The Media Club is an organization for students who have assisted in the media center for one quarter. These students check and shelve books, locate materials, and assist other students with reference work.

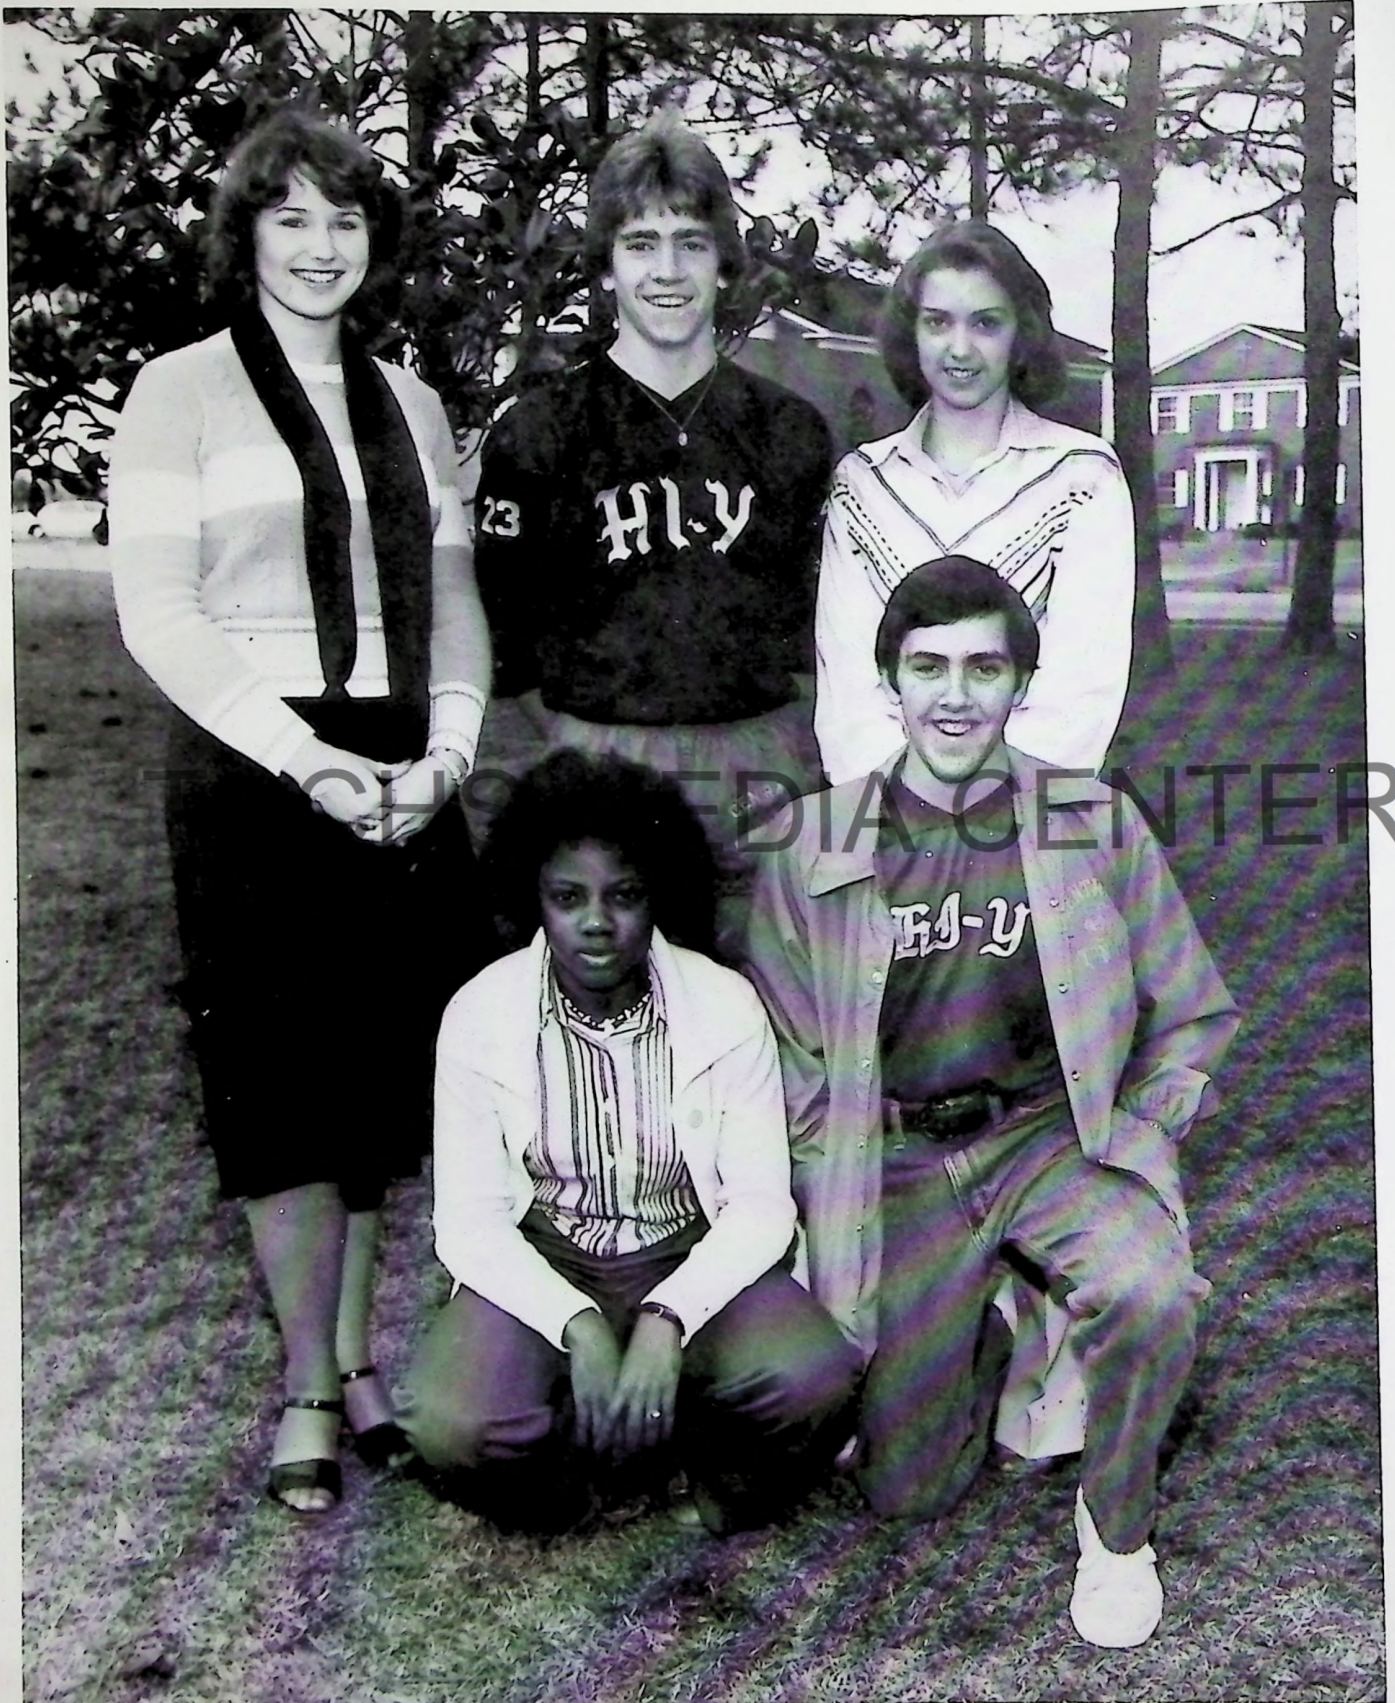

Club members are eligible for membership in the district and state Media Clubs. A fall district conference and a spring state convention are held each year.

Local club projects this year included a nursing-home visit, a party for Southwestern Hospital patients, a Thanksgiving program for special students, restroom cleanup, preparation of a resource file, and development of projects for state competition.

During the season, fans witnessed the superb talents of many players. In the top picture, Mike Armster runs against the Dougherty defense. He ran for 145 yards in this game.

Come here to this shady place, and sit and rest awhile.
Leave everything in my hands. I'm here to make you smile.

Despite the fact that our football team was in a rebuilding period, our players showed strong effort and abilities. The final scores fail to show the hard work and determination that each player exhibited.

Coach Garland summed up this year's football season by saying, "We improved tremendously from the beginning of the season to the end. We won two of our last three games and played well in our last four. Hopefully, we picked up momentum at the end that will carry over into next season. We are definitely looking forward to the 1979 season."

TCHS MEDIA CENTER

The Central High School Jackettes, under the leadership of Coach Hilburn Dunahoo and seven seniors, enjoyed a 13-10 won-loss for the 1978-79 season and displayed skill, determination, and excitement in every game. The team's offensive show was led by Rena Williams, who finished the season with a 14.3 average, and Patricia Stephens, who maintained an 11.4 average with her deadly jump shot and aggressive agility. They were ably assisted by the rebounding force of Faye Brown, Jennifer Davis, and Konice Coachman. Also, Vickie Hester proved to be important to the Jackette fast break and defense; and the reserves provided tremendous action, speed, and dedication. All in all, the 1978-79 season was a very exciting one. Pictured above are Top Row: Faye Brown, Patricia Stephens, Rena Williams, Cathy Donalson, Jennifer Davis, Linda Shepard, Joyce Fleno, Vickie Hester, Brenda Harrison, Pamela Haggins. Bottom Row: Kathy Johnson, Jennifer Walker, Dana Griner, Vickie Dunahoo, Linda Brooks, Sherry Ivey, Judy Davis. The following players received special recognition: Patricia Stephens, Most Valuable Player; Faye Brown, Most Improved Player; and Rena Williams, Offensive Player.

Two groups contributed a great deal toward the success of the 78-79 edition of Jackette basketball: the seniors and the managers. The seniors were Tondra Flounory, Linda Shepard, Brenda Harrison, Cathy Donalson, Patricia Stephens, Faye Brown, and Rena Williams; the managers were Linda Thurman, Carolyn Clifton, Kathy Jefferson, Debbie Hutchinson, and Janie Tinsley.

The 78-79 B team became known as the "wrecking crew" because of its toughness on the court. Team members, who should strengthen the varsity squad in 79-80, were Renee Daniels, Kathy Jefferson, Linda Brooks, Janice Toles, Alicia Hester, Judy Davis, Judy Brown, Carolyn Clifton, Juanita Thurman, Sharon Linton, Pamela Haggins, and Marie Davis.

The 78-79 freshman team, by displaying a great deal of skill and dedication, gave promise of success to future Jackette teams. Members of this team were Linda Morris, Glenda Harrison, Dale Hortman, Konice Coachman, Deanne Hodges, Jeanne Powell, Ginger Steucher, Suzzanne Murray, Gazelle Abrams, Patricia Christopher, Marina Robinson, Mary Butler, Darlene Jones, Carolyn Stevens, and Tamara Mitchell.

The 1978-79 games between the Jackettes and their crosstown rivals, the Thomasville Bulldogettes, proved to be as exciting as ever. In their first meeting, the Jackettes escaped the Doghouse with a 60-59 victory, with Jennifer Davis scoring the winning points. In their second meeting, the Jackettes again were victorious, 36-31. However, in the Region 1-A AAA South Tournament at Lowndes, the 'Dogettes came out on top 44-35.

Even though the 1978-79 Central Yellow Jackets did not have a winning season, they displayed an exciting brand of basketball. Under a new head coach, Mr. Charlie Ward, and his assistant, Mr. James Hagins, they stayed close to heavily teams until the final buzzer. In one of their best efforts, the Jackets upset Lowndes, the eventual subregion champion, 67-57. Central closed the season by losing a hard-fought decision to Valdosta 81-80 in the subregion tournament. It was a very exciting season for the Yellow Jackets and Coach Ward, who are very optimistic about their chances for 1979-80.

Although the 1979 Jackette track team did not win any championships, the season was a very successful one. With Coach Hilburn Dunahoo in his final year of coaching before becoming principal of CHS, the team sent three representatives to the Region 1-AAAA meet: Linda Brooks, shotput; Vickie Hester, 440-yard dash; and Rena Williams, high jump. When the second-place winner in the 440 was unable to compete in the state meet, Vickie took her place and placed seventh. The returning Jackettes are looking forward to an exciting 1980 season.

The scoreboard does not reveal the true story of the 1979 Yellow Jacket baseball team. The team played many exciting games, and the players made many outstanding plays. Perhaps the highlight of the season was the 6-0 shutout of archrival Thomasville. However, the Bulldogs got revenge by defeating the Jackets 4-1 in the return engagement. CHS also split the two games with the Colquitt County Packers. Coach Conner is definitely hopeful for the 1980 season.

The Central High tennis team of 1979 — a young, inexperienced group — gained valuable experience in its eight matches. The team was led by Coach Paul Dyal and four seniors: Jamey Day, Bobby Wise, Kathy Vonier, and Ellen Baker. Ellen advanced all the way to the quarterfinals of the region tournament. The returning team members promise a successful showing in 1980.

Alma Mater

Hail, Alma Mater, our homage we bring;
For thy rich blessings we laud thee and sing.

Knowledge, truth, honor, and courage of heart—
These gifts so rare thou dost ever impart.
Hail, Alma Mater, Central High School, all hail.

Thy children thee ever love and adore;
Thy guiding hand leadeth them evermore.
Hail, Alma Mater, Central High School, all hail.

TCCCHS MEDIA CENTER

The 1978-79 Foreign Language Club was involved in many activities, both on campus and off campus. The year began with bake sales, which helped to fund a Christmas party during the last meeting before the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Plasencia made the pinata in the shape of a colorful Mickey Mouse, which was used at the party. In February the club took a trip to Valdosta State College for the Foreign Language Festival. At the festival, various activities for French and Spanish students were conducted.
