The INTERCOM

July 2016

Happy Canada Day!

I trust that this Canada Day issue finds you in good health and enjoying the holiday with family and friends. Please take a moment during your day to think of all the RMR soldiers currently deployed overseas - raise a glass of Canadian cheer in their honour!

This July 2016 Intercom issue contains stories about different anniversaries marked in the past few months by the three levels of the Regimental family: Cadets (50th), serving battalion (100th), and Association (Br. 14 marked their 80th year as a Legion branch). All three were held within the RMR's Armoury on Ste-Catherine Street. Other interesting stories are included about a request from a Westmount author, and the RMR Museum's recent hiring of a museologist to create a digital archive.

UPDATE: There were approximately 2,000 unique visitors to the RMR Museum's Souterrain Impressions exhibit held at the armoury during the month of April, including quite a number of schools that ranged from primary to adult education. This one of a kind exhibition generated significant media exposure for the RMR, with television, radio, web, and print coverage from all the major Montreal media outlets.

I encourage you to take a few minutes to browse the articles to acquaint yourself with the endeavours of the Regiment and its affiliated bodies.
