CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE 1. This society shall be known as the South Haven Scott Club.

OBJECT

ART. 2. The object of this Club shall be intellectual, scientific and liberal culture.

MEMBERSHIP

ART. 3. Membership in this Club shall be of three classes: Active, Associate, and Honorary. Any woman may become a member of this Club by signing the constitution and paying the membership fee.

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

ART. 4. The officers of this club shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian, and five Directors, who, with the President, First Vice-President, Financial Secretary and Treasurer shall constitute the Executive Board. Their duties shall be the same as are generally required of such officers in similiar societies.

DUTIES OF MEMBERS

ART. 5. Active members shall perform to the best of their ability all the duties assigned them unless excused by the President. Associate members shall perform all the duties of active members with the exception of literary work. Honorary members may give voluntary assistance in literary and social work.

AMENDMENTS

ART. 6. No addition, alteration or amendment shall be made to this Constitution unless sanctioned by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting, and no motion to amend shall be acted upon at the meeting at which it is proposed.

QUORUM

ART. 7. Ten of the members in good standing shall be necessary to form a quorum for the transaction of business.

ADDITION OF OFFICERS

ART. 8. Officers may be added from time to time if needed.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE 1. This Club shall meet on Tuesday of each week for the promotion of its objects and for the transaction of business.

ART. 2. Special meetings for the transaction of business may be called at the discretion of the President and Recording Secretary.

ART. 3. A mid-summer meeting may be held during the vacation, which will begin the last Tuesday in May, and close the last Tuesday in September; the nature of the meeting to be determined by the officers of the Club.

ART. 4. The annual meeting of the Club shall be held the first Tuesday in May, at which time the officers shall be elected by ballot. They shall be installed at the last regular meeting in May.

ART. 5. No person shall be eligible to office until she has been an active or associate member for two years.

ART. 6. Any officer having served as an officer for two consecutive terms will not be eligible to the same office for the third consecutive term excepting the librarian.

ART. 7. The official term of the officers shall be one year, and of the directors, two years.

ART. 8. The President shall appoint all standing and subordinate committees.

ART. 9. The Financial Secretary and the Treasurer shall make their reports annually—the last Tuesday in May.

ART. 10. The Club, by a two-thirds vote of those present may assess a tax to defray a necessary expense.

ART. 11. Each member, with the exception of honorary members, shall pay an annual due of two dollars. Any member having failed to pay her dues by January 1st., shall be notified by the Financial Secretary, and if they are not paid by March 1st., her name shall be dropped from the list of members.

ART. 12. The Club shall be governed in all proceedings by Fox's Parliamentary Usage of Women's Clubs.

ART. 13. Guests may be admitted to the meetings of the Club by the invitation of a Club member, upon the payment of ten cents.
