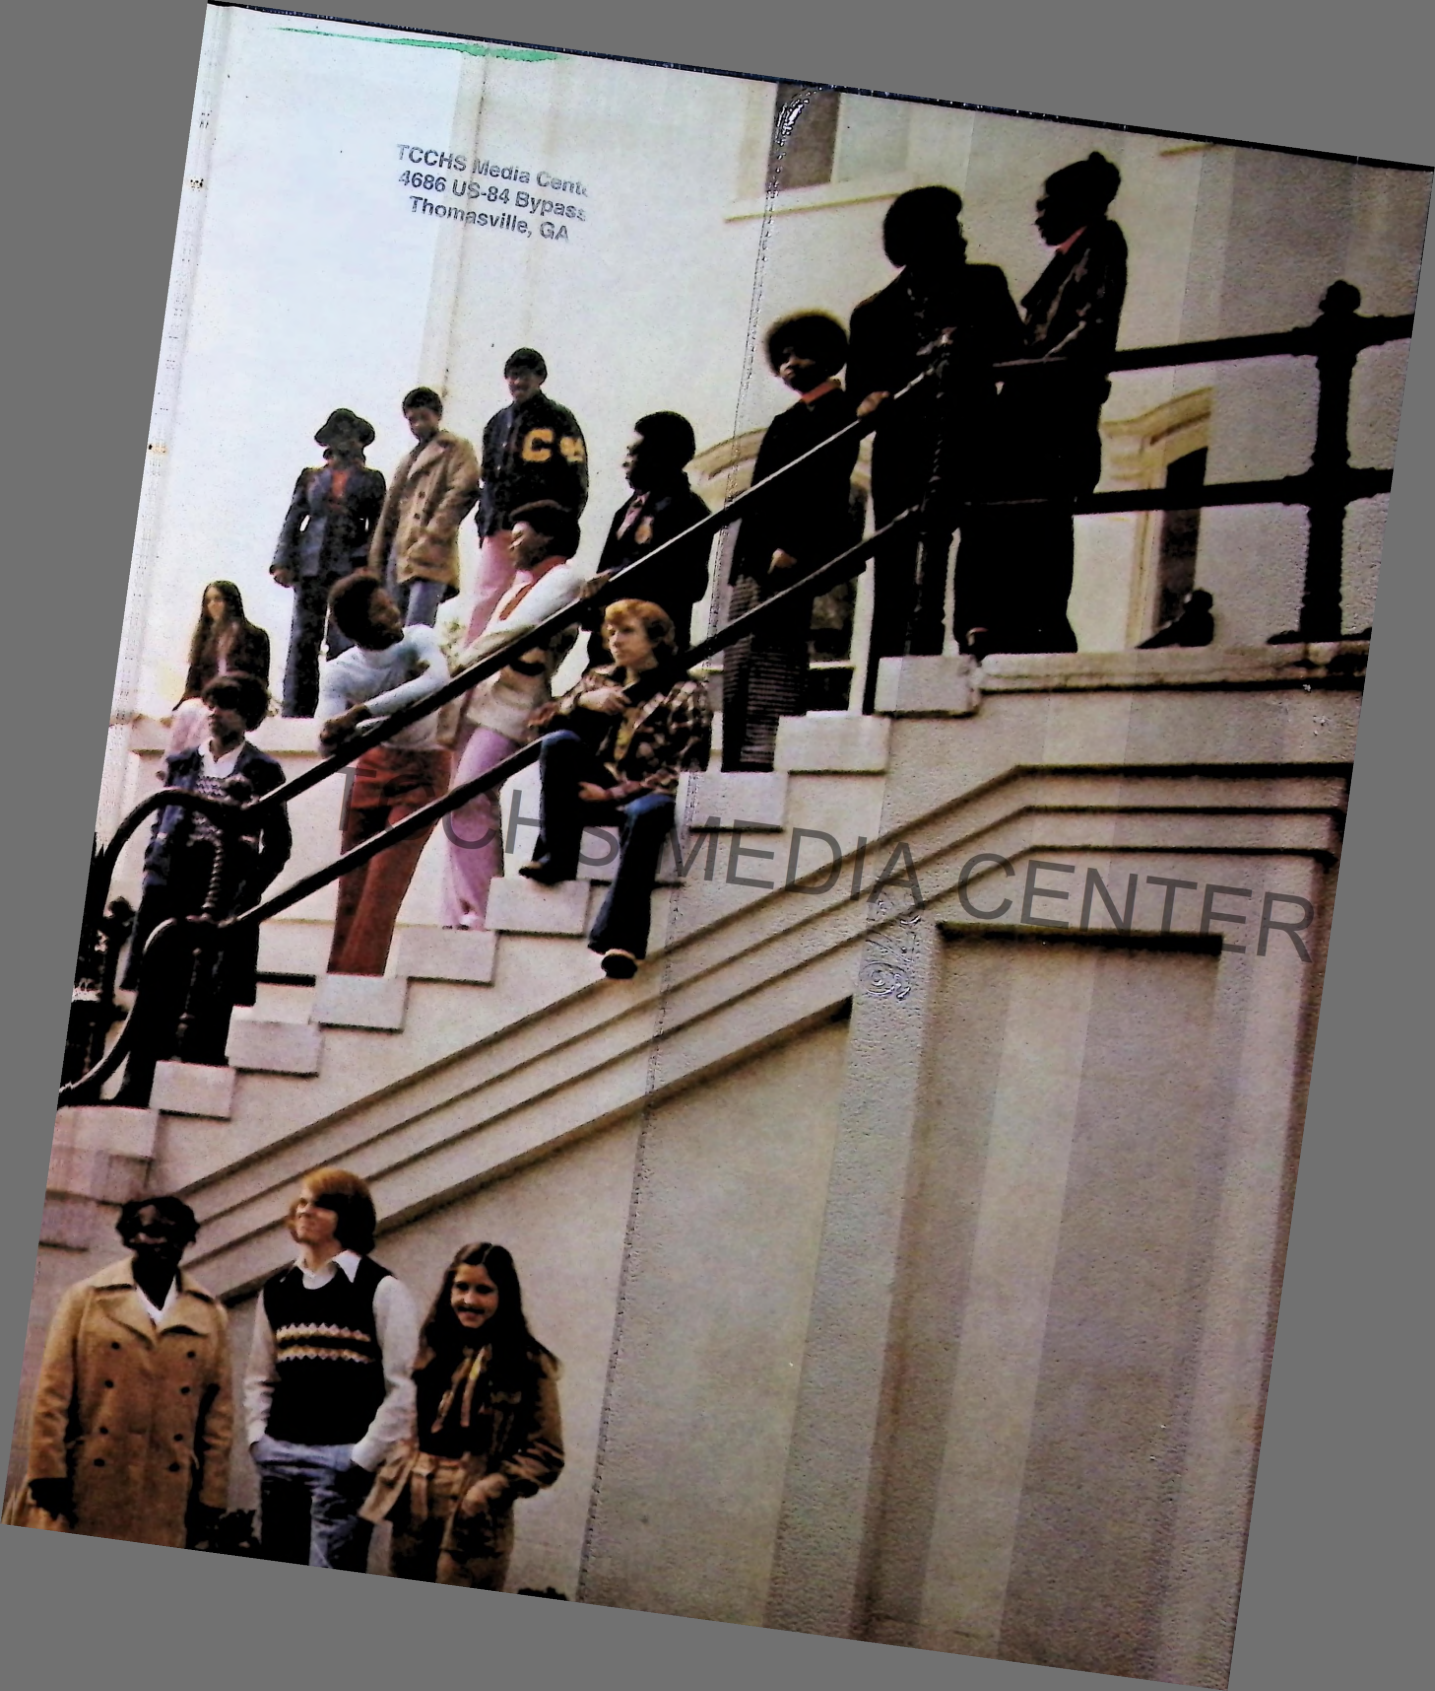

"Hours at Central" is a revised version of "Halls of Ivy."
