Vol I Number 9

Message from the Director Barney Barnier

Our office manager Bobbie Ringersma volunteered to gather a crew and paint the Campo Depot. And paint she did! Bobbie, along with Norm Hill, Charles Alban, Bob Eikel, Jack Ringersma, Ken Faller, Ted Kornweibel, Scott Thompson, Lew Wolfgang, Jim Callahan, Tim Floersch, Galen Dyreng, Jim Rassmussen, and myself made our old depot look GREAT. Thanks also to Maxine Sanborn who fed the Hungry crew an excellent spaghetti dinner, topped off with some fantastic homemade pies.

On Tuesday, August 22nd, Norm Hill, Dale Prescott and I journeyed up to the Santa Fe shops in San Bernardino to purchase a Caboose. This wonderful event was made possible by a donation from Mrs. Cecil (Skeeter) Hollenbeck. Norm is still grinning from ear to ear! The Caboose selected is a class C-2, Number 999371, and is in good condition and expected into town in September.

Remember we are running to Jacumba TWICE this fall, September 30th, and October 7th, so get your tickets early. If you want to be on crew, remember to talk to David DiGorgio.

Jacumba Trips.

The museum will be making two trips to Jacumba on Sept. 30 and Oct 7. The last trip sold out fast, so order early. The price is $50 till Sept 1. and $60 after. Members who order before Sept. 1 get a $10 savings on the $50 price.

People wishing to be crew or trainman on these trips should contact: David DiGorgio.

Time Cards

The programs needed to correlate the time card data is still being worked on. It should be ready next month. (Cross your fingers).
