Share

« BACK TO ORIGINAL SEARCH RESULTS

Image 2 of The Kansas herald of freedom (Wakarusa, Kan. Territory), May 26, 1855

Image provided by: Kansas State Historical Society; Topeka, KS

Link to the full image: https://www.loc.gov/resource/sn82006863/1855-05-26/ed-1/?dl=page&q=platte+county&sp=2

A Faithful Divine.

Rev. FREDERICK STAR, against whom the Platte County Association directed their fire, and on whose account the resolution denouncing the Methodist Church north was passed by the Parkville mob, has removed from Weston, Mo., to Rochester, N. Y. It is said he was not afraid to "declare the whole counsel of God" while laboring in Platte county, and we presume he will not be silent while sojourning in New York.

Share