The INTERCOM

March 1st, 2016

2016 has started strong for the Regiment, with individual and collective training going full tilt as the Regiment prepares for an exercise deployment in the far North.

This March 2016 Intercom issue contains several fascinating profiles of contemporary RMR leaders and the impact that they make on their fellow soldiers and society as a whole. I encourage you to take a few minutes to browse the articles to acquaint yourself with the endeavours of the Regiment and its affiliated bodies.

"INTERCOM" RMR Foundation Newsletter: March 2016

2016 starts with busy training schedule for RMR

This month's Intercom has profiles of service of three remarkable leaders currently serving in the Regiment, updates on the RMR Association's activities, and a preview of Spring activities such as the RMR Museum's Souterrain Impressions exhibit. Enjoy!

Souterrain Impressions exhibit announced for April 2016

Westmount, Quebec, 25 February 2016 - The RMR Museum is pleased to announce that it will be hosting CANADIGM's "Souterrain Impressions" exhibition during the month of April 2016. To be located on the RMR's parade square, the Souterrain Impressions exhibit is made up of 20 self-standing 'modules', each highlighting one carving and the soldier who created...
