

"A GREAT WARRIOR, A NAME WHICH WILL LIVE LONG AND WILL BE MOST LOVED IN THE HISTORY OF THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE": JOSEPH STALIN, COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE RED ARMY.

Churchill's survey of African and Russian successes, made
 He paid this tribute to Stalin, Chairman of the Council C-in-C. of the Red Army. It is stated that the responsive, which has entirely annihilated the large lifted the siege of Leningrad, can be seen

Voronezh bridgehead, and has cut off the enemy in the Caucasus.
 was invited to meet the Prime Minister and President Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, was unable to leave too much depends on his active leadership.
 of the military proposals formulated at

Stalin
 like prime