BUNKERVILLE
THEN & NOW

BUNKERVILLE
THEN & NOW
Store was built by W. C. Bowman in 1924. It was a Gen. Wares store when it was sold in the 40's. Wilbur Wilson remodeled it to look like it does today. It was later sold to Ed & Dora Kane.
This chapel was built in 1951/52. It was dedicated in April of 1952
Store was originally owned by Edward Booker Jr. then W. C. Bowman then Kenneth Earl & later by Lavin (Dutch) and Ethel Leavitt
The original was burned down on May 15th 1911. Later built by Jack Jackson. It now has a full 2nd floor apartment.
Built in 1851 by Capt. Jacob Cottle. Originally the home of Mr. Kenneth Earl. In 1981 was moved to its present location on Main St. Then to Bunkerville Pioneer Park in 2004.
Originally a mill pond for the grist mill it was later known simply as "the Swimmin Hole" or "The Falls"
