Literary and Library Society met in Hall, Friday Evening Oct 16. 1896, Geo C. Monroe retiring president, in the chair.

A.S. Dyckman was appointed secretary pro. tem.

Proceedings of the last meeting were read & approved

Then followed the speech of the retiring president and also of the incoming president, Mr B.G. Green

A.S. Dyckman remarked concerning pioneer literary affairs and read an original poem written many years ago on "Baron Tennyson".

W.H. Hurlbut hoped old and young would feel free to join in the work of the Society.

Dr A.C. Runyan upheld the prospect of a very pleasant and useful season of Literary Work.

Geo C. Monroe moved that the Society hold regular meetings, Wednesday Evening of each week at 7 O.Clk p. m, commencing the 2nd Wednesday in November — carried unanymously.

President Green appointed a committee of three to prepare a plan of proceedings for the Winter & report at the next meeting and also to prepare & publish a program for the next meeting:

Committee: A.C. Runyan W.H. Hurlbut and A.S. Dyckman —

On motion Voted unanymously to employ as janitor, Jackson Rose and pay him for such service Monthly.

Committee reported the following program for the next Meeting:

Mrs A.C. Runyan to provide Music.
" A.S. Dyckman " a Recitation

Wednesday Evening Nov. 11 - 1896

Literary and Library Society assembled in the Hall, was called to order by President Green. After a few opening remarks, the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved with the following exception: Geo. C. Monroe to occupy the position of W. H. Hurlbut on the committee of three who were to prepare a plan of proceeding for the winter.

The committee on plan of work reported in favor of dividing the society into four sections as last year, with a chairman or chief of each section to be charged with the entertainments alternately. These chairmen to be appointed by the president.

President Green then appointed Dr Runyan, Alice Dean, Mable Clement, and Thomas Ramsdell as chairmen of four respective sections, and also to plan a programme of the next meeting.

The Evening then Proceeded with the following:

A Solo by Alice Dean which was well rendred and well received.

Mrs A. S Dyckman entertained with a recitation "No question is settled until it is settled right."

An Essay, a review of Miles Standish, by Miss Hall, was a worthy number. The article, which showed thought in preparation, was not only correct as to fact, but also as to the true sentiments.

The society was adjourned for an intermission to allow committee work.

After being again called to order, Alice Dean gave a Reading which was enjoyed by all.

"Humors of the Campaign" by Will Cooper was a subject suited to the winter. Although the majority of people were somewhat acquainted with the campaigns, yet this particular feature was new to all. After the article, the society would certainly unite in sentiment that there are "Humors in the Campaign".

The Programme Committee reported the following Nellie Avery to provide two selections in music
Recitation by Adrienne Leighton
Reading " G. J. Wickwall

Wednesday Dec 2 - 1896

The Literary and Library Society assembled in the hall Wednesday evening Dec 2, and was called to order by President Green. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved, the society proceeded with the Literary Programme.

A solo by Mrs Cook was well rendered.

A Recitation by Mary Swailes was an article in lighter vein and fully captivated the audience.

Mrs Ludwig responded with an original poem on "The New Woman". It was a subject which has been more or less before the public of late and yet she did not treat it in the usual way. The article treated of the true "New Woman" as of the highest type of womankind, while we are more apt to describe her by that slang phrase - fast.

After a short intermission, Mary Swailes kindly consented to render another recitation, being "A Shipwreck on the Coast of Wales".

The meeting closed with remarks by the President regarding an increase of work such as a "Question Box" and "Debates". Will Cooper suggested "Debates".

As Congress was about to assemble, it was suggested by Geo. Monroe that we organize the society into a congress.

Five new members were received into the society.

Attendance was 22, all but 5 of whom were members.

On motion the society adjourned

An order was drawn on Treas. Geo. T. Pomeroy for 2.00 being janitor services to date

Secretary.

The Literary and Library Society met in the Hall Wednesday Evening Dec 9, with Vice President Miss A. C. Runyan in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The committee on Electric lights reported that the council would allow no rebate on accumulated bill. As to future it deserved on attention to the meter.

President Green then took the chair.

Moved by Dr A. C. Runyan that Editors and Ministers with their wives be admitted as honorary members. Carried.

Programme.

Music & duet by Mrs Elkenburg and Mrs Runyan.

Reading - Mrs Payne. "Protests and Inavers"

Address - Mr Brower. This was one of the most interesting numbers this season. The subject was "The Three Novels of the Year" which is practically the whole of this years literary effort. "Sentimental Tommy" by Barrey; "Dr George Cressidy" by Mrs Humphry Ward, which is one of the best and most successful; and "Kate Carnegie" by John Watson or "Ian Mc Claren" as he is better known. Such articles awaken a deeper interest in the better class of novels.

Miss Florence Ramadell read an article "Higher Education". The following were the principal points. The best educated people enter business. By so doing they elevate the society in which they move. Higher Education develops the finer sensibilities of a man or woman.

Number present was 26. Visitors 4.

Six new members were received.

On motion Society adjourned.

Moved by Dr A. C. Rumsey that because of the holidays, the Society adjourn for three weeks; the next meeting being Jan 6 - 97. Carried.

Programme.

Wednesday evening the Library and Literary association met in Literary hall and enjoyed a very profitable session. After the transaction of business the program was carried out. Mr. Charles Gorman sang some fine selections, and Mrs. McAllister recited in a pleasing manner. Mrs. Lila Anderson presided at the piano. All were present that the hall could accommodate, and were well satisfied with the exercises. Interest in the work of the society is increasing, and with good audiences and earnest workers the association can be made a success.

From Official Village Paper.

The audience numbered over a hundred being more than the hall could hold.

Literary and Library Society.
Dec. 1-1897.

Literary and Library Society assembled in hall, meeting was called to order by Bro Hicksall.

As no program had been arranged, a genral discussion followed, regarding plans for the ensuing year.

It was moved by Mr F. Cooper that a comm. of three be appointed consisting of Mrs A. C. Runyan, Miss Stuart, Miss Mackey, and Mr Dr Brower, to prepare a program for Thursday evening Dec 8-97

Several ideas were expressed regarding the winters work. But nothing definite was agreed upon.

It was finally moved and carried that Mr F. Cooper, Mrs A.C. Runyan and J. Hicksall, act as a comm. to arrange a program for Thursday ev. Dec. 15-1897 and to suggest a plan of work for the remainder of the year.

It was also moved that Mr J. B. Ludwig be employed as janitor for the winter, and to be paid 50¢ a meeting for his services - carried.
